

THE CAMBRIA FREEMAN. THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 1867.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

SPILL ANOTHER CHANCE.—Owing to the... more names to the list, we have concluded to defer the publication of the "Roll of Honor" until next week.

EXCUSE.—The late hour at which "Morning" communication was received, as well as the stress upon our columns, preclude the possibility of its publication this week.

TASKY JUSTICE.—The patriotic and heroic career of Adjutant James C. Noos, of this county, as well as his early and tragic death in the field of Fredericksburg, is well known to the readers of the Freeman.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The following cases were disposed of in the Court of Common Pleas last week: Elizabeth Cowan, (widow), and Margaret M. Smith, vs. Barnabas Barto and Harris Heins—Ejectment. Verdict for plaintiff, $16 cents damages and six cents costs.

EXAMINATION.—Through the politeness of E. Bush we had the pleasure of participating in a private examination on Monday last, of the pupils at St. Francis' College, Loretto. We were delighted with the progress and bearing of the young men, and recited in their various classes.

FRONTS.—The past week has been exceedingly prolific of kindly greetings from visitors. Johnstown and Altoona were well and respectfully represented by a pleasant and pleasant as a mournful occurrence. We cannot name the many friends we met, editorial courtesy demands that we acknowledge the visits of our Johnstown correspondent, "Silver Ball" and our Altoona friend, H. G. Derrin, of the Altoona Tribune. They are both "bunky," though neither of them can whistle "Take Doodle" correctly.

SEVERAL.—During the early stage of the game between the Kickapaw Club and the Mountaineer Club, on Thursday a young man noticed another behind the "net" and shot him in the mouth with a pocket pistol. As the load, however, did not strike the victim's throat, and made no hole, he did not seem to suffer from any injury, although he afterwards regretted to say, "I went out" as a "four."

SEVERAL.—Several tragedies of like character enacted under similar circumstances during the progress of the game, but no serious injuries resulted.

WOOD CHOPPER.—A young man named Hughes, employed by his sister, attempted to cross the railroad at this place in a buggy, Saturday last, just as the gravel train was passing out, and the consequence was that he was struck by the locomotive and killed. The buggy escaped by jumping out.

EDITORIALS, LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Fierce—the controversy between the Monitor and Journal in the "ancient Borough."

Forty dollars were stolen from the house of Mr. Edelman, below Hollidaysburg, last week.

The premises of our friend, Ignatius Heilm, in Blairsville, were recently disturbed by burglars.

We regret to learn that Col. H. K. Sloan, of Indiana, was recently thrown from his horse and severely injured.

Key—The Register's notice of Louis W. Ball's nomination by the Blair County "Blockhead" Convention.

The Uniontown "Genius of Liberty" is in mourning for the death of its respected editor, Col. E. G. Bonny.

The organ grinder and his daughter were in town last week. The "damned" was very expert in catching pennies on her tamborine.

The horse thief Stevens has escaped from the Clearfield county jail. The Sheriff has offered a reward of $50 for his apprehension.

A snug birth.—A few days since a female passenger on the Altoona and Easton train gave birth to a child. No extra fare was exacted.

Funny.—The Johnstown Tribune is attacking, and the Johnstown Democrat defending, the radical borough authorities of Johnstown.

In the promising radical county of Armstrong there were only eight indictments for fornication, &c., at the last Quarter Sessions. What "grand moral ideas!"

A man named Smith has been committed to the Indiana jail, charged with attempting to commit a rape on a young lady in Strongstown, some twelve miles from this place.

The dwelling house of Mr. Henry Ow, in White township, Indiana county, with the greater part of its contents, was destroyed by fire on Monday morning of last week.

Gen. Sheridan, like Butler, is producing order out of disorder in New Orleans and Louisiana generally.—Lewistown Gazette.

Wonder if he will produce spoons, too, as Gen. Butler did?

L. W. Hall, Esq., has the inside track for re-nomination as a candidate of the radicals in his district, which extends from the Allegheny Mountain to within a half dozen miles of Harrisburg.

Wrong.—The Johnstown Tribune blames President Johnson for not hanging Jeff. Davis, when its editor knows he had no power to do so. Why don't it blame the radical judge who permitted his escape?

The "Lewistown Gazette" gives a piece of poetry on Jeff. Davis, which ends thus: "We hope when Jeff gets to hell He'll meet with Horace Greeley."

There's a God and morality radical for you!

The most extensive preparations have been made at Altoona for celebrating the 4th of July. The Lancaster Band will be in attendance, and two full batteries of artillery from Philadelphia have been promised for the occasion.

Daniel Kinney, of Tyrone, "a poor man with a large and helpless family, who was twice severely wounded in the service of the Penna. R. Co.," announces himself as a candidate for Sheriff of Blair county, against John M'Keage, the radical nominee.

Parties in quest of a man who had stolen a horse somewhere in Bedford county, were at Summerhill, this county, on Saturday evening last, just twenty-four hours behind the thief, who had passed through that village with his booty the evening previous.

A person wearing the description of the thief is said to have passed through this place on Sunday.

"Lines written at a Mother's Grave," by George D. Prentice, are, at the request of a lady friend, reproduced on the first page of the Freeman this week. They are far, very far, above the productions of the day, and worthy of the greatest poets of the century.

