HOW MIKE RODE THE BULL.

Mike took a notion to go in swimming, and he had just got his clothes off, when he saw Deacon Smith's bull making at him. The bull was a vicious animal, and had come near killing two or three persons, consequently Mike felt rather "jubua." He didn't want to call for help, for he was naked, and the nearest place by the tail. He was dragged round till other man ufacturer in the State. could hold on no longer, he made up his and for sale cheap. mind he had better holler." And now we distance and work put up wherever desired, or will let him tell his own story:

"So, looking at the matter in all its bearings, I cum to the conclusion that I'd better let some one know whar I was. So I gin a yell, louder than a locomotive whistle, and it warn't long before I seed the deacon's two dogs a coming down like as if they war seeing which could get thar | Suppres's Building, Clinton Sr., Johnstown, and a general Banking business transacted. first. I know'd who they were arterthey'd jine the bull ag'in' me. So,' sez I, in' on this route, if you've no objections, I'll jist take a deck passage on that ar' back o' yourn.' So I warn't very long gitting astride of him. Then, if you'd been thar, you'd have sworn thar warn't nothing human in that ar' mix, the sile flew so orfully, as the critter and I rolled one on the other, trying to clinch my feet. So when we urally halted, so sez, I, old boy, you'll lose one passenger sartin. So I jist clum up a longer, I war a makin' tracks for the top no use a swearin'-but it war the biggest hornet's nest ever bilt. You'll 'gin in' now I reckon, Mike, 'cause there's no help for you. But an idea struck me then that I stood a heap better chance a ridin' the bull than whar I was. Sez I, old feller, if you'll hold on, I'll ride to the next station anyhow, let that be whar it will.

"So I jist dropped aboard him agin, and looked aloft to see what I had gained by changin' quarters, and, gentlemen, I'm a liar, if thar warn't nigh half a bushel of the stingin' varmints ready to pitch into me when the word 'go' was gin. Well, I reckin they got it, for 'all hands' started for our company. Some on 'em hit the dogs-about a quart struck me, and the rest charged on brindle.

"This time the dogs led off fust, dead bent for the old deacon's, and as soon as old brindle and I could get underway we followed, and as I was only a deck passenger, I had nothin' to do with steerin' the craft ; if I had, we shouldn't have run that channel anyhow. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Cought, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption. Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and hower to care the various affections. character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can at the same time the most effectual rainedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Group, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and conghs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the parignet resigned to sound health by and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Poctoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it. Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Chorry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully
