THE SAFE DEPOSIT COMPANY OF PITTS Burgh - This institution, which has just commenced business in the new building, taken before his Honor, Judge Taylor, No. 83 Fourth Avenue, Pittsburgh, will, when properly known, have as much business as can be attended to, for it provides a class of a commodation to holders of Government bonds and other valuable securities, and to those having valuable books, papers, etc., to take care of, that has long been needed, The company proposes, for a very reasonable rate of compensation, to take charge of and guarantee the safety of bonds and securities of all kinds, gold and silver plate, books, records, diamonds and valuables of every description. Since Bank robberies have become so frequent and the best constructed ordinary office safe is so easily opened by the skillful burglar, the guarantee offered by this company is of great value; and no danger from fire need be apprehended, as the building is fire proof-the floors being tiles and the counters marble. See advertisement.

> P. T. BARNUM.-The publishers, Messrs. J. B Bur & Co., of Hartford, Conn., have sent us the prospectus and advance sheets of a new book which they are about to issue, entitled "Struggles and Triumphs; or Forty Years' Recollections of P. T. Barnum."-The work will be a true record of the eventful life of this celebrated showman, written by himself, and while it will contain an abundance of matter which cannot fail to interest and amuse, it will be so instructive and edifying ip its nature that all who peruse it will find themselves amply repaid for the time and money expended. It will contain over 800 pages, and will be elegantly printed in English and German, and finely illustrated with 33 engravings. It will be sold by subscriptions only, and agents for it are wanted everywhere. Address the Publishers, as above.

A Huge Stock .- Since our grocer friend next door, Mr. M. L. Oatman, has been doknown him to receive such an immense stock of goods as has been unloaded at his establishment within the last few days. In fact, his store is literally crowded with groceries, provisions, flour, notions, etc., and it is very evident that he is doing a thriving business, as indeed he could not well fail to do on the liberal and enterprising principles which actuale him. The "Eastern Star Flour," with which he supplies his customers, is winning for him a name and a fame, but it is only one of the many prime fresh articles with which he is supplying everybody at

THE GRAND OPENING .- The opening of the great Pacific Railroad was an occasion of great and wide-spread interest, and so will be the Fall and Winter Trade at Oak Hall. On Thursday next, September 23d, Messrs. Wanamaker & Brown make a grand display of their new stock, and invite to it all the readers of our paper. Those who have been present at former "Openings" at Oak Hall, know how pleasant these occasions are, and know how well it pays to spend a while in looking through such a stock of new and fresh clothing.

JOHNSTOWN, Sept. 27, 1869. Dear Freeman-A most distressing affair night last, (25th inst.,) near this place. The dwelling house of Messrs. Fleck and Myers, a double building located in Grubtown, one mile south of Johnstown; on the Somerset road, caught fire in the basement while they were sleeping, and soon gained such headway that the family had merely time to escape, by jumping out of an upper window, after they discovered the fire. Mr. Myers took au only child in his arms and sprang from the win-low, Mrs. Myers following-all of them reaching the ground in safety. But a little girl of Stewart Osborne, a neighbor, aged about ten years, had come there to skep that night, as she had often done be fore, and in the excitement she was forgotten till it was too late to save her, and she perished in the flames. About two o'clock next morning her charred remains were found in the basement of the building. The evening | The perpetrators escaped undetected. was rainy, and the lurid light attracted hundreds from Johnstown, who at the time were just leaving the Opera House, but by the time they arrived the building with all its contents, was consumed. Mrs. Osbornewho is a near neighbor, was at home at the would meet with such a distressing death. especially for the mother of the unfortunate | afford to do without it.

A DEATH IN THE LOCK UP. Another heart-rending affair occurred on last Thursday night in this place. A family living in the Fifth Ward, who have had that the mother is often disturbed in mind, her craziness arising from disease, and that subject to fi's, and was also occasionally demented. The father, who is a sober and industrious man, has had much trouble in pre serving peace in the family, as the mother and danghter would often quarrel and tear up the household goods, as if preparing to move. On Thursday the father and husband had to interfere to keep the peace, and, it is said, both parties were chastised; after which, for some reason, the girl, on complaint of a neighbor, was taken to the lockwhere, during the night, she took an appoplectic fit and died. A coroner's inquest was held, and after a post mortem examinadered in accordance with the facts above stated. Our sympathy for the distressed family compels us to suppress names, but there is something here to point a moral and adorn a tale. Different stories are in circulation in regard to the matter, but we know We deeply sympathize with the surviving daughter, who is an amiable girl of some ter greatly to heart.

