A BATCH OF PRESENTS -Johnstown sends greeting to Ebensburg with a liberal hand this week. Through our wide-awake and intelligent correspondent, "Rob Roy," we have been made the recipient of a number of very desirable and useful articles. Heading the list are a patent egg beater, a beautiful wire coffee or teapot stand and a very next dish stand of the same material, all of which have been presented by our whole-souled, enterprising friend, F. W. Hay, who keeps one of the largest stove, tinware and hardware notion depots in Western Pennsylvania and who advertises liberally, denis fairly and honestly, and does more business than any other dealer in the ten counties. He has the thanks of our better half and the benediction of ourself. Next in order is a very seasonable present in shape of a mince-meat and apple cutter. which reaches us with the compliments of of Mr. William H. Levergood, dealer in all kinds of stoves, tinware and other goods in that line. Mr. L. sells Anti-Dust Parlor

Local Correspondence.

The District Court has granted an order for the opening of Lincoln street, at an expense to the borough of over $4,000. This street runs from A. Kopelin's residence, on Franklin street, to that of Hon. Jacob M. Campbell, Walnut street. The improvement will add much to the appearance of the town. Locust street, from Franklin to them is brought down to the very latest Market, should also be opened. NIGHT &CHOOLS.

Three aight schools have been opened in our city and Millville, under the care of Messrs. Harrold, Johnson and Krise. Though we have not much faith in night schools, yet we are glad that these gentlemen have been successful in establishing them.

INJURED. A man named Jinks was seriously injured in the ore mines on Friday last about three Richland township, $180.89. o'clock, by falling of slate from the roof of Augustus Severing and wife to Wm. Brown, the drift. One leg and one arm were broken. He was carried home on a litter, and is dangerously, but not fatally injured. CHURCHES.

The M. E. church of this place, which has been in course of construction for the last three years, is completed, and was dedicated to religious services on last Sunday. It is a massive stone building and cost nearly seventy thousand dollars. The German Lutheran church is progressing satisfactorily. Workmen are slating the spire, Men are also at work slating the German Catholic church.

STREETS. The upper end of Morris street has been paved and new fencing put up in front of the houses. Also, Jackson street and a part of Locust street, near St. John's Catholic church ; also, Sherman street ; also, an alley leading from John Dibert's store to the residence of Dr. Lowman ; also, Bedford street and Railroad street. Paving will soon be suspended, however, until next spring.

R. Co. Mr. Vaux being, as we understand, the highest officer in the Masonie fraternity in this State, came here with his friends of the order to transact certain business connected with the Lodge here. He was called upon by a number of our citizens at the Cambria House, where he and the other Philadelphia gentlemen had rooms, and where all partook of one of Mr. Foster's most elegant dinners. Mr. Vaux, as well as the other gentlemen with him, walked through and about our town, and expressed themselves as greatly pleased with this high latitude, as well as with the "frosty sous of thunder," to whom they were comparative strangers, and all complimented the citizens of Ebensburg on having shown them much kindness and attention, without regard to politics or to the secret and ancient organization to which they bear allegiance. CHURCH DEDICATION .- The large and beautiful Catholic church erected in this ation of it this week. It will see the light place through the commendable zeal and untiring energy of the worthy pastor of the
