LITTLE CAMBRIA O. K.

Notwithstanding the unusual and ex traordinary difficulties under which the Democracy of "Little Cambria" labored at the recent election, they achieved a glorious victory. Though local disorganization to a great extent paralyzed our efforts, we have increased our majority of 1866 (the last election at which a full vote was polled) from 652 to 738 majority on the State ticket.

When it is considered that the ruse of Mr. Morrell, or his friends, in procuring a former Democrat to volunteer against one of the regular nominees of our party, and thus divert our energies from the general ticket-and when it is further considered that this local disaffection prevented many Democrats from attending the polls, and even prevented some who did attend from voting-the Democratic majority is truly astonishing. It was not only a surprise to our opponents but to ourselves, and shows what our gallant party can do in November when it enters the field with a united front.

NEVER SURRENDER!

However much the result of the recent election is to be regretted by every man who loves his country, it really affords no cause for dismay or despair on part of the gallant Democracy. There is no doubt whatever of our ability to carry Pennsylvania in November next, if every Democrat makes up his mind that the thing must be done. It is utterly impossible for the Radicals to poll as large a vote in November as they did last week. The voters who were colonized here from other States to support the Radical ticket will be needed at their homes, and it will not be in the power of that party to flood the State with so many greenbacks as they did previous to the recent election. They before; have reduced the Redical majority exhausted their entire strength in October, of 1866 by nearly one-half, and have proven no further effort will be needed. Let our vitality of your organization. Democratic friends take advantage of this state of feeling. Let every Democratic vote be brought out in November, and we will certainly carry Pennsylvania. We can increase our vote, but with the same vote we had last week we can redeem our tion to succeed, and the victory must and will be ours. The Democracy carried Pennsylvania in October, 1840, and were defeated in November. The present result can be changed in the same way if every Democrat and Conservative in the shall be dove.

There is to be no change of front-no withdrawal of our gallant standard-bearers and the substitution of Chase and Haucock, or any other men, as our candidates, as has been hinted at within the past few days. We are fighting for principles, not men, and a temporary defeat should not dampen our ardor, much less induce us to virtually abandon the contest in so cowardly and despicable a manner, when vic- victory. tory-glorious victory-awaits us, if we only do our duty fearlessly, firmly and fully. Let there be no faltering or needless fears on part of the true men of the country. Work with a will-work with confiding faith in the success of true princiyour efforts with the wreath of victory.

HELPING THE RADICALS.

The Radical trick of getting a volun-Attorney, cost the Democratic State tick- and the supremacy of your race. et, the gallant Col. Linton, and our whole County ticket, at least one hundred, per- a cause should work and fight. haps two hundred, votes.

To those honest Democrats, and there were many of them, who supported Gen. M'Donald from upright motives, we have not an unkind word to say. We doubt not most of there now see that it was a mistake to set their judgment above that of the nominating convention. But there are others to whom we have a word to say. There are a number of have their being." old hunkers in the Democratic party who have grown gray in offices conferred upon ticket unless their own precious names are upon it. These men, some of whom have filled their coffers with money obtained through the confidence and kindness of estimate of the State Legislature. It will the Damocracy, are the very first to make stand as follows: common cause with the Radicals against the organization to which they owe all they have and all they are.

Some of these men are manly enough to oppose the Democratic ticket openlyothers, less manly, do it sneakingly-and all of them make common cause in sneering at Democratic nominations, and throw cold water on the efforts of those Democrats who devote their time and their n. energies to the good of the cause. If the desire of these men is, as it seems to be, the defest of the Democracy of Cambria county, they have the consolation of knowing that the Democracy is growing stronger at every election; and if they persevere in aiding the Radicals they will yet make "Little Cambria" the banner county of John B. Beck, D. Western Pennsylvania,

We mean not these remarks for those Democrats of Northern Cambria who, for personal reasons, supported Gen. M'Donald, or opposed Mr. Tierney. Those we have referred to above will understand us-

We are glad of one thing. The recent election has proven the Democratic organzation of Cambria county to be invincible. If the prestige of Gen. M'Donald's popularity fails, which united to the Radical organization, to defeat us, we have surely Harry White, R. nothing to fear hereafter. A Democratic nomination is equivalent to an election And for this very reason it behooves every Democrat to use his influence before the Convention to secure a good ticket. Those who were disappointed in the nominations of the last Convention should take a deeper interest in the next one. If every Democrat does his duty we cannot fail to have a good ticket. Or, if the present method of nominating candidates is net satisfactory, let the people change it. If there is anything in our nominations that requires reformation let it be reformed. It is the duty of Democrats to see that our organization-the only organization that can save the country-is pure, and

If any Democrat feels wounded by the foregoing remarks we cannot help it. The Freeman was started to support Democratic measures and Democratic men, and we would be faithless to our trust-unsafe guardians of the rights of the people-if we did not denounce treason to the Democracy, come from what quarter it may.
