

THE FREEMAN.

EELENSBURG, PA. THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1868.

Democratic State Ticket.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: HON. CHARLES E. BOYLE, Of Fayette County.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: GEN. WELLINGTON H. ENT, Of Columbia County.

County Committee Meeting.

The members of the Democratic County Committee will please meet at the Court in Ebensburg, on Monday, the 1st day of June next, at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Punctual attendance is earnestly requested, as a change in the manner of nominations and other matters of importance will be laid before the Committee.

R. L. JOHNSTON, Chairman.

Members of Committee—Geo. Delaney, Joseph S. Mardis, Geo. C. K. Zahn, D. A. Luther, Wm. A. Krise, John Buck, Nicholas Helfrich, John McFely, Thos. Egan, John Campbell, M. McNamara, John Knepper, Rees J. Lloyd, John E. Scanlan, Chas. O'Hagan, Thos. Kinney, Geo. W. Osborn, James Potts, M. W. Dickey, D. McClelland, J. K. Hite, P. H. Shields, J. S. Osborn, Peter McDermott, A. D. Criste, Patrick Boyle, Henry Tupper, Michael Daley, Silas Byrne, Christian Reich, Lawrence Furlong, Owen Sweeney, Wm. C. Fleming, L. Cassidy.

MacShane Visited Altoona.

Dear Freeman—I am just "after" a visit to the "Mountain City"—Altoona. It is perhaps the most thriving inland town in Pennsylvania.

It is a rather marvellous tract of land known as the "Robinson Farm." Since that time, without manufacturing facilities—without water power—without navigation—it has grown to a city of some 12,000 inhabitants.

Its location on the Pennsylvania Rail Road, and with reference to the "Alleghenies," has given it its great advantages, and caused it to grow into a flourishing city, as if by magic.

The city lies, in about equal proportions, North and South of the Pennsylvania Rail Road. The machine shops of the Company, (said to be the most extensive in the United States,) lie on the South side of the Road, while the offices of the General Superintendent, the Chief Engineer, and all other offices connected with the general management of the road, are upon the North side.

I am not aware that a general description of these mammoth establishments has ever been given to the public, and am not prepared to do so. Indeed if I had the time, your columns could not give the space, to enter into a general description. I trust, however, you will have a full account ere long in the Freemantler or Tri-Butte.

New York is called the "Empire City," Philadelphia the "City of Brotherly Love," in "Quebec City," Baltimore the "Monumental City," Washington the "Federal City," or "City of Magnificent Distances," New Orleans the "Garden City," Cincinnati the "Queen City," Pittsburgh the "Iron City," indeed all of our cities have an expressive designation of some kind. I propose the name of "Mountain City" for Altoona.

Altoona is so named in honor of—no person, or place, or any thing else that I know of. It has, of course, reference to the vicinity of the mountain, but I am at a loss to know even from what language the name is taken. I doubt not the founder, or perhaps the "earliest settler," could tell.

The Logan House is a fine hotel—larger than the Girard Hotel of Philadelphia.—The Exchange Hotel, by Col. Woods, and the St. Charles Hotel, by Mr. Rich'd. McClain, are both excellent houses—besides quite a number of others.

There are two newspapers—the Tri-Butte, by M'Crum & Dern, a neutral paper of the Radical persuasion, and the Freemantler, a Democratic paper just started by J. F. Campbell & Son.

The citizens are imbued with a great spirit of enterprise; the city is lighted by gas and water works supply it with excellent water.

The City is temperate and orderly. It has suffered greatly from fires, many of them supposed to be the work of incendiaries; but apart from this offence the amount of crime is small in proportion to the population.

In the rear of the hill North of town an apparently unsuccessful attempt has been made to tunnel through to town—and has resulted in a colossal brewery. It will amply repay a visit, as a curiosity. Some years since, in company with Capt. Carroll, I adventured some hundred feet or so into this subterranean arrangement, stopping frequently to refresh by the way. When I got to the extreme verge of the "hole," I loudly exclaimed with Richmond:

"Thus far into the bowels of the land Without impediment," &c.

But the Teutonic proprietor, thinking me drunk or crazy, ordered an immediate retreat, (he had treated several times before,) and I found more difficulty getting out than I had getting in. A beverage known as Lager Beer is manufactured here. It has the general appearance of muddy water, but is supposed to be slightly stronger. Indeed, it has been gravely asserted by some that it has the power of intoxication—while others deny for it any such virtue. My own opinion is—that both sides are right. A perfectly drunk drinker of Lager Beer may, by drinking discreetly, indulge in it for an entire night without losing his propriety. On the other hand, an unskilled drinker, such as I found myself on the occasion referred to, may become confused in his ideas and "weak in the knees" by taking four or five glasses in quick succession; and will suffer under that feeling till he is relieved.

