THE RESULT.

As a general rule it may be regarded as a work of folly, to attempt an explanation of a political defeat. It may nevertheless truly be said, in reference to John W. Genry's meagre majority for Governor, as Mercutio, in one of Shakspeare's plays, said of a trifling wound he had received in one of his door, still it is enough !"

That many of the leading radical organs do not regard the result of the election in this State as a triumph, but as a virtual defeat, is quite apparent from their comments thereon. The Philadelphia Telegraph speaks in the following hopeless strain in regard to the result :

"It is a discouraging fact, too, that in neardelphia, the vote for Geary falls far behind that polled for Hartranft in 1868. A dreary succession of Republican losses is reported, and the preliminary returns indicate that Geary's whole majority in the State will not ex ceed the Republican gain effected in Philadelphia alone, over the vote polled in October, 1868. We may well exclaim with the ancient undone l' Since Grant's majority of 28,898 in 1868 is cut down to 4,000 or 5,000, the managing politicians cannot be too deeply impressed with the necessity of popular nominations here-

The same paper pays its respects to the successful candidate in the following pointed but none the less truthful criticism :

"It was sheer madness to risk unnecessary dangers in the campaign which has just closed. Geary's unfitness for the Governorship was as painfully evident as his unavailability as a candidate; and while the Commonwealth abounded with men endowed with capacities inflinitely superior to those which he possesses, scarcely any man could have been nominated who would have polled a smaller vote. The only cause we have for regret in connection with our course in reference to his nomination is that our opposition was ineffectual; and, while we carnestly rejoice in the triumph of the Republican party, we are sorry that its honors have not fallen upon a more able as well as more popular Exec-

The Philadelphia Inquirer observes on the election statistics:

Judging from the signs indicated by the election, the only doubt that could be maintained in reference to the matter, might be as to the feelings and opinions of the 18,000 persons who refused, on the present occasion, to go to the polls. Banner Countles,

We do not intend to make invidious comparisons in reference to the result of the demceratic vote at the recent election in any one county at the expense of another. We cannot refrain, however, from referring in an especial manner to Allegheny county. Last November Grant had a majority of 10,816 in that strong republican county. At the tle more than one half of the republican majority given less than one year previously. This result ought to command the respect as well as the gratitude of the democracy of the entire State. Although defeated, the democracy of Allegheny can proudly say to the democracy of the other portions of the State, "You cannot say we did it!" All honor, then, to the always consistent and unconquerable democracy of Allegheny county, and all honor to James H. Hopkins, Esq., Col. James P. Barr, of the Pittsburgh Post, and the many other faithful and officient workers in the good cause who did so much towards winning for Allegheny this bright crown of political glory.

The democracy of Indiana county, that "Black Hole of Calcutta," have also covered themselves with unfading honor. They have reduced the radical majority nearly if not quite 600 votes, and, as we believe from all the returns, and have by that reduction enabled the radical majority of Indiana county, thus a special edict. securing the election of Capt. We have heard plansible reasons assigned for this unexpected defection in the north-eastern portion of the State, but will will wait for further developments, in accordance with the old maxim, that "sufficient for the day is the evil thereof."

The Philadelphia Fraud.

The radical return judges of the election in Philadelphia have once more perpetrated arms in a sword duel, "Although it is not a base fraud upon the ballot-box. Pershing at Home,

It is very gratifying to announce that where Cyrus L. Pershing is well known and appreciated he has been generously sustained. In the borough of Johnstown, where he resides, Grant received 706 votes and Seymour same borough Williams received 583 votes and Pershing 372 votes, thus giving Williams a majority of 211, showing a gain for Mr. Pershing in that borough of 167 votes. cluding Johnstown, Grant had 1688 votes Williams had 1372 votes and Pershing 1257, being a majority for Williams of 115 and a gain for Pershing over last November's election of 214. His majority in the county is

The above figures conclusively show that the people among whom Mr. Pershing resides, treated with sovereign contempt the weekly insinuations of the Johnstown Tribune against his reputation and standing as a lawyer. Although Mr. Pershing has been defeated, he has reason to feel proud of the support he received from his own neighbors as well as from the voters of his own county.

THE editor of the Johnstown Tribune, "in his last paper, rejoicing over Geary's election, stigmatized Asa Packer as "the Conneclast election Geary had only 4.557, or a lits ticut carpet-bagger who would not pay his taxes." The man who asserts that Asa Packer ever refused to pay his taxes, is either | fitness for the place. As Grant's Cabinet is a fool or a knave, or perhaps both. Parents and the Schools.

The public schools throughout the county generally are now opening for the annual term. By the first of November perhaps fully nine-tenths of all our district schools we beg to say a few words:

1. Parents should patronize the schools. The object of the common school economy is to put the means of instruction in the common and most necessary branches of learning within the reach of all. To this end all are taxed alike: those who have children to be educated and those who have none. The justness of this system is a question which oes not at all enter into our subject, though it cannot be successfully disputed. Suffice it to say that the system has been establishmet with the support and sympathy of the public. Yet many parents do not take advantage of the schools thus provided. In well off in this world's goods to do so, their children are sent to private schools of different kinds. This is all right enough. Parents have, and it is to be hoped they always to whom we allude are those who never send their children to any school, either public or

We doubt, and we believe that every intelligent man doubts, the moral right of any parent to allow his children to grow up with-"It is charged that Republican rescals have is able to do so, rests upon every parent. The following is from the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph, a radical journal:

THE ROW AT THE MEETING OF RETURN Junges .- The scene at the meeting of the return judges yesterday was exceedingly disgraceful. Desperate Philadelphia politicians will be in operation. In view of this fact, have unfortunately acquired a reputation for doctoring up returns which is only too well deserved. Not satisfied with cheering at the polls and manipulating the first count of votes, they sometimes resort to the still more infamons device of distorting or falsifying what should be deemed a sacred record of public opinion. The rascals of this stripe are not all confined to the democratic party. for some skilful adepts cling to the skirts of the republican organization, and they are ready, when occasion requires, for achievements in political arithmetic which would even add new laurels to the famous statisticentury that it has been in operation, it has cian of the New York World. It is alleged that yesterday two such frauds were perpetrated, one affecting the result in the Thirteenth Legislative District, and electing a republican instead of a democrat by a forged return, and the other electing Watt, a republican Senator, instead of Diamond, a democrat, by a false or imperfect statement of the votes cast in the Senatorial district. will have, the privilege of educating their The parties guilty of these falsifications of offspring where they please; but the persons the records cannot be too severely punished. We find the following in the Alexandria Gazette of Tuesday evening :

"Miss Dooly of Washington city, a beauiful, intelligent and interesting young lady, who for some time past has been teaching school in Prince George's county, Maryland, about a mile from Fort Washington, was met on the road yesterday morning, while walking from the house of Mrs. Schaaff, where she boarded, to her school-house, by a colored man who has a wife living in this scure and so utterly unknown to the country, city, and knocked down, brutally outraged and robbed. Her screams attracted the attention of some gentlemen who were hunting in the vicinity, but who, when they reached the spot, found her in a totally unconscious condition, and her ravisher gone. As may readily be imagined the news of tha outrage spread rapidly through the neighborhood, and in a short time the adjoining country was being scoured by parties in pursuit of the villain, and towards nightfall he was caught near the scene of his crime, and taken to Piscataway, where he is now chained to another of his race who had been previously arrested on suspicion.
