EDITORIALS, LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Ellen Williams, colored, John Cline and Charles Poble were sent to the Penitentiary from Westmoreland county, week before last, for one, five and six years, respectively, for larceny and burglary.

A land turtle was recently found "alive and kicking" by Mr. Jacob Burley, near Tyrone, which bore upon its shell the initials of Elisha Davis, 1811, J. Burley, 1840, and J. H. Burley, 1812. He seemed to be a burly chap.

S. T. Shugert, of Centre county, and C. J. T. McIntyre, of Perry county, have been nominated as the Democratic candidates for the State Senate in the district composed of Blair, Huntingdon, Centre, Mifflin, Juniata and Perry counties.

Adam Beach, a tenant of one of the Springfield Farms, was kicked in the stomach by a vicious horse, on Saturday morning, from the effects of which he died in a few hours. He leaves a wife and ten children.

An old colored man named Gates fell dead on the street in Hollidaysburg, on Thursday last. He resided on Brush mountain, near the town, and had brought in a load of chips and was about entering the residence of the purchaser to inquire where he should unload them, when he fell dead. Heart disease was the cause.

Michael Gilman, a most worthy and respectable citizen, was instantly killed in the P. B. R. foundry at Altoona, on Wednesday morning last, by consequence of a crane on which a heavy casting was being raised, giving way and falling upon him. We will insert resolutions of condolence sent us next week.

A disgraceful affray occurred in our town on Monday night last, and resulted in the brutal beating of a citizen from the northern part of the county. It is said that the unfortunate man was set upon by quite a number of the belligerents, and when he finally escaped their clutches he was scarcely recognizable as a human being. The affray was not in the interests of the temperance cause.

On Thursday afternoon last the "Muffins" and "Knockemstiffs" had a return match game of base ball, in which the "Muffins" were the victors in the first game, and the "Knockemstiffs" in the second. On Friday night the M. M. M. club from the West Ward played one of the same club from the East Ward, defeating them by the following score: W. W., 54; E. W., 22. On Tuesday afternoon of this week the second nine of the Mountaineer played the first nine of the Star, with the result given below: Mountaineer, 20; Star, 32.

Considerable excitement was occasioned in Hollidaysburg, a few days ago, by the finding of what seemed to be the bones of a human hand, which were fished out of the town by a man who was endeavoring to lure some of the finny tribe from their native element. The bones were exhibited to an M. D., who pronounced them those of a child's hand, whereupon a Coroner's jury was summoned, and accompanied by the aforesaid medical gentleman and a large concourse of excited citizens, they proceeded to the scene of the supposed tragedy, and after considerable time spent in dragging the pond the rake caught on a large stone, which was soon overturned, and slowly and steadily there arose to the surface of the still placid waters the remains of a man who had been drowned. The fishes had stripped the flesh from the face, and the bones of one of them became detached when caught by the hook.

SUICIDE OF A CAMBRIAN.—J. S. Kirby, at one time telegraph operator at Conemaugh station, this county, but more recently employed as agent of the Union Pacific Railway at Topeka, Kansas, committed suicide at Altoona, in this State, on Thursday last. He is said to have been a defaulter to the company that employ him in the sum of about $5,000, and as arrangements had been made to have him apprehended, he committed suicide in order to avoid being arrested. Mr. Kirby was a young man of good address and fine talents, and the son of respectable parents who reside in this county. His brief but unfortunate career and his tragic death should deter others from treading the fatal path that leads to a dishonored life or a shameful death. His stricken parents should have the sympathy of every feeling heart.

ACCIDENT.—Little Jimmy M'Green, son of our townsman, M. Thomas M'Green, had one of his legs severely sprained, and the flesh on the other one considerably lacerated, on Monday evening last, while attempting to get off a wagon in motion by crawling down over one of the wheels. So completely entwined about the spokes of the wheel were his legs that it was found necessary to remove the wheel from the hub in order to extricate him. How he escaped without a fractured limb or two is certainly a miracle. This is the second accident that has occurred in Mr. M'Green's family within a few weeks—another little son having fallen from a fence and broken one of his legs.

HOMR AGAIN.—Harry Shoemaker, the invincible, has found his way back from the Eastern cities to his store-room on Main st., and he got home just in time to welcome "slathers and gobs" of new goods which were following closely in his wake. Boxes and barrels, bales and budgets, have been the order of the day about his establishment in the present week, and it took a week in his store you will find that he has everything to supply the wants of his customers. Harry's motto is "cheaper than ever," and his prices are in keeping with his motto.

