

Viler traitors than you conquered Lying ballads bid you sing.

Tetter forward on your crutches. With your empty coat-sleeves come, Hurry up your shot torn bodies own selfish interest abroad ; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers and furnish an example and encourage-A few days more and another white-wing- ment to people struggling for national integrity, ed messenger found its way to us, confirming constitutional liberty and individual rights; our worst fears. Foor, unknown prisoner, and the maintenance of the rights of natural of time and labor, and does not wear the clothes as much as the old tub and washboard. For sale by ans against the absolute doctrine o May 7, 1868. 6m.* Ebensburg, Pa. we arraign the Radical party for its disregard HOUSE-FURNISHING STORE. of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranty which have marked its career. After the most soleun and unanimous pledge both houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the goful. After giving bonds for the appearance verament and the preservation of the Union of the prisoner, the poor sufferer was per- under the Constitution, it has violated that most sucred pledge under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory. It stead of restoring the Union, it has, so far s is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten intes, in time of profound peace, to military, tesp tiam and negro supremacy. It has nulli

At the tap of Shoddy's drum. Though your limbs, to prop the Union, You gave freely, that was naught ; Split your throats to serve the scoundrels Who were stealing while you fought.

To the Blunderer of Vienna, To the Thief of New Orleans. And to On-to Richmond Greeley, Shout ocstatic Io Pmans! Swindlers, indeciles, and cowards. Claim your voices, votes, and souls ; Dress your ranks, the word is "Music." And Thad. Stevens calls the rolls.

1.8

Will ye have these men for masters ? Shall they lead you through the land Like a caravan of monkeys Taught to caper at command ? Gallant hearts, whose victor-thunder At Antietam shock the skies, Will you glorify the negro, And give melody to lies ?

Make reply, ye shattered heroes, Against Rebal cannon flung By our soft-shell Alexanders And mock Caesars cast in dung ? Tell your white-livered insulters By the God of Battles, No ! That the stars of War's grand theatre Cannot twinkle in their show !

While on regues, who shaved your rations, Party's choicest favors fall. Speculation farms your muscle* Late the Union's living wall. Dressed in motley to be stared at, And by serdid greed kept down, You just live by carrying bundles-Liveried lackeys of the town !

Tell the world, my labeled comrades, What returns per week you bring To the Radicals who slave you, For whose chiefs you're asked to sing; How they grudge you meagre wages, How they fatten on your sweat ; And what cause you have to warble On the pittance which you get?

Tell the world, Potomac veterans, Who so grudgingly were given Leave to labor for the nation In whose vanguard you have striven, What your taskmasters decided, When their spics the tidings bear That you meant to vote for Seymour And the army's idel, Blair ?

How they damned you and discharged you, With a malice born of hell, Because heart, vote, and conscience, At their beck you would not sell : And O ! don't forget to mention How your ballots under seal Sent from Richmond for McClellan, Stanton's tools were hired to steal !!

Bear in mind the seventeen thousand Soldiers' votes, all good and true, That for "little Mac" were given By his whole-souled boys in blue ! You all know how they were canceled,

And their bearer lodged in jail, Lest the white man's cause should triumph, And the New Rebellion fail.

Have we lost our rights, brave brothers, And is this, indeed, the end-To be outcast in the country We enlisted to defend ?

Shall the blacks who stuck to treason Till the tide of battle turned. With the help of Northern sharpers, Rule the roost while we are spurned ? Let us answer in November,

As true men should answer knaves ; As the martyred dead would answer, Could the question pierce their graves, Let us show the bloated upstarts,

100

Who by black votes hope to reign, held out much longer without relief," so the immutable allegiance, and the claims of foreign note ran, and our hearts grew faint within powers to punish them for alleged crime com us, is we thought of the poor prospect of mitted beyond their jurisdiction. (Applause.) being permitted to render, bim the slightest In demanding these measures and reforms assistance. Should we make one more effort? Yes, said Mrs. G , we will try once more, he can but refuse.

The second time our attempt was successmitted to be taken to Mrs. G.'s house. A very handsome man he was, with his large, dark, eyes, brown hair and heavy whiskens -a cattle dealer, he told us, and had taken no active part in the war, and a man of family too-a wife and a little babe; yet when he spoke of them, we found the effort fied there the right of trial by jury ; it has awas too great for him-it affected him too bolished the mankas convertat most sacred -that poor, emaciated hand, as he raised of speech and the press; it has substituted arit to shade his eyes.

the farmer of whom he purchased were driving them to pasture, when they met the too, and brought them in that rainy day : the fat cattle, doubtless the best sign of "disloyalty," they wished to discover.

The best medical assistance was secured, but the physician shook his head doubtfully, after closely examining his patient-his disease was pneumonia, had been neglected too long, and his recovery was doubtful. We learned from him the address of his urging upon her, if practicable, to visit him while the learned Chief Justice has been sub and us, who had taken such an interest in jected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely the stranger.

Alas! were ever words so fearfully potent, so fall of meaning, as the words "too late !"

Even before the letter had been dispatched, lies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt we began to discover our patient growing created by the war. It has stripped the Presiworse.

It was towards the evening of the second day after his removal, that we entered his room, and found his dark eye aglow with a strange, unnatural fire.

"Ah ! Maggie," he almost shricked. "I knew you would come. It was hard to die here among strangers, and without you." He raved until near midnight, when he upon his features told us too plainly that Death had already begun its inroads upon him.

