RICH RESOLUTIONS LAUDATORY OF GRANT, GEARY, HARTRANFT, CAMPBELL, MOR-

The Republican nominating convention assembled at the Court House in this place, on Monday last, agreeably to the call of C. T. Roberts, Chairman of the County Com-mittee. A special train from Johnstown brought up the Southern delegates and a number who were not duly according to the call of C. brought up the Southern delegates and a number who more and delegates and a voice in deciding to whom shall be distributed the one loaf which possesses intrinsic value and the many fishes that imply a questionable honor.

Nothing of momentous interest transpired on the passage up. The delegates were kindly furnished with tickets, and even the Barker men who boarded the train at Wilmore and Hemlock found that a free passage awaited them. Boggs was omnipresent, and a missionary distributing flarnel shirts to half-naked Hottentots couldn't have demeaned himself more graciously than did the man who was assigned the position of "watchman" at Harrisburg.

The delegates, irrespective of previous predilections, were directed to put up at the Cambria House, and thither the Morrell men wended their way. After dinner a caucus meeting was held in Foster's front parlor .--The delegates were instructed to keep an eye on Boggs, and a signal would be given them how they should vote on any question that might arise during the progress of the proceedings. A procession was then formed, and the imposing delegation marched to the Court House, where the convention was called to order by C. T. Roberts. The roll was called and it was discovered that Allegheny. Jackson, Munster, Summerhill and Washington districts were respectively represented by two sets of delegates. Boggs named a committee on credentials, first suggesting that A. M Gregg and James Quinn ect as Secretaries. Evans, of Ebensburg, mentioned the names of five gentlemen, as an amendment to Boggs' selection, but fortyfour of the delegates appeared to prefer the original committee, while only twenty-six favored the amendment. Eighty delegates, comprising a representation from every district in the county, were present. The ndes of our own favorite "Linnet" once | Contestants were not allowed a voice until

Boggs and Pyatt each attempted to "make a few remarks" at this stage of the proceed-

The PROTEST OF THE BOLTERS. The undersigned delegates to the Republican Convention this day assembled, respectfully but most earnestly protest against the action of said Convention in the admission of delegates. Yielding to none in our devotion to those great principles under which the Republican party has achieved past successes, and on which it builds its future hopes, we cannot but perceive in the course of the majority a line of conduct which must distract our councils and hand us

When we assert that corrupt means were employed in order to secure delegates, and that there were those sitting in said Convention who did not honestly represent the people, we state what is too apparent to all, and we firmly be-lieve that nominations so made cannot com-mand the suffrages of those who admire hones-ty in politics. On the contrary, those who believe purity essential in nominations and elections, will spurn the candidates placed before the people corruptly as nominations not fit to be made. Our opponents, less honest in their own choice of candidates, would hail with joy a nomination which from its fraudulent surroundings, would give them an opening for success, in a district which we have so long held from their grasp. We therefore protest against a nomination We therefore protest against a nomination procured in such a manner as fraught with dan-ger and defeat to a gallant and glorious party. [Signed by thirty-six members of the conven-tion.]

The name of Hon. Samuel Calvin, of Hollidaysburg, was proposed as the choice of the dissenting $6 delegates for the Congressional nomination. Capt. Fox made a few pertinent remarks regarding the shameful manner in which the Southern delegation outraged the sentiments of the Northern members of the convention, after which the seceders adjourned with three cheers for General Grant and the honest portion of the Republican party. And thus ended the Radical convention, and thus has been sown seeds of discord in that party which may fructify and bring forth bitter fruits for the dominant faction and its chosen standardbearer. The Johrstown delegates went home with very huge fleas in their ears, and, judging from the vehement language of some of them, an outside barbarian would be led to conclude that there is sometimes a vast difference between a Morrell man and a moral

THE REPUBLICAN DELEGATE ELECTION .-Last Saturday was the day set apart for the election of delegates to the Radical County Convention. It was what might be called a field day for the radical politicians of Ebensburg. It was a contest of strength-not physical, for in that event Ebensburg would wear the belt-but purely political-between the friends of Daniel J. Morrell, Superintendent of the Cambria Iron Company and the present member of Congress from this dis trict, and A. A. Barker, ex-member of the same illustrious body. There was no organ-ized opposition to the Barker delegates in the East Ward and the theatre of the war was therefore transferred to the West Ward. Here the contest was sharp and bitter, and all the dirty political work and personal degradation which are the legitimate fruits of an exciting delegate election, were admirably displayed by the adherents of both

