WHAT RUNG THAT BELL!

That there is a sleepless Providence watching over all the affairs of men, and often by special agencies, bringing to light, as in the flash of a moment, the which merits a more permanent record man belonging to one of our most respectable families, but who, from his irregular habits, had been strongly suspected of being guilty of criminal offence, and been once under arrest for passing counterfeit and loaded a wagon, which he had previously stolen and drawn to the door, with various merchandise. He then entered a stable, and attempted to lead out a valrable horse owned by the man from whom be had stolen the goods, intending to harness it to the wagon, and make off with his booty in the stillness of the night, when he thought no eye could see him and no ear hear him. Just at that moment, however, the bell from the village church tower sounded out an alarm loud and clear upon the night air, startling the inhabitants from their slumbers, who, supposing it to be a fire alarm, rushed into the street, and caught the thief with his plunder, before he had time to escape from

The ringing of that bell, however, was a mystery. But upon inquiry, it was ascertained that the sexton, in ringing the bell for the service the day previous, had by a seeming accident so turned it up and set it, that he could not pull it down with the rope, and not having a key to the belfry door, he was obliged to let the bell remain in that position. Just in time to detect that youthful criminal it came down without human help, and sounded that midnight alarm. After his arrest, goods Odd Stove Plates and Grates, &c., for rewere found in his possession, which were taken from a store in Thompsonville a short time previoustly; and he confessed that with the aid of an accomplice, he had Spouting, Valleys and Conductors, broken into it and stolen several hundred dollars worth of merchandise. The owner of these goods had formerly employed him as a clerk in his store. Thus the ringing of that bell, without human hands, bro't several criminal offenders to light, and arrested one in his dishonest career .-Central Presbyterian.

AN EXTRAORDINARY RIDE.-The report of an extraordinary ride has come in the intelligence from California. A young man named Mowry bet that he would ride three SUGAR KETTLES AND CAULDRONS hundred miles in fifteen hours. The wager was $2,000 to $2,500 on Mowry. For several days he trained for his ride. He had thirty horses taken to the Park Stables, and fore five, he began his ride on his own horse, which he rode four times around the track. The rider weighed about 160 pounds. He carried a canteen filled with water, and a small pouch containing a few sandwiches. When the signal was given the hardy rider gave rein and was off. China, 55 Overland Trains, Stages, Horses, 30,000 **

Here we have two hundred and thirty thous and tons estried westward, and experience has shown that in the last few years the re turn passengers from Colifornia have been nearly as numerous as those going.
