Another Falsehood Refuted.

We do not suppose that any person who knows us believes that we wrote letters in favor of Mr. Morrell and against Mr. Johnston. as alleged by the pretended Ebensburg correspondent of the Johnstown Democrat; still we cannot resist the temptation of showing the utter falsity of the accusation, and for that purpose have gone to the fountain head to obtain evidence which can peither be questioned or refuted. The gentlemen who have furnished the following letter are not of our political way of thinking, which makes their testimony if possible the stronger and more convincing :

ALTOONA, Sept. 19, 1870. MAN is charged with having written letters frem Johnstown to an Altoona paper, in 1866. in which letters he lauded Mr. Morrell and traduced his Democratic opponent in the Congressional contest of that year, Mr. Johnston, we deem it due to Mr. McPike to say that he wrote no letters of that character to our paper, published here during Mr. McP.'s residence in Johnstown, it follows that he could not have sioners' Office and the Poor House-it is written them to any other journal printed in this place. An examination of our files show that in one or two of the letters in question reference was made to Messrs.
