

CAMBRIA FREEMAN.

EBENSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, OCT. 31, 1867.

Gov. Geary and Fort Delaware.

The present Executive of this State has recently furnished conclusive evidence that he is fully capable of sounding all the depths and shoals of political infamy.

Fort Delaware belongs to the government of the United States, and is situated a short distance below Philadelphia. It is garrisoned by soldiers of the regular army, who were not in service under a requisition from the President, nor were they there by any authority of this Commonwealth.

That whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service, under a requisition from the President of the United States or by the authority of this Commonwealth, and as such absent from their place of residence, &c., &c., such electors shall be entitled at such times to exercise the right of suffrage.

Will any man of common honesty, to say nothing of common sense, pretend for one moment that, under the plain provisions of this section, the soldiers of the United States army stationed at Fort Delaware were legally entitled to vote at our late election? No man outside of a lunatic asylum would maintain so monstrous and absurd a proposition.

Gov. Geary is so ignorant as not to understand the law he is entrusted with, but if his intention was to abuse and pervert the law, then he deserves exposure and punishment.

How deeply humiliating it is to see the highest Executive office in the Commonwealth filled, to use the language of Thaddeus Stevens, by such a "miserable failure" as John W. Geary.

The Radicals and the Philadelphia Elections.

Although the Democratic candidates for city officers were elected by large majorities in Philadelphia, yet the leaders of the "God and morality" party have commenced proceedings to contest their seats.

It was at one time proposed by a Radical editor that the Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee should take the necessary steps to contest the election of George Sharswood.

The election in Virginia the other day delegates to a State Convention to be held in Richmond, resulted in the election of a Democratic majority.

The Elections Next Week.

On next Tuesday, Nov. 5th, elections will be held in Massachusetts for Governor and members of the Legislature; in New York for a full State ticket (except Governor) and members of the Legislature; in Wisconsin and Minnesota for Governor and Legislature; in Kansas for and against negro suffrage and for and against that negro monstrosity, female suffrage; and in New Jersey for members of the Legislature and for and against negro suffrage.

Whistling to keep its courage up.—The Johns-on Tribune, which announced the election of Williams after it was known to every man who reads that he was defeated, which declared that Beck was elected State Senator over Wingard, in the Lycoming district, by only 5 of a majority when it was a fact patent to every one that his majority was 367, and which made Woodward's majority only 178 when it was 611, is still whistling to keep its courage up.

John A. Logan, of Illinois, who was a rabid secessionist when the war broke out, stumped the State of Ohio, during the late canvass, in favor of negro suffrage, and received six thousand dollars for his services from the Republican State Committee.

Another Negro Outrage.—We were informed last evening, by two respectable gentlemen from Littlestown, Adams county, that on Sunday last, a young white girl named Groff, about sixteen years of age, residing near that village, was assaulted by a negro, who pinioned her arms, placed a gag in her mouth, and then forcibly violated her person.

A Good, but Very Old Trick.—The Radicals, just now, in their hot haste to nominate General Grant for the Presidency, remind us very much of the old times, when the slave trade was carried on pretty briskly between the coast of Africa and this continent.

In Alabama the Radicals bought the votes of thousands of negroes with slips of paper which they called land-warrants—a printed promise to furnish the holder with a forty-acre lot and a mule after the election.

Two Hundred Millions a Year.—How do the tax-payers like to pay two hundred million dollars a year for the support of Freedman's Bureaus and Southern Military Governments? That is what it costs to Africanize the Southern States, and arrange for sending negroes to Congress.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

The election in "West Virginia" has resulted in large gains for the Democracy.—Juarez has been elected President of Mexico, on the Radical plan—fraud and bayonets.

A colored man in Little Rock, Arkansas, killed fifty-one rattlesnakes in an hour, near that town a few days ago.

A movement is on foot to bring Chief Justice Chase prominently before the nation as the Republican candidate for the Presidency.

John Quincy Adams is the Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, and John Quincy Adams is the Republican candidate for Police Justice of Brooklyn, N. Y.

McDougal, a horse thief, with iron on, leaped from a car window, near Carmel, on the Maine Central Railroad, and escaped.

The municipal authorities of Harrisburg, Pa., offer a reward of $1000 for the detection and conviction of the ruffian who so shockingly outraged a Miss Sevier of that city on Wednesday evening last.

By the elections this fall the Democrats gain three United States Senators in the next Congress—in California, Ohio and Connecticut—but this "is of no consequence," we are told by the Radicals.

