

THE FREEMAN THURSDAY, : : : SEPT. 24, 1868.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Persons desiring to attend school should write for the catalogue of the State Normal School. Address J. A. Cooper, Edinboro, Erie Co., Pa.

DRIFT MENTION.—The chief editor is absent making speeches in Allegheny county, and the junior is so much occupied with job work pertaining to the approaching election, that the former has had no time and the latter very little to devote to the present issue of the Freeman. It is a rather uninteresting number so far as editors are concerned, but we can't help it. Another exquisite poetical contribution has been received from "Linet," which will find a place in next week's Freeman.—Our next door neighbor, John D. Thomas, had received a varied assortment of the best manufactured ladies' misses' and children's shoes ever made, and we advise all our lady friends to call and see them. They are perfect in make, handsome in style, seasonable in quality and low in price.—The public schools of this borough will open for the fall and winter session on Monday next. Our young friend, Mr. George W. Cape, an earnest and conscientious teacher, has been continued as Superintendent of these schools.—The Greensburg Democrat gives the name of the young man who was arrested in this place last week with a stolen horse in his possession, as Wm. King, and says that he was convicted and sent to the Penitentiary two years ago for the same offence, but was pardoned some four weeks ago by Gov. Geary.—Hon. George H. Pendleton, the noble patriot and eloquent orator, will address the Democracy at Pittsburg on Monday, Oct. 5th, and at Greensburg on Tuesday, Oct. 6th. These are the only speeches which will be delivered by Mr. Pendleton in this State.—The young Democrats in several localities have formed themselves into companies known as Jackson Guards, as an effort to the "Tanners' clubs," and equipped themselves with caps, rifles, etc. Couldn't a company be raised in Ebensburg?—Presidential Campaign Caps, Caps, &c., advertised in this issue by P. Hill, Phila. Read advertisement.—The election of Hon. H. D. Foster to Congress, in place of "Glory to Geary" Governor, is a magnificent success. It would be a victory well worth rejecting over, and we fondly hope the opportunity may be afforded.—A mass meeting of the Democracy is to be held at Fenlon's Grove, Latrobe, on Saturday next, and the district sending the largest delegation is to be presented with a magnificent silk flag by the citizens of that place.—A young man named Lyons fell off a horse-power attached to a threshing machine, in Conemaugh township, Indiana county, on Friday week, and one of his legs was caught between the movable frame and stationary arms, and so seriously crushed that it had to be amputated.—A Mrs. Woolweaver, of White township, Indiana county, was bitten in several places by a copperhead snake, on Saturday week, but medical assistance saved her life.—A new freight line, known as the National, was placed on the Pennsylvania Railroad last week, running from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh in eighteen hours—equal to the time made by the mail passenger train. It is the fastest freight time made by any railroad ever known.—Jacob Barnhart, a respectable farmer residing near McConnellsburg, being himself in the barn on Sunday morning, he had left a large quantity of straw in the yard near a tree, and he was sitting on a tree, on Sunday morning last, while the rest of the family were absent at church.—William Anderson has been appointed Postmaster at East Freedom, in this county, and a very intelligent gentleman and sound Democrat.—The Altoona Tribune is agitating the project of starting a daily paper in that city. And why not?—Two hundred and fifty four soldiers passed through Altoona on Monday week, and not a Grant man among them.

THE RAIL ROLLING.—The first of a series of Democratic meetings throughout the rural districts of Cambria county, was held at Belasco, in Blacklick township, on Monday afternoon last, and in point of numbers and interest was a complete success. It was presided over by John B. Eas, Esq., and his son, Mr. James Eas, acted as one of the Secretaries. Both these gentlemen have heretofore been identified with the Republican party. The meeting was addressed by Hon. C. L. Pershing, John E. Scanlon and Wm. H. Sechler, Esqs., and all three delivered splendid addresses. Mr. Pershing's effort was particularly exhaustive and well timed, and was one of the best of his ever excellent speeches. Blacklick will give a good account of itself, notwithstanding its Republican proclivities. On Tuesday morning Col. John P. Linton and Messrs. Sechler, Scanlon, Shoemaker and Tierney, to keep their fire of march for the north to the county, and on that afternoon and evening, if the extremely inclement condition of the weather did not forbid, addressed meetings at St. Nicholas and Carrolltown. Our candidates for Assembly and Prothonotary, and several other gentlemen, accompanied the delegation from this point. Yesterday (Wednesday) meetings were held at Plottville in the afternoon and at Glasser's settlement in the evening. To-day like meetings will convene at Leiden's, in Chest township, and at Fallen Timber, in White township. On Friday an evening meeting has been announced at St. Augustine, and on Saturday Chest Springs will witness an afternoon meeting, and the week's work will conclude with an outpouring at Loretto in the evening. Next week the ball will open with a turnout at Hemlock in the evening, to be followed by a meeting at Williams on Tuesday evening, one at Rager's and one at Fairview, in Jackson township, on Wednesday afternoon and evening, one at Munster on Thursday evening, and one at Summitville in the afternoon and another at Gallitzin on the evening of Saturday. Messrs. Pershing, McLaughlin, Rose and Linton, of Johnstown, Easley, of Carrolltown, and Sechler, Scanlon, Otman, Shoemaker and Tierney, of this place, all members of the legal profession, have volunteered for this campaign, and right nobly have they inaugurated the good work. May their labors be rewarded by at least twelve hundred majority for the Democratic cause in ever true and faithful Cambria! So mote it be.

