TERRIBLE DEATH OF A PRIEST. - Very Rev. B. J. Spalding, Administrator of the Diocese of Louisville, was so shockingly burned, on the night of the 3J inst., that he died in great agony the following evening. This terrible calamity was occasioned by his bed clothes taking fire from the gas, which it was his liabit to keep burning during the night. The bracket was a sliding one, moving upward and downward, and from long use it had become loosened. It is supposed from the nearness of the burner to the Doctor's couch, that during the night, while he was asleep, the bracket descended and set the mosquito bar on fire. Evidently Dr. Spalding was awfully burned before he reached the bath tub, as Father Bouchet,

A gentleman living in the neighborhood went out gunning on the 4th instant, and in the course of his perambulations reached the river bank. All of a sudden it gave way beneath him, and he slid down the slope forty feet, feeling at the same time that he was sinking into the sand. He thought it a quick and deposit, and gave himself up for lost, but he slid down safely with his gun, sinking in, however, above his knees.

After getting up and shaking off the fine soil, be next thought of cleaning out his gun, for in his fall it had become filled and covered with sand. What was his surprise to find that in wiping off the barrel he has polished it up bright! It immediately occurred to him that it was emory, and that somebody would make a
