

CAMBRIA FREEMAN.

EBENSBURG, PA., THURSDAY, OCT. 3, 1867.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT: HON. GEORGE SHARSWOOD, Of Philadelphia.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

FOR ASSEMBLY: HON. JOHN P. LINTON, Johnstown. FOR SHERIFF: JOHN A. BLAIR, Ebensburg. FOR TREASURER: JOHN COX, Conemaugh. FOR COMMISSIONER: JOHN A. KENNEDY, Carrolltown. FOR JURY COMMISSIONER: JOHN BUCK, Carrolltown. FOR POOR HOUSE DIRECTOR: JOHN D. THOMAS, Ebensburg. FOR AUDITORS: EDW. D. EVANS, Croyle, 3 years. H. R. SHAFER, Conemaugh, 1 year. FOR CORONER: J. A. HARROLD, Johnstown.

AUDITOR.—Henry R. Shaffer, of Conemaugh township, has been placed upon the Democratic ticket for Auditor for one year, in lieu of John F. Allen, Esq., declined. Mr. Shaffer is an excellent citizen, a competent man, and a sound democrat.

SUPREME JUDGE.

If you are in favor of compelling a man who makes a bargain to pay in gold or silver to live up to his contract, vote for George Sharswood.

If you are in favor of a Judge deciding according to popular opinion, and disregarding the law, vote for Henry W. Williams!

LIKE THEM.

The Radicals in Philadelphia refused to nominate a single soldier upon their ticket, after all their professions of love for the soldier.

In Cambria county the Rad. can only elect a single candidate—the Jury Commissioner. For this office they nominated a civilian, while for those offices which there is no prospect of carrying, they nominated soldiers.

FUNNY.

Last fall the Alleghenian asserted that no man can be deprived of a vote because he is what is called a deserter. This year it blames the Sheriff for not publishing what the Supreme Court has decided to be an unconstitutional law disfranchising deserters.

It is enough to say to election boards that the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has decided Judge Strong, a Republican, delivering the opinion that no white man who has not been tried and found guilty of desertion, by a legal Court, can be prevented from voting.

ELECTION DAY.

Before another number of the Freeman reaches its readers the great battle will be fought, and, if Democrats do their whole duty, a victory won. We hope our friends will bear with us in a few words of earnest entreaty.

Cambria county has always been as true to her principle, as her own everlasting hills to the bases of which they rest. In all the fires of adversity by which her gallant sons have been tried, they have never faltered. While others have been recreant they have been true, and whatever tale the ballot-box of other counties has told, the morning after the election has always given us figures of which we never had cause to be ashamed.

And now, with triumph within our reach—with victory ready to perch upon our banner—will any Democrat falter in the performance of his whole duty? Will any true Democrat think of any other object than the triumphant election of the whole ticket? Will any one deface the ticket by erasing a single name from his ballot?

Let every Democrat remember that we all, as Democrats, have been common sufferers from the tyranny of Radicalism, and that now, when a brighter day is dawning upon us, is the last time we should think of giving "aid and comfort" to the enemy.

Let us, then, make a manly struggle, worthy of ourselves, for the whole Democratic ticket. We require no words of abuse for our dissenting friends. They have a right to their opinions, and many of them entertain them honestly. Many others of them, however, are willing to join our ranks, and swell the tide of triumph which is to cover our victorious arms on Tuesday next.

Let us, then, while we press on for the success of the State ticket, not forget our duty to the county ticket. Let us not, while we toast Judge Sharswood elected, have our joy dampened by a single defeat on our county ticket; but let our joyous exultations be for an increased majority for the county ticket, while at the same time the gallant old Commonwealth is redeemed.

Know-Nothings in the Field.

A few years ago the Know-Nothings organized themselves into a band, sustained by impious oaths, for the purpose of excluding citizens of foreign birth or of a particular religious belief, from the rights of citizenship under the Constitution and laws of the country. This party, though successful for a while, soon sank into merited oblivion, and you can find no man now willing to acknowledge he ever was a member of it.

A new secret order has sprung up among us, and seeks to control the ballot-box as the Know-Nothings did. It has assumed the name of the "Grand Army of the Republic," and has sworn in a large number of members, especially in the Southern portion of Cambria county. It has already had sufficient strength to dictate the radical nominations and control the destinies of that party in Cambria county.

