

Cambria Freeman.

EBENSBURG, PA. THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 21, 1870.

THE ADVERTISERS' GAZETTE, issued by G. P. Rowell & Co., No. 40 Park Row, N. Y., contains much information not to be obtained elsewhere.

The bill restoring the Spring Elections failed to pass the Legislature, as did also the bill increasing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court.

Gen. ALCOCK, the Radical Governor of Mississippi, has sent a message to the Legislature of that State recommending the passage of a law establishing separate schools for negro children.

On yesterday week, Dr. Reading, of the Bucks county district, was kicked out of Congress, as we predicted he would be, and Caleb N. Taylor, Radical, was sworn in as his successor.

A BOWL OF INDIGNATION has lately gone up from the mongrel camp of Radicalism, in consequence of the refusal of the directors of the Academy of Music in Philadelphia to rent their hall for the purpose of enabling Senator Revels to deliver a lecture therein.

Canada and the Fenians. A wide spread panic has seized upon the people of Canada in anticipation of another invasion of that country by the bloody Fenians.

Revels in Brooklyn.

This ebony idol of the Radical party delivered an address, one day last week, to a audience composed of black spirits and white, and all other kind of spirits, in the Brooklyn Academy of Music.

The Government had received information of preparations for an invasion during the whole of last Autumn and Winter. These preparations had been going on continuously and lately were more formidable.

In his estimate of the benefits conferred upon the negro by the ratification of the fifteenth amendment, Revels is in full accord with Grant's celebrated statement in his message to Congress, and declares that "this amendment places the ballot in the hands of 4,000,000 adult voters."

No Amnesty.

For some time previous to the official announcement of the ratification of the fifteenth amendment, it was stated, apparently by authority, that on the happening of that event Grant intended addressing a special message to Congress recommending the passage of a general amnesty law.

It is estimated that there are in the Southern States three hundred thousand white men who can neither vote nor hold office. These men comprise nine-tenths of the intelligence and wealth of that section of the country.

On the final passage of the bill, the yeas and nays were required by Messrs Joseph and Hong, and were as follows: Yeas—Messrs. Aldate, Albright, Ames, Armstrong, Beckwith, Bedford, Bennett, Carlin, Church, Cloud, Comly, Craig, Curtis, Dail, Darling, Deisinger, Dill, (Adams), Dill, (Union), Forsyth, Goddard, Hall, Hill, Hunt, Harsh, Johnson, (Crawford), Joseph, Lehigh, Leslie, Long, McAteer, McHenry, McKinstry, McMahon, Marshall, Maxwell, (Allegheny), Millar, Milliken, Mooney, Niles, Parsons, Porter, (Cambria), Potter, (York), Roberts, Robinson, Robser, Schnetzler, Sedgwick, Skinner, Smith, Snyder, Steele, (Schuylkill), Stephens, Tappan, Tappan, (York), Varkirk, Walton, and Strang, Speaker—59.

THE FARMER starting to his work has a shoe put on his horse with nails taxed 67 per cent., driven by a hammer taxed 51 per cent., a stick of kane taxed 50 per cent., hitches his horse to a plow taxed 50 per cent., with chains taxed 67 per cent.

Judge Marshall, Democrat, who so ably represents the Eleventh Congressional District of Illinois, lately delivered a lengthy and powerful speech against the exorbitantly high protective features of the present tariff.

The Brutal and Blood-Thirsty Sheridan.

His Last Ride—Running Away From Thomas' Funeral—Gen. Sheridan arrived in Troy yesterday morning, remained about four hours, and then left Philadelphia, where he is to join in the banquet.

A DARING OUTRAGE.

The Carlisle Volunter relates the details of an outrage committed by a negro named John Myers, alias "On Tuesday evening about 5 o'clock, a very respectable lady of this town, in company with her brother and sister, was returning to town from a sale at Mr. John Stoofler's, in North Middleton township.

"A THANKLESS CHILD."—A correspondent of the Washington Chronicle, writing from Parkersburg, West Virginia, tells this lamentable story about an old German woman he met in the cars.

THE NEXT DAY several prominent citizens of Parkersburg took her in hand, and carried her to comfortable quarters. They know of her son, and confirm the old lady's story that he is well off, and they are determined he shall do what is right for his poor old mother.

HOW A DISTINGUISHED EXCURSION PARTY SUFFERED IN "DEAD HEADS" TRULSELVES OVER THE HUDSON RIVER RAILROAD.—It would appear that those who are "on the beat" do not all belong to the lower strata of society, but that sometimes at least men of that character are to be found among those who occupy the loftiest positions in the country.

General News Items.

—Winona, Minnesota, in consequence of the flood, is situated at present on an island, and a large portion of it under water.

—Mrs. Philopona Shupert, of Bur County, who poisoned her husband with arsenic put in a bowl of soup, a crime for which she is under death sentence, having been pronounced insane, has been confined in Dixment Insane Asylum.

—A terrible accident occurred at Perryville, Ohio, Friday afternoon, resulting in the death of the oldest and youngest sons, aged nine and five years, of Mr. S. B. Coulter, agent of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway of that place.

A NEW YORK EARTHQUAKE.

A very remarkable phenomenon occurred in Marcellus on Tuesday night, of which we have obtained the following particulars: A tract of land containing about three acres, lying upon both sides of the highway, and situated about four miles south of Marcellus Village, at a place called Tyler's Hollow, was upheaved during the night by some subterranean force, the surface being piled into huge cracks and as large as a house, and huge cracks or crevasses were opened, which extended irregularly all over it.

NOTICE TO LAND OWNERS.

Having prepared a perfect list of all warrantable names, dates of warrants, and of the payment of the purchase money and the names of the persons paying the same, with a complete draft made from the official records showing the location of each tract of land, I am prepared to procure patents from the Land Office for the owners of unpatented lands, under the Act of Assembly of the 20th of May, 1864, and the supplement thereto, as required by the recent order of the Surveyor General.

ESTATE OF JAMES MURRAY.

Dec'd.—Letters Testamentary on the Estate of James Murray, late of Gallitzin township, dec'd., having been granted to the undersigned by the Register of Cambria county, all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same will present them, properly authenticated for settlement, without delay.

—The next day several prominent citizens of Parkersburg took her in hand, and carried her to comfortable quarters. They know of her son, and confirm the old lady's story that he is well off, and they are determined he shall do what is right for his poor old mother.

—When Mr. DeBarr read the writing on the card, and told her what it was, she could scarcely believe it; and when at length she comprehended it, the mother's distress at the thought that a child could treat her so cruelly, was so great, that she could not speak.

—A negro from this country, named Henry Allen, has recently swindled more than three hundred people in London out of greater or smaller sums of money. It is understood that the Mississippi Legislature has telegraphed him to come over and be ready, in case of Hoveis' death, to take his seat in the United States Senate.

—The widow of the late lamented "has written a letter to Mr. Lygess, dated in Germany, saying she is not in good health, is in need of assistance, and wonders why Congress delays in providing for her relief.

—A charge against men of such standing sounds somewhat strange, but we find there are grounds for it. The facts are: President Grant and Secretaries R. Hobson, Belknap, and Cox, and Postmaster-General Creswell, took the midnight train for New York.
