LOCAL PHUNINGS AND PENCILINGS -Indian summer is with us at last, to remain we trust during the present month at least. The well written and interesting commu-pication of "W. L. A." came too late for pablication this week. A new mail route has been established between Carrolltown and Fallen Timber, and henceforth the people at the various points along the new route will receive their mail matter on Thursday of each week.

Our religious convictions induced us to keep helyday on Monday, and the spiritual envictions of one of our hands induced him to keep away from the office on Wednesday. and the result is that our paper is one day behind time this week.

Among the new goods received by Messrs. Lemmon & Murray will be found an ample supply of drugs, books, stationery, etc., which people needing such articles will do well to buy. The stock is the largest and fact ever received at that popular depot.
While making stakes for a lumber car, on Friday last, Mr. F. A. Barker of this place made a mistake and struck his left foot with the blade of the axe, cutting an ugly gash in the instep, but one which we are glad to est is not likely to result in permanent injury to the foot.

W. H. Schwartz, Esq., at one time local editor of the Altoons Vindicator, has resigned the position of teacher of one of the public schools of that city for the purpose of taking charge of the editorial department of the Beaver Local. Mr. S is an intelligent man and ready writer, and we trust he will meet with abundant success in his new location. A little daughter of Mr. Wm. M. Jones. of this place, was severely scalded on the head, face and neck on Monday last. Her mother was in the act of removing a kettle of apple butter from the cooking stove when the handle of the kettle gave way, precipitaing a portion of the boiling contents upon the head of the child, with the result stated. Although painful, the little girl's injuries are not serious, and we are pleased to learn that she is doing well.

Work on the tower of new Catholic church this place has been discontinued until next spring. In the interior but little remains to be done to render it fit for occupanor except to put in the pews, which will require but a short time, as very elegant ues, of the most approved design and ready usile, have been purchased in Allegheny city and will doubtless be in position before the dedication of this fine church edifice on Sanday week next.

in Huntingdon, on Monday night of last week, a difficulty occurred between two young men named Howard Crewitt and Miles Hampson, during the progress of which the former struck the latter on the head, it is bucing a compound fracture of the skull, from the effects of which he died on Wednesday afternoon following. Crewitt was taken castody, but on Saturday he was released by Judge Taylor on $5,000 bail to appear and answer at the next term of Court. Most of our readers have doubtless heard of the chap who repeated a certain apochry-that story so often that he got at last to believe it was true himself, altho' he failed convince any one else of its truth. Much a the same state of mind may be the editor n this county who has had standing at the lead of his local department for a long time put the declaration that his paper has the largest circulation and contains more reading matter that any other paper published in the county. We know the first assertion to be mere buncombe, and no man believes the last one who has ever compared the Freeman with the paper in question. Mr. John Porter, of Susquehanna township, this county, who for some time past has discharged the duties of Assessor of the United States internal revenue tax, had his official head decapitated one day last week by Boutwell, the Secretary of the Treasury, and Delano, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, who have appointed Evan R. Morgan, of Cambria township, as his successor. Al-though Porter has been heretofore regarded as the "war horse" of the republican party in his own baillwick, it is very evident that the authorities at Washington, as well as the radical leaders of this county, do not regard him as belonging to the pure "Morgon