I attended a meeting of the Democrats in their splendid Hall. There was a lively and pleasant time. No truer Democrats in the world than those of Altoona, and they are in good earnest in their determination to not let anything of the ruinous assaults of Radicalism on the Constitution and institutions of the country.

A gentleman from your neighborhood made a speech, which gave great satisfaction, especially that portion in which he said he would not be a candidate for Congress any more. I thought he had better not—he has been beaten twice already—and I commenced in my own mind parading Dr. Muhlenberg's hymn to suit his case:

I would not run always—I can't make it pay, For storm after storm rises dark o'er the way.

No sunshine, of hope can the shadows dispel, Of Barker, the Yankee—and Yankee Morrell!

I would not run always—in vain do I preach, Congressional honors are out of my reach, And all my achievements and feats on the stump

Still leave me unable to reach to the Ramp. N. B. The copyright of the above secured according to law.)

I visited the Catholic Fair. I had colored my hair and shaved my face—had a pale colored shirt and an irreproachable necktie. I expected to produce a sensation—for you know I'm not an old bachelor. But my anticipations were more than realized. A number of the handsomest ladies in the concern approached me with a freedom which nothing but Leap Year could account for. I of course made my best bow—assumed my blindest smile—and I had a triumph! As I entered into conversation with all my wonted killianity I was successful in arousing the jealousy of some of the "Fair" ones.

Shortly one of the ladies told me I could have a fine tea set for one dollar. I immediately invested. Another proffered me a watch at the same price, and I invested in that. I finally became bewildered with a jargon of pleasant confab and cheap bargains, and I kept purchasing in the same manner until my watch admonished me of the hour for retiring, when I spoke of the articles, but was informed that nothing was to be delivered till the Fair was over. I then left my address, and left myself.

Days fled—weeks fled—no news of any of my bargains. I inquired and learned that I was not to get anything. Then I thought of the Peter Funk auctions of New York City, and wondered if Altoona City was assuming the same functions? I met a friend from the ground—she confirmed what I had heard. I asked her, "Do you think this all fair?" She gave me an arch look as she replied, "Yes!" "It was nothing but 'Fair' all the time."

"Those ladies," said she, "of whom you speak, are engaged in aid of a great charity—procuring a home for the homeless. They are adding their good pastor in the erection of a building for the Sisters, where the poor are to be cared for and the children educated to give in the right way, through our worthy clergymen; for," added she, "you know what the poet says: 'The education forms the common mind; Just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined.'"

So I felt that I had indeed "cast my bread upon the waters," and trust it will "return after many days."

AN RESERVOIR, MACSHANE.

A CHAMBER TRIAL.—Segate sitting as a CAUCUS, presided over by the Chief Justice gagged like Mrs. Surratt.

DEAD DECK swears the jury, two-thirds of whom take the oath with a mental reservation to break it.

Euter Ghost, Beat, Hangman, Scoundrel, Repudiator, House of Representatives, and all the people of the United States.

President brought in a Steel Trap. Indictment, kidnapping Stanton.

Ghost cracks his whip, Beat dances, and trial proceeds.

Results of the Evidence. Law don't apply. Constitution does. No offence intended. None committed. Stanton not kidnapped.

Arguments heard. Beat howls. Ghost shakes his finger. Repudiator shakes his head, but there's nothing in it. Hangman grubs at another victim.

Jurors render their verdict. DEAD DECK takes it. Gaily by a strict party vote.

Results of the trial. President removed. Wade promoted. Causes divides the spoils. Constitution buried. General jubilee. Bonfires at the North. Negro processions at the South. Grant Dictator. Then Emperor.—Lanc. Int.

GENERAL SHERMAN LEDIGMANT.—The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Times says:

"It is well known that General Sherman is indignant at the prospect of an unjust and partisan conviction of the President. He says that if Johnson is unjustly convicted, that he (Sherman) will appeal to the people of the United States against the finding of the Senate; that he will himself, if necessary, be the standard-bearer of the party opposed to such conviction, no matter who may be the standard-bearer on the other side, and that he will agree to stamp the country on the question! This threat, delivered with the General's accustomed and well-known vehemence of manner, has greatly alarmed the Radicals, and there was a good deal of fluttering in their camp last evening in consequence."

