LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD.—On and after Monday, May 11, 1868, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG—

At 5.25 A. M., connecting with Accomodation East and Phila. Express West.

At 7.15 P. M., connecting with Phila. Ex. East and Mail West.

LEAVE CRESSON—

At 9.25 A. M., or on departure of Phila. Express West.

At 9.31 P. M., or on departure of Phila. Express East.

The Tyrone and Clearfield railroad has been completed, and trains are now running regularly between those two points.

In our next issue we shall publish the names of such of our patrons as have paid their subscriptions in part or entire for the current year. Send on the stamps.

Andrew Dennis, a colored man, fell dead at Peters' coal bank, Indiana county, on the 3d inst. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause.

The dwelling house of Judge Porter, near McConnellsburg, Fulton County, was totally destroyed by fire on last Saturday evening week. Loss $3,500.

A notion peddler's wagon was broken into at Williamsburg, Blair county, one night last week, and about one hundred dollars worth of goods stolen.

A lad aged about fourteen years, residing in the family of George Rhey, Esq., at Millwood Station, Westmoreland county, dropped dead one morning week before last, immediately after getting out of bed.

An act amending the act of 1867, so as to transfer the duty of selecting juries in this and other counties back to the County Commissioners, passed the House on Tuesday.—The Senate will doubtless concur in it.

Will our friends throughout the county do us the kindness to send us without delay the names of the gentlemen elected in their several districts to-morrow? We wish to publish a complete a list next week as possible.

Jim Lewis and John Dunn, two notorious burglars, were recently sentenced in Greensburg, one to three years and one month and the other to three years and nine months' imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary.

A son of Uriah Conley, in Juniata township, Bedford county, while on his way to school a short time ago, slipped and fell on the ice, and received severe injuries in the head, from which death ensued within forty-eight hours.

Two buildings occupied as tailor shop, store and dwelling, were destroyed by fire in Irwinton, Westmoreland county, on Sunday night, 7th inst. The loss is estimated at between $3,000 and $4,000, mostly covered by insurance.

The store of Messrs. Patterson & Waite, at Yellow Springs, Blair county, was destroyed by fire on the morning of the 10th inst. The fire originated from a defective flue. A portion of the stock was saved, and the loss is covered by insurance.

Mrs. Michael Hammer, of Napier township, Bedford county, while suffering of a fit to which she was subject, fell into the fire and was horribly burned before she could be rescued. She has nearly recovered, but the accident has left some terrible marks upon her person.

During an altercation at McConnellstown, Huntingdon county, on Saturday evening last, between a one armed soldier named Marshal Houk and a man named David Rupert, the former was stabbed seven times in different parts of the body. Rupert has been arrested.

If you appreciate good bread don't fail to buy your flour from M. L. Oatman. He sells a prime article all the time, and his customers have never yet had cause to complain. He sells at the lowest figures, and keeps only the very best flour and groceries of all kinds.

A Baptist preacher named Shorthill, says the Indiana Democrat, eloped with the wife of a Mr. Colkett, of Punxsutawney, a few days since, leaving behind him his own wife and several small children in destitute circumstances. Nothing has yet been learned of their whereabouts.

The special term of Court, which convened on Monday morning, adjourned on Tuesday evening, after having disposed of only one of the two cases set down for trial, that of Garman vs. James et. al., involving the title to two lots of ground in this borough, and which was decided in favor of the plaintiff.

Among the curiosities that are carried on railroads was the arrival the other day at Conemaugh Station of a bronze bust or statue of the celebrated spoon thief, Ben Butler.—It is a perfect model of the man, with several large spoons on his right shoulder. It came from New Orleans, where they know what Ben. looks like, and was sent to a respected citizen of East Conemaugh.

A MAGNIFICENT PRESENT.—We dropped into the watch and jewelry establishment of our friend C. T. Roberts yesterday, and while there was shown a magnificent gold watch and chain put up in a neat mahogony case. The watch is a stem winder, an entirely new and complete arrangement which does away with the use of a key. These beautiful articles have been selected by Cham, with his well known taste and capacity, and are designed as a present from a few friends to one of the most meritorious gentlemen in this broad Commonwealth, but as the whole affair is to be a surprise to the worthy recipient, we are not at liberty to mention names. The donors have not only secured a present worthy of themselves and the gentleman for whom it is intended, but they did well in entrusting our jeweler friend with the selection of the handsome gift, and it is needless to add that he is the proper man to apply to on such occasions. The articles can be seen for a few days at Roberts' store.

