Democratic County Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Democracy of Cambria cornty, for the ratification of the Naplace on TUESDAY KVENING, SEPT. 8th, Ohio regiment,) took place: 1868, at the Court House, in Ebensburg. All Conservative and Democratic cilizers are enrnestly requested to aftend and hear the great principles involved in the coming election discussed. The public debt is constantly increasing. The public credit is deteriors ing. The burthers leaded upon all industrial pursuits are paralyzing their efforts for success. The laboring man is ground down with multiplied taxation. White men are disfranchised, while negroes are made voters and elevated to office and power by unconstitutional Congressional enactments. Negro Bureaus and large standing armies are kept up in time of peace to destroy your liberties and eat out your substance. Let the people arise in their might and hurl these unprincipled demagogues from power, who are fast overthrowing our system of gov-ernment, raining our people, and destroying our liberties. Come to the meeting, and from this heur until the compaign closes with victory let our motto be action, action! By order of the County Committee.

H. D. Woodruff, Chairman.
