

Cambria Freeman.

EBENSBURG, PA. THURSDAY, MAY 13, 1869.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Two more horses were stolen in Fulton county week before last.

A lad named Brown had one of his toes cut off at Blairsville, the other day, by a piece of iron which fell from his hand.

The family of Blair county, residing near Williamsburg, Pa., were poisoned by eating canned rhubarb week before last, but all since recovered.

George W. Snyder was elected superintendent of common schools of Clearfield county, on the 4th instant, and his salary increased from $1,000 to $1,200.

Our County Treasurer caught eight dozen and odd trout, of very respectable size, in about five hours angling, in the neighborhood of Portage station, the other day.

A little boy at McConnellsbury broke the rotten pump floor of an old well, the other day, and fell into the water, but was fortunately extricated before life was extinct.

An old house belonging to Isaac Shuster, in Westmoreland county, containing eleven hundred pounds of bacon, carpenter tools, and other articles, was destroyed by fire on the 27th inst.

Information is wanted of William Thannon, who left Newry, Ireland, June, 1856, by William Marshall, Clearfield, Pa. Said Thannon is supposed to be somewhere in Pennsylvania at this time.

The dwelling house of Mr. John Short, at Hemlock, this county, was entirely consumed by fire on Friday week, the present week. We did not learn the origin of the fire, or the extent of the loss.

Mr. J. B. Holland, of Newry, has been elected School Superintendent of Blair county. His highest competitor was Mr. E. Elder, the late Superintendent, a ripe scholar and a most efficient officer.

Zachariah McMaal, of Ourvinsville, Clearfield county, has been appointed and confirmed by the Senate, as Agent to the Sac and Fox Indians, in one of the Quaker appointments of General Grant.

Philip Gable was convicted in the Blair county court, week before last, of assault and battery with intent to commit a rape upon his little step-daughter, a child only six years old. Three years in the penitentiary.

Mr. William Mitchell, of Indiana, while endeavoring to grasp the lines of his runaway team, on Friday week, fell to the ground, and one of the wheels of the wagon passed over his shoulder and injured him considerably.

The wind blew open a barn door in Canoe valley, Blair county, the barn door struck Mr. B. Magban, who was on horseback, knocking him from the horse, breaking one of his legs and otherwise injuring him—all on the 3d inst.

A correspondent of the Altoona Tribune says there is now living in that city a great-granddaughter of John Milton and a grandchild of both James Wilson and George Ross, three of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

The building heretofore occupied by the Good Templars at Blair Furnace, Blair county, was set fire by a passing locomotive on Friday week, fell to the ground, and the contents of the building, including books and regalia saved—all the furniture destroyed.

Bob Thomas inaugurated the ice cream season at his saloon on Tuesday night, and we are told that the cream served up was of that delicious character which Bob knows so well how to manufacture. None more palatable can be obtained any where.

The store of Mr. Shunk, at Leipsic, Westmoreland county, was entered by burglars, on Tuesday night of last week, and pilfered of a quantity of goods and some money. One hundred dollars reward is offered for the arrest of the burglars.

The planing mill of Messrs. Baker & Ziegler, at Ludwick, Westmoreland county, was burned to the ground, on Tuesday evening of last week, the fire being the result of carelessness. The loss will reach about $12,000 and the insurance only $3,000.

Abraham Wilson was arrested on Saturday week on the charge of stealing $250 from his father-in-law, Mr. J. M. Kelley, of West Mahoning township, Indiana county. The prisoner confessed his guilt and $195 of the money was found on his person. He was committed to jail.

Mrs. H. G. Devine did us the kindness of sending to our residence, a few evenings ago, a large and luscious cake and a bountiful supply of excellent ice cream, for which she has our hearty thanks. Mrs. D. will serve these luxuries throughout the season, and should be liberally patronized.

The portable steam saw mill of Mr. John Wilson, in Clearfield county, was burned, together with a lot of lumber belonging to other parties, on Tuesday night last. How the fire originated or how much the loss will amount to we did not ascertain, but learn that Mr. W. had $700 insurance.

H. W. Fisher has been elected County Superintendent of Bedford county, and his salary fixed at $1,000. A. T. Gibson for the same position at the same salary, and H. M. Jones has been selected in Westmoreland county, but receives only $800 per annum.

Mr. Kerr, a resident of Mill Creek, was awarded a verdict of $1,900 by a Huntingdon county jury, week before last, against the Pa. R. R. Co., for the loss of a hotel property, more than a year ago, by fire communicated to an adjoining building by sparks from one of the Company's locomotives.