It is of course secret, and we can't tell whether it is organized precisely upon the same principles as the Know-Nothings. Its avowed object, we are informed, is to confine all political nominations to those who have been officers during the late rebellion. We presume this is correct, for they have placed in nomination a number of officers, from Colonel down to Sergeant, but not a single private, though many of these have qualifications superior to those who, by accident, became officers.

But we are opposed to this secret society upon other grounds. The war is over, and we all rejoice that it is ended. The gallant soldier who served his country on the field of battle, having performed his whole duty, returns to his home and sinks the soldier in the citizen. He knows full well that the people, who are the best judges, will appreciate his services at the proper time. The Democrats, for instance, have at the head of their ticket, for the two best offices in their gift, a gallant soldier of the recent war in the person of Col. Linton, and a brave soldier of the Mexican war in the person of John A. Blair. All distinction between the soldier and the citizen should be lost.

But, further, the people are not willing that their fellow citizens, too old for war, shall be deprived of the right of holding office when they are otherwise qualified, nor are they willing that those whose misfortunes have rendered them incapable of taking the field shall be excluded from the offices of the people. "Fair play is a jewel," and no brave soldier nor good citizen will ask to appropriate all the offices of honor and profit to a particular class. The Democrats have been just to the soldiers, and at the same time recognized the most deserving citizens, by placing those on their ticket who are not only incapacitated for service in the field, but unable to labor by reason of their infirmities.

Major Ryckman, the Radical candidate for Sheriff, Sergeant Ogden, the Poor House candidate, and perhaps others on the Radical ticket, are members of this secret political organization. If we misrepresent this society, or its members, our columns are open to correction. But we do trust the people of Cambria county will give a wide berth to this oath-bound society, boasting the lofty name of the "Grand Army of the Republic." The Republic, thank God, has no need of a "Grand Army," now, and least of all a "Grand Army" of Office Holders.

REMEMBER!

Remember, Democrats, that a full turn out in Pennsylvania will elect Judge Sharswood to the Supreme Bench, and give us a Judge that will decide according to the Constitution and the laws, and not seek for the opinion of the politicians before he decides.

Remember that the success of the Democratic ticket secures a restoration of the Union to its original integrity, when every department of government will move on in its appropriate sphere, as was the case before radicalism unsettled the country.

Remember that with the success of the Democratic party, we shall have a reduction of the National and State debt, a decrease of taxation, and a return to the good old times of honesty and economy.

Remember that the Alleghenian and the Tribune, and other Radical organs, have admitted the last Radical Legislature was the most corrupt body of men that ever assembled in Pennsylvania.

Remember that Thaddeus Stevens leads the radical party, and that he admits that they have been acting, for several years, entirely "outside of the Constitution."

Remember that if the radicals are successful in the coming elections, Pennsylvania will be deprived of the right of making her own election laws, and the Ramp Congress will impose Negro Suffrage upon Pennsylvania.

Remember that a full turn out in Cambria county elects the whole Democratic ticket by a large majority.

Remember that the election of a single radical will weaken the future career of the Democratic party, and will be used as an argument in favor of Negro Suffrage.

Remember that no Democrat ever scratches a name on the Democratic ticket without feeling regret and sorrow for it when it is too late to remedy it. Think of all this, fellow Democrats. Go to the polls with a will—take your neighbor with you—vote the ticket, the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket, and all will be well.

JUDGE SHARSWOOD.

The fight for Sharswood goes on bravely. New friends are every day coming forward in his support. His learning, capacity and fitness for the office are constantly increasing the number of those who will cast their votes for him on the day of the election. His defeat is impossible, and intelligent Republicans have secretly given up the contest as hopeless.