BOUND FOR VIRGINIA.—Mr. Jacob Stoltz, of Chest township, and Mr. F. P. Grassberger, of Carrolltown, have caught the disease which carried off Messrs. Jos. Maucher, Jacob Leib, and others, and have made up their minds to emigrate to Virginia. They both returned from a visit to that section on Saturday last, and are loud in their praises of the country and its advantages. Mr. Stoltz has leased a farm there, and Mr. Grassberger is said to have bought eight hundred acres of land at the low price of eight dollars per acre. They both design to sell off here without delay. Mr. Stoltz will have a sale of live stock, grain, etc., on Saturday of next week, 27th inst. We are sorry to lose so many good citizens from our midst, but cannot refrain from wishing them abundant success in their new homes.

TO LUMBERMEN.—Mr. C. L. Goehring, of Irwin's Station, Westmoreland county, offers at private sale for cash, at a great bargain, or will exchange for lumber, a Portable Saw Mill and Stationary Steam Engine, both in first class condition. The Engine is of 25 horse power and the Saw is a 56 inch circular saw, and they will be sold very cheap. For further information address as above.

Local Correspondence.

JOHNSTOWN, Feb. 15, 1869.

Dear Freeman—The weather here is as warm as summer, and the roads are very muddy. If the pleasant but unseasonable weather continues long look out for sickness.

The ice crop still looks bad and will not take root fast without frost. We had two white frosts, but white frost don't make good ice.

Richard the Third being now played out, I would advise our Johnstown Dramatic Association to start up Richard the Second in opposition to the Pittsburgh troupe. Young Richard, a boy of eleven years, would make a good character, and then there would be Watt Tyler, the blacksmith, Jack Straw and Hob Carter, all representative men.—Add the Lord Mayor, Wm. Walworth, who killed the stalwart smith, and there would be characters enough. The speech of Richard to the one hundred thousand rebels would read somewhat after this fashion:

Have faythe inn youre king;—
Youre leader 's dead, weltering in his bludd,
But I will lead you, as in "auld lang syne"
Youre ancestors were led to nobler deeds
Than that of vile rebellion 'gainst your sov'rin
King, &c., &c., &c.

Petitions for a Court to be held in Johnstown are in circulation; also petitions for the removal of the county seat to Johnstown. The former may be granted under certain restrictions.

There is considerable excitement in town in regard to the borough election. There are three or four candidates out on the Republican side for Burgess, and of course the Democracy will have one out too.

We are very sorry to learn that the printing office of the Altoona Vindicator has been burned out. Mr. Campbell deserves and will certainly receive the sympathy of the whole community.

The Surveyor General was at home on Saturday last, looking well. Whatever objections may be urged against Gen. Campbell on political grounds, he is personally a straightforward man, and I believe has administered the office of Surveyor General with economy and prudence.

A new literary society has sprung up in our midst, and is said to be flourishing.—The society is soon to be regaled with a reading from Jas. E. Murdoch. They are to have a public debate every week.

Two more theatrical troops are announced. They will make their appearance at an early day. Thus it will be seen our town is rapidly assuming the features of a regularly built and finished city.

D. W. C. Burnham, of the New Jerusalem (Swedenborgian) church, has been lecturing here on his favorite views. Elder Kinter, of the Disciples' church, is also lecturing against that doctrine. One of them must be wrong, while neither may be right.

In 1859, before the war, butter was selling at ten cents, eggs at six cents, fresh pork five cents, flour five dollars, while wages were one dollar per day. Now butter is selling at fifty cents, eggs at thirty-five cents, fresh pork at fifteen cents, flour at ten dollars, muslin and calico at eighteen cents, coffee at thirty cents, etc., etc., while wages are only one dollar and forty cents per day. We notice this because the New York Tribune is trying to make people believe that living is cheaper now than then. We can't see it. If greenbacks were gold the cost of living would be nearly the same, but they ain't. That's what's the matter.

Improvements are still going on here, and new houses are springing up like exhalations from the sea. We want a nail factory yet, and then a glass factory, and then a cotton factory, and then a hardware factory, and we will have them before two years, or at least before the completion of the Johnstown and Somerset Railroad.

The United Brethren congregation are about finishing the plastering of their neat stone church. The weather has been very favorable for such work.

The sessions of the township schools are beginning to close around town. This winter's term was only four months.

Sugar-making season is on us already, and if ground-hogs know anything will remain here until the Ides of March.

The locomotive and tender attached to the mail train west on Wednesday jumped the track near this place, and both were badly demoralized. Another engine had to be despatched to the rescue from Conemaugh.