OUT AND IN .- On Friday last, in consegaeace of the expiration of his term of office, John Ferguson, Esq., of Blacklick township, refired from the position of County Commissioner, which he has held for the past three years, and Jas. E. Neason, Esq., of Clearfield township, was duly qualified as a member of the Board, which now consists of Messrs. John A. Kennedy, Maurice M. Namara and James E. Neason. In announcing the retirement of Mr. Ferguson we deem it a simple act of justice to say that as a public officer he has given universal satisfaction, and bears with him to private life the good wishes of all who knew him and appreciated him for his intelligence, faithfulness and kind and obliging disposition. No more perfect gentleman ever served the people in any capacity. That his successor will prove as merito-flous an officer and as faithful a guardian of as Mr. K. are worthy of benediction. the public interests, there cannot be a shadow doubt, as he is a gentleman of intelligence and possesses all the commendable qualities equisite for a popular and honest officer. On the same day the new Board re-spcointed Mr. Thos. Glass Secretary and Wm. I. Sechler, Esq., council to the Board, and selected Mr. William Doran, of Summerbill township, as Mercantile Appraiser for the issuing year—all of which appeintments we consider worthy to have been made. Is Lineo. The right man, and probably he right women, have got into the right place at last. A traveling mountebank who alls under the high-sounding name of Signor Rubini, and who has been peculiarly successful in cutting his printing and hotel bills in nearly all the towns he has visited, was arenght here on Tuesday night from Johnstown, in company with his two female affaities, Eliza Rubini and Kate Winters, and lodged in jail on the charge of committing an aggravated assault and battery upon the person of Constable A. B. Davis, of that place. It seems that officer Davis was empowered o pursuance of that duty he levied on some ain't true to the letter. articles claimed by the woman Winters, and the result was that the parties not only re-

STILL THEY COME.-We have received alleged, with some heavy instrument, pro- another present from Mr. F. W. Hay, stove and tin ware dealer, Johnstown, and this time it comes in shape of a one dollar greenback. which we are instructed to invest in a thanksgiving turkey-and nothing else. It is proper here to say that Mr. Hay is the only man n Southern Cambria who sells Spear's Anti-Dust Parlor Stove-the only heating stove which people who appreciate comfort and cleanliness think of buying—and purchasers should see that "Anti-Dust" is printed on the stove they do buy, for there are dealers who do not scruple to represent the common parlor stoves they sell as anti-dust stoves. This has been done in Johnstown, and purchasers have thereby been deceived. No man sells the real Anti-Dust Stove in Johnstown except F. W. Hay, Washington street. He has the Anti-Dust Cook Stoves also, and will warrant what he sells to be such. And now the question is, who is going to furnish the turkey and take the dollar?

But that ain't the only present, for Hay & Brother, No. 194 Washington street, having in view our temporal welfare, have sent us a coffee and a tea canister and a dredging box-all of Japanned ware and bright as a new dollar. Such articles are always in season, and remind us that Hay & Brother keep a full assortment of heating and cooking stoves, as well as tinware and notions of various kinds in great profusion. They are clever men, and deserve a liberal share of public patronage. Eave spouting put up at any time desired on the most reasonable terms. Cook and parlor stoves, stove-pipe, and al! other accompanying apparatus, always on hand.

VISITORS .- Mr. J. Frank Condon, at one time Superintendent of the Common Schools of this county, has been in our town for several days past in pursuance of his duties as special agent for the American Life Insurance to have his life insured, and no better company for that purpose exists anywhere than the one represented by Mr. Condon, who is a gentleman worthy of implicit confidence. On Friday last we had the pleasure of a toona, one of the most popular passenger conductors and true hearted gentlemen in the employ of the Pa. R. R. Co. He came with kindly greetings on his tongue, a pleasant smile upon his lips, and a welcome greenback in his hand with which to renew his subscription to the Freeman. Such friends

On Tuesday another esteemed friend in the person of Mr. P. J. Mulvehill, of Indiana county, illuminated our sanctum with the light of his genial countenance. And he "saw" Mr. Kearney and went one better, for notwithstanding the year for which he had already paid has not yet expired, he "socked up" the greenbacks for another year, or until February, 1871. We thank him for this manifestation of confidence, and only wish that many nearer home would be induced by his generous example to pay us at least what they already owe us.

The owner is requested to call at the Ebensburg Flour Depot, where all kinds of groceries and provisions, fresh and palatable, are constantly being sold at prices a little lower than other dealer is selling at. Peo-ple who didn't lose their pocket-books are also specially invited to call at Oatman's popular cheap store, where the ready money never fails to secure extraordinary bargains to attach the goods and chattels of the said in the best brands of flour and the choicest Rubini in satisfaction for a boarding bill grades of fresh groceries. JOHNSTOWN, Nov. 1, 1869. Dear Freeman-Squaw winter is here in earnest, and the ground is frozen as solid as marble. Indian summer will come yet, if and the sexes to commingle, unless under we are to have any this year. Look out, great disadvantages. though, for a hard winter in 1870.

