

THE FREEMAN.

EBENSBURG, PA., THURSDAY, NOV. 12, 1868.

The Result of the Election.

The election is over—and the Democrats are defeated. We bow submissively to the will of the people, as expressed through the legitimate channels.

We labored earnestly and honestly to prevent this result, believing, as we did, that Radical success would perpetuate the evils under which our country is laboring. Our gains have been large, as compared with the Presidential election of 1864, but not sufficient to overcome the majority by which the Radicals retained the power they had acquired in 1860.

Still those gains have given us a large increase of strength in Congress. In all of the Middle and some of the Western States we have shown additional strength. This will tend to check the downward tendency of our national legislation.

While the Democrats have been defeated the Radicals have not been successful. An early survey of the field satisfied the Radicals that they could not carry the election on principle, and with a Radical candidate. In short, they arrived at the conclusion, from indications of popular opinion, that Gen. Grant was the only man with whom they could succeed, and they nominated him.

It was true he had never in his life voted a Radical ticket. It was true his antecedents were all Democratic. It was true he had sustained Lincoln and Johnson in their views on Reconstruction. It was true that he had never, by word or act, committed himself to the principles or the policy of the Radicals. But if all this was true, it was equally true that Grant was a successful military chieftain, and that Grant had never committed himself to the endangering dogmas of the ultra Radicals; and that, therefore, he was the man—the only man—with whom they could achieve success.

No man less objectionable to Democrats could have been named than Gen. Grant. It is true we did not believe him qualified to exercise those acts of statesmanship which distinguished the career of our Democratic Presidents, but we did believe, and do know, that he is no Radical.

He will find on his accession to the Presidential chair, a powerful party opposed to those who lifted him to place and power. He will find that party, as it always has been, true to the honor of the country and the rights of the citizen. He will find it "willing to praise, but not afraid to blame."

The Democrats are more numerous in Congress, and backed by a larger and bolder constituency, than they have been at any time since 1860. If the President fearlessly does his duty under the Constitution and Laws, he will find them powerful agents in sustaining him, if he ignores the great landmarks of American Liberty, he will find them equally determined in opposing him.

Whatever betide during the incoming administration, we implore every true Democrat not to despair of his country; and, least of all, when our patriotism is becoming appreciated, and our numbers are increasing. Never despair of the Republic, but, as our patriotic forefathers have done, watch over her interests as you would over the fortunes of your own children.

Know-Nothing Falseness.

The following has a prominent place in the last Alleghenian. We commend it to our foreign born and Catholic readers:

"The Youngstown District, in Westernland county, contains the Catholic Monastery of St. Xavier. Its inmates are nearly, if not all, foreigners. Few of them had naturalization papers. But all voted. No challenges were permitted. A person attempting it was silenced and told if he persisted he should be arrested. The boxes were literally crammed, without either form or fear of law."

Now, we will bet either of the editors of the Alleghenian $500 that not a member of "the Catholic Monastery of St. Xavier" voted unless he was either a native or naturalized citizen. Such stuff we would expect from Corvode, a born Know-Nothing, and his toadies, but the Alleghenian does not believe it, and ought not to publish it. It is pretty hard fare for its Catholic readers to charge that their clergymen and religious are guilty of perjury; and violation of the election laws.

The Next Congress.

The Lancaster Intelligencer, one of our very best exchanges, says: "The Forty-first Congress will be composed of 144 Radicals and 85 Democrats. It is possible the number of Democrats may be increased two or three more, but they will certainly have 85 members in the next House of Representatives. That will strike down the two-thirds majority, by means of which the Radicals have perpetrated so much mischief. Should Gen. Grant see fit to hold Congress to constitutional legislation, his vetoes cannot be overridden, as were those of Andrew Johnson. We hope he may prove to be a wise and moderate ruler. If he should be compelled to...

rely upon the Democratic minority, for we do not believe the Radicals will voluntarily pause in their mad career. The country will look to General Grant for an example of moderation and true statesmanship. If he exercises it the people will give him full credit, and no portion of the populace will more cordially approve his acts than the masses of the great Democratic party."

Not Beaten!

The New York Democrat don't talk much about giving it up. It says: "No, never! By the Heavens above us, and the blood-soaked, sacred soil beneath our feet, this shall never be! We are still men! We come of a stock which spurns the chain and stifles the tyrant!"

