A report prevails here that Mr. Thomas McKernan has very wisely concluded to withdraw from the canvass as an independent candidate for Register and Recorder, but as that gentleman has ceased all, intercourse with this establishment, owing to our very mild strictures on the questionable course he saw fit to pursue, we have no authority from him for making the announcement. For his own sake we hope it is true-otherwise we feel little interest in the matter.

His transcendant elequence was lisinformed, in the fine large building tened to with much attention, and for almost two hours his hearers "stood the pressure" and enjoyed the fun, if they did not comprehend his philosophy. All who heard his sublime utterances were perfectly mystified, if not entirely convinced, by his astonishing and incontrovertible logic and his eloquent exceriation of error in all its diversified forms; and how anxiously they look forward to his promised "removal of the pressure," on the night of the 22d instant, neither tongue nor pen is fully able to desa depth of about eight inches. OUR TELEGRAPH.—Everything is lovely and the wires hang high. Our telegraph is an accomplished fact, and Ebensburg has made another stride in the path of progress. JOHNSTOWN, Sept. 6, 1869. Dear Freeman-The Union Hall is now completed. An effort has been made to adjust the building accoustically, and a great amount of labor has been bestowed upon it. The finish is superb, and we have no doubt that the members of the District Court will be better pleased with it the next time.

The M. E. Church is now completed. The workmen were hanging the doors on last Saturday. We doubt whether there is a better finished job west of the mountains. The finish is chiefly of chestnut and walnut. There are seventy double pews in it, besides the apartment for the choir.

We are indebted to our friend, John W. Hay, for the following particulars: James H. Gageby, Captain of Con puny I, 37th U. S. Infantry, Regular Army, has been transferred as Captain to Company D. 3d Infantry. Though this is not a promotion, it is an honor, as the duties are more responsible. The Captain writes from Fort Logan, Colorado Territory, but will soon be at Fort Learned, Kansas, fifty miles from the railroad. The letter is dated Aug. 18th, 1869.

We were shown an ingenious contrivance at the ffice of Dr. M'anight & Garver, who are now stopping at the Foster House, in the cup, which forms, when the cup is raised above the head, a hydrostatic pressure, which will force any medicated preparation through the nostrils. The object is to cure catairh in the head, weak eyes, sore ears, and the surgeon. They will be here a month.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Sept. 6, 1869. Dear Freeman-The picnic which I mentioned in my last, came off on the day appointed and was a grant success. The day was very favorable and the people turned out in large numbers and were all satisfied, so far as I could learn. Dancing was the order of the day, and found many devotees in the large assemblage. The principal violinists were Mr. Scullan, of Tyrone Messrs. Carroll and McGuire, of St. Augustine, who were assisted by Messrs. Barrows and Gill, of Clearfield county and Mrs. Kerins, of Wilmore-all excellent musicians. The refreshment saloons were well supplied with the choicest estables, which fact did credit to the young ladies who had charge of that department and showed that when the fair sex set themselves to work they will not be outdone in an undertaking of this kind. Happy will be they who secure them as partners for life. Among the many strangers there I noticed Sheriff Buck of Carrolltown, John Cox, Esq., County Treasurer, James Griffin, Register and Recorder, Geo. W. Oatman, the Democratic candidate for the latter office, and also Captain McDonald. of Philadelphia. (and by the way let me remark that a more courtly gentleman than the captain is seldom to be found;) also Capt. F. M. Flanagan, the Republican candidate for Assembly. I hope they all enjoyed themselves while at our pionic.

Jack Frost paid us a visit on the night of the 31st of August, September 1st and 2d, and did considerable damage to the corn, tomatoes, etc. The man whom I noticed in one of my letters as having found horses in Mr. Cooper's corn field while returning from a courting expedition, has come to the conclusion that such trips don't pay, and therefore has had the banus of matrimony between himself and his fair du'cinea published in church.

By the way I see we have a match team out for office,-two Toms, Thomas McKierpan and Thos. Wilts-but of course neither will be elected. Mr. M'K. was a candidate before the convention, but was beaten-Mr. Oatman being the choice of the convention. He is a man competent in every way to fill the office properly, and was, three years ago, defeated, the same as Mr. M'K., in the corvention, but did not forsake his political creed, and, to use the words of Buz Fuz become the cat's-paw of the republican party," but went into the campaign with good will to secure the election of his competitor, Mr. Griffin. He will of course receive every democratic vote now, as no democrat will vote for a man who shows the white feather, as Mr. M'K. does. Now a word about our other Tom. I am sorry to say he as to permit himself to become the dupe of radicalism, at the cost of his own reputation as a politician. If Mr. Wilts wanted the office why did he not come out before the pominated, and almost until the eleventh hour, and then launched his frail barque on of course, of securing a radical triumph for Commissioner. But his trump is too small. His political grave is dug unless he with-

