THE SIDE SHOW .- The Radicals essaved to hold their County Convention on Monday inst. It was very inoffensive, and the Democracy can well afford to treat it as Thad. Stevens proposed to treat a certain memorable election, "as though it had never been held." Carroll, C'earfield, (the two largest districts in the county, ) Chest, Blackick and Carrolltown were unrepresented, while other districts had only one delegate.

The procession marched to Col. Jack's woods, where was found every facility for the indulgence of intocent pleasure. The day was fine one, the grove selected a delightful resort, harmony and good feeling prevailed, the best order was maintained, and the hours seemed to pass quickly and happily for all present.