SPECIAL TO TEACHERS.—Special examinations of teachers for Cambria county will be held at the following times and places: In the Union School House, Ebensburg, on Saturday, Sept. 26th. In the new School House, Johnstown, on Saturday, Oct. 3d. In the School House, Carrolltown, on Saturday, October 10th. Examinations will commence at 9 o'clock A. M. T. J. CRAPANZ, Co. Sup't.

Johnstown Letter.

WRITTEN BY PETEROLUM V. SASBY, JR.

Mr. Editor:—We have trouble in our Tannery here now. The "diggers" and "niggers" split into two factions, the "diggers" going with the Welsh Tanners and the "niggers" forming a new nucleus in the Old Fellows' Hall, old Arkade building. The reason we have trouble is because we tried to employ ten diggers for making rye faces at your Red Republican Mayor, when they were up to Ebensburg swinging onto the circle. We sent them to fight copperheads, and not to fight with our own nigger brethren. At first there were thirty-five of us, and we expelled ten, leaving twenty-five to transact the business, and we fit about "reconstruction" the ten rebels. One said they should not be expelled without a hearing. Another said we took their weekly dues, and expelled them without notice, and we will expect ten rebel members into our tannery, without asking them why." See I, "What the Bump can do with the head and quarters has power few do without representation and with as much taxusianism as we please, and they shan't get back into this wigwam until every one is included into the laps with the letters A. R. S., which are the initials of "A Returned Sinner." This settled the case, and the diggers left, exhibiting all the signs of penitence that Jonah did when he swallowed the whale. We went to the Arkade and reconstructed ourselves.

When order was restored I called on the committee to report. The 2d Lieutenant read a report on the "Progress of Tannin." He reported two young colored members who had failed in the tannin process for want of the proper juice or something else. The case had been taken to the Ebensburg court, but was wisely settled, and he therefore called it up. Mr. Boggs said that the motto of Tanners was, "We know no such word as fail." Mr. Hunt endorsed the sentiment, but said a chemist said he had analyzed the matter, and the failure was owing to physical causes entirely. He would therefore move that they be restored to fraternal and conjugal fellowship, with all the other niggers, black and white, which was accordingly done.

The next question that came up was the "tannin" which was the subject of the first letter it would be. The boys seemed disappointed that they didn't see it. They had been stretching their necks all night when Mr. Kennedy was a talkin'. One young tanner said, "See, Gumbo, there it is. It's for all the world as if it had been a piece of tannin, but the question was sprung in the tannery, but as none of us ever see the creature, and didn't know what it was like, we laid the question on the old table. The committee on elections was next in order, and Mr. Boggs read the returns from Main, with great perspiration and dignity. He added, the returns of eight states, and over last year. "But," sez I, "if you subtract it, instead of adding it, it proves a clear loss of eight thousand from the year before." Boggs said he knew that, but he supposed it was the Tanners' business to add and subtract, in the cause of Democracy, and last year. "But," sez I, "if you subtract it, instead of adding it, it proves a clear loss of eight thousand from the year before." Boggs said he knew that, but he supposed it was the Tanners' business to add and subtract, in the cause of Democracy, and last year. "But," sez I, "if you subtract it, instead of adding it, it proves a clear loss of eight thousand from the year before." THE OLDEST AND BEST.—The oldest clothing house in Johnstown is under the proprietorship of Mr. James J. Murphy, and is located on Clinton street. His long career is evidence sufficient of his popularity, and no man can say that he has been in the business of dealing with his customers in all that time. A new and magnificent stock has just been received at this establishment, and gentlemen and boys can be fitted with the very best of clothing at the most moderate figures.

