AN EDUCATION IS A FORTUNE .- One of the best places to acquire a sound education is at the Normal School. Write for its circular. Address J. A. Cooper, Edinboro, Erie Co., Pa.

THE CAMPAIGN .- The political meetings held throughout the northern part of the county last week were, for the most part, however much they might have desired to listen to the discussion of the important issues involved in the present campaign.

The present week, so far, has been extremely favorable for out-door meetings, and the gatherings have improved in numbers thusiastic which has ever assembled in Washington township. It was addressed by Messrs, Linton, Rose, Scanlan, Oatman, Shoemaker and Tierney, and was in all respects a glorious success. Two splendid who works miracles." At Wilmore, on Tuesday evening, another feeling and a firm determination to work for the great and important cause for which all Democrats should be laboring was manifested by every participant. The speakers on the occasion were Meesrs. Oatman, Shoemaker, Johnston and Sechler, of this place, and splendid music was furnished by the celebrated Newry silver cornet band, and every thing passed off gloriously. No districts in the county will give better accounts of them-tion day. Outside our own county the good work is progressing nobly, and nowhere have the better will than in the neighboring county of Indiana. On Saturday last a bickory pole 150 feet long above ground, was successfully raised at Strongstown, and the largest meeting ever witnessed in that region assembled on the occasion. Excellept speeches were delivered by Messrs. Thompson and Clark of Indiana, and were received editor of the Freeman was expected to be Gen. Foster to Congress in place of Covode has been determined upon by the Democracy of his district, and Indiana county is Lound to do her part in furtherance of that comas Thomas Casswell, Esq., of Strongstown, at work in that Radical stronghold, much may be expected of the Democracy of Indiana, and hence we look for an unprecedented reduction in the Radical majority there at the coming election.

BRIEF MENTION .- The articles in the last Alleghanian and Hoilidaysburg Register will probably receive attention, if deemed wor thy, when the editor again reports for duty. --- See the great Zingara Bitters advertisement in another column. -- Two valuable cows were killed by a freight pusher, near Wilmore, on Monday morning .- Mr. Pat'k Conwell, of Derry township, Westmoreland county, had both legs broken, er Thursday week, in consequence of a heavy piece of timber falling upon them from a barn he was helping to raise. One leg had to be amputated .- The Democratic Mass Convention at Greensburg, on Tuesday next, it is confidently expected, will equal if not exceed in numbers any like demonstration ever held in Western Pennsylvania. Hons. Geo. H. Pendleton, Richard Vaux, Wm. F. Johnston, J. B. Jeup, Edgar Cowan and H. D. Foster are the speakers announced .- Hon. A. M'Allister has sent the Williamsburg Vindicator which there was 14 rows of corn, averaging 58 grains to the row, and making in all 814 grains .- Messrs. Frysinger & Walters, of Lewistown, have purchased the Clarksburg (W. Va.) Conservattoe .- The relict of the 'late lamented" is not in London; but in Altoona, a cable dispatch to the contrary notwithstanding .- Mrs. McKinstree, of Mt. Union, was struck on the head by a backing grave! train, a few days ago, and seriously injured .- We were shown two potatoes, the product of one stalk, grown in the lot of Mr. John Dougherty, of this place, which together weighed thirty ounces .--- A pheasant alighted on a dead tree in front of Mrs. Hutchinson's residence, in this place, on Tuesday evening last, and remained there fully fifteen minutes, or until frightened away by a stone thrown at it. Considering that the pheasant is an untameable bird, this visit is a somewhat singular one .--- Wm. Elder, while engaged in making some repairs at the hoisting machine of the Hollidaysburg Furnace, on Saturday last, was accidentally precipitated down the machine, a distance of fifty-five feet, and so seriously injured that he died on the following morning .- An unoccupied frame house in the Second Ward, Altoona, was destroyed by fire, on Tuesday night week. Supposed incendiarism. -- Messrs. Row & Co. have retired from the Scott House, Johnstown, and

SHOUTING AFFAIR.-We learn that a young man named Jones was shot in the face, and slightly injured, on Thursday last. by Nicholas Nagle, constable of Carroll township. Mr. Nagle had a warrant for the arrest of young Jones, who was charged with assault and battery and using threatening language, and was attempting to capture him, but Jones refused to be taken and started to run. The officer called on him to halt. and fired a shot in the air to intimidate bim, but Jones still paid no attention to the sumflesh wound,