A shed attached to the straw mill of Sutton & Allison, at Indiana, was destroyed by fire at about 3 o'clock on Tuesday morning of last week, involving a loss in straw and building of about $3,500, on which there was only some $1,900 insurance. The fire was beyond question the work of an incendiary, as the mill had been stopped for repairs for some time.

Mr. Patrick Donoghue, of Allegheny township, has entered the ring as an applicant for the Democratic nomination for County Commissioner, as will be seen by his card published in our advertising department. Mr. D. is a sterling democrat and a worthy man, and has been a resident of this county for more than half a century, having entered it as an infant.

We awakened up in time on Tuesday night, or rather Wednesday morning, to get about one ear full of most delicious music, produced under our window by a couple of performers, who brought forth the sweetest strains from a fiddle and a cornet which we conceived to be a small melodion. Sorry we did not hear more of it, but hope our gifted young friends will repeat the exquisite serenade soon and often.

The dwelling of Daniel Lamberson, Jr., of Taylor township, Fulton county, the house of Mr. Cromer, at Fort Littleton, and the house and barn of Mrs. Reeder, near Hustontown, in the same county, were all destroyed by fire at different times within the past two weeks. Mr. Lamberson and Mrs. Reeder lost all their buildings contained, and Mrs. Cromer saved but little. The latter was the only one insured.

A SUPERB WORK.—We have been shown by Mr. S. A. B. Farrington, canvassing agent, a few specimen pages of a work which has recently been issued by Messrs. Parmelee & Co., Philadelphia, entitled "Our Rights and our Duties, or Outlines of the United States Government; its origin, branches, departments, offices and modes of operation."—By Judge Anson Willis.

The work contains more than five hundred pages and a number of beautiful engravings, and furnishes more terms of information than any column of our paper would afford room to even name. How the taxes are collected and where the money goes, who have been Presidents and who have been defeated, who have been Cabinet officers and other public servants since the foundation of the government, together with brief accounts of all the battles that have been fought, from the beginning of the revolution to the present time, are all there. It is a work of equal interest, and will be found in this most valuable work, and the price of it is only $2 and $2.50, according to the style of binding. The book will be sold only by subscription and agents are wanted everywhere.

ELEVATED.—The Johnstown Tribune says that Creson is 2,000 feet above high water mark at Philadelphia, the Pa. R. R. at the mouth of the tunnel at Gallitzin is 2,100 feet above Philadelphia, and the summit of the mountain through which the tunnel is 2,200 feet. We don't know the altitude of Ebensburg, but we know that there is one place in it which is not by any means high in the matter of prices, and that place is the popular cheap cash store of M. L. Outman, who deals in groceries, flour, fruits and confections, and comes as near selling goods at what he paid for them as any man can do and make a living at the business.

Dried apples and peaches, extra family flour, prime hams and shoulders, and good salt, by the barrel, are among the latest articles received at his first class establishment. He will also receive in a few days a general assortment of hoisery and notions.

THE MORE THE MERRIER.—People used to talk about high prices as something to be separated from big stores. Oak Hall has done much to do away with this foolish prejudice by giving a live example of the Largest Clothing House in the State selling goods at the lowest prices. And men are coming to understand that the truth is just the reverse and that the houses doing the most business are the ones who can do so well the cheapest. In this as in everything else, except courtship and marriage, "the more the merrier." The merriest place in town is Wanamaker & Brown's, S. E. corner Sixth and Market streets.

THE LAST RAIL ON THE PACIFIC RAIL ROAD was laid with appropriate ceremonies on Monday. The last tie was made of California laurel, highly polished and mounted with silver, the last spike was made of solid gold weighing twenty ounces, and a silver pick and silver hammer were used in putting down the rail. Grand celebrations in honor of the great event have or are to take place in different parts of the country, and here it should be commemorated by everybody relating to the renowned dry goods, grocery, furniture and notion emporium of H. G. Shoemaker & Co., and buying a big lot of as desirable goods as were ever offered for sale at such low prices in this community.

TWO QUESTIONS.—Will the editor of the Johnstown Democrat please answer the two following questions, which are of interest to the tax-payers of the county? First, Did Jacob Fronhiser offer to rent "Fronhiser's Hall" for the use of the "District Court of Cambria county," and if so, what, as well as the offices for the Sheriff and Prothonotary, and also the jury rooms, for an annual rent of $350 or $400? Second, Was this offer, if made, declined, and was the "Union Hall" rented for the same purposes for the sum of $800 per year? The editor of the Democrat, being on the ground, will oblige us by furnishing the information desired.

