LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

"No better than we expected" has turned out promising, but we hope to find it and publish it for the gratification of the author next week.

Several attempts at burglary were recently made in Greensburg and Ludwick, but every instance the burglars were frightened from their purpose before they had secured any booty.

A watchman on the Pa. R. R. named Schultz, was knocked down and run over by a freight train at Hillside, Westmoreland county, a couple of weeks since, and one of his legs was cut off and other serious injuries inflicted upon him.

A large supply of sugars, teas and syrups have just been received by M. L. Oatman, which will be sold very cheap. Go and see the assortment and learn the prices, and you will be convinced that like articles have never before been offered so low in this community.

The densest forest along the sidewalks in our town, that were once shade trees but will never be again, ought to be cut down by the owners of property, and if they neglect or refuse to do so then the borough authorities should take the matter in hand.

By reference to our list of "real estate transfers" it will be seen that the Cambria Iron Company has purchased Conemaugh Furnace, near Johnstown, for a sum probably not exceeding one-third of its original cost.

A white man named Wilson and a negro named Wm. Clark, escaped from the Indiana jail on Tuesday night of last week, and their whereabouts thus far has not been ascertained.

A lad named Callihan, employed in the coal mines of Dyest & Co., at Lilly's station, this county, was killed, on Tuesday of this week, by the falling in upon him of an immense mass of coal.

Capt. Harry C. Teeter, editor Middleport, (O.) Press, the gentleman whom we noticed last week as having taken for wife one of the fair daughters of the Buckeye State, paid us a very brief visit on Thursday last.

Two men named James Wilson and William Congden were arrested near Bedford on Wednesday of last week, on suspicion of having been implicated in the robbery of the Clearfield County National Bank, on the night of the 12th inst., and upon being searched the stolen goods to the value of $142 were found upon their persons.

The resignation of the name of Thad. Banks, Esq., of Hollidaysburg, as the Democratic candidate in Blair county, has been hailed with the warmest enthusiasm, and the hope seems to be cherished by all his political friends that the selection of such an honest and able man as Mr. Banks will not fail to secure the triumph of democratic principles in that benighted radical stronghold.

Mr. James Kelly and wife, who left this county and settled in California almost fifteen years ago, paid our town a brief visit during the present week, having included their old Cambria home in an extended tour which they are now making, and which takes in a tour in Ireland, France and Italy before they return next Spring to their home on the golden shores of the Pacific.

Some three weeks ago "Chaplain" W. T. Davis concluded the third year of his service as mail messenger between the post office and railroad depot at this place, and during all that time he has faithfully, promptly and satisfactorily performed his arduous duties, regardless of inclement weather or other adverse circumstances.

Dr. Thomas F. Campbell, of Altoona, a practicing physician in Johnstown, died in the latter place on Sunday morning, 16th inst., from an overdose of morphia which he had taken to allay a painful attack of neuralgia of the heart and lungs, a disease to which he had for some time been subject.

The agent for Bryan's grand circus and menagerie, failing to obtain accommodations here for the ladies, men and horses connected with the management of the establishment, owing to the fact that they wished to exhibit during the second week of Court, when our public houses are all filled to their utmost capacity, has been forced to advertise an exhibition, day and night, at Summitville, on the 9th June to be followed by a like exhibition at Johnstown on the day following.

Week before last was very prolific of accidents in and about Johnstown. A man named Colligan had one of his arms broken, his head crushed and was otherwise severely injured in one of the Cambria Iron Co.'s mines on Wednesday. John M. Reese and a boy named Watkins were dangerously hurt by an explosion of gas in the latter's mine, a couple of miles from Johnstown, on Saturday. Young Watkins has since died of his injuries.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.—The following Deeds and Assignments have been left for record at the office of James Griffin, Esq., Register, during the week ending May 22d: John Quirk to Rose Coughlin—lot in Cambria borough, March 25, 1867. $200.

THE MATRIMONIAL MARKET has been extremely active for the past few days, quite a number of marriageable daughters having changed hands. We can only hope that the several investments will prove pleasant and profitable ones, and that our young friends will not forget that very many of the indispensable articles for housekeeping can be purchased at the extensive establishment of Geo. Huntley, and that too at fair prices as from any other dealer.