RELIGIOUS EXERCISES CLOSED,-The Triduum, or three days' devotion, which was congregation generally availed themselves of the opportunity afforded for approaching the resident pastor was aided by Revs. Brown, of Loretto, Cristoph, of Carrolltown, Mc-Govern, of Bellefonte, and Farren, of Tyrone, and Several fine sermons were preached durber the resident pastor was aided by Revs. Brown, the really magnificent stock of goods just us to take all the whiskey we can get, and brought to this market by V. A VENERABLE SERVANT .- A correspondent of the New York Tablet, writing from Elizabeth, N. J., under date of Sept. 15th, 1868, speaks thus of the venerable Father LEMKE, a priest well known and greatly beghenies, as indeed he was by all classes with whom he came in contact :

children called him Santa Claus, because he had a long white beard, and the older people thought he had stepped out of some painting since then happily a Catholic, was one day induced by curiosity, for he had not the that was worn eighteen hundred years ago; I heard a language that was spoken eighteen hundred years ago, the same principles that were given to the world eighteen hundred years ago, and saw a priest officiating who soon began to know him, both as priest and -and let me assure you we have that delectable article in all its glory here-honor completed a large Convent for them, where in about two weeks they will receive boarders and day scholars, and if they make geng'orious rally was held, and the utmost good tle, earnest, unaffected women, after their own pattern, they will be a blessing to the country.

"Now for the first time-since it is no longer for himself, but for others-Father at the corner of Spring and Magnolia streets, which will close on September 12th, I believe. We have had one week of rain .remembering we have given him one great pleasure. And now is the time. S. M. B."

IF THERE is any thing an honest farmer likes it is plain dealing. It is his own way of doing things, and he will never do bu iness if he knows it, with any one who is even disposed to take advantage of him. When he is dealing in corn and wheat, he isn't afraid of any man getting ahead of him, but when he goes to town to buy things with which he is less famililar, then he wants first of all an honest man to deal with. All visitors to Oak Hall, are struck with the "Instructions to Salesmen" posted on the wall, and signed by the proprietors Wanamaker & Brown. This is one item :

No mis-statement shall ever be made about the material, quality, value, fit or in ANY particular as to the character of an article offered for sale. The utmost fairness, candor, honesty and truthfulness, shall be exer cised in every transaction. No overpraising, puffing up, or anything bordering upon de ception, shall be practiced, in the sale of goods.

LITERARY .- Godey's Lady's Book for Ocan ear of corn measuring 13 inches, upon Its contents, as usual, are rich and varied. tober has been on our table for several days. "First time at Church," a rarely excellent steel engraving, is its frontispiece, while the "Refreshing Drink," is an exceedingly fine picture of its kind. The fashion plates are unusually elaborate, and upon the whole, this number compares favorably with any of its predecessors.

Ballou's Monthly Magazine for October contains a number of excellent papers. We commend this magazine to our readers as furnishing a large amount of valuable reading, for a very moderate price.

MULTUM IN PARVO is Latin for "much in little," but the expression is applicable in only one sense to the fine establishment of C. T. Roberts, which has the "much" muchly, but nothing "little" in the store, stock, proprietor, or aught else, save the many useful little things kept there and the little price asked for all articles offered for sale. If you want "little" or "much" in his line, Cham is the man to buy from.

A CONSTANT STREAM .- Almost every day brings something new to the extensive store of J. Patton Thompson, next door to Ebensburg Bank. The proprietor is all the time in the city, and when his eye rests on any style of goods which would be likely to please the tastes of his customers he buys been succeeded by Mr. Huston, of Latrobe. and forwards it. So his stock is always complete and always cheap.

> WIDESPREAD .- The reputation of Mayer's fancy dry goods and millinery establishment, in Parke's new building, Johnstown, is every day becoming more widespread among the ladies of Cambria county, and few think of buying a large bill of goods anywhere else. An immense and splendid assortment is at all times offered very cheap for cash at this popular emporium.

BUY THE BEST .- When a man buys a himself up, but Jones continued his flight, are sure that no dealer in the trade offers said, "My friends, I can't do justice to this which entered Jones' cheek and passed out E. Leopold & Bro., Main street, Johnstown. cash. 2t.