The New Albany (Indiana) Court lately granted a divorce to a man named Banks, on the ground that his wife was a victim to klomania—an irresistible desire to steal. Why not call it Radicalism?

Miss Mary Davis, of Petersburg, Virginia, aged about twenty-five years, died on Tuesday last from excessive corpulency. She had been confined to her bed nearly nine months, and was utterly helpless.

Aaron Hurt, the Conservative negro orator of Columbus, was tarred and feathered in Savannah on Thursday, by six Radical negroes. Will we hear of this outrage in the Tribune, or "my two papers, both daily"?

Sixty days ago Cheyenne, Dakota, was a howling wilderness; now it has a Mayor and Common Council, publishes ordinances regulating city life, and has a newspaper, rum shops, and various other incidents of civilization.

A lady remarked that, after reading of the proceedings of Mrs. Lincoln in the matter of her wardrobe and jewelry, she thought that even the Democrats would not deny that the husband of such a woman was "Our Martyr President."

Rev. Father Murphy, of Portsmouth, was invited to offer the prayer at the opening of the Supreme Court, in Portsmouth, N. H., on Tuesday. This is probably the first instance in the State where a Catholic priest has been thus recognized.

The church in which General Washington was married to Martha Custis, in New Kent County, Virginia, is very much dilapidated, and its congregation too poor to repair it.

The President of the United States has recommended Thursday, November 28, to be observed "throughout the Republic as a day of national thanksgiving and praise to the Almighty Ruler of nations" for all His goodness and loving kindness during the year.

An elm tree at Hampden, Ohio, furnished seven thousand feet of inch boards, clear stuff. The tree was six feet ten inches in diameter, and weighed sixty thousand pounds.

A prairie fire on the 7th instant, swept into the government stockyard at Fort Ransom, Dakota, and destroyed all the government hay. The same fire ran into a half-breed camp and burned ten half-breeds to death, and ten more were so badly burned that their lives are despaired of.

Returns from thirty-four counties in California render it certain that both Sprague and Fitzgerald, the Democratic candidates for Judges, are chosen by handsome majorities.

Seven years ago a St. Louis merchant caught a burglar in his chamber, but let him go on promise of good behavior. The burglar made his pit during the war, whereas the merchant failed, and a few days ago the former paid his debt of gratitude by loaning the latter $10,000 with which to start in business again.

Near Sherman, Texas, recently, Mrs. Beatty, a widow lady, met her death in a most singular manner. She was in the act of getting on a horse, when a common sewing needle, which stuck in her dress, caught in the saddle and was driven in her body near her breast, slightly piercing her heart. She lived only about half an hour.

A Democrat of Ohio came all the way from Chili, in South America, to vote at the recent election. That is the right kind of a Democrat. He deserves to be held up as a model, and his patriotic zeal should be imitated by every one of the sluggards who allowed themselves to be kept away from the polls at the recent elections.

At Mason village, N. H., while some small children were at play, an immense golden eagle attacked one of them. A woman ran from the house with a broom, when the eagle let go the child and attacked her with ferocity. At this moment a man gunning in the vicinity came to the rescue and shot the eagle, breaking a wing, and captured him. He is the largest bird seen within the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

An Ohio Democrat got even with a Radical, who was feebly crowing over the meagre majority for Governor, by informing him that they could have that officer, as nearly his whole business was to pardon men out of the penitentiary, and that the Radicals had much more need of his services than the Democrats.

The election of the blackguard Brownlow to the United States Senate will not necessarily cause a vacancy in the gubernatorial office of Tennessee. Brownlow intends to continue as Governor until the commencement of the term for which he has been elected Senator on the 4th of March, 1869, when according to the terms of the bogus Tennessee constitution, he will be succeeded by De Witt Clinton, President of the State Senate, who is likewise a Rad.

Richard McGrann, a prominent railroad contractor, died at his residence in Lancaster on Tuesday, in the seventy-fourth year of his age. He was for years one of the largest and most noted railroad and bridge contractors in Pennsylvania. He had large contracts on the old State railroads, on the Pennsylvania Central, the Northern Central and various others. He was one of the contractors by whom the beautiful Chestnut street bridge of Philadelphia was built, and had at the time of his death a contract to build a large railroad bridge near Easton.

Near Wooster, Ohio, a boy aged nine years went out to the barn to make a bed for a sow with pigs, and in doing so the animal attacked him ferociously, injuring him almost fatally. He was fearfully bitten and mangled in the knee, legs and arms and his right arm, below the elbow, literally "chawed up," the bones munched to pieces, leaving the arm hanging by the flesh alone. He managed, however, to escape, and went to the house. Physicians amputated the arm, at last accounts he was doing finely.

