Geary's Life in Laconics.

Gov. Geary pardons white criminals for money-nigger criminals for nothing. Gov. Genry is the "man Friday" of the most corrupt "Ring" that ever disgraced our State legislation.

Gov. Geary blushed to the roots of his hair when asked how much he got for signing the Calamity bill. He didn't answer. Gov. Geary put a premium on lust, when he pardoned Cain Norris, who outraged the three white girls at Chambersburg. Gov. Geary thinks three thousand dollars enough for any man's life, lost on a railroad. That's not quite a year's salary for the Governor.

Gov. Geary boasts of having fought a battle "above the clouds." If that is so, he was nearer Heaven then than he'll ever be again.

Gov. Geary tells us that Stonewall Jackson warned Longstreet to beware of him. That is just what we now tell the people. Beware of Geary !

Gov. Geary, according to John Covode. Chairman of the Radical State Stealing Committee, is the "humbuggedest Gover nor" Pennsylvania ever had.

Gov. Geary is partial to black criminals. Hence his pardon of Cain Norris, the infamous nigger who raped three white girls near Chambersburg.

Gov. Geary, when he left the Democratic party, gave us a good riddance of bad rub-We had then one rascal less-the Radicale one rascal more.

scared Stonewall Jackson to death. But cal misrule? These are vital questions, effectneither his personal nor political appearance will scare the Democratic party to death.

Gov. Geary was paid by the railroads of the State to sign the Calamity bill, which only mulcts the companies in three thousand the grasp of those who labor to destroy it, and dollars, no matter how serious an accident | who seek a continuance of power, if not by may be.

Gov. Geary is as vain as "Captain Jinks of the Hoss Marines." He is eternally saying to himself, and sometimes mutters it aloud :

I'm Gov'ner John of the Keystone State, No mortal man was e'er so great.

Gov. Geary sent poor, broken-hearted Hester Vaughn out of the country and across the broad ocean, without a penny, in order to shield her violator-a person IN HIGH SO-CIAL POSITION in the Radical party.

Gov. Geary says he can't prevent special legislation. Yet he boasted that only one bill ever passed over his veto. Here's a discrepancy. Can the Governor reconcile the two statements?

Gov. Geary, by signing the Calamity bill, took away from the juries the right to assess sufficient to pay for a broken leg or a dislocated neck.

Gov. Geary is proud of his whiskers. When in ladics' society, he always manages INDIANAPOLIS Oct. 2 .- About four o'clock last evening, a terrible explosion occurred on the west side of tha fair grounds, caused by bursting of a portable engine from the Sumter Machine Works of this city, which had been running a circular saw in a race with some mill machines.

Gov. Geary sat up till midnight to sign Pete Herdic's bill abolishing the Lycoming district. Geary's Valor.

Here is another fact to supplement GEA-By's record in the Mexican war.

THE WORLD has heretofore published the opinion his regiment and the community from which it was recruited entertained of his character and conduct. Now we have something to show how just that opinion August 19, 1847, General Scott sent an order to General Quitman for a detachment of two regiments to support the troops engaged. General Quitman's aide intended to select Barnett's New York regiment and Geary's Pennsylvania. But no field officer of the latter could be found with the regiment, and so the aide was compelled to substitute the Palmetto regiment, although its colonol (Buttler) was ill at the time. This colonel probably would have been had he not been out of the way when the order came to his regiment. The story that Geary was undiscoverable at this critical moment got home to Pennsylvania, and elicited a bitter attack upon that hero from a Pennsylvania paper. This paper came to Geary's notice when our army was in occupation of the city of Mexico and after General Quitman had returned to Washington, though the side in question was still at headquarters. Thereupon, Colonel Geary and his lieutenant-colonel, who was equally implicated, sought out this aide. set forth the slauderous report which was current in Pennsylvania against them, and asked him, a second lieutenant fresh from West Point, to give them, two field-officers. a certificate of courage! This the aide promptly and decidedly declined to do, on the ground of the glaring impropriety of an officer of his rank certifying the character of officers of theirs, and pointed out to them that the exhibition of such a testimonial as they asked for would bring more discredit upon them than even their allowing the charge of cowardice to go unanswered. Moreover, he informed them that he could not contradict the article, for that the statements of fact in it, as to their invisibility when might be unwarranted.

F. A. SHOEMAKER, Chairman.

We trust it is entirely unnecessary for us to enter into an extended article to convince any man who professes to be a democrat of on next Tuesday. That the administration of John W. Geary has been corrupt and wasteful of the public money beyond all former precedent-that the expenses of the State government since he came into power have far exceeded those of his predecessor,

