The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald, under date of April 14th, thus telegraphs to that paper :

History records numerous instances of conspiracies to overthrow existing governments or to change ruling dynastics, but they have generally been the work of a few restless spirits, who have kept their real designs concealed from all but their immediate associates, and thus have led their followers blin lly on in the path of revolution in ignorance of its ultimate goal. The Jacobins of France were bold in their action ; but even with them when their farm houses and in the villages, cities and canels, drom daries, hors s and two other revolutionary fires were first kindled only towns. We would impress upon our patrons that our Stock is not JOHN VANDERPOOL, No. 265 Winthrop | composed of second handed goods or Pawn | Broker's unredeemed stock, but goods carefully selected direct from American an | European Manufactories, the greater portion of which are MANUFACTURED EXCLU SIVELY FOR US, which fact enables us to offer our customers better Goods for the money than those who profess to be "Man ufacturers' Agents," or than can be obtained in any other way. The unpath eled increase of our business, the prices of Teas, Coffees, Sugars, Fieur, and the endorsement of prominent business men and the press in general, 13 a convincing proof that we have adopted the fairest and most popular system ever placed before the public. We are the first who have attempted to make a "Revolution in Trade." by enabling the public to procure goods in small quartities at n anufacturers' prices, thus saving the consumer three large profits made in passing through the hands of the Commission Merchaut, the Wholesaler, and Retail 7