K. K. K.—The Kuklux Klan are called upon to kassigate or kill any kullered kusses who may approve the konstitution being kookked by the kontemptible karpet-baggers at the kapital. Each Klan is koommanded by a karniverous kernel who kollektivs his kourades with kare and kaultion koommensurate with the magnitude of the kause. Whenever kountented, they most korrtekly give four kountersigns—

These are: Kill the kullered kuss; klean out the karpet-baggers; krush the kleanout; karry kountersigns; kousfusion to kountress; kountersigns will kounker. Of kourse the klan karevativs kousiderable kountersignation among the kountess and kourning kountersigns, who kalkulate that their kareer may be kut short by katus-trophies. Kure, they kank't koplain.

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

An exchange says that Butler will go into Grant's Cabinet. No doubt, if it is not kept locked.

At Lancaster, New Hampshire, the Connecticut river froze over in the month of April, after the winter's ice had gone, an occurrence unknown before.

An exchange reports that a cat in Newport, Rhode Island, had adopted three chickens. Two have died and the third is fed, nursed and purred over by pussy.

A Radical exchange says: "Anna Dickinson has lost her voice, and Heaven help her who finds it." This is ungallean, but then Anna's "loyalty" is more than suspected.

A lad of eighteen, in Wisconsin, the son of wealthy parents, was recently detected pilfering money from his employer. He hung himself through mortification at the exposure.

The propeller Gov. Cushman, exploded a boiler whilst running out of the creek at Buffalo, on Saturday morning, by which eleven persons were killed and three wounded.

The Democrats of Hagerstown, Md., carried their whole city ticket, last week, gaining 121 on last year's majority. There is no let up anywhere in the reaction against Radicalism.

A temporarily insane man named Isaac Mace, living near Clifty, Indiana, on Saturday last shot his brother and badly wounded his uncle and aunt. Disappointed love was at the bottom of it.

One "Doctor" De Land and his wife, of Adrian, Michigan, attempted to cure their grown-up daughter of fits by tying her into a chair, stripping her clothes from her body and deluging her with cold water. Her screams aroused the neighbors, who interfered and had the practitioners arrested.

A little girl aged eight years, daughter of Levi Sanders, of Pond Hill, N. Y., was found on Saturday near her father's residence with her throat cut and life extinct. Her person had been horribly outraged. A half-witted boy named Wm. H. Carwell is supposed to have committed the murder and has been arrested.

Carbonic acid compounds, it is stated, have been used with success for the preservation of the dead. The liquid is applied externally and by injection into the natural passages, no cut being made in the body. The progress of decay, it is asserted, is completely arrested, the color of the skin even being unchanged.

Early on Saturday morning, an express messenger on one of the cars of the New York Central Railroad was gagged and bound by two men, who entered the car as the train passed Garrison. The robbers then secured about $10,000 and succeeded in leaving the car, upon its arrival in the city, before the situation of the messenger was discovered.

Two persons were either seriously or slightly injured by the late railroad accident on the Allegheny Valley Railroad. They were mostly residents of Franklin, Venango county. One passenger car and the baggage car tumbled down a twenty foot embankment, rolled over several times and were broken to pieces. Causes—running at too high a rate of speed around a curve.

The prisoners in the Cleveland jail have revived the story that that uncomfortable domicile is haunted by the ghosts of two or three murderers, who have been banged in the yard adjoining the building. Dr. Hughes, the wife-slajer, is the most regular of these ghostly visitors, dropping in every night, just after the stroke of midnight, and slowly promeneading the corridor.

When the Canaan child murderer, Brown, had received his sentence, to be hung on the 30th of May next, he remarked "all right." While Judge Peckham was passing sentence Brown was perfectly cool and unconcerned. After he was placed in the "murderer's cell," he said to a by-stander: "Why didn't they make it so that I might have had a long run in this stinking hole so long for?"

The Irish Church Establishment, the "great scandal and tyranny of the age" has received its death blow. The Ministry, backed with the wealth and nobility of England, the Crown with all its hereditary rights, have been obliged to yield to the demands of the people. Its abolition was determined upon in the English House of Commons, on the night of the 30th ult., by a majority of sixty-five. This result will likely lead to the dissolution of the English Ministry.