ARE WE ALL GOING?—To judge from the number of trunks received at the mammoth hardware and house-furnishing depot of Mr. Geo. Huntley within the last few days, he must calculate that everybody hereabouts intends to emigrate, or else the change in clothing about this time creates a demand for an extra number of these articles. Be that as it may, Mr. Huntley knows what's what, and now that he has them every man or woman that needs one should go there and buy.

SWALLOWS.—The barn swallows did not make their appearance in this vicinity until Tuesday last, having probably waited until Cham Roberts should receive and open out his exquisite assortment of jewelry, watches, notions, stationery, etc., which is certainly very large and beautiful, and recalls nearly everything desirable in that line.

Local Correspondence.

JOHNSTOWN, May 10, 1869.

Dear Freeman.—We read in the Bible that David numbered the people, but it doesn't say anything about numbering the houses. In this respect Johnstown is ahead, for the Council lately passed an ordinance for numbering all the houses in this city.—As I own no house, if you should ever come to town you can find my residence by inquiring for No.—. It appeared to be a sin in our times to number the people, but our committee on original sin and sinners think it is no crime to number the houses. We have a committee of that kind, but not in the Council, who think they have found the verum primordia of original sin, which are found in the Indica Coccolina. Having eradicated this sin in themselves, they are extending their labors to others, and when through this they will try their hands on the Canada thistle. Slender is not included. The Council have also been changing the name of a street. When the Dibert estate was laid out, one of the new streets was named after Rev. Knox, one of the heirs by marriage. It is rumored that a member of the Council who could not purchase a lot from that estate as cheap as if he had been a member of the last Legislature, took a pious notion to immortalize the name of Grant; hence he got an ordinance passed changing Knox street to Grant street. Whether the amimus was to degrade Grant or Knox is not precisely known, but as the street is not yet graded it has in this way been degraded, and there is some feeling up on the subject.

Sundry individuals not known to our vigilant police took a notion a few nights ago to commemorate the anniversary of rowdiness, and proceeded, during the dark hours, to break a marble slab for John Parke worth $25, tear the cave spouting from the residence of David Greed, and carry away the sign of Dr. John Fry. They should be brought up standing before the Committee on O. S.

The noxious weed, yellow-bargain and sale, which flourished so luxuriously in the Legislature of Pennsylvania last winter, is extending its ramifications to places of less note than the State Capitol, and it is not uncommon to hear of treachery, perfidy, fraud and peculation carried on by a very small scale. With one day, and the other day, "brotherly love" continues. The old Greek maxim, Griechi Scanton, seems to be forgotten in the disingenuousness of modern days.

Since the adjournment of Congress Hon. Daniel J. Morrill is again seen traversing our streets daily. Although a political opponent, it may be said without fear of successful contradiction, that he is the cleverest and best man in the land. He is all alike and wishes all well. There is no reserved pride or selfish exclusiveness in his bosom. Hence his popularity. He is a formidable political opponent, but a clever man.

All the taxes imposed this year upon our citizens, taken in the aggregate, will amount to more than six per cent. of the assessed value. The taxes will be enormous this year, while the price of all articles is high and wages low. There will be a demand for labor, but it will not be adequately compensated, and the result will be hard times. It will not, however, affect your correspondent, as he has been subsisting on half rations for the last ten years.

Nature is beginning to assume a cheerful aspect. The fruit trees are in full bloom and the tender foliage is beginning to clothe the trees in summer's verdure. Chirping birds are seeking their mates and the woods resound with choral symphonies. The broad panoramas of love and beauty now spread before the eye makes the heart long for that blissful shore where flowers never bloom, antlers never swell and slanders never come.

Turning from the scenes of nature to the nurseries, we find the common school the leading institution, but not what it used be. Out of twelve hundred children attending school in our borough, about five hundred are in the primary schools, learning to spell and read monosyllables; about three hundred are in the second grade and as many in the third grade or primary grammar schools. This leaves but a few children for the rolls of the grammar and high schools—about seventy for the grammar and thirty for the high. And even in these nothing but the common branches is taught. The average cost of instruction per month in the primary schools is thirty cents per pupil, separate from the cost of a book and one dollar per capita, and in the high school the grammar. This does not include outside expenses. The aggregate cost per month for teaching is six hundred and forty dollars—a little over half a dollar per scholar.

