> THE ELECTION. If the workings of the new election law proves anything, it proves that the Republicans were more corrupt in colonizing voters than the Democrats. There is a great falling off in their votes, not only in individual districts, but in the entire State. Still we do not think that the result proves colonization at all. ALTOONA CITY, Oct, 18, 1869. Dear Freeman-It is my painful duty this week to chronicle the death of a most estimable and promising young citizen of this place, Mr. Henry J. Brophy, eldest son of Timothy Brophy, Esq., who died at his father's residence on Thursday last, 14th inst., in the 21st year of his age. It is with no ordinary feelings of regret that I record the early demise of this talented and worthy young man. Many pleasant moments have spent in his company, and our mutual intercourse taught me to appreciate him for his kind and generous impulses, for his ennobling virtues, and for the many high-toued qualities of miad and heart with which be was so liberally endowed. As a son he was devoted and obedient to his fond and loving parents, as a companion he was always sociable, agreeable and entertaining, and as an exemplar to his young associates he was without spot or blemish. He chose the law able practitioners, Messrs. Hall & Neff, so ery seeming severity of to-day. owing to the displacement of a switch a half mile east of our city, ran in on a side track and struck a train loaded with pig iron, and though, strange to say, no person was iujured, the locomotive was completely demoralized and the front baggage car badly broken.

That peculiar epidemic which always pre-vails most extensively at this season of the year, owing no doubt to the near approach of cold weather, has broken out among the indications are that it will become conta-gious. Several of my young friends have already become affected with the malady .-One named Bernard Corcoran had a severe attack, the superinducing cause being a very mild (and bewitching) form of Sweeny, but after a few magic words from the Very Rev. J. Tuigg, the Sweeny was relieved of its name, if not of its nature, and became blended in the more euphonious one of Corcoran. The same malady has Curry'd another young to the Wall-ace, and the indications are that other parties will ere long be Coll-ed to fol low their commendable example. May all be as happy as they deserve and I sincerely wish them to be.

SUMMERHILL TWP, Oct 18, 1869. FRIEND MAC-I owe you an apology for my delay in complying with your request to contribute an occasional letter to the columns of your valuable paper. You will please excuse me for the following reasons : First, a lack of scrambling over the fence for dear life. The interesting local news, and, second, the falling off in the democratic vote at the late election so abashed me that I hesitated to communicate the result. I account for the falling off in our vote, by the decease of several democrats, the illness of others, and the absence of still others, who doubtless voted elsewhere. As you will doubtless publish the official vote of the coun-

Flynn : Supervisors, Mich'l Gatz and Valentine Cramer ; Justice of the Peace, Henry Walter, Republican; Judge of Election, Michael Braniff; Inspectors, Martin P. Pringle, Peter Burtnett, R.; School Directors, Jesse H. Dimord, John Bor-der and Martin Ward; Auditor, Thos. McCon-

I could give you the names of the officers elected in Wilmore borough, but as your former correspondent, "Chip," &c., has returned and taken upon winter quarters, I will not encroach upon the local rights of others.

A considerable amount of sickness has pre vailed in this locality during the past few weeks, but the indications now are, I am glad to say, that it is abating.

We had a wedding in this vicinity last week, and several others are said to be on the tapis, if you know where that is. The occasion referred to is the first time old Hymen has had a chance to "go in and get squeezed" for many a day in "this neck o' timber."

I will not trouble you with a lengthy epistle at present, as I presume your paper will be crowded this week. In the early future, perhaps, I will renew my correspondence, if I can find anything of interest to your readers; provided, however, they will overlook all defects consequent upon my inexperience. As your correspondents are so numerous it is difficult to find a "nom de guerre" not already in use, but nevertheless I have selected one appropriate to my state of life.

Two Things.-To make home happy, comfortable and cheery during the approaching winter, we think two of the most important adjuncts are a Speer's Anti-Dust Heating Stove and a Parham Sewing Machine, both of which articles can be bought, and bought cheap all the time, at Geo. Huntley's mammoth housefurnishing emporium, where goods without number are constantly kept for sale. The Par-I am machine took the first premium at the recent State Fair, and has no superior.

