One of the candidates is from the western As Acr relating to railroad companies and part of the State, and is a civilian, while the other is from the east, and has justly and honorably earned the title of soldier. But our readers will learn more fully who they are from the following brief sketches which we clip from the Harrisburg Patriot

AN INFAMOUS ACT. Platform of the Pennsylvania The following bill has been seriously Resolved, That the happiness of the peoread in the Legislature of this State and ple and the preservation and continuance its adoption pressed upon the people's reof our power as a Republic, depends upon presentatives. It is difficult to say what the perpetuity of the Union and the preservation of the constitution, and the a Radical Legislature may do, but woe be to that member who by his vote shall prompt restoration of each and all of the attempt to impose upon the citizens of Pennsylvania so infamous an enactment. Its title should read "An Act to protect railroad companies and other corporations against redress for their own wrongs, and to curb courts and juries in the performance of their functions."

States to the enjoyment of their rights and functions in the Union, is essential to our progress, to our prosperity, and to the protection of our liberties; and Radical legislation is the sole barrier thereto. 2. That the Constitution of the United States is the supreme law ; it is binding upon the people and upon every department of the Government, and it is the The first section gives to persons "lawhighest duty of those in and out of official place to yield implicit obedience to all its provisions until it is changed in the manner provided therein ; that the recent attempts of the Legislative branch of the Government to usurp the power of the Executive and to destroy the independence of the Judiciary, the deliberate attacks upon on the plainest provision of the Constitution, are in utter violation of its spirit, and tend to the over hrow of the Government itself.

Democracy.

3. That the Radicals in Congress have wrung from the people enormous sums of money which they have squandered in reckless extravagance; their system of taxation is ill devised, incongruous and inequitable, and they have mismanaged the large revenues thus obtained : that rigid economy in every branch of the public service, a decrease in the number of the officials, reduction in the army and navy, and a reform in the mode of the collection of the revenue are imperatively demanded, and only by these means can a reduction in the amount of taxation now imposed upon the industrial and manufacturing interest be attained and the paymeat of our indebtedness be assured. 4. That the Republican party is responsible to the country for the delay in the restoration of the Southern States to their just relations in the Union, and for the government of their people by military rule : that the purpose of these measures is to perpetuate Radical power through the votes of illiterate negroes, and that these are the great primary causes of the present prostrate condition of productive industry Curtin for Vice-President were elected. unalterably opposed to all legislation in all its departments. which places a corporation above the 5. That in enacting the Tenure of

Office Law, the Legislative and Executive branches of the government, each for itself, had the right to judge of its constitutionality, and that, in so exercising the means of indemnity against loss of life right, the Executive was but obeying that

Hon. CHARLES E BOYLE, of Fayette county, for Auditor General, was a member of the Legislatures of 1866-7, but being a Democrat, he is not in the least chargeable with the corruption of the notorious assemblage of 1867. On the contrary, during his career as a legislator he distinguished himself as an antagonist of all the corrupt and partisan measures which have rendered the memory of that body infamous. Mr. Boyle is a gentleman of honesty, suavity, and pure character in every respect. His abilities and general knowledge of law, legislation and finance eminently fit him for the position for which he has been selected.

Gen. WELLINGTON H. ENT, for Surveyor General, is at present a practising lawyer of Columbia county, of which county he is a native. He graduated at the Law University at Albany, New York, a short time previous to the outbreak of the war, and had commenced the practice of law in Columbia, when the call to arms resounded through the land. Dropping his books and abandoning his practice, he shouldered a musket as a private in the Sixth Pennsylvania Reserves .-From that time forth for a period of more than three years he participated in carving out the brilliant war record of that gallant regiment. Step by step he rose-from private to lieutenant, from lieutenant to captain, from captain to major, from major to lieutenant colonel, from lieutenant colonel to colonel, which latter position he honorably and bravely filled at the muster out of the Reserves, in 1864. He was in all the engagements fought by the Army of the Potomac during that strange eventful period-Drainesville, South Mountain, Antietam, &c. -and for his "distinguished services" he was brevetted a Brigadier General, at the close of the war. But General Ent does not rest alone upon his war record. His legal and business knowledge is fully equal to the discharge of the duties of the office for which he has been nominated. His rapid promotion in the army from the ranks to one of the most commanding positions is a sufficient guarantee that he is not only a brave man, but a man of great intellectual ability.

These are the men, fellow Democrats invested for the benefit and protection of and conservatives, that you are called upon to support, and if you are true to yourselves, true to your country, and true to those principles which made and kept tled "An Act requiring railroad companies a six barreled revolver, fired ; the ball enus a free, happy and prosperous people to make uniform reports to the Auditor tered just above the ear, producing death until the blighting and damnable curse of General," approved the fourth day of almost instantly.