Turning again from schools to places of amusement, we venture the assertion that the theatres have taken in more money in six months than was paid for their salaries last year, and that the eating and drinking saloons have taken in more in six months than has been paid for education in six years, while teachers are not more than able to pay the debts that have been honestly contracted, and during the vacations were compelled to subsist, like the gods, on ambrosia and nectar. Yet from the notices already scattered about town it appears that the business in the line of amusements is rapidly increasing. Hinc illic lacrymæ.

There is a lower class of amusements, to which we must refer. One of these amusements is riding the velocipede, which seems to have supplanted the base ball. Another is shooting of "dorgs," which is indulged in by our police, making the ordinance against dogs in the borough. A third is talking about one's neighbors, judging other's motives, meddling with other's business, acting the censor, the spy, the pimp, and the inquisitor. All these amusements are practiced with much gusto. Even friends practice just for friendship's sake.

Turning from the world, let us take a peep at the churches. In a few months all our churches will be completed. The United Brethren church will be dedicated on next Sunday. The German Lutheran church is up to the eaves and ready for the roofing timber. The German Catholic church is progressing rapidly. When all these are completed Johnstown and vicinity can boast of the finest places of worship, considering the limited wealth, of any place of like size in the State.

I called on "Rob Roy" and plucked the elastic quill from his unpracticed hand. He can't write a bit. An ordinary county superintendent can put English together better, and as the maxim of the law is, quod facti per aliam facti per se, I concluded to write per se. Yours, "TIP."

DANCING.—We noticed a gentleman passing along Washington street the other day carrying a bundle. Every now and then he would stop and take a little "ho-down" to himself. He had been to J. J. Murphy's Star Clothing Store and bought a thirty-three dollar suit of clothes. He was overjoyed. If you want to be joyful go to J. J. Murphy's, Clinton street, Johnstown.

DRUG.—Recently, in Benoni, Benisee Co., Mich. Jones, wife of W. J. Young, Esq., and daughter of Mr. John Kooker, of Johnstown.

ALTOONA, May 10, 1869.

Friend Mac.—Mr. Timothy Sheehan, who was employed by the Pa. R. R. Co. to assist in keeping the engines supplied with coal, met with a terrible death, on Tuesday morning last, by being caught between the tank of a locomotive and the frame of one of the coal shuttles, the life being literally crushed out of him. He leaves a wife and five children. Poor Tim was an industrious, sober and worthy man. Peace to his ashes.

A lad named Corbie, 12 or 14 years of age, was severely bitten by a dog on Sunday last, and fears are entertained that that terrible disease, hydrophobia, may be the result.

The Second M. E. Church is now holding a Fair, the proceeds from which are to be applied to the liquidation of the church debt. It is said to be the best ever gotten up in this city.

Our Catholic friends are making great preparations to have the very best May party that ever came off in this "neck of timber," and you may be sure they will not fail for want of energy and experience.—For the information of those who appreciate innocent amusement and delicious feasting I will endeavor to announce the day fixed for the picnic in my next letter.

The office of the Holidays Radical has been removed to this city, and will hereafter be published in our midst. We have now three weekly papers in Altoona—a firm but fair democratic journal, a quasi-neutral, independent newspaper and a radical republican sheet—all conducted by able and clever gentlemen.

Some of our newspapers reminds me that the Vindicator (the red hat one) will be printed this week on new type, which will friend Campbell has an abundant assortment with which to do anything from a tiny wedding card to a mammoth poster. The services of Howell Swartz, Esq., have been secured for the local department of the Vindicator, and there is no doubt of his ability to do ample justice to that department.

As the time for nominating candidates for office will be with us ere long, I suggest the name of Thad. Banks, Esq. of Hollidaysburg, for the democratic nomination for Assemblyman, to take the place recently held by that great big nobody, Joseph Robinson. Mr. Banks is a gentleman of unimpeachable character and unflinching democracy, and his nomination could not fail to be received with unbounded enthusiasm. By the way, I think Mr. Robinson is likely to be kicked out of the republican party. If that should prove true he will doubtless feel like the disconsolate chap did who poured forth his lamentations thusly:

"And when I die, I 'pose
From here I will be driven,
And forced to loaf about
Outside the walls of heaven.
Nobody yet I know
To see me or to greet me;
No friendly hand to take in me,
Nor a darned soul to treat me."

