

Cambria Freeman.

EBENSBURG, PA. THURSDAY MORNING, Aug. 25, 1870.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

Assembly—W. HORACE ROSE, Johnstown. Sheriff—W. M. H. BONACKER, Johnstown. Commissioner—FRANCIS O'FRIEL, Loretto. P. H. Director—P. H. BERG, Cambria. Tax Collector—JOHN WAGNER, Chest Springs. Coroner—JACOB A. HARROLD, Johnstown. Jury Com.—ALEX. SKELLY, Sumnerhill, Pa.

It has been definitely arranged that the Democratic Congressional Conference in this district shall meet at Altoona, on Friday, the 24 day of September next.

We publish this week on our fourth page the Naturalization Law which was passed by the late Congress. The fifth and sixth sections of the act, in view of the style in which the Radical party manage elections, may be easily understood.

Col. JAMES COOPER, of Taylor township, who is at present one of the Jury Commissioners of this county, was re-nominated for the same office by the Rump Removal Convention, which re-assembled at Cresson Springs on last Saturday.

We desire to say distinctly and emphatically to the Editor of the Johnstown Tribune that he had—under a mistake perhaps—when he intimated in his last issue that there was what he is pleased to call "collusion" between the editor of the Freeman and the editor of the Alleghenian.

HORACE GREELY is prominently spoken of as the next Republican candidate for Governor of New York. Of course there is not the ghost of a chance for his election, and even if there was, the announcement that Grant has declared his preference for him would render his defeat certain.

Bully for Woodruff!

JOSEPH CROUSE'S Rump Removal Convention re-assembled at Cresson on last Saturday to nominate a candidate for Assembly, in place of Gen. Potts, who had withdrawn, and also to nominate a county ticket in favor of the same project.

It will be seen that H. D. WOODRUFF, the editor of the Johnstown Democrat, was nominated for Assembly. We will not this week enter into any detailed discussion of the causes which brought about this nomination.

Woodruff has been for months, as we will hereafter prove, a double dyed traitor to the anti removal cause, and he is now just where his natural instincts would lead him.

MR. WALTERS' LETTER. WHITE TOWNSHIP, August 22, 1870. To D. M. LAUGHLIN, Esq., President of Removal Convention.

THE news from the seat of war is so confused that it is impossible to form a correct and intelligent view of the precise situation of affairs.

A Calumny Rebuked.

In an editorial article which appeared in this paper last week, we saw proper to refer to the withdrawal of Gen. Potts as the removal candidate for Assembly.

RODERIC B. BUTLER is the name of a corrupt scoundrel who misrepresents the Greenville (Tennessee) district in Congress. During the last session he was deeply implicated in the disgraceful business of selling a West Point cadetship for his own private gain.

A dispatch from Tennessee announces that United States Marshal Riggs arrested Roderic Butler at Taylorville, in that State, on Wednesday.

THE Pope and King William. The following is the letter addressed by the Pope to the King of Prussia, proposing mediation between the latter and the Emperor of France, and the reply of King William.

YOUR MAJESTY—In the present grave circumstances it may appear an unusual thing to receive a letter from me, but as the Vicar of earth of the God of Peace, I cannot do less than offer my mediation.

JOHNNY STEELE, says the Titusville Herald, is now considered one of the steadiest and hardest working men on the creek.

Disaster to MacMahon's Army.

A cable dispatch from London under date of August 16th, furnishes the following letter from General Bocher, commanding the Zouaves of MacMahon's division, relative to the demolition of those fine soldiers:

SAVERNE, August 8.—Let us thank God, who has saved us from the terrible dangers of a soldier's fate to encounter. It is a miracle that I am still alive, without a scratch, and in perfect health; but my heart is broken. I am overwhelmed at the fate of my poor officers and my poor soldiers. I dare not tell you how many I have lost. It would grieve you too much.

At 7 A. M., they were full of life and ardor, and now all are killed. At 2 P. M., my unfortunate Lieut. Colonel Desportes, was wounded by my side. A bullet entered his abdomen, which was discharged but a few yards distant.

