Johnstown, Jan. 6, 1868.

Dear Freeman-A terrible tragedy was Tuesday evening last, resulting in the almost instant death of Mr. Charles Parker, conductor of the Johnstown Accommodation. The details of the affair as I have learned them are that a young man named Hull got on the train at New Florence to come to this place, and shortly after the train left the station he got into a dispute with one of the brakemen in regard to the money he had paid to the conductor-Hall alleging that he had given a $2 bill and should have more change, while the brakeman insisted that it was a $1 note. The conductor, hearing the dispute, came up, and finding that he could not settle it, stopped the train and ejected Hull, but just as he was getting on the platform of the car Hull drew a pocket knife, and making several lunges at Parker, he at length drove the blade into his abdomen. penetrating clear to the back bone. The conductor staggered into the car, pulled the bell rope for starting, and within ten minutes thereafter was a corpse. When his train reached this point a most heart-rending scene was witnessed. The wife of the murdered iman, to whom he was but six months wedded, had come from their home at Conemaugh station during the day, and had gone to the depot here in the evening for the purpose of returning home with her busband, and it was only when she was getting on the cars that the first intimation reached her that he had been murdered. No one were brought back and interred in Sandy Vale Cemetery here, followed by a large concourse of the Masonic fraternity and several hundreds of our citizens. The murderer was captured at Centreville, on Wednesday evening, and after a hearing was committed to the Greensburg jail to answer for the awful crime of murder.

Several daring burglaries have occurred here during the past few nights, and a general feeling of insecurity prevails among our down town citizens. The residence of Mr. Thos. Collins was entered on Friday night last, and the burglars deliberately ransacked a great portion of the house. The beautiful silver service, drawn that evening by Miss Lizzie Collins, was very neatly packed with quantity of dress goods, etc., and quite a arge bundle was thus prepared to remove Mr. Collins awoke, and his attention being he arose, and the night prowlers hearing him, and knowing no doubt that he was a man of determined purpose, they incontinently fled, taking nothing in their hasty flight but a circular belonging to one of Mr. C.'s daugh-On the same night the dwelling of Mr. A. J. Hawes was entered and a valuable gold watch and $65 in money taken therefrom. The premises of our popular druggist friend, C. T. Frazer, was visited the same night, but a young man who domicils at the house came home at the "wee sma' hour" when the burglars commenced operations, and fortunately frightened them away. Several other robberies occurred during the week, but as S. B. is pressed for time he cannot now particularize. The two Fairs in operation here during the holidays proved complete successes, and between them at least $8,000 was realized. The most gratifying feature of the Fair business was the presentation of a valuable lithograph to the committee of the Catholic Fair by the managers of the Methodist, and a reciprocal gift from the latter to the former. A beautiful cigar case was voted for at the Catholic Fair, and Capt. Gageby happening to be here on a visit, the patrons of the enterprise had no difficulty in locating the most popular young man, and of course our military friend got the cigar case. Capt, Gageby, no doubt, feels highly elated at the result, as it was not so much the intrinsic value of the gift as the flattering expression of popular regard which was manifested in the result of the voting. I may remark per se that the genial face of our worthy friend will be visible here for a few days more, when he departs for his distant field of operations in Santa Fe, New Mexico, where his regiment is now stationed. May he ever meet with as many and as true friends as he has in his native village. SKE BAL.

The Age .- We publish elsewhere the announcement of a great reduction in the subscription price of the weekly issue of the Philadelphia Age, and shall next week give place to the regular prospectus of this sterling Democratic journal. The Age is the leading Democratic organ of this State, and has ever been a firm, faithful and efficient advocate of the people's rights, and an unflinching opponent of Radical misrule and corruption. No Democrat who can afford the outlay should withhold his patronage from a paper so eminently deserving of general support and encouragement. The Metropolitan Record, a mammoth weekly published in New York, is invaluable as a Democratic family journal. We know of no paper in the country which furnishes so large an amount of reading matter, nor any whose editorials and original contributions (of which it is almost entirely made up) are more forcible or exhaustive. At the opening of the year 1868, THE World challenges, more confidently than ever, the sympathy and support of all patriotic citizens. A glorious work has been gloriously begun. Deep already answers to deep. The long fidelity of this journal to the cause of Liberty protected by Law stands nobly vindicated in a splendor of victory shining from Maine to California. Connecticut, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, have thundered forth their verdict upon the misrule and madness of the Past. But much more still remains to be done. Never was the peril of the country greater. The Radical party still decrees the death of representative self-government in ten sovereign States. Armed with military despotism and wholesale Negro Suffrage, it desparately grasps at a permanent lease of power, in defiance of public opinion, at the cost of enormous taxes and crippled industries, at the cost of Union and Peace. To the great battle still to be fought THE World will give all its efforts, all its energies. It asks of its friends in their turn as much; it asks of them more readers and a wider influence. It asks this with confidence in its claims as a newspaper and as an organ