Among the signs of the times may be mentioned the fact that the celebrated orator and lawyer, David Paul Brown, has written a most able pamphlet, addressed to all parties in Pennsylvania, advocating the election of Judge Sharswood. Mr. Brown says he is a Republican, and always has been one. He admits that Hon. Henry W. Williams is a graduate of Yale College, and a native of Connecticut; but adds, it is a sufficient answer on that score, that Judge Sharswood is a native of Philadelphia, and graduated with high honor at the University of Pennsylvania. Of Judge Williams he says:

"We do not deny that he was elected Judge of Allegheny county, in the year 1861, without organized opposition. But what does all this amount to? To no more than can be said of a dozen Judges of the various Courts of the State of Pennsylvania. How little is all this to the practical proof of the unquestioned and undoubted competency of Judge Sharswood? No man, I suppose, will for a moment pretend that there could be any comparison between the rival candidates; not that we disparage Mr. Williams, but no man, with all his opportunities and qualifications, could reasonably be expected to possess those claims to the office which are fully accorded to the accumulated learning and approval of more than twenty years.

"The first question then should be, who is the most competent man? Now, is there a person in this community, if left to his unbiased reason, who could hesitate in deciding that question? He has all the facts and the daily proofs before him. In every essential of a Judge, the President of the District Court of Philadelphia has no superior; in calmness, mildness, affability, moderation, inflexibility, and in undoubted learning, he stands pre-eminent in this political controversy."

This is from a Radical Republican, and a veteran lawyer, who has practiced at the Bar for above fifty-one years. This pamphlet is now being distributed through the State, and will unquestionably add many thousands to Judge Sharswood's majority.—Sunday Mercury.

The Bedford Gazette thus illustrates the working of the Radical law forcing negroes into the cars with white men:

A friend of ours relates that as he was traveling from Philadelphia to Huntingdon, a few nights ago, he took a berth in a sleeping car, and when about retiring, his attention was attracted by loud talking and scuffling on the platform of the car. Proceeding to the scene of the disturbance, he discovered a large male negro in controversy with one of the railroad officials about obtaining a berth in the sleeping car. The ticket agent had refused to sell the darkey a ticket, and the colored gentleman was trying to force his way into the car without the requisite piece of stamped pasteboard. A policeman came up, however, and settled the business, by telling the ticket agent under the law, if he refused to sell the negro a berth ticket, on account of color, he would be amenable to a fine of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS, and subject to pay the like sum to the negro upon an action for debt. This had the desired effect, and the African was handed the coveted ticket. It so happened, however, that but one berth was vacant, and that was half of a double berth partly occupied by a white man. The negro divested himself of hat, boots, coat and vest, and proceeded to appropriate his half of the double berth. The white man, who had been dozing, turned around, looked at the new-comer, rubbed his eyes, looked again, and then came such a kicking, tumbling, sprawling, and mixture of white and black generally, as would have done any amalgamationist's heart good. About this time the conductor appeared upon the scene, and the result was that the negro, with ticket in hand, tumbled into bed, whilst the white man, growling anathemas at the party he himself had helped to place in power, duggily put on his clothes and went forward to sit with wrenched back and cramped legs, in the passenger car, ruminating over the beauties of Radical legislation.

When this negro bill was under consideration, Mr. Boyle, Democrat, of Fayette county, offered the following amendment as a new section:

SECTION 3. Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be held to compel the admission of negroes into cars set apart for ladies, or into berths for sleeping cars.

Thirty-six Democrats voted for this section, and fifty-one Radicals against it. Thus the section was defeated, and negroes can now force themselves into cars set apart for ladies, or into sleeping cars. Will white men support a party which thus insults their wives and children?—Age.

THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY.—The Radical Republicans claim to be the party of progress. The party certainly merits the title. It began by insisting that slavery should not be admitted into the unorganized territories of the United States. Having forced a civil war on that issue, it then abolished slavery in the Southern States. Its next step was to create a Freedman's Bureau, by means of which, at an expense of sixty odd millions of dollars a year, negroes are supported and educated at the expense of white men, who are obliged to take care of themselves and their children without any such aid of National Government. And now, the same Republican party, which is ruining the prosperity of thirty odd millions of white people for the benefit of four millions of blacks, cries aloud for negro suffrage in all the States of the Union and the equality of negroes in the public schools, the jury box, the State Legislature and Congress. This is progress with a vengeance. But is it progress in the right direction?—[Sunday Mercury.

POLITICAL AND NEWS ITEMS.

—A man by the name of Merritt T. Money killed forty-one rattlesnakes in one day last week, near Keosauqua, Iowa. —Forney's stationery bill shows that the increase of salary necessitated the providing of each Senator with eight pocket-books.

