

THE CAMBRIA FREEMAN.

EBENSBURG, PA. THURSDAY, JULY 18, 1867.

R. L. JOHNSTON, Editor. H. A. McPIKE, Publisher.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT: HON. GEORGE SHARSWOOD, Of Philadelphia.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

FOR ASSEMBLY: HON. JOHN P. LINTON, Johnstown. FOR SHERIFF: JOHN A. BLAIR, Ebensburg. FOR TREASURER: JOHN COX, Conemaugh. FOR COMMISSIONER: JOHN A. KENNEDY, Carrolltown. FOR JURY COMMISSIONER: JOHN BUCK, Carrolltown. FOR POOR HOUSE DIRECTOR: JOHN D. THOMAS, Ebensburg. FOR AUDITORS: EDW. D. EVANS, Croyle, 3 years. JOHN F. ALLEN, Yoder, 1 year. FOR CORONER: J. A. HARROLD, Johnstown.

The Freeman for the Campaign ONLY FIFTY CENTS.

In hopes to induce every Democrat in the county, not already a subscriber, to take our paper, at least during the campaign, we propose to send the enlarged Freeman for twelve weeks, commencing with the next or following issue, to any address on the receipt of fifty cents. Who will be the first among our friends to get us up a list of campaign subscribers?

A VOLUNTEER TICKET.

The Radicals of Cambria county, tired of a square fight against the Democrats, are endeavoring to reach the county offices by a flank movement—that is, neither more nor less, than by getting a volunteer ticket of Democrats into the field, and dividing the Democratic vote, and thus, between the opposing factions, elect a Radical ticket. A pretended Wilmore Democrat, who styles himself "Anthropon," harps on this string in the Johnstown Tribune; and he must excuse us for believing that he is neither a Wilmorean nor a Democrat, but a Johnstown radical.

Four years ago the little borough of Wilmore presented a candidate for Treasurer, and he was nominated—the Ebensburg delegates voting for him, against an excellent man of their own. Hence Wilmore has no claims now, and should feel grateful to Ebensburg; therefore, "Anthropon," we think, is not a Wilmorean. He publishes his communication in the Tribune, a radical paper—a paper which calls Democrats "copperheads," "rebel sympathizers," and the like—whereas, if he had been a Democrat, he would have sent it to the Democrat or Freeman, either of which Democratic organs would have published it. Therefore "Anthropon" is not a Democrat.

The Democratic Convention met on the fullest notice. Every district in the county was represented by true Democrats of their own choosing. The Convention was harmonious—no charge of fraud or corruption. Every candidate was fairly nominated. It is not pretended to be denied that the candidates all come up to the Jeffersonian test—all "honest and capable." But "Anthropon" sympathizes with the large Townships—Carroll, Clearfield, Allegheny and Washington. They have more Democratic votes than Johnstown and Ebensburg, even with Wilmore added. But these large Democratic districts got what they wanted. It is true, one of these townships—Washington—presented a most excellent man for Sheriff. But Allegheny, Clearfield and Carroll preferred another, as they had a right to do. None of the large districts had a candidate for Treasurer, and their delegates were divided. So were the Ebensburg delegates, one voting for Cox, one for Kinkead, and two for McColgan.

More than this, the candidates were all nominated by the country districts, and if they are satisfied, radicals in Johnstown or Wilmore need not complain. Our tickets are never nominated with a view to the wishes of the radicals. A Democrat who would have objected to Mr. McCreight, as a nominee, that he lived in Johnstown, or to Mr. McColgan that he lived in Wilmore, or to Judge Kinkead that he lived in Ebensburg, might think himself a good Democrat, but we fail "to see it."

O, no, Mr. "Anthropon," you are only damaging Michael McColgan, Esq., and other Democrats, by dating your radical document at Wilmore. He and his friends do not sympathize with you, and can only see in this an opening to let the radicals into power.

Already they are striving to amalgamate a ticket at Johnstown, to be called a "New County Ticket," or any other name that will damage the Democracy.

No objection is made to any of the candidates, as to qualifications. They have all been nominated precisely in accordance with the usages of the Democratic party, as pursued for the last thirty years in Cambria county. Whenever the Democratic masses desire it this system will be changed—until then Democratic nominations, when fairly made, will be successful, as they always have been in the past; and woe to the Democrat who seeks, by dividing the serried columns of his party, to place radicalism in power in Cambria county.

BROTHERLINE AND JURIES.

The editor of the "Radical and Whig" is a funny old cuss. He wants to know if it requires more than twelve to constitute a jury in Cambria county? Certainly, the kind of juries that he has had most business before—the Grand Jury—consists of twice that number. It didn't require any traverse jury during the war, as Military Commissions did the business, but in Cambria county a traverse jury has always consisted of twelve. Mr. B. "asks for information"—a thing he very much needs—and we have given it to him.