We advise those of our readers who admire and appreciate the beauties of poetry, to read and re-read this short but beautiful effusion.

In the perusal of the other notices given in our columns each week people may have overlooked the fact that H. A. Shoemaker & Co. still keep store in the old stand on High street, and sell goods of every description as cheap, all things considered, as they ever did. In addition to dry goods, hats, caps, boots, shoes, groceries, &c., this firm keeps a complete stock of household furniture, and make the sale of carpets a specialty. Go and see them.

FRANKLIN gives the following sensible advice: "Never buy goods of those who don't advertise. They sell so little that they have to sell dear." The inference to be drawn is that the man who advertises most sells the cheapest, and the fact to be adduced is that V. S. Barker, being one of the most liberal advertisers, is of course the very dealer to patronize. If you have any doubts upon the subject a visit to his establishment will dispel them.

A REVIEW OF THE PAST.—The proprietor of the Philadelphia Ledger designs issuing a fac simile of the first copy ever printed of the Ledger. It will be quite a literary curiosity, although it is not expected that it will say anything about the handsome stock of goods that Mills & Davis are just now selling to all comers at the lowest cash prices. Great fellows for giving bargains, the said M. & D., and everybody should encourage them in well doing.

ONE REASON why the world is not reformed is, because every man is bent on reforming others, while but few think of reforming themselves. We can't see, however, what that has got to do with the fine stock of clocks, watches, jewelry and notions which C. T. Frazer, on High street, has now in store in great profusion, and we are sure it wouldn't make a "dix of bitterness" to any one who has the good sense to buy at this establishment.

THE ONLY EXHIBITION.—Court is over, the show has gone by, the match games of base ball have been played, and the only excitement now in our town is occasioned by the exceedingly low prices at which J. M. Thompson is still selling all kind of dry goods, groceries, &c. We hope this excitement will be kept up, and that all will lead a helping hand by patronizing Jim.

BASE BALL.—The match games of base ball between the Kickapaw Club of Johnstown and the Mountaineer Club of this place, on Thursday, and between the Mountaineer Club of Altoona and the Mountaineer Club, on Saturday, came off here according to programme, and were both well contested and exceedingly pleasant trials of skill. The visiting Clubs both met with kindly consideration and treatment at the hands of the knights of the bat and ball here, and albeit they were both worsted in the friendly encounters on the field of content, we doubt not they were highly pleased with their visits to the mountain village. We append the scores of the two games:

Table with columns for teams (Mountaineer, Kickapaw) and players (Roberts, F. Barker, Jones, etc.) and their scores.

shortly afterwards let down on payment of $11 and costs.

A little girl named Jenkins, who was left in charge of an infant by its mother, Mrs. Davis, during her temporary absence on Friday week, fell with the babe in her arms into a boiler of hot water which had been carelessly left standing on the floor, and both children were severely, but not dangerously, scalded.

A sufficient amount of stock having been subscribed, the Johnstown Water Works will be commenced at an early day. It is the intention to get a supply of pure water from the Stony Creek, several miles up, and bring it by means of aqueducts to that portion of the 4th ward known as Sharpburg, and from thence force it, by the aid of a turbine wheel, into a reservoir between the hills.

Mr. W. A. Murray has returned to our town after a protracted absence in Missouri and Tennessee. His appearance indicates that the climate of the south agreed with him.

Mr. Wm. G. Trice, of Blairsville, has purchased the photographic material of W. Green, and has commenced the business of photographing in all its details. Mr. T. has devoted much time and money to the acquiring of a perfect knowledge of his art, and having examined several specimens of a new style of picture, known as the Cabinet card picture, executed by him, I can truly say I never saw anything to excel them. In this mundane sphere of ours it is uncertain when the final farewell may be taken of those near and dear to us, and it is a source of great consolation to bereaved ones to have the life-like shadow after the substance has gone from mortal vision forever. I advise all your readers to visit Mr. Trice's gallery, third floor, corner of Main and Franklin streets, yours, &c., SKU BAL.

MARRIED.—May 28th, 1867, by Rev. J. S. McFarley, G. W. MITCHELL, of Lewistown, Mifflin county, to Miss LOUISA RANDOLPH, of Altoona.

DIED.—Near Summerhill, this county, on Friday last, Mrs. BARBARA SHARP, in the 77th year of her age. The deceased was for full forty years a resident of Cambria county, and was a most exemplary woman—esteemed by all who knew her for her kindness of heart and amiability of disposition. She was the mother of Mr. Powell Sharp, of Altoona, who is now, we believe, the only surviving member of the family. Her remains were brought to this place on Sunday last by special train, attended by a large concourse of mourning relatives and sympathizing friends, and interred in the Union graveyard.

In Williamsburg, Blair county, June 3d, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Eliza M. Stevens, Mrs. JULIA PINNELL, widow of the Rev. Jesse Pinnell, late of the Baltimore Conference, in the 82d year of her age. She was a worthy member of the M. E. Church for 47 years.

A strict compliance with this notice will save costs. GEO. HUNTLEY, Ebensburg, June 12, 1867.

DISSOLUTION.—The partnership heretofore existing between S. A. Crist and Dr. H. C. Christy, in the hotel business, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent—S. A. Crist retiring from the firm. The business will be continued by Dr. H. C. Christy, who will pay all debts that are now or may become due. CHAMBERS, June 12, 1867.