JOHNSTOWN May 10, 1870. Dear Freeman—The election for delegates to the Republican county convention, and the elec-tion for a councilman, to fill a vacancy in the 6th ward, came off on Saturday last, at the same time—at least it was the intention of certain in-telligent contrabands that the same election board should take both tickets, but the board couldn't see it in that light, and the aspirants for deligacy had to wait till after seven o clock, advantage to trade with him.

to their great disgust. What intelligent people they have in the Republican party. What is the cause of calling the Republican party together so early? We cannot see why their convention was held so soon, unless it was Covode's letter that did the thing. The father of Congress ought to be listened to. The De-mocracy will not act so hurriedly, but when they do act, we hope to see a ticket put into the field that will secure the usual victory. The Democracy here don't want any yearling citizens nominated for the Legislature. A man ought to be a citizen of the county more than one year before he offers his services to serve her in the State councils. Again, they do not want any one connected with any railroad whatever.-One connected with any railroad whatever.— There has been enough of bargain and sale in railroad enterprises to put the people on their guard in choosing a Legislator. It won't take here. Again, they do not want a man nomina-ted who will weaken the ticket from his local position. They will accept a good honest South-ern man, if he does not own property, but a property holder, or one who is connected with any large tax-naving, manufacturing establishany large, tax-paying, manufacturing establish-ment, is not to be trusted, no matter what may be his professions. And especially non-commit-tal men should not be selected. Our notion is that the aspirant for legislative honors from Conemaugh borough, Mr. James Griffin, is the most available and reliable candidate yet mentioned. There is not much doubt but that there will There is not much doubt but that there will be three legislative tickets in the field next fail, and it behooves the Democratic party to make a most judicious nomination this year, or the Democrats may wake up to find themselves out-witted. We have heard several Democrats say witted. We have heard several Democrats say that there are now two aspirants in the field that cannot receive their votes. Let wisdom guide the councils of the party, this time at least. Horace Greeley has at last began to smell "nigger." He suggests in his last weekly that the Hall of the House of Representatives at Washington city cannot be properly rentilated till the lolhites are abolished. Of course he refers to the fifteenth amontments the fifteenth amendments.

Next to Horace Greeley, Fred Douglass is coming over. He said the other day, in a speech made at Philadelphia, that he would not dispute the right of any colored person to vote the Dem-ocratic ticket. Next will come Geary, and then Covode 1. "Cleare be to God"." Covode ! "Glory be to God " eyes. The Tribune very justly complains of care-lessness in keeping Johnstown and surrounding boroughs in a cleanly condition. There is filth in almost every corner, which ought to be peedily removed. The Tribune man's remarks about examining teachers every few months are also very approos. We know a man who has taught for thirty-ve years, and is a finished scholar, who has been examined twice in less than a year ; and anothe who has been examined three times. Bot these hold professional certificates. One has five professional and eight provisional certificates, from five different superintendants, that e is a good scholar; yet he must be examined even in the most simple branches. But such is the law! On, law? The School Directors of Johnstown have caused trees to be planted in all the lots under their control—in fulfilment we suppose of those beautiful and touching lines:

RESOLUTIONS OF REGULAR CONVENTION. We, the Republicans of Cambria county, in Convention assembled, do hereby resolve: 1st. That the administration of President Grant, signalized as it is by the restoration of civil authority over States lately in rebellionby a large reduction of the national debt and appreciation of national credit—by economy in the various departments of the government-by the unexampled prosperity of its people, and especially by the adoption of the constitutional amendment, under which distinction of race is no longer a basis of political rights, and the citizens of the United States are at last made politizens of the United States are at ast hade point-cally free and equal—is glorious to the Ameri-can Republic and an illustrious epoch in the history of mankind. 2d. That the people owe a debt of gratitude to the Republican party for liberties preserved and should continue to confide to its care the free institutions which it has saved from destruction.

That we recognize in our high officers of 3d. od. That we recognize in our high officers of State-Gov. Geary, Aud. Gen. Hartranft and Surveyor Gen. Campbell-qualities of patriot-ism, integrity and ability which justify the con-fidence reposed in them by the Republican party and show them to be worthy of the sup-port of the works of Panageleaning party and show them to be worthy of the sup-port of the people of Pennsylvania. 4th. That our Senatorial district has reason to congratulate itself that while legislative cor-ruption seems to prevail in all parties, and in every State, it is represented by so good a man as Hon. Harry White, whom the tongue of calumny cannot taint, and whose able and fearcalumny cannot taint, and whose able and fear-less career as a legislator mark him as a man deserving of honor and able to serve the people, 5th. That in offering Hon. D. J. Morrell to the voters of this Congressional district as 'a candidate fc r a third term in Congress, we per-form a duty pleasing to ourselves and of im-portance to the whole country. Carrying into making life consciontions liberality and business blic life conscientious liberality and business