QHOSTS. Milton says that "millions of spiritnal creatures walk the earth unseen, both when we wake and when we sleep," and another poet says that there is a time when "ghosts, wandering here and there, troop home to church yards." For two years past a ghost has been troubling the good people of Johnstown and vicinity. It was first soen in Millville about two years ago. After that it was seen in the 5th Ward, Johns, town by two ladies, who discribe it as having immense proportions. It made its appearance in the 6th Ward on Saturday night, the 23, ult., and was distinctly seen emerging from an alley by the school house to Dibert street, where it halted stone still. They say that it was higher than the school house fence, was a white streak, without feet or head, except that it had chullers like s turkey gobler. Can it be the ghost of Kickneepawling come back to assert his right to the old hunting grounds? And did the late victory of the Athletics disturb his equinimity? We leave the solution to the curious.

FRANKLIN BOROUGH. This borough is flourishing. The school directors have employed a live teacher in the person of Henry Ely, who will teach both a day and night school. They have furnished their schools (two in number) with new better school session than they ever had be-

EAST CONSMAUGH. If people tell the truth the furnace at East Cenemaugh, which was purchased some eight months ago by the Cambria Iron Company, is put in blast again, and will henceforth be run vigorously. A passenger car has been put on their railroad and will run up every morning with hands and down every evening, conveying workmen to and from the place. The Company have a track now from East Conemaugh via Cooperdale, a distance of six miles. The passenger car will run the entire distance.

M. E. CHURCH. The dedication of the M. E. Church proved grand affair. The audience was very large. About eight thousand dollars were raised by subscription, which will pay off the debt. The entire cost of the building was $65,000.

TEMPERANCE. Elder D. M. Kinter preached a sensible sermon on temperance, in the Disciples church last Sunday. He stated, very truly, that there was intemperance in more things than drinking. There was intemperance in eating, in dress, in exposure to cold, in vanity, in pride, and in a thousand other things. His sermon was not a rehash of the old temperance lectures, whose chief statement was that thirty thousand persons in the United States died annually from intemperance. If this were true it proves nothing, for as one hundred thousand die annually, the odd seventy thousand must die from temperance, especially the children, who are fifty per cent. of all the rest.

ANECDOTE. This reasoning reminds me of an anecdote. A sturdy old farmer told a sailor that he should abandon the ocean, for said he, "Your father, grandfather, and great-grandfather all died on the ocean." The sailor replied, "Here, for the same reason, you ought to abandon the land." "Why?" asked the farmer. "Because," said the sailor, "your father, grandfather, and great-grandfather all died on the land." Be temperate in all things, especially in the use of liquors!

A PRESENT. We were made the recipient of a bushe of apples the other day by a man who doesn't take the papers. Now, if we got a bushel of apples from a man who doesn't doesn't take the papers, by a system of rea-soning which logicians call a fortiori, how much more should some one who does take the paper present you with?

ABOUT TOWN. T. J. Chapman, Esq., County Superintendent, paid us a flying visit last week, looking hearty. He was visiting schools and holding a final examination for the south of the county.

THE CATHOLIC PARSONAGE. This building is now finished in the very best style and is inhabited by Father Garvy, than whom there does not live a more worthy and exemplary man. The building is located on Jackson street, just beside the St. John's Catholic church, and is built according to the most approved style of modern architecture. We hope Father Garvey may be its tenant for many years.

STATUOUS. That statue that was dug up in the State of New York was the statue of the man who engraved the plates which Joe Smith, the Mormon, found : and finding it there is not remarkable when we consider that the Gar-Company. No man of family should hesitate | den of Eden was located in north-western Pennsylvania, now called Edinboro. There is yet a remnant of Paradise in Jefferson county, called the Paradise settlement, and if we may judge from the doings of the last legislature, the tower of Babel was located on brief visit from Mr. Dan. Kearney, of Al- Capitol Hill, just west of the State Arsenal. ROB ROY.