GREENBACKS are the cause of considerable discussion just now among politicians, but their own backs will be found of more immediate interest to the masses of the people, and the change in the weather should induce all to make a change in their wearing apparel. Our gentlemen friends will find that a very small outlay of greenbacks will cover their own backs very comfortably and neatly at Cohen & Bro's New York Clothing Hall, Park's new building, Main St., Johnstown.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE!—Mayer, whose store is in Park's new building, Main street, Johnstown, desires the fact to be kept before the people, and especially before the ladies, that his stock of dry goods, dresses and millinery is unsurpassed in quality, quantity and cheapness of price anywhere in Pennsylvania. Let this fact have due weight with ladies who visit that place to make their purchases.

OUR TREATISE ON THE HAIR.—It will prevent the Hair from falling out. Makes the Hair smooth and glossy, and does not stain the skin as others! R. P. HALL & CO., Publishers, H. Prop's, For sale by all druggists. [Sept. 17-1m.]

is a prevailin' evil among us. We're skored lest they might get their new-born manhood baptized in Grant whiskey on election day, and so would lose their votes. Also, five dollars for voters between this and five-dollar day. Come one, come all! who'll sell his birthrite for a mess of potash! N.

BULLDOGS OF TANNERS.—In emulation of the Tanners' Club of Johnstown, which visited this place a couple of weeks since, the Republicans here got up a similar organization, and on Friday evening last they made their first public parade with flaming torches, but without the requisite capes, caps, etc. They presented quite a respectable appearance, but many of the persons in the line were beardless boys, and altogether it was a mere empty show, signifying nothing. On Monday evening some twenty or twenty-five Democratic juveniles got up a burlesque parade, and their appearance on our streets, unknown and unannounced, created a good deal of merriment. They were preceded by a most discordant band in which horns, drums, whistles, etc., figured conspicuously, after which came a transparency bearing the following legends: "Bullskin Club—the tail end of a hide Grant is not able to tan; "Rah for Grant and Poll-nigger brethren, I'm not as good a centre as you, Grant (head) is better!"—and on the main side there was a picture representing an "American citizen of African descent," and a "mule's daddy." This caricature was announced as "Grant's first appearance in the ring," and elicited considerable attention from all who saw it. The transparency, thrown at the procession by boys of opposite political faith, but no damage was done.

Dear Freeman.—The Democratic Club of this place was addressed, on last Saturday evening, by Hon. Geo. Bull, of Philadelphia. Mr. B. is an excellent speaker, and is doing good service in the cause of Democracy. His speech was listened to with the utmost attention, and received with great applause. After the conclusion of his speech the meeting adjourned.

YOUNG MEN OF NIGHT, YE MEN OF DAY.—Arise! your country is in a sore. Heed not your counting, ere she falls! Young men and old, your country calls! She needs your help to turn away The tyrant's yoking, leading away Her greatness, power, her very all. Need help—arise! and heed her call. When tyrants seized our happy land, And bound in chains her mighty hand, Their wish was then that she might fall, Ye heroes, heed your country's call! They were the bravest and the best, They stood the bloody battle's test, They died for country, life and all: For these, my country, you may call. In raging conflict, bold and true, Beneath the dear "Red, White and Blue," Stood sons who nought could then appal—Aloud to these, my country, call! You fought, tried heroes, to maintain—You conquered nobly—did restrain—This tottering Union from a fall; She totters now—then list her call! Arise! arise! the cause is just: "In God alone we put our trust." To save our country, fight with fair, Elect H. Seymour and Frank Blair. Yours, &c.,

PROCLAIM the glad tidings o'er highland and plain, Shoemaker has triumphed—he's in the field once again. With the first stock of dry goods, in endless array, And dress goods and notions, a splendid display. And now he proposes to one and to all, To sell them such goods as are needed for fall, And to sell them so cheap that all will agree His stock is the best at low prices they ever did see.

A COMMENDABLE PRIZE.—Every tidy housewife has a commendable pride in setting before visitors, at least, the best viands in the best style, and on such occasions she likes to grace her table with such articles of silver-plated ware as Geo. Huntley has now in store in most attractive array, and is offering at very low figures to all who desire to purchase. Husbands and others should have no hesitation in enabling their wives, mothers or sisters to invest in ware of this kind, if they can at all afford the outlay.

IMPROVEMENT.—Our next door neighbor, Mr. M. L. Otman, has built a very extensive warehouse in connection with his store, having found that his rapidly increasing business demanded this improvement. Mr. Otman is succeeding beyond his most sanguine expectations, as indeed all merchants must succeed who deal liberally with their customers. He has at all times the most complete and extensive stock of groceries kept in Ebensburg, and sells at the most moderate prices.