TRIFLE.—In a half column advertisement in our paper to-day everybody is invited to "try Fry" when they want to buy any of the thousand and one articles comprised in the new and magnificent stock of goods just opened by him in the rooms recently occupied by R. H. Tudor. The ladies say that such a purchase in this community, and Mr. Fry is determined to merit a liberal patronage by selling his goods at wonderful low prices.

DECORATING THE SOLDIERS' GRAVES.—At a meeting of surviving soldiers and citizens, held at the Court House on Thursday evening last, the following order of exercises was adopted for the approaching decoration of the graves of those fallen heroes who "sleep their last sleep" in the cemeteries in this vicinity.

The procession will form at the Court House on Saturday, May 29th, and be ready to move at 1 o'clock, p. m. It will be composed of one division, to be under the command of a Chief Marshal and two Assistants. The cavalcade will pass over such routes to the different cemeteries as the Chief Marshal and his Assistants may hereafter designate, in the following order: American Flag, draped in mourning.

Each member of the Decorating Committee will be provided with a small flag, which they will deposit on the graves in such manner as the Assistant Marshal in charge shall direct.

The graves in the different cemeteries to be decorated were previously marked with small flags by a committee appointed for that purpose.

SUCKED IN.—Jonah wrote to his father after the whale had first swallowed him, stating that he thought he had found a good opening for a young to go into the oil business; but afterwards wrote for money to bring him home, stating that he had been "sucked in," as M. L. Oatman had secured the right to manufacture the "non-explosive" dynamite, which was giving such universal satisfaction to parties burning oil that they would have no other. The right to manufacture and sell this celebrated oil in Cambria county is held by our friend Oatman, who will dispose of township, store and individual rights very low. He is constantly manufacturing this oil, and parties can get it at his store either by the quart or gallon, and can also buy from him the best quality of the freshest groceries of all kinds offered for sale in this market.

HEARTH AND HOME.—This excellent fire-side weekly, now in the fifth month of its existence, has won its way to a popularity and patronage unequalled in the history of the newspaper literature of this county. It is the most perfect and valuable depository of agricultural, literary, scientific and general knowledge we have ever perused, and should find a welcome in every household.

JOHNSTOWN, May 24, 1869. Dear Freeman—Here I am sitting alone, except that a few mice come out and trip over the floor just for company. We have honorable mice; they will steal a little, and give you a rich man's table, and I feel like to-day, but I never knew one to look like or slander. We have some rats, too, but they are not like Johnstown rats generally. Their depredations are bold and open—no meanness in their acts.

I am writing on the kitchen table. A cocoa nut is lying before me, and two oranges at my right. These and my old hat and a box containing pens, ink and some paper, are all the furniture of my laboratory.

We have been perambulating the town for locals and cannot find any, except that the old graveyard, south of the Union School House, is in a very dilapidated condition.

The Soldier's Orphan were here and held an exhibition. Two hundred and four answered to their names at roll call. Some were laughing and some were otherwise.

We have had two or three exhibitions here of the "negro minstrel" style, but they were not well attended. Yesterday another negro minstrel troupe arrived. We do not know what luck awaits them. Mimicking dance does not pay now-a-days.

Several persons hereabouts who used to act as clerks on election boards, have declared that they will not perform duty next fall under three dollars per day, as both elections are held on one day. This is perfectly right. When two days work are done in one, men ought to get two days pay.

A lady called at a butcher shop on Saturday and availed that she had bought some from said butcher—to wit, namely, a pound of the thousand and one articles comprised in the new and magnificent stock of goods just opened by him in the rooms recently occupied by R. H. Tudor.

A new wholesale liquor store is coming to town; and a new hardware store. The liquor business of the place must be increasing, or there would be no demand for new firms. More work for the committee.

The Sabbath day is not kept very holy about town. We see parties going out every Sunday, seeking pleasure. The wealthy go in carriages and the poor on foot. We see crowds of boys playing ball all day just under their parents' noses.