CONEMAUGH, Sept. 6, 1869. Dear Freeman-As you receive correspondence from almost every village and hamlet in the county, I shall try to give you a short sketch of passing events in our two boroughs, viz : East Conemaugh and Frank-Being a very quiet and industrious people, it is seldom that a sensation is gotten up amongst us, and consequently there is not much for newspaper correspondents to write about. Nevertheless, we have a few indi-viduals in our midst who are decidedly sharp, and sometimes some of our unsuspecting citizens become victims to their sharpness. A case occurred a few days since, in which one of our most popular landlords was victimized with a vengeance. There is an individual here who, on account of his great age, which is nearly four score years, is generally known and recognized by the name of Vater, (father,) and who follows the occupation of gardening, huckstering, etc. So Vater, while rursuing his daily avodoes "know how to keep a hotel," and, I doubt not has taken in many a stranger, but did not wish to be taken in himself. Vater offered to sell him a nice lot of roasting ears, which offer was accepted, and the landlord sent his produce to the kitchen, well pleased with his purchase. Upon a careful examination, however, it was discovered that the huckster had sold the landlord instead of the corn. As soon as the discovery was made, "mine host" seized the basket con-taining what he had purchased and started in pursuit of Vater, and passing a bar-room where a number of citizens were congregated, he stopped to make inquiry for the object of his search, at the same time applying adjectives to the old gentleman's name, which were in no wise complimentary. It was evident from his excited manner that something was the matter, for he looked more like "a Daniel come to judgment" than a jolly publican of East Conemaugh. The company insisted upon knowing what was

I suppose there are many of the readers of the Freeman anxious to know what became of the money they paid for chances in the picnic books of Mr. Jacob Luther. Well, the prizes were all drawn on Saturday, the 4th of this month, the following being the lucky recipients: Gold watch, Lewis J. Bearer, Susquehanna tp.; cow, L. J. Parrish, jr., Carroll tp.; 5 head sheep, Jos. A. Baker, Blacklick tp.; rifle gun, E. Leavy; accordeon, Miss Caroline Luther; gold pencil, Mrs. Ellen Weakland; clothes line, Jacob Luther; sett stone ware, Celestine Mo-Combie. Mr. Luther did not realize much by the affair; therefore he intends trying it again on the first Saturday in October, with another sett of articles, which will be drawn on that day if the chances are all taken. After the drawing of the above prizes the young folks repaired to the house of John Bearer, Esq. where they got up a dance which reflected credit on all concerned. There were ladies and gentlemen enough present to dance sixteen cotillions, but they only dauced one at a time, so that the fun would last the longer. After dancing to the hour of midnight the gentlemen took the ladies to their respective homes-all well pleased with the happy time they had enoyed. Not wishing to intrude too much on your columns the first time, I will close, hoping that something of more importance may turn up before my next. In the mean-

OUR READERS have observed that we arely praise patent medicines, and that we advertise only the best of them. But now, the remarkable recovery of Mrs. Rice, of Canastoto, from her distressing and almost helpless scrofulous disease, which is known throughout the community as unquestionably the effect of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, leads us to publish without reserve the remarkable efficacy of this medicine. We do this in the interest of the afflicted. Any remedy which can so effectually 'raise one from the dead'' should be universal ly known; and we wish it may be universally as successful as it has been in the case of Mrs Rice.—[Daily Journal, Syracuse.

are more fashionably worn. WHO IS JAMES J. MURPHY !- He is gentleman. Where does he live? In Johnswn What street ? Clinton street. What number? No. 109. What does he do? He sells cheap made up clothing. Does he sell cheap? Yes, sir. Has he boy's clothing? Yes, clothing for men and boys-shirts, collars, vests, pants, hats, caps, trunks, umbrellas, and all kinds of gent's furnishing goods. Leave your money with J. J., and you'll never rue it.

STOLEN HORSES. - Somerset county is infested with horse thieves. Several horses were stolen last week and several men pursued the rascals to Johnstown, where they stopped, being attracted by the superb made up clothing of L. Cohen & Brother, No. 214, New York Clothing Hall, Opera House, Main street. Johnstown, where they spent the price of a horse in buying cheap clothing, and in carrying it to Somerset.

THE CIRCUS -All who wish to get a fine view of the circus, when it comes to town, on the 13th inst, should congregate before Murphy & Co.'s Dry Goods Store, Houston House, Johnstown. Ample preparations will be made to sell, if possible, five hundred dollars, worth of cheap dry goods, dress goods, quilt patterns, coverlets, blankets, calicoes, muslins, carpets, handkerchiefs, silks, satins and other etceteras.

ANOTHER ECLIPSE -There will be a total eclipse at Johnstown, Sept. 27th, to contique for two months. Leof old Mayer is bringing on a lot of goods that will eclipse anything ever brought to Johnstown. Before he goes he would like to sell off the remainder of his present stock of dry goods, to make room for what is coming. Call at 212, Opera House, Main street, at the N. Y. Dry Goods Store.

DANGEROUS -The chief danger from Dyspepsia is that the reduced strength of the system may disable it from surmounting othes intercurrent diseases. Sympathetic affectionr of the liver and lungs often have their origin in Dyspepsia, and may become organic diseases and constitute not only a source of inconvenience but danger. Hence, the soone treatment is commenced after the first symptoms of Dyspepsia are manifest, with more certainty can the disease be thoroughly expeded. Do not delay to seek advice from unwarranted sources, but procure Roback's Blood Pills, take them in small doses to stimulon, yet it is good enough to put upon any man's table, and cannot fail to give satisfacand you will find the relief will be almost im-'RAH FOR ROWLEY!—The first inwolce of fall goods received in Ebensburg has should be continued for a while after all symp-TRIS (Wednesday) morning, Adam Bowin the East Ward.
