"The old, old story," told once more: In love, two hearts contented; The orange wreath and bridal veil, And "Awards" so nicely scented. How proudly pass they down the street, And how gently does he take her, To the best and cheapest store in town, Which, as every person in this vicinity knows, is kept by our accommodating young friend, Harry Shoemaker.

ALL THE TIME.—Cham. Roberts is all the time up to time in his business, having more time on his shelves, if not on his hands, than any other trader in this vicinity. So if you want good time, in any form of a clock or watch, now is your time to get it.

NOT AFRAID.—J. M. Thompson is not afraid to advertise; not afraid to sell at the lowest prices; not afraid to show and recommend his goods; and not afraid to wait on the biggest crowd of customers that can elbow their way in his cheap store. So don't you be afraid to go and buy.

DOWN! DOWN!—Mills & Davis' handsome stock is rapidly diminishing under the influence of the greatly reduced prices which they have resorted to in order to close out their winter stock. So pitch in without delay.

STRETCHING OUT.—The days begin to lengthen very perceptibly, and more daylight is thus being afforded in which to make your purchases at the cheap store of V. S. Barker. Don't fail to use the time in securing bargains.

FOR SALE.—F. J. Barberich offers for sale the valuable property in Carrolltown known as the Cole property. See hand-bill.

THIS WAY!! 1868. "THE AGE." 1868.

A DEMOCRATIC DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL IN PHILADELPHIA.

The attention of the Democratic and Conservative citizens of the country is called to the Daily and Weekly issues of this widely circulated journal. The dissemination of sound political doctrines should command the earnest attention of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution. The events of the past political year are full of significance, clearly showing that the masses are determined to restore again to power the great Democratic party, every page of whose history is filled with the glory and prosperity of our common country. No more effectual method of presenting the Truth can be devised, than in circulating Democratic journals. It is the intention of the Proprietors of THE AGE to make it, in every way, worthy of the support and confidence that have heretofore been extended to it. Improvements are contemplated in every department, and no pains or expense will be spared to keep it in the front rank of American journalism.

The DAILY AGE contains the LATEST INTELLIGENCE FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD, with articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions of the day; Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and Commercial Intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters, and discussions of whatever subjects are of general interest and importance. Besides Special Telegrams, it has all the dispatch of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and also the Associated Press dispatches received by the Atlantic Cable; and the news from all parts of Europe brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed from whatever point the steamer's first touch.

THE WEEKLY AGE will be a complete compendium of the news of the week, and besides the leading editorials from the Daily will contain a large amount of interesting matter prepared expressly for the weekly issue. It is in all respects a first-class family journal, particularly adapted to the Politician, the Farmer, the Merchant, the Mechanic, the Family Circle, and the General Reader, having, in fact, every characteristic of a LIVE NEWS-PAPER. At an early day will be begun an intensely interesting series by one of the most popular and fascinating authors, and it is also the intention to publish, from week to week, in the course of the year, three or four of the best and latest novels.

TERMS OF THE DAILY.—One copy, one year, $9.00; six months, $4.50; three months, $2.50; for any less period, at the rate of one cent per copy. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Daily, thirty cents per quarter, or one dollar and twenty cents per annum, to be prepaid at the office of delivery.

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY.—One copy, one year $2; five copies, one year, $9; ten copies, one year, $17.50; twenty copies, one year, $33. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Weekly, five cents per quarter, or twenty cents per annum, to be prepaid at the office of delivery.

The Publishers, desirous of extending the influence of their weekly issue, have determined to make such reduction in its price as will place it within the reach of every man in the country. Therefore, to meet the means of all classes, from and after January 1, 1868, The Weekly Age will be furnished to Clubs at the following extraordinary rates: One Hundred copies, 1 yr., one address, $100. And one copy extra to the getter up of the club—additional copies at the same price.

Twenty-five copies, 1 year, one address, $34. And one copy extra to the getter up of the club—additional copies at the same price.

Forty copies, 1 year, one address, $52. And one copy extra to the getter up of the club—additional copies at the same price.

Thirty copies, 1 year, one address, $42. And one copy extra to the getter up of the club—additional copies at the same price.

Twenty copies, 1 year, one address, $30. And one copy extra to the getter up of the club—additional copies at the same price.

Ten copies, 1 year, one address, $16.50. And one copy extra to the getter up of the club—additional copies at the same price.

Five copies, 1 year, one address, $5.50. These prices, which are cash invariably in advance, apply only to yearly subscribers, and the papers must, in every case without exception, be sent to one address.

The above terms will be rigidly adhered to. Drafts on Philadelphia or on Post-Office Orders, payable to the order of the Publishers, being safer, are preferable to any other mode of remittance. All who send money by Express, must prepay Express charges. Specimen copies of the Daily and Weekly sent gratis, on application at this office. Advertisements inserted at moderate rates. Address: WELSH & ROBB, 430 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

NOTICE.—Patrick Henahan vs. Mary Henahan.—Common Pleas of Cambria County, No. 44, June Term, 1867. ALIAS SUBPOENA IN DIVORCE.

CAMBRIA COUNTY, SS:—The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Sheriff of Cambria Co., Greeting: Whereas, Patrick Henahan did, on the 15th day of April, A. D. 1867, prefer his petition to our Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, praying for the causes therein set forth, that he, said Patrick Henahan, might be divorced from the bonds of matrimony entered into with Mary Henahan, we do, therefore, command you, the said Mary Henahan, as we have heretofore commanded you, that setting aside all business and excuses whatsoever, you be and appear in your proper person before our Judges at Ebensburg, at a Court of Common Pleas to be held for said county, on the FIRST MONDAY OF MARCH NEXT, to answer the petition or libel of the said Patrick Henahan, and to show cause, if any you have, why the said Patrick Henahan, your husband, should not be divorced from the bonds of matrimony, agreeably to the acts of Assembly in such case made and provided. And hereof fail not.

Witness the Honorable GEORGE TAYLOR, President Judge of our said Court at Ebensburg, the 14th day of December, A. D. 1867. GEO. C. K. ZAHM, Prothy.

Attest—JOHN A. BLAIS, Sheriff, 116-4.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. D. W. Zeigler, having opened an office in room over R. R. Thomas' Store, offers his professional services to the citizens of Ebensburg and vicinity. Teeth extracted without pain by use of Nitrous Oxide or Laughing Gas.

C. L. PERSHING, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Johnstown, Pa. Office on Franklin street, up-stairs, over John Benton's Hardware Store, Jan. 31, 1867.