Then stand to your arms, white men of America! Though the victory is not won, the cause is not lost! You are still as great, as strong as ever! You have still a country, homes, children! Liberty, in chains, still beckons you to her rescue! God of our fathers! can we hold back from such a solicitation? Can we give over the struggle while freedom is denied us? Shall one-half the Union be surrendered to African barbarism, and the whole to the African's sway? Will we become the willing slaves of money kings, and learn to speak...

"In a bondman's key, Wit' bated breath and whispering humbleness?" Perish the thought! Trample on the suggestion, and curse the source from which it came. The grand, heroic, old Democratic party, ever the party of the country, of the Constitution, of Liberty! It is not dead. Its work is not done; its glory is not dimmed; its scepter is not forever departed! Born with the Republic, ever true to it, bearing it onward by its strong arms, and guiding it by its enlightened and patriotic councils for seventy years, in honor, freedom, prosperity and greatness, it is the only historical party of the country; it is the only guardian of the Constitution; it is the only hope of Liberty! It cannot die and the Republic live! They are bound in a common fate, as they are linked in a common history!

Then, to the Democracy of the Union, we say, stand firm, lay not down your arms, retire not from the field from which the enemy has fallen to drive you, but hold fast to your lines, put your array in order, look well to the condition of your arms, keep your powder dry, and still face and press the foe! Renew the fight, and keep it red-hot! Let every man feel that he is enlisted for the war, and resolve that the war shall never end until the foe be conquered, and freedom be restored.

Remember that it is a battle for life! For the life of the Republic! Aye, and for the lives of your children, who, if we do not save them, will perish in bonds. Then pluck up resolution, and make the fight as desperate as the case is urgent. Be every man a hero, with but one thought—to save his country and make it again "the land of the free!" "No feaking, no doubting, thy soldier shall know. When he stands his country, and yonder her foe: One at the bright sun, one prayer to the sky. One glance where our banner floats glorious on high. Then on the young lion bounds on his prey. Let the sword flash on high, and the spear be raised away! Roll on like the thunderbolt over the plain! We come back in glory, or come not again!"

Literary Notices.

BALLOON'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE, published by Elliott, Thomas & Talbot, No. 63 Congress street, Boston, for December, is also received. Wyman, are among the musical contents of the present number, which would cost in sheet form $1.30. Besides this choice music, a large amount of interesting reading is given: "Music Making," "The Honest Little Musician," "Musical Hints," News, Gossip, Correspondence, &c., are contained in this number. THE HEALTH AND HOME—A circular received from those enterprising and reliable advertising agents, Messrs. S. M. Pettengill & Co., No. 37 Park Row, New York, informs us that they intend to issue, on or before the first of January next, the initial number of a Weekly Era and Family Paper, containing the above title, which will be directed to the above terms, to country life in its broadest sense. It will be neither partisan nor sectarian in its tone, but will be a medium for the dissemination of useful, instructive, entertaining and pleasing information. Neither labor nor expense will be spared to make it, in subject matter as well as illustration, worthy of a place in every household in the land. The names of Mr. Donald G. Mitchell and Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe are mentioned in connection with it, and other of the best literary talent in the country has been enlisted in the enterprise. Pettengill, Bates & Co. will be the proprietors, and we can only hope that it will meet with the abundant success which we feel confident it cannot fail to merit in such able hands.

A gentleman of Newport, R. I., has invented and patented a new apparatus to answer the double purpose of heating railroad cars in winter and ventilating them in summer.

A haunted house in Savannah had three fearful midnight raps every night. People kept awake until it was found that the next door neighbor knocked his ashes out of his pipe at that time.

The latest returns from New York show that Hoffman's majority for Governor in that State will be more than thirty thousand. The majority for Seymour is about thirteen thousand.

Only four hundred miles more of the Pacific railway remains to be constructed. Two hundred miles will be finished this winter, and the road will be completed probably by the middle of May.

Ashley whines like a sick puppy over his defeat, and says it was brought about by "slander." The fellow who can slander Ashley must have a genius for lying that would beat the devil.

Seven negro preachers have been sent to our prison in Mississippi for breaking into houses, and for stealing children.—They were all shining members of the Loyal League, but now they are "sweet lighted lilies."

Butler has a bottle of wine 108 years old, which he pretends a Southern gentleman gave him. More likely some Southern cellar gave it to him when the gentleman was absent. Those Southern cellars were very liberal to Butler.