Our young friend J. H. Brophy, Esq., has been made the recipient, at the hands of a few of his many friends, of a superb pencil case, as a recognition of esteem and appreciation for the services he has rendered of decided ability, and will soon become a worthy and talented disciple of Coke and Blackstone, the great shining lights of the legal profession. Yours, &c., T. I. M.

LATER.—ANOTHER INCENDIARY FIRE.

Altoona, May 11.—The large and handsome stable belonging to Col. Jacob Zink was totally destroyed by fire this morning at about 2 o'clock, a valuable horse and cow and several hogs perishing in the flames.—This fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. The Colonel has been threatened with this for some time, and now the better he is, and the more he will accomplish. The property of Mr. Wm. Elder, adjoining, was very badly damaged. I did not learn the amount of the loss sustained nor the extent of insurance. T. I. M.

FLOUR AND PRODUCE.—We take pleasure in inviting the attention of our readers to the card of J. M. Montgomery, in another column of our paper. Mr. Montgomery is fully prepared to fill all orders for flour and produce on commission. To persons wishing to consign produce to the Pittsburgh market, or purchase there, we can safely recommend your young and enterprising friend, J. M. Montgomery, of No. 6 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, Pa. See card.

L. O. Q. TROX.—Some questions should be read with an elevation of voice, as "Did you get that cheap dress at J. J. Murphy & Co.'s?" Other questions should have the falling slide, as "Where did you get that new dress?" Some questions are doubtful, as "Where—was it—who—did you get it at J. J. Murphy's, or where?" But it matters not so that you do get all your goods from J. J. Murphy & Co., Huston House, sign of the big sign, Johnstown.

DREAMS.—I dreamed a fearful dream. I thought I was riding in the cars and they flew from the track into a river of clear water. I thought I could swim, and the water was forty feet deep, clear as crystal. I took up Mayer's dream book—Leopold Mayer's dream book—the book of Sybil—and found that it was a very fortunate dream. Mayer sells cheap dry goods and dress goods. Opera House, Main street, Johnstown.

COGARS.—Some people wouldn't give away a cigar. Other people would. I was passing Leopold & Bro.'s Oak Hall Clothing Store, on Main street, where new cheap clothing of all kinds is kept for the lowest possible price. Call and see, for seeing is believing. Call at Leopold & Bro.'s Oak Hall Clothing Store and get a new summer suit. I got the cigar. I'm going too.

BLUE HATS.—Very fanciful head coverings for gentlemen in the shape of blue hats are coming into fashion. We saw several of them while away from home the other day. None have been introduced here as yet, but Vallie Barker keeps a splendid assortment of more desirable and sensible colors and styles, and can fit any head that presents itself. Go and see Vallie's stock of summer goods.

ST. ANDREW.—Who was St. Andrew? There is a difference of opinion on this subject, but we do know that Andrew is—Andrew is the man who got his pants all bloody saying dogs. So he went to L. Cohen & Brother's New York Clothing Hall and bought another Sunday suit. Do they sell cheap? Well, now just try them on Main street.

UP AGAIN.—We are glad to announce that recovered from his recent illness, and his friends and customers may expect ere long to greet him behind the counter again. In the meantime his salesmen will sell any and all goods contained in his splendid stock at the most reasonable prices. Give them a trial.

SHOW CASES.—Nelson Taylor still paints show cases about Benton and Wayne's hardware store, on Franklin street, Johnstown. The best painting in town does here.

NOTICE.—All persons wishing to procure one of the celebrated EXHA Mowers and Reapers Machines must leave their orders with me before the 20th day of June next, so that I may have sufficient time to obtain the Machines before they wish to use them. GEO. HUNTLEY. Ebensburg, May 13, 1869-6t.

A CARD.—I take this method of announcing to the voters of Cambria county that I am a candidate for the office of COUNTY COMMISSIONER, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention. If nominated and elected I hope I shall be able, by a faithful performance of the duties of the office, to satisfy the people that their confidence has not been misplaced. PATRICK DONOGHUE. Allegheny Tp., May 13, 1869-5t.

SHERIFF'S SALES.—By virtue of sundry writs of Plo. Levari Facias and Vend. Expon, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Cambria County, and to me directed there will be exposed to Public Sale, at the COURT HOUSE IN JOHNSTOWN, on SATURDAY, THE 29TH DAY OF MAY, AT 10 O'CLOCK, P.