By the way, since our friend has, in addition to the B. B., been dubbed R. B., or Register in Bankruptcy, he has taken a new name, to please the appointing power, and put "Radical" as the first name to his paper.

Now the old name of Whig, which at one time we sported in common with John, represented a conservative organization, and John finds this will no longer do; and as fond as he is of riding two horses at the same time, even when they travel in opposite directions, he ought, for shame, to drop the "Whig" when he assumes the "Radical," as the one is precisely a contradiction of the other. A white blackbird would be just as appropriate as a Radical Whig.

Indeed, in his local column John drops the Whig and goes the Radical clean—or rather dirty—and promises "several supplementary Whigs during the campaign." But it's no use reasoning with the Register in Bankruptcy. We can't convince him, and he can't be got under conviction, unless "by twelve."

Mrs. Surratt.—Even the Evening Bulletin admits there is great doubt as to the guilt of the unfortunate woman who was murdered at Washington two years ago, and whose doom was then by loyal folks thought a just one. Even the Bulletin is shocked at the story which is just now put in circulation that David Hunter's bloody tribunal formally recommended to the President to commute Mrs. Surratt's punishment, and that their recommendation was suppressed and withheld from Mr. Johnson. He never saw it or heard of it. Who suppressed it? Who withheld it? These questions must be answered. The Military Commission was a device of the War Department. Stanton and Holt contrived it. Their judgment and, of course, their recommendation went to the War Department. The War Department must know all about it. Let it speak. One other witness there was, but his lips are sealed. The ooze of the bottom of the Hudson covers him. This was Seward's friend Preston King. He it was, who, in the dark interval between Mrs. Surratt's sentence and execution, kept guard at the White House. He repelled the weeping daughter. He denied all access to the Executive. And the day of doom came, and the bolt was drawn and the mangled woman fell "six feet," and died with a broken neck or congested brain; and a few weeks later, the man who barred the gates of mercy, throw himself off a Jersey City ferry boat, and, with loaded pockets and a conscience burdened, sank to the bottom of the river. But Holt and Stanton still live to tell what became of the recommendation to mercy!—Phil. Age.

John Albert, Esq., of Greenville, Lebanon county, has in possession a chicken, which was hatched on his premises, having four fully developed legs and feet. Those supernumerary members, which proceed from the body, independently from the other legs and posterior to them, manifest a slight motion when the chicken moves, but do not assist in walking; they do not touch the ground, but stand horizontally in direction to the length of the body. This monstrosity in the feathered race is thought to be a singular curiosity not often met with.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

The Democrats of the Jefferson district have renominated Hon. W. P. Jenks for member of the Legislature. Mr. Jenks is one of the best lawyers and purest men in the State.

A Montgomery negro, confined for vagrancy, tried to hang himself, on Monday week. The door of the cell being opened to prevent his purpose, he rushed out, ran to the river and drowned himself.

Farm hands are wanted in the West, and the demand for them comes from all quarters. The enormous crop now almost ready for harvest will require, to properly secure it, more hands than can be procured in the West.

A murderer in Chicago who shot his wife, mother, child and others of his family, wept like a child at his conviction. He should be tenderly sympathized with, poor soul, and made as comfortable as possible.

In New Hampshire, the dominating Radicals debar all Catholics from holding office. And yet they boast of their intelligence, toleration, regard for freedom, and the "rights of man." What hypocrites and fanatics!

At Fredsburg, eighteen miles from New Albany, Indiana, last Wednesday, Mr. Rice was stung on the lip by a bee, and the poison spread through his system so rapidly that he was speechless in thirty minutes, and died in about three hours.

A stepmother whipped a five year old child at Sterling, Ill., nearly to death, recently. She beat it and smothered it with a pillow till life was nearly extinct, when the neighbors took the child away from her and found its back literally cut to pieces.

Old Matthias Oberfeld, of Akron, Ohio, wanted his wife to buy him a glass of cider, the other day, and upon her refusal to do so, he put a pistol to his mouth and blew his breath away forever. He was determined to get a draught of something, and he got it.

A letter from Rome says that among the notabilities now in that city is a ritualist clergyman of the Anglican Church who appeared at all the Catholic ceremonies attired in full dress of a pilgrim or hermit, and assists most devoutly at all the religious functions of the season.

The boilers in the Fulton cotton mill, at Lancaster, Pa., exploded on the morning of the 13th inst., demolishing a great part of the building and killing some nine of the operatives and injuring several others. One of the boilers was carried a full square, rebounding twice from the earth in its passage.

