THE RESULT IN CAMBRIA .- Amid the general defeat which seeths to have overwhelmed the Democracy in Tuesday's election, it is gratifying to know that Cambria county has in the main sustained her fair name, and given a Democratic majority on the State and the greater portion of the county ticket nearly up to her average 'majorities. It is also a source of great gratification to know that our candidate for District Attorney has been elected, notwithstanding a renegade Democrat was placed on the Radical ticket and many otherwise consistent Democrats struck hands with our political enemies in the effort to defeat Mr. Tierney. What his majority will be it is now impossible to determine, but while it will be small, probably not more than one or two hundred, it is concoded by all parties that he has been elected.

We give the vote, from such districts as have thus far been reported, on Auditor General, Congress, Assembly and District Attorney, the tabular statement thereof, as given below, having been kindly prepared for us by Wm. H. Sechler, Esq. :

JOHNSTOWN, Oct. 12, 1868. Dear Freeman-A man named Thomas Hocker was found dead on the Pennsylvania Railroad track, a short distance east of the station house at this place, on Thursday morning last. There were several bruises upon his person, which led to the belief that had been struck by a passing train. He was la resident of Woodvale, was well advanced in years, and leaves a family.

There was a very large workingmen's meeting held on the Public Square, on last Monday evening. It was addressed by E. H. Haywood, Esq., of the "Massachusetts Labor Reform League."

On the following evening there was a very large gathering of the Democracy at the Eli P. Norton, of New York, A. W. Phelps, of Connecticut, and Col. H. L. Van Cleve, of Tennessee, all of whom delivered most eloquent and effective addresses. Whatever may be the result of to mor-row's election, the recent Democratic outpourings in this place have had the effect of alarming if not frightening the Radicals in regard to that result. On the bills calling or the Radical mass meeting on Saturday Oct. 3d, it was announced as the "last grand lemonstration before the State election."-The immense Democratic meetings held since then seem to have startled them exceedingly, however, for flaming posters were stuck up about town announcing another "grand rally" on Friday evening. After much trouble they succeeded in drumming up a diminuive crowd of men and boys, when the manager, "Col." R. W. Hunt, proceeded, with lue solemnity, to read off a long list of offi-ers to preside over the meeting, and concluled by inviting them to the stand, which vas objected to on the ground that there could be no one left below to listen to the peakers, and that in order to maintain their reputation as an organization it was necessay to put on the semblance of a meeting, at ast. It was therefore decided that the few present should not go on the stand. Another grand rally" will be held on the Public Square to-night, and still another in Cambria city, which is to be conducted, I am told, by Messrs, D. J. Morrell and James Morley. two Radicals of this place who are now be fore the people for their suffrages.

The Democratic mass meeting here on Saturday was a grand success. The meeting in the afternoon was well attended, while in the evening there was undoubtedly the largest turn out ever witnessed in Johnstown. Gen. Richard Coulter, of Westmoreland county, entertained the afternoon meeting with a powerful address, after which our talented ownsman, Hon. C. L. Pershing, delivered a forcible speech in his usually able and logical style. In the evening Gen, Coulter again spoke more at length, and Wm. H. Sylvis, Esq., President of the National Labor League, followed in a lengthy and convincing address to the workingmen. The night meeting adjourned at a late hour. The Radicals have been playing the old game of fraud hereabouts, thei, latest dodge being the getting out of fraudulent naturalizens are very jubilant just now over the re zation papers, which they are believed to sult of the election, and feel as joyous no have went into somewhat extensively. "BIG THING!" is a slang exclamation more expressive than elegant, nevertheless it serves to convey the idea intended, and hence we will be understood when we use it in speaking of Geo, Huntley's mammoth hardware, tin-ware, wooden-ware, willow-ware, glass-ware and grocery depot, which is beyoud question "the biggest thing" of the kind in this section of the State. There is scarcely an article, from the smallest to the largest, in Mr. Huntley's line, which is not edial agent for many years, and are really, as comprised in his immense stock, and we are sure that all comers will be accommodated with any article they may need at prices unsurpassed for cheapness in Cambria county.

