Yesterday was the first of the Lenten season AN OLD CITIZEN GONE .- Mr. Emericus Beider died at his residence in Carroll township, this county, on Tuesday, 26th ult., from a stroke of the palsy, aged 84 years, 2 months and 18 days. The deceased was one of the first settlers in Northern Cambria, having resided at the place where he died since the year 1807. He was a well to do farmer, and was beloved and respected by a large circle of relatives, friends and neighbors. In connection with his death we give place to the following brief sketch of Mr. Bender's somewhat eventful life, as written by himself and published in the Alleghanian of this place a little more than a year ago. It will be perused with interest by all our readers, and is more graphic and complete

JOHNSTOWN, Feb. 8, 1869. Dear Freeman-Among the new ideas now on the tapts, as reported, is a change of venue or our Court House. I do not imagine that it will amount to anything, though the rapid growth of this place would seem to demand some modification, such as a City Criminal Court. Let us compromise, and go to Wilmore. There is also some talk of a new Woolen Factory going up at Woodvale, which would turn the tide of empire eastward. Woodvale will soon be built up like