OUR ADVERTISING COLUMNS .- Read our advertisements. They are not so dull and uninteresting as you think them, and you may often in them stumble over something to your advantage; at any rate, read the one if it does not persuade you that Oak Hali, as a profession, and under the tuition of those Philadelphia, is the place where you should buy your Fall suit.

LOCAL PRUNINGS AND PENCHINGS

Several hundred Mormon proselytes, destined for Utah, passed over the Pa. R. R., a few days ago. Democratic Assemblymen, Prothonotary, Commissioner and Poor Director have been elected in Huntingdon county. Bully! Mrs. Tighlman Bortz, of Greenville, Indiana county, fell dead from an attack of heart disease, a few days since.

Two horses, valued at five hundred dollars, were stolen from Mr. Joseph Smith, residing two miles west of Greensburg, on Wednesday night of last week. Want of time has prevented us from preparing a report of the Deeds left for record during the past two weeks, but we hope to make it all right in our next issue. David Goodman, residing near Mill Creek. Huntingdon county, had his right hand cut suffering from an epileptic fit. During a political controversy in the post office at Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland county, on Wednesday of last week, Wm. J. Hitchman struck Alfred Robertson on the head with a poker, inflicting injuries which are likely to prove fatal.

The weather for the past few days has been very suggestive of the near approach of grim old winter. The air has been raw and chilly, and on Tuesday there were several slight falls of snow, with indications of more as we go to press. On Tuesday of last week a three year old son jof Mr. Gunderman, miller at the Pacific Mills. Indiana county, was caught in the machinery of the mill and instantly killed. His little arm was caught in the fatal cogs and terribly crushed and his neck was Mrs. Catharine Jones, wife of Mr. Owen

Jones, residing on the line of Cambria and Summerhill townships, was seized with severe cramps on Sunday last and expired on Monday evening. She was about 35 years of age, and leaves a family of four children deprived of a mother's care. Rt. Rev. M. Domenec, Catholic Bishop of (Wednesday), en route for Rome to attend the Ecumenical Council. A purse of gold to pay his expenses was presented to him in Pittsburgh on Sunday last. The prayers and best wishes of his people will attend him. Our clever Teutonic friend, Mr. John Wherly, of Cambria township, did us the kindness to present us with a half bushe! or more of the largest and choicest apples, both sweet and sour, that this mountain region, we think, has ever produced. Mr. W. has our sincere thanks for his seasonable

Mr. Ed. James, late of the Alleghanian has just established a job office in this place, with jobbing press and a choice selection of types and other material complete. Mr. James is a good practical printer and deserving gentleman, and if any money can be made out of such an enterprise in this place we will be glad to see him make it. Mr. R. B. Lee, while engaged in rolling logs at Glen Hope, Clearfield county, on the 4th inst., was struck and knocked into the water by several of the logs, which started suddenly down the embaukment, and when taken out life was extinct. He was 24 years of age, and was the only brother of the Register and Recorder of Clearfield county. While at work at Humphrey's log job on Clearfield creek, Clearfield county, on Tuesday last, Charles M'Geary of Milroy, Mifflin county, had one of his legs so terribly mashed by being caught between a tree and one of the logs that amputation had to be resorted to, but the unfortunate man died very shortly after the operation had been performed.

A lad named Henry Isenberg, fifteen years of age, accidentally shot himself, on Thursday last, while hunting in White township, Indiana county, the ball entering his right side and creating a wound which caused his death in a few hours after being carried to his home by a number of men who were at work near the scene of the unfortunate oc-

Mr. G. A. Berry, a young law student in this place, trundled Mr. Harry Kinkead on a wheelbarrow from the Mansion House to C. T. Roberts' jewelry store and return, on Saturday evening last, in fulfilment of a wager made on the result of the election. Mr. B. risked his muscle on Packer andinserted for Wanamaker & Brown, and see lost. Lookers on enjoyed the fun, but we doubt whether the rider did, as it was a rough passage, through mad coming and over curb stones and broken pavements