INFALLIBILITY.—The Archbishop of Cincinnati fulfilled his promise of speaking to the public from Mozart Hall on Sunday last. He has disappointed the expectations of those who were anxious to see him occupy a position of authority in the Catholic world.

THE Radical Legislature of Indiana, in its last session, engrafted the following new idea on the election law of that State.

CARDINAL ANTONELLI has addressed a letter to the Papal Nuncio at Belgium stating that the Holy See had heard that some of the bishops think that the apostolic constitution including the dogma of infallibility is not obligatory upon the Church.

CASTER AND COLOR.—The Morgan Highway Nuptials.

A correspondent of the Alexandria (Va.) Gazette says: "The quietness of Jackson, Mississippi, was broken in upon yesterday by the report that an amalgamation wedding was to take place—that a white State Senator was to take unto himself a wife of the darker hue.

HEART-RENDING CALAMITY.—The Point Pleasant (Va.) Journal says: A gentleman just from Roanoke county gives the particulars of a most heart-rending calamity that happened last week on Spring Creek, in that county.

THE Huntingdon Globe, in speaking of political affairs in that county, says: "The situation is mixed. Where now is the honesty in politics? A year ago a faction of the republican party defeated some of the best republicans placed in nomination by a republican convention.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.—The Staunton Spectator gives the harrowing particulars of the horrible death of two young girls, caused by the explosion of kerosene oil.

During a recent thunder storm in Bridgeport, Connecticut, the residence of P. T. Barnum, the showman, was struck by lightning.

General News Items.

The young man who was 'loudly' since his mother died? Is all right now. His father married a widow with five grown daughters, and they give a party every night.

The first fruits of the opening railroad communication between Lake Superior and St. Paul were visible last week, when the steamer Keweenaw brought down for the Eastern market 250 barrels of Minnesota flour, shipped at Duluth.

- 1. We have built a house for our business, covering nearly 1/2 half an acre.
2. Instead of wedging it in between other buildings, making it dark, and obscuring the goods, it is built on a corner of three streets, and any one may count in it 251 windows.
3. We employ skilled workmen, One Hundred and Fifty of whom may be seen under our roof by any one having time and curiosity to visit our Establishment, and besides these, 1400 to 1800 sewers are employed at their own homes.
4. We make up no imperfect goods.
5. We thoroughly sponge and shrink ALL our goods.
6. We purchase our goods at first hands, in large lots, some-times in bills of over $100,000 at one time.
7. We set our faces against every species of unfair dealing, and will dismiss any employee in any way guilty of it.
8. We have such enormous sales that we are content with a profit far below the trade margin.
9. We warrant all our goods, and will give every possible guarantee to purchasers at Oak Hall.

The above are facts that no one can truthfully dispute, as the examination we so cordially invite, will fully prove.

A Connecticut boy who had the fever and went to Omaha, writes that a hundred men are out of work, and run from $1.80 to $2.75 per day, with a den of the West? He says that Nebraska are like certain states in Connecticut, where the winters are and grasshoppers use up what grows in summer.

A singular and rather remarkable case of somnambulism occurred in Quincy, Mass. last week. A little girl of seven months, daughter of Mr. George W. Everett, who half past eight o'clock on Wednesday morning, rose from her bed without sleeping with her sister, went to the window and leaped to the ground, some distance on being taken up no bones could be broken; and what is more singular, she did not complain of any aches or pains, but has been since her fall apparently as usual.

A curious discovery was made in Ashland, Ohio, last Saturday. A prisoner, apparently about sixteen years of age, who was arrested for stealing $100 from a farmer, was discovered to be a young woman of about twenty years of age. She had for the past year, successfully disguised herself as a boy. For over a year, she was a bell-boy in the Burnet Hotel, Cincinnati, and has worked on a farm in parts of the State, always passing for a boy, and doing a good days work. Her assigned for adopting the male attire, a boy can get along through the world much easier and better than a female. It is said she is good looking in features and is smart. She assumed the name Johnny Gardner.