As my notice of the magic sign of Keller & Taylor, Painters, may have induced the belief in some minds that this firm occupies the entire Post-office building, upon the top of which the sign is perched, I would merely remark that while the sign occupies one extreme the firm occupies the other. Their paint shop is in the basement of the building, and such of your readers as wish to employ competent painters will do well to seek for them under the old Post-office. TIP.

ALTOONA CITY, Feb. 15, 1869.

Friend Mac—On Friday morning last about 1 o'clock several drovers arrived in Altoona from the west, and in coming into the city they discovered a fire just breaking out. Upon arriving at the Logan House they inquired of Dr. Johnston whether he was a resident of the place, and upon being answered in the affirmative they informed him that a fire was in progress only a short distance away. The Doctor and some other gentlemen immediately ran to the place designated, and found the rear end of the Vindicator building (used as a kitchen in connection with Mr. Kerr's residence) on fire. They gave the alarm immediately, and ere long the firemen and hundreds of other citizens were upon the ground, but as the building was a wooden structure it was found impossible to check the flames. The building, with types, press, and all its other contents, save a few books, soon fell a victim to the destroying element, while the large store and dwelling of Mr. Berkcowitz adjoining, with nearly all it contained was almost entirely consumed. The large and handsome residence of R. A. O. Kerr, Esq., west of the Vindicator office, was very badly damaged if not totally ruined. The fire was another of those deeds of incendiarism with which our city has been so terribly afflicted during the past few months. Would to God that some of the despicable villains could be caught in their hellish work. I am not prepared to say what the loss is, or how much of it is covered by insurance.—The calamity falls heaviest on Mr. Campbell, of the Vindicator, who has the earnest sympathy of all classes. I could tell you of several kindly acts performed in his behalf by leading Republicans here, all of which will be gratefully remembered by him and his friends for all time to come. Among the number Hon. B. F. Rose and Mr. James Currry deserve to be specially mentioned.—These and many other gentlemen have acted nobly in this hour of sorest trial to Mr. Campbell, and their kindness will not be forgotten.

On Saturday night the Democracy of the city assembled in Lowther's Hall for the purpose of adopting means for the resusitation of the Vindicator, which has become a party and local necessity. The meeting was large and enthusiastic, and measures were taken to assist Mr. Campbell in re establishing his paper. So you need not be surprised to see the Vindicator e're long based upon a firmer footing than ever. So mote it be.

Our mutual friend Dennis Sullivan, met with a mishap on Wednesday last, near Bennington Station. He had got off the engine upon which he is employed as fireman for the purpose of going forward to flag the passenger train approaching from the west, as there was some danger ahead, and after attending to this duty he thought, as he was good on a jump, he might as well take a short ride on the rear end of the train. But when he jumped for the car, like Pady's flee it wasn't there, and the result was that he sprained one of his ankles very severely, but I am pleased to say not seriously. I hope to chronicle his recoveay in a short time.

An old man named Frazer, a painter in the employ of the Company, while at work at the coal yard, on ——— last, fell and broke two of his ribs, besides sustaining other injuries of a painful character.

The Democratic Executive Committee of this city has elected S. M. Woodkok, Esq., one of the best organizers and most efficient democrats in the county, as its Chairman, and has chosen Mr. John Frantz Secretary and Mr. John J. Potter Treasurer. I think the gentlemen of the committee have displayed good judgment in the selection of their officers, and I have no doubt the organization will give a good account of itself in the coming Gubernatorial campaign.

I cannot close without informing your many readers that Mr. J. D. Hicks has again opened out in bee hive style at Jaggard's old stand, and has "slathers and gobs" of goods fit to adorn a peasant or bedeck a princess. Mr. Hicks is one of the most gentlemanly and deserving business men in this city, and with an assortment such as his and the disposition he has for doing the fair thing with all his customers, he cannot fail to prosper. Financially speaking I am really glad to see him on his forked end once more, and hope he may long continue in an upright position. Yours, &c., T. I. M.

