

THE FREEMAN.

EBENSBURG, PA. THURSDAY, JULY 2, 1868.

Democratic State Ticket.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: HON. CHARLES E. BOYLE, Of Fayette County.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: GEN. WELLINGTON H. ENT, Of Columbia County.

Democratic County Ticket.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE: Capt. JOHN PORTER, Washington Tp. FOR PROTHONOTARY: Capt. J. K. HITE, Johnstown.

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY: F. P. TIERNY, Esq., Ebensburg. FOR COMMISSIONER: MAURICE McNAMARA, Johnstown.

FOR POOL HOUSE DIRECTOR: CHRISTIAN SNYDER, Jackson Tp. FOR AUDITOR: JAMES NULL, Allegheny Tp.

FOR SUPERVISOR: HENRY SCANLAN, Carrolltown.

THE PRESIDENCY.

The next issue of the FREEMAN will, in all probability, contain the proceedings of the Democratic National Convention, with the names of its candidates for President and Vice-President.

Several candidates are urged for the Presidency whose names and history are a guarantee of their fitness for that exalted position.

Geo. H. PENDLETON, of Ohio, from present appearances, will have more votes on first ballot than any one of his competitors. Whether he will make the nomination is not so clear.

HERBERT SPOONER, of New York, although he has positively declined the nomination, will be strenuously urged by New York and other Eastern States to permit his name to go before the Convention.

THOS. A. HENRICKS, of Indiana, is advocated by many as a compromise between the two aspirants named above. He has been in the Senate a number of years, and occupies a very high position in that body.

Gen. GEORGE BRINTON McCLELLAN will, it is said, be supported by quite a number of New England delegates, and by some others perhaps. His past record is too well known to require extended remark.

Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT HANCOCK has been widely named in connection with the nomination. His military career has been brilliant and successful, while his civil qualifications are of no mean order.

Gen. JOSEPH A. DIX will also have friends in the Convention. He is admitted, on all hands, to possess a high order of intellect, while his military career is without a flaw or blemish.

SALMON P. CHASE, the present Chief Justice, is pressed upon the Convention by many of the more conservative Republicans and by some Democrats. He is an able statesman, and performed his duty fearlessly on a late trying occasion.

When Grant testified before the investigation committee, he swore that President Johnson wanted Jeff Davis tried, in order to make treason odious, and that he (Grant) prevented him.

Now the Radical party has just been trying to turn Johnson out of office, and nominated Grant as their candidate for President. Strange! Turn the man out who wanted to try Jeff Davis, and put the man in who would not let him!

Letter from the Late Ex-Prest.

We are indebted to our old friend, Wm. Russell, Esq., of Sonoma, this county, for permission to publish the following letter from the venerable and lamented Ex-President Buchanan—one of the last, if not the very last, letters written by him:

My Old Friend:—The perusal of your letter of the 28th ultimo afforded me sincere pleasure. Your reference to the events of the Anti Slavery Cause was highly interesting to me.

I had entirely forgot the circumstance in relation to you, and the many amusing incidents of the trial of Boyer and others.

I am well acquainted with your sister, Mrs. L. She is a highly respectable and very useful lady. She does often see me in church—a place you formerly did not much frequent.

The very expressive compliment which you pay to Mrs. Russell proves that your mind has been fully occupied and happy for more than half a century.

Sincerely your friend, JAMES BUCHANAN.

To Mr. WILLIAM RUSSELL.

TARRY JUSTICE.—The Criminal Court of Washington witnessed on Monday of this week an act of tardy justice.

The United States Attorney had caused a new indictment to be framed against John Surratt, in which he was charged with conspiracy.

On Wednesday night a man named Russell, while intoxicated, fell through a railroad bridge, near the Lochiel Iron Works, in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, and was killed.

There is trouble in Louisiana, because the darkies refuse to attend their own schools, but insist on mixing with the whites.

J. M. McKinney and J. S. Barr were run over by a freight train near Bonaparte, Iowa, on the Valley Road, Thursday night.

Some enthusiastic Radical says that "Grant speaks but little and thinks a great deal." No doubt about it; he thinks a great deal about being President.

The wall of the Hospital of "St. Mary of the Conception," at Chicago, in course of erection, fell down on Wednesday, burying five workmen in the ruins.

Near Elgin, Ill., is a forest of pine and arch, the trees of which average two feet in diameter and twenty feet in height.

Baker has written a sonnet on Grant, in which he represents him as Moses. The principal point of resemblance is not mentioned, which is that both Grant and Moses had to get somebody else to make their speeches.

Six months ago Greeley said that "those who are pushing Gen. Grant for President will land where the Whigs did with Scott in '52; they utterly mistake the time of day."

A Georgian humorist remarks on the story that "Brad Stevens sent Brownlow word just now how he will die, but he is certain to commence hurrahing for water shortly afterwards."

The Democracy of the State are already engaged in planting hickory poles. We expect to see them standing thick before the campaign is over.