The crowning statue for Gettysburg national cemetery monument has arrived. It represents the Goddess of Liberty, stands twelve feet high, and weighs 14,000 pounds. It was modeled and cut in Italy by Randolph Rogers.

Two negroes in Connecticut have been sentenced to the State prison for life, for rape. It would be just to send the white rascals, who have encouraged them with impunity, along with them.

A new method of laying down the rails on the Union Pacific Railroad is about being tried, by which it is believed the progress of track laying will be greatly accelerated. The ties are to be placed and the rails laid down simultaneously.

The negroes are fast adopting the manners and customs of the "poor white trash." An ebony couple were united in matrimony in Evansville, Ind., the other day, having fled to that place from Kentucky to escape the wrath of "cruel parents."

An Alexandria lady, who has been unwell for some time past, a night or two since, in her sleep, wandered away from her home, and, after visiting the graveyards, was found in a field adjoining the northwestern suburbs of the city, in her night apparel.

The total vote cast by the three States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, at the October election, reached the enormous figure of 1,512,094. The same States, at the Presidential election in 1864, cast only 1,324,084 votes, so that in four years the number has increased 188,010.

The Radicals of the interior counties of New York, as a last means of getting rid of Democratic rule, propose a division of the State, setting off New York city and county, Kings, Queens, Suffolk and Richmond counties, all giving Democratic majorities, into a new State, to be called Manhattan.

Minnesota has not so high an appreciation of ability to play the blackguard in Congress as Massachusetts.—Ignatius Donnelly has been defeated in the former State, and Butler selected by a large majority in the latter. Minnesota has much to learn before she can consider herself a thoroughly Republican State.

The fountain on the grounds of Mr. Seth Hunt, at Bennington, Vermont, is the highest, but one in the world. It is drawn from the hills through a six inch pipe, throwing a stream one hundred and sixty-eight feet, presenting the appearance at short distance of a single silver bar.—Its cost was twenty-five thousand dollars.

Where the carcass is there will be the eagles. Now for the distribution of the spoils. No man is to remain twenty-four hours in office after the 4th of March—whether a life long Republican or Confederate. The pap must go around.—The loyal tanners and the loyal leaguers—the army of the Republic and the new recruits—must all have a chance. The trouble will be, in the classic language of the late lamented Abraham Lincoln, that...

Robert Hanna, of Lock Haven, ex-Sheriff of Clinton county, accidentally killed himself last week. In company with others he left his home in good health and excellent spirits, to engage in the exciting sport of hunting deer. Wednesday morning he started to the woods with his dog and gun, and about four o'clock, P. M., was found by his companions dead, evidently having accidentally shot himself.

As the mail train bound east on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, was recently approaching Van Wert, east of Fort Wayne, the engineer, Israel Adams, discovered a child on the track. To stop the train in time to save it was impossible. Running out on the cow-catcher, and reaching out, he caught the child and lifted it on the engine, without injuring a hair of its head, although the proceeding was one full of danger to himself.

Dispatches in the New York Tribune state that, in Iowa and Minnesota, the amendments to the constitution of those States, establishing "impartial suffrage," have been adopted in the late elections. In Minnesota, according to the census of 1860, there were but 250 negroes, which would give about fifty voters. In Iowa there were 1,069 negroes, which would give 214 voters. The majority for the amendment in Iowa is reported at 20,000, and in Minnesota at 6,000.

In Milford, Mass., on Saturday night week, while some young Irish people were celebrating All Hallows Eve, with games usual to the occasion, two young girls went into a garden to procure a head of cabbage, when the owner, a man about sixty years of age, fired at them, killing one—Bridget Murray, of Boston—by shooting her through the head. A few weeks ago a clergyman near Boston shot a boy for picking apples off the ground in his garden. No doubt if these things had occurred in the South they would have been set down as Ku-Klux outrages, but in Massachusetts they are "on the contrary, quite the reverse."

The new authorities in Spain appear to be in a bad way for money. The Treasury is so frightfully low, that they hardly know what to do for means to pay expenses. It is reported that they seek to raise a loan of two hundred millions of crowns, at six per cent, and that they will certainly be very lucky if they succeed.—The revolution has done things to such an extent, that a deficit of fifty thousand pounds sterling in the revenue this year is anticipated. It is now pretty certain that things in Spain have been overturned for good; but whether for the good of the people or not is a question to be decided by time.