THE PROPOSED REMOVAL OF THE COUNTY SEAT.—The wide awake and ever interesting local correspondent of that able and efficient democratic journal, the Harrisburg Patriot, in his "Notes from the Capitol" under date of the 13th, thus speaks of the effort being made to secure the passage of an act by the Legislature looking to the removal of the seat of justice from this place to Johnstown: "The county seat of Cambria, as everybody knows or ought to know, is situated in Ebensburg. Some of the Johnstown people, becoming alarmed at the rapid growth of Ebensburg, are petitioning the Legislature to remove the county seat to their town.—Mr. Porter, the able young member from that district, is constantly receiving petitions in favor of it and remonstrances against it.—The remonstrances are in a large majority, and I doubt very much whether the Legislature will meddle in the matter. It should not, as Ebensburg is in the centre of the county, and Johnstown near its southern boundary. Cambria county was erected by an act of assembly in A. D. 1804, with its present boundaries; the said act of assembly provided that "the place for holding the courts of justice for said county shall be fixed by the legislature at any place not a greater distance than seven miles from the centre of said county," which resulted in its location at Ebensburg. The point thus fixed has been the seat of justice for more than sixty years; that it is the exact geographical centre, being equi-distant from the northern and eastern and western boundary; that the public buildings—the court house, jail, poor house academy—have all been located here, and that public roads extend from this point to every portion of the county, including a branch railway, which brings Johnstown within two hours travel by a railway of Ebensburg, while its distance is not over twenty five miles to the most extreme portion of the county. Johnstown, on the other hand, is located within two miles of the southern boundary of Cambria county, and almost fifty miles from its northern boundary. The Hon. Robert L Johnson, Hon. A. A. Barker, Philip Collins, Esq., J. T. Hutchinson, Esq., and nearly all the prominent men of both parties are unfavorable to the removal. The reasons stated in their memorial are amply sufficient to prevent the legislature from taking any action in the matter."

CALIFORNIA SEED WHEAT.—We have received by mail, direct from Messrs. H. W. Dappleye & Co., San Francisco, California, two small sacks of White Australian and Chili Club Wheat, which contain by all odds the largest and finest samples of wheat we have ever saw. It is claimed that this grain will yield sixty bushels to the acre and sixty-five pounds to the bushel, and that the ears will grow from eleven to twelve inches in length. We have placed the samples on exhibition at the Post Office, and invite our farmer friends and others interested in wheat culture to call there and examine the grain for themselves. We shall give place to the advertisement of the above named firm in our next issue, and believe that our agricultural friends will do well to peruse it and then order sufficient seed to try the experiment of its culture in this locality.

FAIR GOODS AND FAIR PRICES.—Mr. Geo. Huntley has within the past few days, sold quite a number of beautiful articles of silver ware to ladies in our town, who design contributing them to the Catholic Fair, which will be opened on the 1st inst. Nothing more appropriate for such a purpose could be selected than can be found at Mr. Huntley's establishment, and we advise an early visit thereto. Mr. Huntley is a fair dealer, keeps a fair stock, sells at fair prices, and should receive the patronage of all fair minded people.

ADVANCING.—There is no doubt that cotton goods of all kinds are advancing in prices, and when the spring trade opens consumers will be surprised at the difference in this respect. Now is the time to buy at the lowest figures, and H. A. Shoemaker & Co.'s store is the place at which the lowest figures prevail to the greatest extent. In fact, they have low prices on the brain and excellent goods of all kinds on their shelves. Ees dna og.

MOMENTUM.—Momentum and velocity are very different things. A meteor may have velocity and but little momentum, while a train of cars may have great momentum and little velocity. Momentous is an adjective, and applies to the momentous sale of clothing made by Leopold & Bro., at Oak Hall, Main street, Johnstown.

CLIMATIC CHANGES.—Last week we had sunshine and warmth; this week we have rain sleet, wind and snow. Though all these changes, however, V. S. Barker continues to sell cheaper than the cheapest, and don't care who knows it. A prime stock of fish just received, and all other goods in abundance.

PLAYED OUT.—The indications of an early spring are played out for the present, but the chances to secure bargains at R. R. Davis' cheap cash store will never be played out—not if the court knows itself. Mr. Davis has a superb stock, and sells at the most trifling advance on first cost.

LUXURIES.—Fresh fish and prime fresh tub oysters are luxuries not to be sneezed at, and are particularly desirable for noonday meals during the Lenten season. A. H Faller receives excellent fresh fish every Thursday and keeps the best oysters ever brought here all the time, and charges only the most moderate prices at which these luxuries can be sold. Go to Faller for confections, oysters, fish, etc., and you will do well.

ICE.—Notwithstanding the scarcity of ice we saw one cake float down Stony Creek the other day. It was "the last cake of winter left swiming alone." It passed the day that we went to L. Cohen & Brother's New York Clothing Hall, Main street, Johnstown, to buy our new hat and other spring Sunday trimmings.

COAL AND ORE.—Coal and ore in great quantities it is said have been found in Croyle township. It is also rumored that cheap dry goods have been discovered at Leopold Mayer's New York Dry Goods Store, on Main street, Johnstown. It is also asserted that this is no new discovery.

DISCUSSION.—Our literary society is about to discuss the following question, which we feel assured will be decided in the affirmative: Is J. J. Murphy's Star (°) Clothing Store, on Clinton street, the place to get your money back? We say aye!

Ayer's
Hair Vigor,
For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.