Now the war 's over, but we are tryin' to get up another, and, to deceive the people, we must cry peace !- always preachin' one thing and practisin' another. We cried 'Union!' when we was dissolvin' the Union, and we cry 'Peace!' when we mean war. Do you suppose all this stir of lamps and Grant whiskey means peace? No, it means war, 'and, repeat it, let it come!' Better that we all die for the Union than that the Union dies for us!" (Cheers.) Sez I, "We got up all kinds of 'cock and bull stories' about nigger wenches bein' stuck in hollor trees, and roasted with fire till the trees busted and the poor wenches flew away into a pine grove and traveled seventy-five miles on a rail fence, over a swamp, till they came onto a neighborin' town, and was taken in for the purpose of carryin' the eleckshun by appeala' to sympathy; but while we are preachin' this we are practisin' cruelty ourselves onto the poor white trash deown South. This is our policy. We must preach one thing and practise another till we carry the eleckshun, if it can be carried. Them's our principles, and uf any man's got any konshunce he can't belong tew our party." When I sat down the Fourth Lieutenant moved to censure "Nasby" by a vote of thanks, which was done by tremenjus cheerin'. This was on Saturday evenin' just before we started for Wilmore. We then lit our tin lamps and started for Wilmore town, singin' John Brown. - Some feller sed we looked for all the world like a string of lightnin' bugs, and when our coat-tails would fly up a phospho rescent light was emitted, just like that wich

Well, we went to Wilmore town and held a meetin' for the boncs and sinews of Summerhill township, the same immortal three hundred, or all that was sober enuff. "Into the jaws of death went the three hundred." Well, goin' up along, we was talkin' about the war that's comin'. Sez I, "We must preach peace at Wilmore, but war 's a good thing. It kills off the bad boys and purifies society, and Lord knows of the hul creashun is as bad as our tanner's society it needs purificashun." When we got out uv the accommodashun car, which accommodated us for one hundred dollars, paid in advance, Mr. Miller, from the committee on ways and means, presented us with a punkin, which, he said, was emblematical of our growth .-That punkin, he sed, had growed since Grant was nominated, and so did our society. The Fifth Lieutenant was goin' to receive the punkin, when Mr. Boggs rose to a point of order. He said he didn't think it was proper for one punkin to receive another, and of the best makes still on hands, which he left it for the head centre tew decide. > JOHNSTOWN, Sept. 28, 1868. Dear Freeman-The excitement incident to the near approach of the election is growing intense. Both parties are straining every nerve in view of the close contest for Congress in this district. The Republicans are spending considerable money and using every other influence to carry the district. Meetings are being held every night in the week at some point or other, and the clap-trap and gaudy displays of tanners, wearing caps and capes and bearing flaming torches, is being made use of to sugar-coat the radical pill, which otherwise would be too nauseous or the stomachs of the "dear people" whose votes are so important to keep in power and place the cornorants who have grown fat porming a mange and variety of work never the misfortunes and miseries of our before attempted upon a single Machine, using common country. On the other hand, the Democrats are working hopefully and earnestly, for they know that upon the result and coarsest materials, and anything between of the election in this State depends in a great measure the future welfare of this once united, prosperous and happy people. Let every Democrat in the county, then, go to work and do his duty manfully, and in October little Cambria will roll up such a majority for Colonel Linton and the whole tic- ular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar ket as will carry terror and consternation into the radical ranks and inspire with renewed zeal and hope the heart of every true

Union man in the country. Herman Schroder, Esq., of New York, an able and eloquent German speaker, addressed the Democracy of this place, in the Club room on Clinton street, on Friday night last. His speech elicited frequent applause, and, considering the inclemency of the weather and the short notice given, was listened to by a large concourse of Democrats.

On the following evening the regular weekly meeting of the Club was held, at which there was a very large attendance. Mr. N. Horne was the first speaker on this occasion, and his address, which was delivered la his usual forcible and convincing style, was loudly applauded. Capt. H. D. Wodruff followed in a few encouraging remarks relative to the progress of the campaign in Northern Cambria, from which section he had just returned, after which the meeting adjourned with three cheers for the speakers and three more for the entire Democratic ticket.

Square in this place, on Wednesday evening next, and it is expected that a large turn out of Democratic and Conservative citizens will assemble at the time and place indicated, notwithstanding the fact that no brilliant Hon, Charles A. May the blessings of a benificent Providence attend them in their efforts.

Mr. John Brady, proprietor of the Franklin House, has returned to his home after a sojourn of several months' duration in his his native Green Isle. His appearance indicates that his trip has been a pleasant and beneficial one physically.

It is said that the Radical Council of this borough has refunded the amount of the fine and costs imposed by our County Court upon police officer McDowell for his unwarranted assault upon a quiet and inoffensive farmer, named Weaver, in this place some months ago, and it is further said that the Radical candidate for Congress voted in Council for this iniquitous squandering of the people's money. Is not this offering a premium for crime?