—A number of fossil sponges have been discovered near Frankfort, Ky. A number more might be found in the departments at Washington. —The largest bit of timber ever taken out of the Canadian forests came down the other day. It measures 55 feet in length, and is 29 by 36 inches square.

—A Norfolk paper does not see why so much applause should be bestowed on Sheridan, the hero of only Five Forks, whereas Butler is notoriously the hero of Five Thousand Spoons.

—A man in Aiton, Iowa, has escaped from punishment for adultery because the highly educated prosecuting attorney had charged him with "idolatry," which is not known as a crime in Iowa.

—Two Minnesotians were kept all night flat on their backs and motionless, feigning death, by a ferocious animal, which they supposed to be a bear, but which the morning light showed as a large Newfoundland dog.

—Recent investigations have brought to light immense beds of iron ore, and fields of coal in Indiana equal to any in the country. Men of wealth and energy are now engaged in bringing into practical use these heretofore hidden stores.

—The German who is asked to vote the Radical ticket, or any part of it, will not forget that the Tribune, a Radical organ in New York, spoke of his countrymen as "the school-hating, rum-loving breed of Dutch."

—Michael O'Laughlin, one of the number charged with the assassination of Lincoln, and who was sentenced to imprisonment for life at the Dry Tortugas, died there of yellow fever a few days ago. His mother and sisters reside in Baltimore.

—It is a fact that answers a thousand slanders, that George Sharswood was twice unanimously elected President Judge of the District Court by the people of Philadelphia. Here is a conclusive answer to the cry of traitor, and secessionist, which reckless, corrupt partisans howl out against him.

—The entire German vote went against the Black Republicans in California and Maine, and the same result is expected in Massachusetts. The Germans did not leave a monarchial government behind them to come here and endorse a still more tyrannical and expensive one, and a negro government at that.

—Barnum has imported a living gorilla from Africa, at a cost of $8,000. The animal is five feet high, with a shaggy coat and great muscular strength. After a little preliminary training he will doubtless be sent south to become a candidate for Congress from one of the strong Radical colored districts.

—One of the South Carolina registrars says that when the negroes come to "receive the election franchise" they generally bring along bags or baskets to put in. Several, after registration, being asked what they had done, said that "de gembin wid de big whisiker make me swear to deport (support) de laws of United Souf Carolina."

—Governor Geary, in his recent speech at National Hall, Philadelphia, said: "Judge Sharswood was a gentleman against whose private character not a word can be said—one to whom I will give the credit of being a highly honorable, learned, and Christian gentleman." But one opinion exists in reference to the Democratic candidate!

—Mrs. Mary Arnold died in Brooklyn on Friday, aged one hundred and ten years. She used to visit General Washington, when he lived in Pearl street square, and during the war of 1812 assisted a noble band of women in throwing up earthworks at Fort Greene. She has five children living, of whom the oldest is seventy years of age, and her descendants reach to the fifth generation.

—At Marion, Iowa, a few days ago, one Johnson, a "prestitigator," was fatally injured during one of his feats, which was to allow any person to shoot at him with a pistol loaded with shot or ball. It appears that the tube on the end of the ramrod, which draws the charge after being rammed down, remained in the pistol, thereby leaving it full loaded. The Professor was shot in the head and cannot survive.

—Martin B. Corman, the most extensive counterfeiter in the world, has at last been traced to Philadelphia and arrested. All of his presses, plates, and a large amount of good and "queer" money, has been seized. Corman commenced his career of crime in Cincinnati five years ago as a counterfeiter of fifty cent notes, and he has driven a thriving business ever since. It is said he has circulated a quarter of a million dollars in counterfeit money.

—Henry R. Selden, one of the ablest judges of the Court of Appeals, in this State of New York, the highest judicial tribunal in the State, decided that the act of Congress, making greenbacks a legal tender, was unconstitutional. Selden was nominated and re-elected to the same position, by the Republicans in 1863. For a decision of the same kind made by Judge Sharswood, the Radicals of the State, unable to appreciate ability and honesty such as he possesses, denounce Sharswood as a traitor. If so, what is Selden?

