THE FREEMAN.

THURSDAY, ::: SEPT. 10, 1868.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY MEETING .- A large and very spirited meeting convened at the Court House on Tuesday evening, 8th, inst., and was organized, after a few appropriate remarks from the Chairman of the County Committee, Capt. H. D. Woodruff, by calling on R. L. Johnston, Esq., to preside, and appointing the usual list of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

After calling the meeting to order the President introduced R. Milton Speer, Esq., of Huntingdon, who proceeded to address the large assemblage, but it was so n discovered that the Court House was too small to accomodate the immense crowd, and on motion the meeting adjurned to the outside. From the steps of Mr. Johnst n's residence Mr. Speer proceeded with his speech, and for more than an hour held his listeners spell-bound. Twice before in Cambria County has Mr. Speer's voice been beard in defense of Democratic princi 1 les, and during the dark days of the recent fratricidal war, when fealty to the Constitution was treason in the eyes of the domineut party, his elequent defense of the right marked him, although young, as one of the most earn st and effective orators then doing battle for the good cause. On Tuesday Mr. Speer was just thirty years of age, and yet we can safely say that no man who listened to his eloquent words and convincing arguments on this occasion could repress the conviction that he is now a veteran defender of Democratic principles. He made one of the finest speeches we ever listened to, and the Democracy of Cambria will never cease to honor him for it.

Mr. Speer was followed by Gen. B. H. Kerr, of Allegheny County, who delivered a most logical, elequent and masterly speech, more than an hour in length, giving date and reference to substantiate his arraignment of the despicable party now seeking far a further lease of political power

Hon. C. L. Pershing was next called upon, and made a brief, but earnest and effective speech, in his characteristic style, which was listened to with earnest attention.

Col. John P. Linton, our candidate for Congress, followed Mr. Pershing in a short address, delivered with that earnest and convincing eloquence for which he is proverbial, and which stamps him as the proper man to represent this district in the low er house of Congress. Mr. Liuton's address suded the speaking for the evening, and the meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for the entire Democratic ticket.

BURGLARS ABOUT - On Tuesday night of to the Mountain House at Cresson, after the week is exceedingly large. Many of the night last, there was a very large attendance, Also, Singer's Needles, Oil, Silk and Cotton carrying off a censiderable amount of money and ones, have been smicably settled. Wm. M. We have not | Parties interested will take notice of this fact learned that any clae has been obtained as to who were the perpetrators of this robbery.

-On Saturday night last an unsuccessful attempt was made to enter the Treasurer's cflice, to the Court House at this place. The would-be burglars succeeded in toring eighteen holes, in a very workmanlike manner, in the top and bottom of one of the panels intervening space, but at this juncture they ecem to have been alarmed in some way, and made a precipitate retreat without accomplishing their purpose. Had they succeeded in getting into the office they would have been confronted by a strong iron safe, and had they succeeded in opening the safe they would have found that all the funds which Cambria county possesses were on deposit in the strong vaults of a banking house fully a square and a half distant. In fact, the Treasurer's office contained "pary mickel," and had the rascal- got into it they would only have had their labor for their pains -Still the attempt proves that there are burglars about, and people with property worth to either class, and of course our advice is the more worthy to be heeded.

Johnstown Letter,

WRITTEN BY PETROLEUM V. NASBY, JR.

Last Saturday nite was a gay nite among us Red Republicans down here. Me and Mr. Boggs got up a Tanner's Club, and last Saturday nite we got the fellers that jined the club to march out in processhun, wich they did up to natur. We call ourselves tanners because, by the miscegenashun process, we an the white man's skin yellow. That's what the original of tunner means, no matter what slanderers may say. In other words, we are the "Murlatto Boys," so far as the nigger process is consarned, and we are Young Diggers" on the Injun mix.

Well, we gut up a processhun, and there wasn't enuff of us to make even a body, so we hung on about a hundred boys for a knil, the weeist boy behindst. We had injun lanterns, and boxes with muslin skins on, painted a tan color, and the funniest mottoes you ever seed in all your born days.

The fust man carried a box on a pole wich had four faces, to emblematicize our platform, wich has four meanins. On one side was a nigger wench a huggin of a white man, which means love and nigger equality. On the second side was a little Digger Injun riden Gen. Grant's horse to water, and eatin a piece of grasshopper pie. That means "toe want piece," and Injun equality. On the third side was a bondholder ridin a jackass, which means "these are the creatures that we ride into power on." On the fourth side was a "loil" man goin to war, with a pla card pasted onto his back in these words "Two hundred dollars reward for a substitute"- Let's be loil." Another feller carried a pole with another transparency, with a thief a runnin and a cryin "stop thief!" on one side; on the other Mrs. Linco'n a sailin to Europe. On one end a feller was a printin greenbacks after night and kind o' ookin round for the police. On the other end o carpet-bag man was killin a KuKluz and hollerin murder himself. Another chap carried a beast with seven heads and ten horns, wich some scamp had printed Butler under. Another had "Scrip given for Greenbacks at our Store," wich put us in minder old times. Another had General Grant in the Presidential chair, but some rascal had nailed the muslin skin wrong side up, and Grant was a fallin out all round the processhun, and his whiskey a spillin out too. The whiskey would a been the principal loss, as Grant could a bin gathered up agin. Grant looked somewhat d(ejected). There was au-other man pictured wich looked a good deal like a old cuttin bes. It may have bin Coldfacts badly skeered. There were many more strikin illustrations and resemblances, too tedious to encomerate now. Suffize it to say that the processhun would have been a grand success if there had been a turn out, but as it was, it was a grand farse, which comes

ALTOONA CITY, Sept. 7, 1868. Friend Mac-On Friday night last Lloyd Smith, a young man employed in the upper Round House, laid down and fell asleep in close proximity to the main track, and while asleep unconsciously placed one of his arms across the track, and an engine moving out of the Round House passed over his wrist and severed the hand from the arm. I am informed that young Smith is the son of a widow and her only support, which fact renders his misfortune the more lamentable.

On the following day Mr. Emanuel Bigham, a skillful carpenter of this place, while at work in Hollidaysburg, fell from a scaffold, a distance of eighteen or twenty feet, and broke one of his arms in two places, besides receiving other injuries of a painful character. The members of the order who participated were in full regalia, and presented a very imposing appearance. The ceremonies were grand and impressive, and the oration, which was delivered by Rev. Thomas of Johnstown, was an exceedingly eloquent and mesterly effort. The singing was under the direction of Prof. Delo, and was charmingly rendered. The church is to be 47 by 75 feet in dimensions and two room and all the modern improvements. It will be, when finished, one of the finest religious edifices in our growing city.

The young man whom I mentioned in my last letter as having been so shamefully malstill lies in a precarlous condition, with but little hope for his recovery.