Now IS THE TIME .- No man should less sight of his own interests while laboring for what he conceives to be his duty to his counsame place to listen to speeches from Hon. try in the present political contest, and common prudence should dictate to all men that their own int rests will be best subserved by buying their fall and winter clothing at the great New York Clothing Hall of M. Cohen & Bro., Parke's building, Main street, Johnstown, where men and boys can be comfortably and elegantly attired at lowest prices.

> THE LOCATION .- On the east side of Main street, about half way between Clinton and Locust streets, in the borough of Johnstown, is, located the popular Clothing Emperium of E. Leopold & Bro., and if there is any estab- Burns, Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, etc., have lishment at which justice is more fully done to customers, both in the quality and make whereabouts. Money can be saved by dealing with the Messrs. Leopold. 2t.

CAN'T HELP IT .- The vanquished in the is no help for it now, and the only thing that remains for everybody to do is to call at the cheap cash store of H. A. Shoemaker & Co. and buy liberally of the beautiful goods recently received at that leading mercantile mart. No one can fail to be pleased with both the stock and prices there prevailing. THE STATE ELECTION has been held, and although it is not yet definitely known what the entire result has been, it seems to be conceded that the long established and honestly earned rejutation of the renowned "Star Clothing Hall" of James J. Fair dealing and superior goods will always attract sensible buyers.

THE RIGHT WAY .- The most effectual mode of prospering in this world is to live within your means, and we know of no way in which this can be done to better advantage than by purchasing your dry goods and groceries from J. Patton Thompson, whose stock is ever kept up to the highest standard and whose prices are down to the lowest notch. Do this and save money.

TRIEF MENTI-S -Our readers will under stand that our paper has been delayed in order to give as much information as possible in regard to the result of Tuesday's election. In this out of the way place it is difticult to obtain any definite returns so soon after the election, but such as we have we give elsewhere in our paper. McDonald Kittell, youngest son of Wm. Kittell, Esq., of this place, bad the misfortune to inflict a very severe wound on the back of his left hand, on Monday last, while engaged in cutting pumpkins for cow feed. ---- Mr. George Guiley was very roughly and outrageously handled in a political street fight near his own residence, on the evening of election day. A piece was bitten out of one of his cars, and the end of one of his thumbs was served in the same way. Several parties were engaged in the melee, but as yet no arrests have been made .---- The work of roofing and closing in the new Catholic church building in this place is progressing finely, and it is thought this part of the work will be completed before the rough weather sets in .----- A brakeman named James M. Shearer was killed at Derry station, on Tnesday week. He was engaged in putting on the brake when the rhain broke, precipitating him to the track. and a portion of the train passing over him. severed his head from his body and killed him instantly .---- The body of an unknown man, supposed to have been dead a couple of weeks, was found near Grapeville station. Westmoreland county, a few days since. It is thought that he was knocked from the track by a passing train, and then crawled to the spot where he was found .---- Mrs. Ellen Murray and her little son, Eldie, depart our town this evening for California, whither they go on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Charles Wingard. May a safe, pleasant and prosperous passage and an agreeable solourn in the Golden State be vouchsafed them .-Our "better half" declares that she never saw a handsomer display of dress goods than can now be seen at the Thompson store on High street. We fear our pocket-book will suffer from the hint .---- Since putting the previous notice in type we learn that Mr. Gurley is confined to bed by the brutal injuries inflicted upon him on election day. His body is severely bruised in several places from the savage kicks given him.

SEVERELY BURNED, -A little daughter of Mrs. Sarah Clark, who resides in and teaches school in the Academy building, in this place, was considerably burned, on Friday morning last, while engaged in lighting a fire in the school-room. She had ignited a handful of shavings, and holding them too close to her person, her clothing caught fire. and in this condition she ran out on the back porch, where her mother fortunately succeeded in subduing the flames before any se-rious injury had resulted. The little sufferer was severely burned about the breast, however, and her injuries are very painful.

APPABENT TO ALL .- The fact cannot fail to impress even the hasty passer by who casts a cursory glance into the store of Mr. R. R. Davis, that upon his shelves is now displayed a most elegant and varied stock of dry goods and dress goods of every description. It is one of the finest assortments in