The Lancaster Express, a Radical sheet, says that Thad Stevens had bought lots in several cemeteries, but finding that there were not "any of God's children" buried in them, he cancelled his purchases. A "copperhead" organ remarks that—"He seems to think as little of his grave as he does of his bed."

In Mexico negroes vote and possess equality, and what is the state of affairs?—Continual revolutions, conspiracies and wars. Neither property nor life has been at any time secure in that country since the enfranchisement of the blacks. Monogrelism has cursed Mexico as it will curse the United States unless the Radical party schemes shall be controverted.

A man named O'Neill, says the Venango Spectator of the 12th, employed on the Allegheny Valley R. R., was drowned near the mouth of Big Scrubgrass, on Saturday last, whilst attempting to ford the river on horseback. His body was recovered the same day. Another man, name unknown, was drowned whilst bathing near the same place, half an hour afterward.

Immediately succeeding the surrender of the city of Mexico, Gen. Baez, the Jesuit commander, ordered the nuns to vacate the convents within forty-eight hours, and, in accordance with the order, on the 23d of June the eight hundred and sixty nuns were driven out. Henceforth, it is said, there are to be no more convents in Mexico. This is the "liberal" course pursued by the self-styled "Liberal party" of Mexico.

A terrible murder was perpetrated about midnight on Friday last, in Springfield, Ill. An industrious and sober laborer, by the name of John Graham, beat out the brains of his wife while she was asleep. When arrested, he confessed the murder, said he was drunk when he committed the deed, but was jealous of his wife and wanted to get rid of her. They have been married about ten years, and have four young children. Graham heretofore bore a good character.

Water is purified by a French chemist by using alum. He states that two grains of alum to a pint of water will clarify water which is unfit to drink, and the taste of the alum will not be perceived. Another French chemist, in Algiers, shows that muddy water will become drinkable in the course of from seven to seventeen minutes by adding half a grain of potass alum to every quart of water.

Ten years ago a citizen of St. Louis county, Missouri, made a will, in which he provided that certain of his slaves, ten in number, should each receive five hundred dollars on condition of their emigrating to Liberia, or "such other country as might be set apart for free persons of color." The legatees have never gone to Liberia, but they have sued for their money, and got it, on the ground that Missouri was "such other country," &c.

Small, but Characteristic.

We think it is justifiable, says the Pittsburgh Post, to charge that the attempt of some Radical editors to traduce the character of Judge Sharswood, and to raise up a personal prejudice among the people is unworthy of honorable men. We have no right to expect anything else, for the game has been invariably pursued against every democratic candidate, no matter how virtuous or upright. But we have a right to protest against it, and to give it its right name.

We are aware that it is unreasonable to look for a twenty-inch shell to proceed out of the mouth of a four-inch piece.

Things must work, of course, according to their calibre. The idea designed to be conveyed by these editors, to the popular mind, is something deemed by them very prejudicial to the character of Judge Sharswood. They would teach that Judge Sharswood is in favor of something that will injure the people; whereas it is impossible for a fair man, like him, to entertain or sanction any such thing. These editors know better. They know that he is not the sort of man they are endeavoring to make him appear. They cite a legal opinion given by him several years ago in the performance of his professional duties as proof that he would do something that would injure his fellow citizens. This is not only unjust, but it is false.

The sum and substance of Judge Sharswood's opinion referred to, in common sense language is, that men should fairly abide by fair contracts; and that if a man makes a bargain to pay for a horse or a horse in gold, he ought to pay it in gold, or its equivalent. And this is precisely the sort of justice that ought to prevail between man and man. We would be loath to believe that the Republican candidate, Judge Williams, would advocate or sustain a contrary doctrine.

Go on Radicals; you think the people are so easily gulled. We think you will find out pretty soon that you have made a slight mistake. Being small, it is, of course, of no great consequence. You can take your time to correct it.

THE LATEST AND BEST NEWS is that R. H. Singer, who, upon his entrance into our town, reduced the price of horse shoeing one-third, has determined still to lead the van, and offers to work 10 per cent. lower than the lowest for cash, and insures satisfaction. Persons needing tire on their wagons or carriages, can save dollars by giving him their work. "A dollar saved is a dollar gained," and the way to save many of them is to get your blacksmithing done with Mr. Singer, at the west end of town. Mr. S. is also selling I. C. Singer's unequalled Tire and Band Bender—a machine which saves a great amount of time and labor and bends the Tire round and true—of which Wm. Myers, of Altoona, says he would not take $100 and do without. Any amount of testimony just like that can be shown, but the machine is its own best recommendation to a mechanic. Persons wishing to purchase should call on or address R. H. SINGER, Ebensburg, Territory for sale. For terms address I. C. SINGER, Box 25, Altoona, Pa.