> SUMMERHILL TWP., Nov. 1, 1869. Friend Mae-Fearing lest my pen should gather rust for want of use. I have resolved to employ it a little with a view to let you know something about matters and affairs transpiring hereabouts.

Since writing before we haven't had much of a variety of anything except weather, of which, between bad and indifferent, we have had as much if not more than any other locality; and I prophecy that we will have another "spell of weather" pretty shortly. Those religious exercises peculiar to the Catholic faith, and known as the Jubilee and Forty Hours' Devotion, commenced at St. Burtholomew's church, Wilmore, on yester-day week and closed on Wednesday last,— The zealous pastor of the congregation, Rev. Peter Brown, was assisted by Fathers Gar-vey and Gregory, of Johnstown, in dispensing those graces which flow so abundantly to the devout members of that church thro the channel of these devotional and holy exercises. I am glad to announce that the season of grace has been productive of good results, inasmuch as the faithful have been made better and many of the lukewarm have been reclaimed from their indifferentism and led into the path of religious duty.

As I intimated in my former communica tion, the matrimonial mania in this locality continues unabated. It Grew out of a repugnance on part of several of our young people for that state of life ironically termed nor who Egan does not relish the comforts anticipations, however, depends much upon the vagaries of the weather, for with our roads blockaded with snow, as they were during the last two winters, there would not bo much opportunity for the bells to jingle

The pseudonym which I have adopted ap pears rather sterile to those who understand its meaning, but as it suits my present condition in life, and, considering my want of sign myself, as heretofore,

Yours, respectfully,

CABBOLLTOWN, Nov. 1, 1869. Dear Freeman-A few weeks ago I noticed the death of Mrs. Buck. daughter of John Flick, Esq., of Carroll township, and morning. Mrs Elizabeth Flick had resided in the vicinity of this place during the greater part of her lifetime, and was universally esteemed by her neighbors and acquaint ances. In all the various relations of wife, mother, neighbor and friend she was faithful to her duties, and at the age of forty-eight the measure of her salvation was filled, and she has been called to her reward. She leaves a family of ten children to mourn the loss of their dearest errthly friend. On Saturday last Mrs. George Weakland, a resident of Carroll township, also departed this life. May they both rest in peace.

Our community is now undergoing course of penitential sprouts. The Forty Hours' Devotion and the Jubilee commenced here yesterday, and it is gratifying to record tooks, and they look for and will have a the fact that the greater portion of the large congregation worshipping at St. Boniface's church have already complied with the religious duties required of them on such an occasion. And while others are turning their thoughts heavenward it behooves me also to ferget the transitory things of this world, and hence you will excuse the brevity of my Buz Fuz. letter this week.

> How Do They Do IT ?- Many amusing things, and some very unjust things, are said in trying to explain the very low prices prevailing at Oak Hall, Philadelphia. Some say "they lose money by it," but how a house can keep losing money right along, and not fail, or what can be the object of losing money, they do not explain. Others say "they do not half pay their hands," whereas it is notorious that no employes in that line of business, are so well paid and so well satisfied, as are those of Wanamaker & Brown, and it must be clear to all, that while the demand for good work is so great as it now is, it would be impossible for W. & B. to command the services of a thousand of the best tailors at inferior prices. And one man was heard to assert very confident ly, the other day, that "they must steal them." But whatever may be the explanation, the one thing to be learned by all is, that by universal consent, Wanamaker & Brown do sell cheaper than any other house seems to be able to.

PORTRY.-Leopold Mayer is a very safe buyer, and a good judge of goods, whether capes, shawls or hoods, cloaks, dresses or hats, carpets, oil cloths or mats, ribbons, flowers and lace, and even rouge for the face. And Mayer can sell his choice goods very well, because he is kind and speaks out his mind; and all who will try can undoubtedly buy at the Opera Hall, where he invites one and all, to 212, where he has every shelve crammed full of choice winter goods, which will be sold in a trice at a very low price.

We Do .- To all whom it may consern we do say that Murphy & Co., at the Houssame for nothing and sell them for as little money as any dealer in the county. They respectfully solicit a call from every one within reach who reads this notice, and will guarantee to give satisfaction to all comers.