Political and News Items.

Epouists in Illinois are so thick as to fly by myriads into the car windows, and the air is filled with them.

A two-years-old girl who has all the physical development of a woman of thirty is on exhibition at Chicago.

Milwaukee brags about a meteor which came along that way and exploded over the lake with a loud noise.

"Let us have peace," says Grant, with his head on the neck of the South and his hand in the purse of the North.

A Radical exchange says, "the Grantites are gathering." So they are, and like a boil, getting ready to "burst."

Geary says, "Drunkards, like pirates, are public enemies." Then of course "Hans" will not support Grant for President.

Captain J. E. Thomas and four other persons were lost on Wednesday, at the mouth of the Brazos, by the sinking of the steamer Selma.

Mrs. Lincoln and her son Tad are going to Europe. They will be under the protection of Hon. Reverdy Johnson until they reach Liverpool.

The locusts in Tennessee have the letters "N" and "W" clearly designated on their wings, which the natives ominously believe signifies "Nother War."

The Radicals met with a terrible defeat in Mississippi, and it is said, through the vote of the colored man. This, if true, is the "unkindest cut of all."

Grant gets as many votes as he sacrificed Federal lives in his military career, he will not run so very far behind his Democratic competitor at the coming election.

A Radical paper announces that the campaign under Grant will be "offensive." That it will—offensive to the great mass of the white people of the country.

Greeley has given one hundred copies of his "Conflict" to the libraries of England and Ireland. They can't exactly refuse to take them, but what a bore it must be!

Senator Grimes's recovery is scarcely to be expected. We observe that those papers which spoke worst of him in connection with impeachment, now refer to the loss the Senate will sustain through his death most feelingly, and award to him the highest degree of worth and praise.

Forney says he "would rather trust his pocket-book with the negroes than with the Democrats." That is very likely, for if the Democrats got hold of his pocket-book they, being honest, would return its contents to the Government treasury, it having a better title to them than Forney.

A machine has recently been invented which, from ordinary ash or other soft and flexible wood, turns out two hundred strawberry boxes per minute.

At a late dinner in North Carolina there sat down to table three ex-Governors, an ex-Justice of the Supreme Court, two ex-members of Congress, and some other men of honorable distinction in their State, and the only person in the room who could vote or hold office was the negro who waited on the table.

There is a lady in Petersham, Me., who has lived 97 years, and is still active and useful, who has a son 72, a granddaughter 43, a great-granddaughter 23, a great-great-granddaughter five months old, making five generations, all living.

A rich farmer of Calais, Maine, aged sixty-five, recently married a second wife who is only nineteen years of age. A daughter by his first wife is forty years old, and her daughter aged twenty is about to be married.

A Bengal tiger recently escaped from his cage at Antwerp and went on a rampage through the city. He broke his fast on a cart-horse in the approved Bengal style, and then turned out as neat and substantial boots and shoes at moderate prices as can be made anywhere in the State.

George Bergman, residing in Ypsen township, Lancaster county, was struck by lightning on Thursday morning. The boy, who was driving cattle to pasture, went under a tree during a shower of rain, when a current of electricity passed down along his body, tearing his pantaloons, and knocking the sole from one of his boots.

Father Lambert Young, the Catholic priest who has been confined in the Louisville (Ky.) Jail for declining to testify in the Frankfort negro lynching case, before the United States Court, was released on Monday by Judge Ballard, on bond.

The wall of the Hospital of "St. Mary of the Conception," at Chicago, in course of erection, fell down on Wednesday, burying five workmen in the ruins, two of whom have since died of their injuries.

Near Elgin, Ill., is a forest of pine and arch, the trees of which average two feet in diameter and twenty feet in height. Less than ten years ago the ground was raw prairie. The estimated profit is $50 per annum.

The Democracy of the State are already engaged in planting hickory poles. We expect to see them standing thick before the campaign is over.

Phillips snarls at Grant, the Radical German organ at Indianapolis refuses to support him, and Yates says the people of Illinois will repudiate the Chicago platform by fifty thousand majority.

Grant is to start on an electioneering tour, or an "inspection of military affairs in the West," some time this week. It is to be hoped that he will not become afflicted with the dizziness which troubled him when "swinging around" with A. J.

In 1864 Gen. Grant wrote: "I would regard such a consummation" (as the election of Grant to the Presidency) "as being highly unfortunate to myself, if not for the country." "The country" of 1868 finds itself compelled to agree with Grant.

Marshal Kane, formerly of Baltimore, publishes a card, in which he denies that any plot was ever on foot to assassinate President Lincoln on his trip through that city to be inaugurated, and says that he (Kane) had made full arrangements to show him courtesy during his stay there.

Near Muncie, Indiana, last Tuesday, Mr. Jesse Thomas was sitting by the fireplace, holding one of his children upon his knee, when the house was struck by lightning. The fluid descended the chimney and struck Mr. Thomas upon the temple, killing him instantly, but the child in his arms escaped uninjured.