Conflicting testimony as to the ownership of a cow, in Ohio, led the judge to adopt a singular method of deciding the question. The court adjourned to a field where the cow was. The man claimant then tried all his persuasive powers, but the cow would not recognize him. Then the woman called "Polly" and the intelligent animal scattered the crowd that surrounded her and broke for the woman, where she rubbed her nose against her mistress, overjoyed to find her. The justice decided that the cow was hers.

LITERARY SUMMARY.

Petersen's Philadelphia Counterfeit Detector.—This periodical, which is a regular safeguard in Banks, Offices, Counting-houses and Stores, is issued on the 1st and 15th of each month, and has become a necessity to all business men. Some few people think that a Detector is not of any use now, as we have nearly all National Bank currency. This is a great mistake, as to-day there are more counterfeiters, and broken bank notes in circulation than there ever was; so you see that Petersen's Detector is actually a greater necessity to all Bankers, Merchant and Storekeepers, and we would advise all our readers to subscribe to it at once.

Terms of subscription to Petersen's Counterfeit Detector, corrected by Drexel & Co., Bankers, is, for the Monthly issue, (per annum) $1.50; Semi-monthly (per annum) $3.00; single numbers, 16 cents. To agents, $10 a hundred net cash. Subscriptions may commence with any month, and are payable in advance. Address B. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, Pa.

Especially Elaborate and Interesting.—The Phenological Journal for November—containing fine Portraits, with accurate Biographies, of General Samuel R. Curtis; George Brown, D. D.; Thomas H. Stockton D. D.; W. Collins, D. D.; H. Banks, D. D.; Z. R. Taylor, D. D.; A. H. Bassett, C. Springer; John St. D. D.; W. Reeves, D. D.; J. A. Alexander Clark, A. M.; H. R. Knight, A. M.; Joseph J. Smith, A. M.; D. B. Dorsey, M. D.; Jeremiah Day, D. D., LL.D.; Jas. P. Beckwourth, of Rocky Mountain fame; Julia Dean; and original articles on Matrimony among Authrs; Education of the Heart, by Hon. Seyler Colfax; Saints and Sinners. Who are they? Thanksgiving Day; How to save Money; Who shall rule over us? etc. Only 30 cents or $3 a year. Address S. R. Wells, 389 Broadway, New York.

The Catholic World.—The November number of this truly able and admirably conducted magazine has been with us for several days, and we have already enjoyed the pleasure and profit of perusing several of the articles contained in it. To the patriotic reader, no matter what his faith, the "Unpublished Letters of Gen. Washington," given in the present number, are alone worth the price of the book, while its entire contents will be found of the most interesting and instructive character. Father Hecker, the well-beloved Redemptionist missionary, is the editor of this unsurpassable periodical, which is issued from the Catholic Publication House, New York, at $5 per year. No man of fine literary taste, and especially no Catholic of culture, should be without this magazine.

Demorest's Illustrated Monthly.—The current number of this favorite periodical is a very good one. In addition to its usual illustrations, including the colored fashion plate, there are three large plates devoted to fashion, and another feature of special interest to ladies, viz., a full size pattern of Winter cloak, with the special directions of excellent reading matter, stories, variety, etc. This is the best and most useful of the parlor magazines, and no family can afford to do without it. Subscription price, $3 yearly, with valuable premium. Address, W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 473 Broadway, New York.

The Pittsburgh Republic.—We neglected to notice at an earlier day the issuing of a large eight page Sunday edition of this brightly and ably edited daily newspaper. We have many exchanges on our list which we highly prize, but none of us which excel in the matter of news or choice miscellany. The weekly edition of our spirited little contemporary, The Republic is a conservative paper, and deserves to be well sustained. The weekly is only $2 per year.

WANTED—Agents to sell the $200 best low-priced Sewing Machine ever made—either by the month, or on commission. Our machine will sew, hem, fell, tick, bind and embroider equal to a high-priced machine. Cut any third stitch, and the goods will tear before the seam will give out. From $75 to $200 per month, expenses paid. Address—BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO., Cleveland, O.

STRAY COW.—Came to the premises of the subscriber, residing in Carroll township, Cambria county, about the 1st of August last, a DARK BRINDLE COW, apparently between 7 and 8 years of age, having short crooked horns and several white spots on its body. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, and take her away, otherwise