THE CATHOLIC WORLD, a Monthly Magazine of General Literature and Science. New York: The Catholic Publication House, No. 126 Nassau street.

THE OCTOBER NUMBER of this admirable publication is on our table and its contents are fully up to our high standard of literature, and sustains the excellent reputation heretofore accorded to its work. Its contributors are among the ablest men in the country. The editor, Father Hecker, is a profound scholar and a splendid dialectician. All the subjects discussed in this valuable monthly are handled in the most searching and thorough manner, and the admirable editing and printing, and the beautiful corps of contributors is rarely found in controversial writings. This pleasing feature of the magazine commends it to all, and its able, trenchant and varied contents should make it a welcome visitor to every intelligent household. Terms $5 a year.

"SHINE AND SHADOW," a Tale of New York City, by Matthew Hale Schaef, J. B. Burr & Co., Publishers, Hartford, Ct. We have received the advance sheets of a highly interesting and most exciting and graphic work, bearing the above title, which is now in press and will soon be issued. We have never perused sketches of a similar character in which we became more deeply absorbed, and in reading these advance sheets a criterion of what the work itself will be, it is safe to predict that "Sunshine and Shadow" will produce a sensation in the literary world seldom equalled and never surpassed. The book will contain over 700 pages, will be printed on excellent paper by clear type, and will be fully illustrated throughout. It will be sold by agents at the low price of $3, and persons are wanted to undertake its sale in every county and town in this and other States. Liberal inducements are offered. Address the Publishers as above.

YOUR COUNTRY CALLS!

Ye men of night, ye men of day, Arise! your country is in a sore. Heed not your counting, ere she falls! Young men and old, your country calls! She needs your help to turn away The tyrant's yoking, leading away Her greatness, power, her very all. Need help—arise! and heed her call. YOUR SUMMER CLOTHING is played out, soiled, worn, out of shape and out of season, and anyhow you need a new suit, as fall is now with us. E. Leopold & Bro., Main street, Johnstown, have the largest and best assortment of gentlemen's wearing apparel, made expressly for this market and for this season, that can be found in Cambria or any other county. Prices very low and satisfaction guaranteed. 2t.

AN ADMIRABLE FACT.—No person in this section boasts the ability of Mr. G. T. Roberts to sell the best American watches, clocks, jewelry, sewing machines, stationery, books, notions, tobacco, cigars, etc., just as cheap as any dealer in his line of business, here or elsewhere, and hence no one goes from home to buy what he has for sale. Let him be encouraged.

"TEMPUS FUGIT" is Latin for "time flies," and is used in this instance to attract attention to the fact that the opportunities for buying goods at first cost are rapidly passing away at the well-stocked store of R. R. Davis, on High street, the proprietor of which is actually closing out his summer stock at first cost.

MORE ECONOMICAL, REMARKABLE CERTAINTY OF PROMPT ACTION, IN FACT, EVERY GOOD QUALITY IS GUARANTEED FOR MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER OR DRESSING (in one bottle.) Every Druggist will sell it. Price One Dollar.

ERIE & LANDELL, 4th and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, are now offering a large stock of Fall Goods to purchasers. This is an old established and reliable Dry Goods House. Read advertisement.

DR. S. I. THOMAS' PATENT LIFE SYRUP, for the cure of Incontinent Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Croup, Asthma, Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, and General Debility. For several years I have been urged by kind friends, who have used and been benefited by my Life Syrup, to put it up for general sale; but few know the large expense, now that the country is flooded with Patent Medicines, which attend the same. For years past I was reluctant to do so, as the capital required would be large, and I did not wish to curtail the operations of my Venetian Liniment business. But, thanks to the generous public, who are so ready to do so without detriment to my large business in that medicine. The foundation of my success I attribute to attending to the manufacture of every drop myself, and shall do the same in regard to my Pulmonic Syrup. The ingredients are perfectly harmless, but act on the Lungs and Liver with astonishing effect. Price 75 cents. Depot, No. 55 Corlandt Street, New York, near Jersey City Ferry. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers. [Sept. 2-1m.]

HALL'S VEGETABLE SIGILIAN HAIR RESTORER. It is the best article ever known to RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR. It will prevent the Hair from falling out. Makes the Hair smooth and glossy, and does not stain the skin as others! OUR TREATISE ON THE HAIR. SENT FREE BY MAIL. R. P. HALL & CO., Publishers, H. Prop's, For sale by all druggists.