FOUND DROWNED.—In a spring in the suburbs of Fairview, Jackson township, the body of a young man, intelligent and worthy citizen of the village, who had been discovered for several hours after it had fallen in, but looked quite natural—so much so that its parentage was readily recognized by the person who found it, on account of the great resemblance it had to its father. The community laments his loss deeply, for had he been spared he would in all probability have been a useful and intelligent man as his father, for even in his extreme youth he had all of his father's qualifications and virtues.

A FROST.—Leopold & Brother, who assist one another, have laid in a lot of clothing which they bought very cheap in the east, and will sell for at least ten per cent. below any other we know in of this thriving town; and never once frown on those who buy; so you had better hurry, for they do not all, repair to Oak Hall, where you will find prices to suit your mind. Johnstown, Pa.

LOST BOY.—This is the title of a new poster by L. Cohen & Brother, New York Clothing Hall, Main street, Johnstown. The lost boy was found to have a large amount of clothing which he bought at L. Cohen & Brother's, where everything in the clothing line may be procured, cheaper than elsewhere. The prodigal son has returned a large profit to the advertisers.

Surprise them.—If you want to surprise your neighbors and "cut a dash" this summer, just go to Oak Hall and buy a suit of clothes, made of material that is entirely new and never before seen in this part of the country, and cut in the very height of fashion. Cheap for cash and warranted to beat anything made for beauty of style and finish.

MARRIED. GLASS—FOX.—At Summitville, Pa., on Tuesday, May 25th, by Rev. Thomas Ryan, Mr. THOMAS GLASS, of Ebensburg, and Miss ALICE FOX, of Washington township.

The printer man is so overwhelmed with wedding gifts just now that he can scarcely find words with which to express his gratitude and well wishes, and therefore hopes that his feelings rather than his expressions will be accepted as most befitting the happy occasion.

SHOEMAKER—MYERS.—On Tuesday evening, May 25th, at Patrick's tavern in this place, by Rev. C. H. Christy, Mr. HENRY A. SHOEMAKER and Miss LUCIE MYERS, all of Ebensburg.

As we take pleasure in announcing this week the consummation of so many matrimonial alliances, but it is with double gratification that we congratulate our most estimable friends, Harry and Lucy upon the happy event in which they have acted so conspicuous a part.

POWERS—PARRISH.—At Carrolltown, on Tuesday May 25th, 1869, by Rev. Benno Hegle, Mr. JOHN POWERS, of Susquehanna township, and Miss LILLIE PARRISH, of Carroll township.

FLYNN—FLANAGAN.—At St. Augustine, on Tuesday, May 18th, by Rev. E. Burns, Mr. JOHN FLYNN, of Rock Haven, and Miss ANNIE FLANAGAN, of Bell's Mills, Blair county.

ROBINSON—ROBERTS.—At the residence of the bride's parents in this place, on Tuesday, May 25th, by Rev. E. Burns, Mr. GEORGE ROBINSON and Miss AGATE ROBERTS, all of Ebensburg.

DIED. BOLAND.—At Summitville, at 12 o'clock on Sunday, May 16th, Mr. THOMAS W. BOLAND, aged 30 years and 6 months.

The deceased was born in the vicinity of his dear home, a vigorous life highly esteemed for his noble qualities of mind and heart, and sides receiving the full benefits of a common school education, he graduated with first class honors (for rapid progress in his studies and most exemplary conduct) at St. Francis' College, Philadelphia, Pa., in 1857.

HUDSON.—At the residence of his father, at Hemlock, on Friday, 21st inst., after a brief illness, JAMES HUDSON, aged about 19 years.

STORM.—In Washington twp., on Thursday night last, May 20th, 1869, Dr. DAVID T. STORM, aged about 75 years.

DR. STORM, we believe, was born in Maryland and studied medicine in Baltimore, but removed to this county nearly half a century ago, where he married and has remained almost permanently ever since. He was a man of regular habits and great stability of character, and in the practice of his profession he was eminently successful while he pursued that calling.
