JOENSTOWN, May 3, 1869. Mr. Editor-Your former correspondent. "Tip," has expressed to me a desire of withdrawing from the campaign of writing for your paper, and wished me to take his place. As I will have some leisure now, I will try my hand at a letter once a week.

"Tip" said something about a big window last week, but neither he or your typesetter in Johnstown. mixed it up so that no one could tell what church was meant. I do know that "Tip," was mixed some last week. Poor fellow! he has had a good deal of trouble of late, impressed with the fact. It may be as well, and I think it is no wonder that be would be cloudy in his statement about the big that V. S. Barker's spring stock is ample in window. Well, as announced in the papers, there was an examination of teachers in Johnstown last Thursday and one in Conemangh last Friday, and as I was present at both of them, and stood an examination. I know something about them. In Johnstown there was about forty teachers examined, and it is admitted on all hands that, if grammar is and Miss SUSAN M'CONISTY, of Clearfield excepted, it was the poorest examination township. ever held here-that is, the answers of the teachers was the poorest. Still, it did not appear to make much difference, as the matrimonial harness and every one of whom worst ones, including myself, got schools. I is a subscriber to the FREEMAN. And welcome kind patrons with morey in hand.

"FIRST IN WAR, FIRST IN PRACE, AND FIRST IN THE HEARTS OF THE COUNTRY-MEN."-That's not G. Washington, for he's dead. But it is Oak Hall, the big Clothing House at Sixth and Market streets, Phila delphia. In war times it took strong hold upon the affections of the people, because it kept as near as possible to old prices; and in peace it increases its popularity by the excellence and ever increasing cheapness of its clothing ; but it is enthroned in the hearts of the "countrymen" because country trade is its speciality.

IF you intend to build a house, repair s nouse, paint a house, or even whitewash one, you can buy all the material you need. except the whitewash, and buy it as cheap as anywhere else, from Geo. Huntley, who keeps a full stock of building hardware and paints and puts up the spouting when the house is complete. If you don't intend to do any of these things, at least buy your groceries, and such hardware, tinware, and cutlery as you need, from Mr. Huntley, and you will always get the worth of your money. NEW SIGN .- John J. Murphy & Co., in the Houston House, Johnsiown, have just put up a very attractive sign at their store door, which is a sign that they have a great variety of dry goods inside. They have just laid in a new stock of carpets, coverlets, blankets, etc. Also, any quantity of dry goods, dress goods, fancy goods and notions. Besides, they sell cheaper than the cheapest : and keep better goods than the best, and are the cleverest of clever men. Don't fail to call and don't fail to buy something. RIGHT DRESS .- It is right to dress, and it is right to go, to L. Cohen & Brother's New York Clothing Hall, Main street, Johnstown, and buy the right kind of a dress or suit, for a man or boy, at their popular clothing store. You will find them kind and clever men, and willing to oblige by attention and cheap sales. You can't miss getting bargains if you go to L. Cohen & Brother. JAMES J. MURPHY .- JDO. J. Murphy & Co. keep a dry goods store on Main street. bat when you want James J. Murphy you must hunt up the Star Clothing Store, on Cliaton street, where you will find a great supply of ready made clothing and furnishing goods for men and boys. He keeps hats and caps and all kinds of men's and boys' wearing apparel, cheap and good.

ABRIVING .- The various large and small boxes which have been unloaded in front of C. T. Roberts' jewelry and notion emporium. within the past few days is evidence sufficient that the stock of goods he was buying In the Eastern cities has come to hand. A grand opening of things useful and beautiful is now going on at his establishmentall worth seeing and buying.

FORTUNES TOLD. - Mr. Leopold Mayer still continues to give away dry goods at the Opera House, on Main street, Johnstown. We consider Mr. Mayer one of the kindest, politest, honestest and obligingest man in town. If you want dry goods, fancy goods, dress goods, hoops, ribbons, lace, everything.

last few days and the waters are quite swol- lack of excellent water, is offered for sale on I believe that Hon. Geo. Taylor, President

Judge of this district was here lately, looking after a suitable place for a building to hold our courts in, but I am not certain that anything has been decided on. There will be both trouble and expense about establishing the district court that was not thought good purpose. I took a walk, with some others, on last | sessions :

Sunday to the Fifth and Sixth Wards, across the iron bridge, which is free on that day, and I was astonished to witness the improvements on that side of the river. The authorities are laying water-pipes along every street. Water street is filled up with cinders obtained at the rolling mill, from the bridge to the foot of Yoder hill, and not less than fifty houses have been put up on that side since last fall, when I was last over. The filling up of Water street is a good improvement, as it used to overflow with water or ice every time the river rose. The iron bridge is a solid structure about a hundred yards long and is an ornament to the people going by. I see bills or posters up about town offering one hundred dollars reward for the recovery of some six hundred dollars which a a citizen of Philadelphia lost in our town last week.

There has been a considerable influx of teachers into our two boroughs this Spring from other places, on the principle, I suppose, that a change of pasture is good for sheep. It is not for want of native talents. for there is some well educated teachers in Johnstown. But I must close. Your's till next week. ROB ROY.

In the matter of new improvements large and commodious Convent building is Sisterhood of the Benedictine order. This edifice is located adjacent to the church building, and will be an ornament to sur growing village. Mr. Frederick Snyder has also commenced the erection of a large and elegant dwelling house adjoining the hotel property of Mr. Schroth. Its dimensions are 30 by 50 feet, two stories in beight. A number of minor improvements are likewise being made, and from present indications I doubt not but that is size and importance our town will ere long compare favorably with the ancient village of Ebensburg.

Our city fathers have contracted for the building of a "lock-up." to be completed by the 4th of July. The citizens of this community are proverbially peaceable and general peace and good order of the neighborhood, and as a consequence we must be and experienced workman. prepared for them in the future.
