David Fritz, of Youngstown, Wostmoreland county, had his law broken, his brain injured, and was otherwise hurt, in consequence of being dragged by a horse, on Saturday week. His horse fell on the ice, and when It got up Mr. F.'s foot remained in the stirrup, and was only released by the breaking of the strap.

WELCOME VISITORS .- Mr. Thos. M'Riernan, of Altoona, our earnest and energetic agent and whole souled friend, sojourned with as over Sunday, and in addition to his ever-welcome presence, brought with him the names of four more subscribers to the Freeman. Mr. M'K. has imposed upon us a debt of gratitude which we can never hope to repay, yet we are sure that he seeks no other reward than the consciousness of having nided an humble friend in the dissemination of true democratic doctrine. May long, peaceful and prosperous lives be vouch safed to him and his kind-hearted family, is the earnest prayer of one who has abundant reason for being grateful to so true and unselfish a friend.

Two of our Mineral Point friends and patrons, Messrs. Grier and Kinney, rushed into our presence on Saturday, and rashed out again minus a few greenbacks left in our care and keeping. We saw the point, and pocketed the stamps.

We were greated on the same day by our Latrobe friend, James Fenlon, Esq., brother of our townsman, John Fenion, Esq.; and the facts connected with the lamentable deatruction by fire of St. Xavier's Academy, which we publish in our columns to-day.

Several other kind friends called upon us and "squared the circle" within the past week or two: for which several manifestions of practical approval they have, individual ly and collectively, our sincere thanks. To others who remitted "aid and comfort," a like acknowledgment is due.