Gov. Curtin, during the exciting and expensive years of the war, are propositions that cannot be successfully denied. He has been and oft-repeated professions of retrenchment and reform. He has deliberately violated subject of the pardoning power. He has been the mere creature and willing instrued to all their impudent and corrupt demands. He has been the fast friend, the aider and abettor, of special, dangerous and unconstitutional legislation, to the extent even of placing his official signature to a bill, passed in hot and indecent haste by the last Legislature, abolishing one of the judicial districts of the State, and that too bewas. During the battle of Contreras, fought | fore the people of the district could possibly be consulted in reference to the law, which was subsequently declared to be clearly unconstitutional by a full bench of the Supreme Court. He attempted, in October, 1867, to perpetrate a plain and palpable fraud on the ballot-box, by procuring, under a commission issued by himself, the votes of Pennsylvania soldiers at Fort Delaware, enwas killed next day, as the discreet Geary listed in pursuance of a proclamation of the President of the United States, when he well knew that no such proclamation had ever been issued, and that there were no such soldiers there. He succeeded in preventing Henry D. Foster from obtaining his rightful seat in the present Congress by a low trick, which stamped him as a thorough paced demagogue. These and many other unworthy things has he done, to the shame and disgust of the honest men of his own party, and he now asks the people to add insult to injury by endorsing his conduct by a re-election. If the tax-payers of the State will stultify themselves by doing so, then the boasted virtue and intelligence of the people is all a cheat and a sham. His opponent, Asa Packer, is his antipodes in evory respect. He is a gentleman of enlarged and liberal views, and understands thoroughly the interests as well as the policy of the State. No man ever charged him with dishonesty, nor does a solitary blemish rest upon his pure and upright name. His wanted, were perfectly correct, though the political opponents bear willing testimony inferences of cowardice drawn from that fact | to his well carned reputation as an honest, high-minded, useful and enterprising citizen,

Mr. Wallace, of Clearfield, did introduce a bill with that object in view, during the last session, but for some unexplained reason it was never even reported from the committee The present practise is a crying evil and against every principle of justice and fair dealing. It is a fraud upon the people, and unless the practise is cut up by the roots the office of State Treasurer will continue to possess the same attractions that now make it the most desirable as well as the most lucrative office in the State.

Geary's Veracity.

On last Friday John W. Geary made speech at New Holland, in Lancaster county in which he said :

"While I was fighting and bleeding for you on the field of battle, my opponent was in Paris, along with Mason and Slidell and other traitors and rebels."

It is a notorious fact, that among the leading radical politicians of this State, Geary's character for truth and veracity is now, and always has been, at a heavy discount. In the very county of Lancaster, where he made party make the charge publicly against him, that he will not tell the truth, if a lie will answer his purpose. John W. Geary knows, beginning to the close of the war Asa Packer was never out of the country for one hour. What must be thought of a miserable demagogue, who will thus stand up and utter a wilful and deliberate calumny against his high-minded opponent? But of such stuff is John W. Geary made. Let him, or any of his supporters, examine the docket of the Quarter Sessions of Cambria county for the July Sessions, 1845, when he lived at the Summit, in this county, and when we knew all about him, and it will then be seen need then be manifested that Geary is generally regarded as an untruthful man, or that he would then, or now, stoop to any device in order to enable him to conquor.

Two weeks AGO we asked the Harris burg Patriot whether it was true, as several democratic papers had stated, that the difficulty between Messrs. Buckalew and Chalfant, in the Columbia, 15th Senatorial district had been settled, and whether Mr. Buckalew had received the nomination, and if so, when and where. The Patriot has not seen proper to answer our questions; but we learn from another source that the original disgraceful contest in that strong democratic district remains now, as it ended on Chalfant are still candidates for Senatorial honors. To all of which we repeat, that such a contest is simply disgraceful, and that had been very beneficial, and he hoped he would now pay a visit to the eastern part. A large fair he said was to be held at Allentown this week, and he thought the President should The President replied that he would attend it. do so if he could arrange his business, and he omised to telegraph Mr. Covode definitely on the subject to-morrow. What a low estimate must John Covode place upon the intelligence of the voters of this State. It shows how desperate are the political fortunes of the friends of John W. Geary. Does Covode imagine, for one moment, that if he were to place Grant and all the speech referred to, the leaders of his own his Cabinet on exhibition at the Allentown Fair, there would necessarily follow a revolution in political sentiment in the Eastern portion of the State, and that the democrats and could not help knowing, that from the of Lehigh county especially would be frightened from their propriety? The thought is worthy the astute and capacious mind of Covode. The influence of Grant and two members of his Cabinet, at least, was brought to bear on the late elections in Virginia and Tennessee, and we all know with what dis astrous results to the radical party. But Grant was unwilling to try Covode's experiment in Eastern Pennsylvania, and wisely refused to come ; which fact, when we consider his fondness for railroad traveling, is somewhat remarkable. Covode's mission to what manner of man he was. No wonder the White House only affords another illustration of the old adage, that "a drowning man will catch at straws."

THE Carlisle Herald, a radical sheet, recently stated that Geary had offered thirty thousand dollars for a farm in Cumberland county. If it was true, as his friends asserted, that he was a poor man when he was elected Governor, the foregoing statement requires some explanation. The salary of the Governor of this State is $5,000 per year, and as Geary has only been in office about two years and nine months, it is very evident that he could not have realized $30 .-000 out of his yearly pay. Nor have we heard of his political friends and admirers presenting him with a purse. We will exthe 6th of September, when the conference press no opinion on the subject, but as the first met, and that both Buckalew and affair has a very ugly look, will leave our readers, as well as all inquiring radicals, to draw their own conclusions.