A shanty belonging to Paik Laughlin, about a quarter of a mile east of Erie Rail, road depot, at Great Bend, Pennsylvania, caught fire on the night of the 3d inst. Laughlin and his wife were away from home and the house was in charge of a girl sixteen years of age, who, with six children of Laughlin's, was asleep when the fire broke out. The girl immediately on awakening went to the rescue of the children and succeeded in saving two of them; returning to get the others she was suffocated and the four remaining children perished with her.

PREMONITIONS.—It is stated that Palm Sunday, two days before his death, D'Arcy McGee spent at the house of a friend in Ottawa. While there he had a dream, the circumstances of which are as follows: "The deceased went to holy communion in the morning at early mass. During the part of the day he wrote letters to the Earl of Mayo and Dr. Tupper, who is now in London. After dinner he retired to the library and had a short sleep. Upon returning to the family circle, he said he felt somewhat annoyed at a singular dream he had had. Upon the ladies asking him to repeat it he said: 'I dreamt, I was standing by the Falls of Niagara, and saw a boat containing two men sailing down the rapids, and approaching the brink of the cataract. Seeing their danger and apparent ignorance of it, I rushed forward to warn them. The boat turned round and proceeded up the rapids, and I went over into the gulf beneath.' These are, as near as possible, the words in which Mr. McGee told a dream which seems to have been a premonition of that death which so soon followed. It certainly derives great significance from its awful fulfillment."

A SLIGHT CHANGE.—Four years ago all Mongrelism, big, little, old and young, black and white, wanted to hang the "secess" Senator and "traitor" from Tennessee, Jefferson Davis, on a "sour apple tree," and denounced every body and all their relatives as worse than traitors who would not fall down and worship the "great," the "good," the "fearless," the "patriotic," the "loyal Union" Senator from Tennessee, Andrew Johnson. Now Jefferson Davis, with all his "treason," is sent out from court without a trial, while Andrew Johnson, with his abundant "loyalty" and "Yonionism," stands arraigned before them as a criminal unworthy the place they placed him in.—Bellevue Watchman.

MR. EVARTS, who so bitterly defends President Johnson and so libelously denounces the inquiry of impeachment, was the chief speaker at the Republican mass meeting which was held at the Cooper Institute, New York, on the 16th of last October. The New York Tribune is assailing him most bitterly for the course he is now pursuing, and every smaller Radical sheet in the country will be barking at him. It is a singular fact that very few really good lawyers are left in the Republican party. They cannot support it without stultifying themselves. Its doctrines are, so perfectly subversive of the Constitution, and of all law, that no honest man with a well trained intellect can fail to condemn them.

USE THE BEST.—Blades' Euphonia Lumbicaria is a medical preparation in the form of a Lozange, and is universally considered the most pleasant, convenient and effective remedy in use for Hoarseness, Coughs, Sore Throat, Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Diphtheria, and all Pulmonary Complaints. They are WARRANTED to give quicker and more lasting benefit in the above affections than any other remedy. Also to contain no deleterious ingredient, and not to offend the weakest and most sensitive Stomach.

Blades' Constitution Pills are so called because of their peculiar effect upon the Liver, Stomach, Blood and Nervous System. For inactivity of the Liver, for the Stomach in derangement, or Dyspepsia, they will delight the patient with their mild and beneficial effect, especially if after long continued Constipation and Indigestion, they are left with periodical returns of the Sick Headache. In case of a severe cold, producing Chills and Fever, you can break it very soon by using the Pills as per directions with each box. JOHN H. BLADES & CO., Agents by Proprietors, Elmira, N. Y. All who own or employ horses, are assured that this Linnament will do more than is stated in curing the above named complaints. During twenty years it has never failed to give satisfaction in a single instance. Sold by the Druggists. Depot, 56 Cortlandt St., New York.

WE judge from the immense sales that Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER OR DRESSING (in one bottle) is preferred by every one. Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar. [ap. 9-1m.]

L. L. LANGSTROTH'S PATENT

MOVABLE COMB BEE HIVE! Pronounced the best ever yet introduced in this County or State. As per law, every family right can have them transferred from an old box into a new one. Several persons have had their bees transferred, and they have proven satisfactory.

Dr. Messrs. Jas. W. Sewee and D. P. Eversole say that they took one of five, in November, 1865, 48 pounds of honey, and in 1866, 624 lbs. and a swarm, and the bees had plenty to do them through the winter; in 1867, 80 lbs. of surplus honey was taken out.—Out of nine hives J. D. Kagarice took 365 lbs. of box honey in 1866.

Persons wishing to purchase family rights can do so by calling on or addressing PETER CAMPBELL, April 23, 1868.-lf. Carrolltown, Pa.