—On Tuesday last, says the Patriot and Union, John W. Geary pardoned nine Radicals of Schuylkill county before trial. The number of lawbreakers thus released by this Pocket Pardon governor has already amounted to scores, and has sunk him beneath the respect of every honorable, law-abiding man in the State who is cognizant of the facts. His own party members declare that his acts in this regard admit of no apology or extenuation. The people are justly punished for electing such an arrant humbug to the gubernatorial office. We confidently predict that he will never hold another office within the gift of the people.

—The Radicals of 1867 forced the negroes into the cars. The Radicals of 1868 will force them into the public schools. The Radicals of 1866 fixed the rate of taxation at four dollars and added one and a half millions to the city debt. The Radicals of 1867 have made the tax equivalent to four dollars and twenty cents, and will increase the corporate liabilities two millions of dollars. Will white men and property-holders longer support such a party?

—A wealthy widow named Mary McCarthy drew $1,000 from bank in Chicago, on Wednesday, for the purpose of buying a house, and was proceeding home, about 3 o'clock, when she was seized by a couple of men just as she was getting off the street cars, opposite her residence, and held by one while the other robbed her of the money and ran. The passengers at once gave pursuit, and captured the man who held the lady, but the thief with the money escaped.

—In the town of Kendall, N. Y., there are four churches in a state of tolerable preservation, but the religion within them has gone wholly to decay. Only one of the four has any preaching in it now, and that only half a day each Sunday. Abolitionism bowled them all to death. Religion got rabid with the negro-fobia, as the preachers did, and is now as "dead as mackerel." But the preachers unfortunately live, to rave, and tell falsehoods, about all who are not as fierce after negro s and negroes as themselves.

—A couple of maiden ladies residing in one of the Western counties of New York, who used to live comfortably off of rented property, this year received for their rents just two dollars less than their taxes. Another, a widow lady, in the same town, whose income used to be sufficient for her support, received only nine dollars more than her taxes. One of the old maids referred to, declared that "if the Republican party is in power much longer, I shall have to get married or go to the poor-house."

—On the 9th of July, 1865, General Sheridan gave his opinion of negro suffrage in an address to the returned soldiers at Chicago. He said: "I want those who have been in the South to bear testimony to the condition of these freed negroes. My own opinion is that they are not fitted for the exercise of the franchise. I want them to get a fair price for their labor, but I do not think they are fitted to take part in the legislation of the country." These are the persons the Radicals are in favor of making the equals of white men at the polls, by Federal power.

SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC.—This medicine, invented by Dr. J. H. Schenck of Philadelphia, is intended to dissolve the food and make it into chyme, the first process of digestion. By cleansing the stomach with Schenck's Mandrake Pills, the Tonic soon restores the appetite, and food that could not be eaten before using it will be easily digested.

Consumption cannot be cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored, hence the Tonic and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the Seaweed Tonic and three or four boxes of the Mandrake Pills will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia.

Dr. Schenck makes professional visits in New York, Boston, and at his principal office in Philadelphia every week. See daily papers in each place, or his pamphlet on consumption, for his days of visitation.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the doctor, one when in the last stage of consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers; price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Gen'l Wholesale Agents—Dumas Barnes & Co., N. Y.; S. S. Hance & Co., Baltimore, Md.; John D. Parke, Cincinnati, O.; Walker & Taylor, Chicago, Ill.; Collins Bros., St. Louis, Mo.

USE THE BEST.—Blades' Euphonia Lubricators are a medical preparation in the form of a Lozenge, and are universally considered the most pleasant, convenient and effectual remedy in use for Hoarseness, Coughs, Colds, Croup, Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Diphtheria, and all Pulmonary Complaints. They are WARRANTED to give quicker and more lasting benefit in the above affections than any other remedy. Also to contain no deleterious ingredient, and not to offend the weakest and most sensitive Stomach.

Blades' Constitution Pills are so called because of their peculiar effect upon the Liver, Stomach, Blood and Nervous System. For inactivity of the Liver, for the Stomach in derangement, or Dyspepsia, they will delight the patient with their mild and beneficial effect, especially if after long-continued indigestion and costiveness, they are left with periodical returns of the Sick Headache. In case of a severe cold, producing Chills and Fever, you can break it very soon by using the Pills as per directions with each box. JOHN H. BLADES & CO., Proprietors, Elmira, N. Y.