ADVERTISING.—There is no doubt that the great lever in the extension of a business, in these go-ahead times, is advertising; but the immense popularity of that celebrated remedy for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervous Debility, &c., Hoodland's German Bitters, is not so much owing to the fact that it has been extensively advertised, as it is to the great merit of the article.

A worthless medicine may, through publicity, acquire a short lived notoriety, but it requires the basis of real merit, in order to sustain itself for any considerable length of time. Hoodland's German Bitters has been known to the American public for more than twenty years; each day adding some new proof of its virtues and great curative properties. This Bitters is entirely free from all Alcoholic admixture.

HOODLAND'S GERMAN TONIC is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with pure Santa Cruz Rum, orange, anise, &c., making a preparation of rare medicinal value. The Tonic is used for the same diseases as the Bitters; in cases where some Alcoholic Stimulus is necessary. Principal Office, 631 Arch St., Philada., Pa. Sold by Druggists and others, everywhere. [Oct. 29 '68.]

ADVICE THAT SHOULD BE HEEMED.—We desire to call the attention of the afflicted to the merits of Roback's Blood Pills, a purely vegetable cathartic, free from mercury and all mineral poisons, and undoubtedly the best remedy extant for the radical cure of nervous and sick headache, bilious disorders, and all affections of the Liver and Blood. They are, as their name indicates, a Blood Pill.—They search the blood for disease and strike at the very root, thereby effecting a temporary but permanent cure. As a purgative, they are all that can be desired, being mild and safe in their operation and unquestionably one of our most satisfactory Cathartic Pills, and should be kept in every household, and when taken in conjunction with Roback's Blood Purifier, are unequalled for curing Scrofula, Skin Disease, Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Dyspepsia, Erysipelas, Tumors, Eruptions, and all diseases arising from a disorganized state of the system. Try these medicines and you will never regret it.—Ask those who have used them and they will tell you they are the best of medicines. No. 12.

Cautionary Medication.—If the importance of PROTECTIVE MEDICATION were more generally appreciated, our mortality statistics would soon show a wonderful decrease in the number of fatal results of disease. Millions of people are crowded together in districts where they are constantly exposed to the miasmatic virus which produces Ague, Jaundice, fever and Ague, and kindred complaints; and millions more are continually visiting or traveling through those parts of the country where febrile diseases infest the entire atmosphere for miles in every direction. These classes are especially dangerous, such as Blacksmith Shop, Corn Crib, Sheep House, &c.; also, an excellent ORCHARD of choice fruit. Title perfect. For terms apply on the premises to B. E. G. SHIELDS, Loretto P. O., Aug. 20, 1868.

AS AN APERIENT, There is no medicine so much in favor with those who are acquainted with their action as Roback's Blood Pills; they are safe, pleasant and mild in their operation, and are purely vegetable; can be taken by children as well as by adults; by them.

SLEEPLESS NIGHTS. As a remedy to soothe all nervous excitement, and in its truest sense a NERVE TONIC, there is, perhaps, no medicine extant which is received with so much favor as Roback's Stomach Bitters. A wine glass full on going to bed is all that is required to produce sound and beautiful sleep.

ERYSIPELAS, Or, St. Anthony's Fire, can be most effectually eradicated by the use of Roback's Blood Purifier in conjunction with Roback's Blood Pills.

OPHTHALMIA, Or, Inflammation of the Eyes, not infrequently arises from a disordered state of the stomach; a few doses of Roback's Blood Pills will, in most cases, effect a cure by removing the cause.

KEEP YOUR BLOOD PURE. There are no remedies, now before the public, so well calculated to purify the blood and regulate the system as Roback's Blood Purifier, Blood Pills and Stomach Bitters.

BAD TASTE In the mouth in the morning is one of the symptoms of a bilious condition or disordered state of the liver, and should not, for a single day, be neglected, as it is but the premonitory symptom of a train of evils and the very seeds of disease. Treat at once Roback's Blood Pills, administer them according to the directions accompanying each box, and the difficulty and danger of disease will at once be removed.

DEBILITY. There is no medicine equal to Hoodland's German Bitters or Roback's Blood Pills for the cure of Debility. They impart a tone to the system, and give energy to the organs of the stomach. They digest, purify the blood, give strength, healthy complexion, and cause the system to be in a state of perfect health. They are the only Bitters that can be used in cases of Debility.