TINWARE, &c.—Mr. Thos. W. Williams has taken possession of the store room on Main street recently vacated by Messrs. Mills & Davis, upon the shelves of which are now displayed a brilliant array of different utensils of his own manufacture. Mr. W. is also receiving a full line of cooking and heating stoves, as well as a complete stock of other articles pertaining to his branch of business. He is a competent workman, an honest and liberal dealer, and we bespeak for his enterprise an encouraging approval from each and all our friends.

WELL FIXED.—Messrs. Mills & Davis have removed to their new store room on Main street, adjoining the Post Office building, and the long array of well filled shelves proclaim their intention to make things "get up and get." Messrs. M. & D. have now one of the finest store-rooms in this part of the State, and as their stock is fully in keeping with their store, and their prices down to the lowest notch, we predict for them a larger share of patronage than ever.

THE PLACE.—On High street, almost opposite the Mountain House, we beg leave to inform bargain seekers, it situated the store of J. M. Thompson, who will be found one of our clearest dealers and the proprietor of as well stocked a store as Northern Cambria can boast. Attendants at Court should make a note of this, and not return home without carrying with them a package of goods from this cheap and extensive mercantile emporium.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

JOHNSTOWN, SEPT. 2, 1867. Dear Freeman—Another foot race came off here on Saturday last for a stake of $100 a side, between the champion, David C. Davis, and a man named Robert B. Way, whose native locality has so far been kept a profound secret. The race took place in Woodvale, and the distance was one hundred yards. Way won an easy victory over his opponent, coming in about four yards in advance. The sporting gentry of our town indulged in a considerable amount of betting on the result of the race, and quite a large sum of money changed hands. From what I can understand Way has been about Pittsburgh for the past seven or eight years, and is a professional runner and jumper. The game played by his backers was a deep one, they representing that he was an innocent country youth who didn't know much about running.

The great importance of Live Stock Insurance is well exemplified by the following letter: HARTFORD, CONN., Feb. 1, 1867. On the 22d day of January I insured my entire stock of horses twenty-five in number, in the Hartford Live Stock Insurance Company. Yesterday, one of my most valuable horses was kicked by his mate, and a leg broken, and as an act of humanity, was killed last evening. Today I received a check from said Company in full payment of said horse. I have fully realized the importance of Live Stock Insurance, and recommend all stock owners to insure in the Hartford Live Stock Insurance Company. C. T. BOARDMAN.

GOING VERY FAST.

This is an age of wonderful inventions. The minds of ingenious men have brought forth machinery facilitating and making labor easy. And among the rest the Blacksmith has not been forgotten, for I. C. Singer has invented a machine which makes the process of bending light or heavy tires, bands, &c., an easy and very pleasant task. This machine is gauged and numbered so as to tell exactly where to place the rollers in order to bend any desired diameter. Hundreds of references can be given. To get the machine, address R. H. Singer, Ebensburg, Pa.

N. B.—A few State rights remain to be disposed of. None need apply for Pennsylvania, as the inventor intends holding it for the purpose of selling machines. P. S.—The place to get your horse well shod, your wagon tire made and general blacksmithing done, is at R. H. Singer's shop, near Isaac Evans' tannery.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

SIGNIFICANT. The new system of Advertising adopted by Geo. P. Rowell & Co., Advertising Agents, No. 40 Park Row, New York, is attracting a good deal of attention. The following extract from a speech delivered before the N. Y. State Editorial Convention, (lately held at Penn Yan.) by a prominent Advertising Agent of N. Y. city, goes to show that he at least acknowledges its advantages. From Jamestown, N. Y., Journal of Aug. 22, Edited by C. E. BISHOP, Chairman of Committee on ADVERTISING AGENCIES.

Mr. Pettengill spoke in opposition to that plan from the publisher's stand point alone. He showed the publishers that by this system of contracting they were giving lower rates than they gave their own home customers or others equally as prompt and good customers; that they were selling one portion of their paper to be used to compete with and underbid the other columns; that the owner of the space thus sold could come right in and beat the publisher's prices and take his business away from him; that if the publishers, fully understanding this, still went to continue so irregular and unbusiness-like a system, he (Pettengill & Co.) should of course cease trying to get advertising for the papers at their regular rates, and go into the other system of contracting, which he could stand if the printers could."

The anxiety on account of the newspapers is uncalculated. There is not one in twenty which would not prefer to receive all their foreign patronage on this plan, when it is fully understood. It is too generally recognized as thoroughly beneficial to all parties concerned to be injured in the least by anything which may be said against it by interested parties. Advertisers should send for a circular giving full explanations.