Then Mrs, W. drew near him, and received messages for the absent loved onesassuring him they sheuld be faithfully delivered, and speaking to him of a happy and by the people, will subvert our form of govern glorious meeting in a heavenly home. As she mentioned the last word, his pale lips caught it up, pronounced it long and lovingly ; his eye brightened for a moment, then closed forever, while his freed spirit had fled away to "where the dark waves of eternity break upon an unknown shore," Ilis parole was ended, and General Grant, by his cold indifference to suffering humanity, his neglect to provide medical assistance. rendered one more unhappy woman a widow, and added one more little innocent to the list of helpless orphanage. - St. Joseph (Mo.) Vindicator.

THINGS AS THEY ARE. - The following are as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre empplain figures, which every day laborer, and tion or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable every taxpayer, can understand. "A La- quantities, and to none but actual occupants, boring Man'' writes the following to the at the minimum price established by the govern-Bangor (Maine) Democrat :

For four days' work in 1859 I could buy an excellent barrel of flour. For an equally the sale of such lands, and not the lands them good barrel now I have to work eight days. selves should be applied.

deeply, his voice trembled and his hand too writ of liberty ; it has overthrown the freedom bittary seizures, and arrests, and military trials, He had bought some cattle, and he and and secret star chamber inquisitions for the onstitutional tribunals; it has disregard d in ime of reace the right of the people to be free scouts, who captured them and the cattle post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American Capitol into a bastile ; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort ; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunals, and threatens to wife, and wrote to her, breaking the sad curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, tidings as gently as we could, but rather which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, > because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history and by its frauds and monop dent of his constitutional power of appointment. even of his own cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in No vember next and insugurate its President, we will meet as a subjected and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution ; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the sunk into a deep sleep. When he awoke the fearful change wrought British crown the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled e clusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and if sanctioned ment, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be es-tablished in place of a Federal Union of coequal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress, as such wre usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolu Lio nary and void. That our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution

That the public lands should be distributed ment. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the praceeds o

For one day's work in 1859 I could buy That the President of the United States, An-

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES TO CASH BUYERS! AT THE EBENSBURG

Mrs. A. BLAINE.

GEO. HUNTLEY.

and for sale cheap.

delivered at any point named

Johnstown, June 4, 1868.-tf

Errompt attention paid to orders from a distance and work put up wherever desired, or

JOHN PARKE

The undersigned respectfully informs the citizens of Ebensburg and the public gener ally that he has made a great reduction in prices to CASH BUYERS. My stock will consist, in part, of Gooking, Parlor and Heating Sloves, of the most popular kinds; Tinware of every description, of my own man-ufacture; Hardware of all kind, such as Locks, Sciews, Butt Hinges, Table Hinges, Shutter Hinges, Bolts, Iron and Nails, Window Glass, Putty, Table Knives and Forks, Carving Knives and Forks, Meat Cutters, Apple Parers, Fen and Pocket Knives in reat variety, Scissors, Shears, Razors and Strops, Axes, Hatchets, Hammers, Boring Machines, Augers, Chissels, Planes, Compasses, Squares, Files, Rasps, Anvils, Vises, Wrenches, Rip, Panel and Cross-Cut Saws, Chains of all kinds, Shovels, Spades, Scythes and Snaths, Rakes, Forks, Sleigh Bells, Shoe Lasts, Pegs, Wax Bristles, Clothes Wringers, Grind Stones, Patent Molasses Gates and Measures, Lumber Sticks, Horse Nails, Horse Shoes, Cast Steel, Rifles, Shot Guns, Revolvers, Pistols, Cartridges, Powder. Caps, Lead, &c., Odd Stove Plates, Grates and Fire Bricks, Well and Cistern Pumps and Tubing; Harness and Saddlery ups, Spices, Dried Peaches, Dried Apples, Fish, Hominy, Crackers, Rice and Pearl Barley; Soaps, Candles; TOBACCO and CIGARS; Paint, Whitewash, Scrub, Horse, Shoe, Dusting, Varuish, Stove, Clothes and Tooth Brushes, all kinds and sizes; Bed Cords and Manilla Ropes, and many other articles at the lowest rates for CASH.

Fish Oil, Lard Oil, Linseed Oil, Lubricating Oil, Rosin, Tar, Glassware, Paints, Varnish

FAMILY GROCERIES,

13- House Spouling made, painted and put up at low rates for cash. A liberal discount made to country dealers buying Tinware wholesale. GEO. HUNTLEY Ebensburg, Feb, 28, 1867.-tf.

OUNTAIN HOUSE, EBENSBURG

The TABLE is always supplied with the

R. P. LINTON & CO., Prop'rs.

ULATOR." or "STOP-GEAR," no other Wringer is licensed under this Patent. It being universally conceded that Cogs are necessary to prevent the Rolls from being broken or torn loose, many attempts have been made to get a Cog-Wheel arrangement which shall equal the UNIVERSAL, and yet avoid the "Stop-Gear," but without success. For sale by GEO. HUNTLEY. Ebensburg, May 7, 1868. 1y.º

TO THE TRADE AND PUBLIC

FRANCIS W. HAY.

Johnstown, March 7, 1867.

WHOLESALE

JOHN A. RYPES.

* WM. D. GEMMILL.

M. MCDONALD,

E. T. SLACK,

UISTORIES, BIOGRAPHIES, NOVELS,

&c. Religious Prints and Emblems in great variety, and the largest and most complete stock of STATIONERY ever brought to this

WALL PAPER, including an assortment of 500 new and beautiful styles