AT LEOPOLD's .- Where did you get that hat? At Leopold & Brother's, 241 Main street, Johnstown. Where did you get that coat? At Leopold's. Where did you get that shirt? At Leopold's. Where did you get those pants? At Leopold's. Where did you get that trunk, those gloves and that umbrella? At Leopold's. That's what people say, and hence we advise you to go to Leopold & Bro. when you need such goods.

Good News .- Jas. J. Murphy of Johns sends greeting, and says that he wishes every body within a circuit of fifty miles to come to his store, No. 109 Clinton st., and buy a bran new suit of made-up clothing to wear on Christmas. He will agree to furnish a thousand full suits between this and turkey time. So come on all ye who have an eye to comfort and good looks. Murphy's Star (*) is always shining.

THE BELL RINGERS .- L. Coher & Brother sell tickets for the Opera House and sell wearing apparel for the people, at their N. York Clothing Hall, No. 214 Main street.-The approach of winter reminds one of the necessity of buying warm underclothing and overclothing, and Cchen & Bro. are the men who sell such articles, as well as furs and furnishing goods, very cheap for cash.

On! wifey dear, I'm glad we're near Shoemaker's cheap cash store, For there we get such goods, I'll bet, As ne'er were bought before; And if our neighbors knew how well we do. They would no longer tarry, But haste away, without delay,

And buy their goods from Harry. Nonsense.-It may be set down as the highest of nonsense for any person to buy any other than the celebrated Ante-Dust Cooking or Heating stove, and it is equally nonsensical to go any further than Huntley's mammoth store, in Ebensburg, to secure one of those most desirable and most satisfactory of all stoves yet introduced to the public. Huntley keeps the best of everything in his line, and sells as cheap as the cheapest.

TRY HIM .- If you have never bought dry goods, groceries, flour, etc., from V. S. Barker, our advice is to try him once. If you have bought these you need no advice, as you will be sure to go back. He keeps nearly everything worth keeping, and if any man sells cheaper than him we don't know his whereabouts.

Now THEN -- Do you want a pair of boots or shoes, a hat or cap, a dress pattern, shawl, or anything else that people generally want? If you do, you should go and see what Fry has for sale in that line, and see if you can't get a good bargain in the buying, for he has lots of excellent goods and a disposition to KRISE-KENNEDY .-- At Saint Peter's church, Allegheny City, Pa, on Thursday last, October 28th, by Rev. Father Haney, Dr. J. J. Krise, of St. Augustine, Cambria county, to Miss Sue A. Kennedy, of the former city.

When our friend, the Doctor, informed us a few days ago that he was on his way to Pitts-burgh, we little suspected that the visit was ted above, although we can now recall a merry trip contemplated—a trip which, as the sequel shows, has been productive of such gratifying results. Well, we never saw any good reason why the Doctor should stand outside the gates of the earthly Paradise and watch the happy throng who have entered into the enjoyment of its many pleasures, and now that he has It is the most readable, enjoyable, laughable joined the grand army of benedicts, we unite now it is my sorrowful duty to chronicle the demise of her mother, which occurred this the expression of the hope that he and his fair bride may enjoy many happy years of matri-monial felicity, and be summoned at last to that heavenly Paradise where peace is neverending and sorrow is never known. We'll take oysters, Doctor-what's your choice?

WILLIAMS PEACH At the Cathelic church in this place, on Tuesday morning, Nov. 2d, by Rev. R. C. Christy, Mr. Scott William and Miss Ella Peach, both of Ebensburg.

After a due course of cultivation our young friend and fellow typo has been rewarded for all his care and loving tenderness, and he may now feast on the luscious fruit which he has gathered to his fond embrace and treasured in his inmost heart. And now that he has taken to himself such a ripe and delicious Peach, we feel sure that our fellow craftsman will pre serve the delightful fruit in the sweet essence of pure love and guard it against the fermenting cares and troubles which beset the pathway of life; and in so doing may both be rendered happy and contented, and may wedded life prove to them as sweet as peaches all smothered in cream.