BASE BALL GAME EXTRAORDINARY,-The greatest sensation that has yet been produced in base ball circles in this vicinity, was occasioned by a match game, on Friday last, between the renowned Athletic Club of Philadelphia and the Mountaineer Club of this place. The Athletics were on their way to Cincinnati to play the return game on Monday with the famous "Red Stockings," (who by the way beat them five scores in a sharply contested game of only two hours and ten minutes' duration, the score standing 17 to 12,) and "put in" here to indulge in a little preparatory practice with our boys. The Mountaineers did better than they hoped to do, but not as well as they can do, making a score of 12 in seven in-nings, while the "Kicks," of Johnstown. made only a score of 8 to 49 for the Athletics in nine innings on the day following. We give the full particulars of the game

> WHAT IS FAITH !- Faith is the assent of the mind to a given proposition. There are different things to believe, but there is only one faith, and that faith is to believe that Murphy & Co., Houston House, Main street, Johnstown, sell good and cheap dry goods and dress goods. Seeing is believing and buying from them is the right thing. A number of obliging clerks are always in attendance, and the great variety of goods contained in the "City Cash Store" always gives customers a double chance to please their tastes in all particulars.

> Nothing New .- Glass was dug up at ancient Ninevah, and Dr. Franklin's remains were found, and Solomon's ships navigated the Red See and Suez Canal, and Leopold & Bro., No. 241 Main street, Johnstown, have a new stock of new clothing. That's something new, but it is nothing new for them to have new goods. The goods are new, but the news isn't new. We will get right after awhile. The best and cheapest made up clothing in town, and suits to suit any body made to order.

BOTH GOOD AND CHEAP. - The boast of our grocer friend, M. L. Oatman, is that he not only makes a speciality of flour, groceries and provisions, but he keeps the largest stock in Northern Cambria, buys oftener and there fore has fresher articles, sells more because he sells cheaper than any other dealer, and always gives entire satisfaction to his customers. Patronize him and you will save money.

FOUND .- One of the most valuable prizes was found last week in Johnstown that men generally read about. A stranger came to town, and as he was passing up Main street he found L. Cohen & Brother's store door, No. 214, Opera House, through which he glided and rigged himself from top to toe in one of the nicest suits that this or any other market affords. Hundreds are doing the same thing.

"NEW COME!"-We saw handbills posted around Johnstown headed with the words 'New Come !" which mean that Jas. J Mur phy's made up clothing has come and he is now ready for the fall trade. He sells at No 109 Clinton street, where he takes pleasure and a very small modicum of greenbacks in fitting his customers with ready made garments for men and boys.

ANOTHER TUMBIE. -I espeld Na er's goods have taken another tumble. Indeed they are tumbling off his shelves every day.— It is truly astonishing to see the amount of dry goods carried away from No 212 Main street. Johnstown. His French goods please everybody, and his large stock is so admirably adapt ed to the season that all one has to do is to carry them home and put them on. Splendid winter hats, bonnets and feathers.

of life are exemplified in every man's experience, but to see the ups and downs of a fine stock of fall goods you should go to V. S. customers. In his prices all is down-down to the lowesi margin,

WE advise all young people who intend going from home to school, to go to the STATE NORMAL SCHOOL at Edinboro. It is cheap, thorough and practical.

DIED.

HUGHES .- At the residence of his sister. Mrs. Margaret Rodrigue, in New York City. on Monday the 11th inst , Mr. Mich'l Hughes, aged upwards of 75 years.

The deceased was an elder brother of the late lamented Archbishop Hughes, and was the old est member of the family. • e was formerly a re-ident of Chambersburg, Pa, but passed the last few years of his life with his sister in New York. Hε spent a few days in the summer of 186* in Ebensburg, and during his brief visit he made the acquaintance and won the esteem of many of our citizens. He was highly respected by all who knew him for the patriarchal simplicity of his manners and the unobirusive sanctity of his life, and was gathered to his fathers without an enemy-a pure minded old man and a sincere Christian. His remains Mere interred at Chambersburg on Thursday last. May he rest in peace.

BROPHY .- In Altoona City, on Thursday last, of tythoid fever, Henry Joseph Brophy in the 21st year of his age.

Mr. Brophy was one of the most exemplary, intelligent and warm hearted gentlemen with whom we enjoyed the pleasure of an acquaintance. His life was without a blemish and his early death is deeply lamented by a host of fond and adm ring friends He led an honorable life and has died a Christian death. May peace eternal be his reward.