THE WEATHER. September may be set down in the calendar as the warmest and dryest month in the vear 1869. Nevertheless, last Saturday shower of rain, but changed the tempera-THE NATIONAL DEBT.

For the benefit of the brisk minor panting for twenty-one, who will deposite his first vote this fall, we make the following calculation. If said minor, just twenty-one, would begin to count the national debt now, and count two dollars every second, or one ten hours per day, Sundays not excepted, he would be one-hundred and twenty-eight ed. At ten dollars per second he would count thirty-six millions, two hundred and eighty dollars per year; but there are twen- & Brother do things writerty-eight hundred millions to count. THEATRES. Rose and Harry Watkins performed about eleven nights in the Opera House to good audiences during the past two weeks. They go from here to Altoona. We bespeak for them overflowing houses in that city. Some pious people are opposed to theatres, but from what we have seen at theatres we think there is much more danger of these pious people's sons corrupting the theatre, than of the theatre corrupting the pious people's son's. Boys who go to the theatre, and swear, blackguard, throw apple cores, to bacco quids, and the like, and go out to liquor every ten minutes, are in no danger of being corrupted by any theatre. Some persons were arrested for disorderly conduct at the Opera House the other night, and put in the lock-up, but the police didn't disturb the young rowdies aforesaid. 'Cause why, their daddies were rich! If young people cannot behave at a theatre, neither can they ing business in this place, we have never at a church, or anywhere else. Parents have but a vague idea of what their sons can do when out of their sight.

DON'T DRINK. A canvassing liquor agent told us the other day that a drink of good brandy could not be bought for less than fifty cents, and other liquors in proportion, and that there at ten and fifteen cents a drink. If this is the case, and the drinker gets nothing for his ten cents but poison that makes a sore mouth, a bad breath, a light head, and a weak stomach, is it not time to quit drinkthe lowest cash prices. Several of our Ebensburg friends were present on this festive oc casion, and I doubt not, from the observations of your correspondent that night, that they will visit our town frequently in the future, or perhaps eventually locate here.

A forcible entrance was made, by some unknown persons, into the premises of Mr. A. Haug. in this place, one day last week, and several articles, amounting in value to about ten dollars, were abstracted therefrom. Yours, Buz Fuz.

Their range of application is, perhaps, more extensive than any other cathartic or liver pill, combining, as they do, the active principle of mandrake root and black cohosh in such an eminent degree, and are really a desirable family medicine, which can be taken at all times by children, as well as adults, with the happiest results.

L. L. LANGSTROTH'S DRONOUNCED THE BEST EVER YET

introduced in this County or State. Any person buying a family right can have their Bees transferred from an old box to a new one. In every instance in which this has been done the result has been entirely satisfactory, and the first take of honey has invariably paid all expenses, and frequently exceeded them. Proof of the superior merits of this invention will be found in the testimony of every man who has given it a trial, and among the number are the gentlemen named below, and their experience should induce every one interested in Bees to BUY A FAMILY RIGHT! Henry C Kirkpatrick, of Carroll township, took 106 pounds of surplus honey from two hives, which he sold at 35 cents per pound. Adam Deitrich, of Carroll township, took from two hives 100 pounds of surplus honey.

James Kirkpatrick, of Chest township, took 60 pounds of surplus honey from one hive. Jacob Kirkpatrick, of Chest township, obtained 72 pounds of surplus honey from o e hive, worth not less than $21, and the right cost him only $5. Peter Campbell from one hive obtained 36 pounds of surplus honey at one time. Quite a number of similar statements authenticated by some of the best citizens of Cambria county, could be obtained in proof of the superior merits of Langstroth's Patent Movable Comb Bee Hive.

Persons wishing to purchase family rights should call on or address PETER CAMPBELL,
