FORGERY! FORGERY!

Another Base Falsehood Exposed I Mr. Rose after "A Democratic Soldier" with a Sharp Stick!

Johnstown, Pa., Sept. 16, 1870. Editor Cambria Freeman-Dear Sir: A party signing himself "A Democratic Soldier." publishes in this week's Democrat a communication wherein he gives extracts from two letters which were published in the Johnstown Tribune in 1863, and has the hardihood to say that I wrote them. The first of these extracts is as follows :

"PETERSBURGH, IV A., Sept. 12, 1853. "Our boys all regret being from home on next election day. If we had a vote, it would be a unanimous thing for the soldiers' friend, A. G.

The writer of the communication thereupon proceeds to say :

"Mr. Rose DID come home to vote for Curtin and was in tavor of his election. He rebe glad to remember you specially turned shortly to his regiment and writes a etter to the TRIBUNE of October 30, 1863, from which I take the following extract :

"'CAMP NEAR ROMNEY, October 21st, 1863."
"Since our return to this place, nothing of mportance has occurred to interrupt the usu al routine of camp life, says the glorious news from Pennsylvania and Ohio. Bully for our friends at home! The election of Curtin and the defeat of Vallandigham are victories as great as that of Meade at Gettysburg."

I did not write either of the above letters. I never was at Petersburg, Va. While the regiment was at Petersburg, with Colonel Thoburn's Brigade, I was at the headquarfers of Col. Campbell, at Mechanicsburg Gap. on detached duty, as A. A. A. General, and Lt. D. R. Lewis, of Co. E. was acting Adju tant of the Regiment. On the 12th day of October, 1863, when the Tribune's correspondent wrote the last letter, I was in Harrisburg, Pa., with Hon. C. L. Pershing. attending to business before the Military Department, and not in camp near Romney, Va. The Tribune correspondent referred to the returns of the regiment from Petersburg, as the context clearly shows. Record evidence is now in Johnstown, in the Britict Court. Nice sugar plum that, but gade books, to prove the fact that I was not in camp Oct. 21, 1868, and to any who deto get a suck at. Hope we will be sire further information, I refer to Col. Lined long enough to enjoy it some day, ton, and other officers and members of the regiment, who will inform them that I did not accompany the regiment to Petersburg, Va., nor was I with it at any time during

Again, I did not "come home to vote for is the owner. If we know what's Curtin." I did not vote for Curtin. I was to "Court House Square." Let us take a fait is the richest specimen of iron ore not entitled to a vote in 1868. I did not miliar instance of the difference between the vote at all. I did not offer to vote. I did not advocate the election of Curtin. I bunches of grapes growing on the never was in my political views anything else than a Democrat. If I had been a Republican, as "A Democratic Soldier" strives to make out, and which I here say I never was, why did the Johnstown Tribune, in its strictures on the proceedings of Council, say | Twenty miles travel will bring him to Court that that body had turned out a good Union at Ebersburg, but if the county seat is removed ht about the imprisonment of Geo. I have thus far intruded on your space to show how shallow the assertions of "A Demer Catholic parsonage recently erected ocratic Soldier" are, and as by this the and we are assured that it is not only Democrats of Cambria county may judge of money, but is of the most extensive the character of the charges made and doubtmactive character. How He Lies.

THE Johnstown Democrat has recently contained two or three communications, signed "Bismarck," all of which are falsely dated at Ebensburg, but were really manufactured in Johnstown by either Woodruff himself or one of his understrappers. As we said once before, it is an old, stale and well understood political, or rather editorial, dodge. In reply thereto, we publish the following statement, over the responsible name of one of the County Auditors :

EBENSBURG, Sept. 17, 1870. MR. EDITOR-I deem it a simple act of justice to the people of Cambria county, as well as to those whose duty it was to lay before the people the accounts of the Poor House, to refute the erroneous statement of a correspondent of the Johnstown Democrat signing himself Bismarck," (which statement I find published in the last issue of that paper,) and wherein it is alleged that 'the Poor House cost the county, to run it in 1869, the sum of say ENTERN THOUSAND AND TWENTY-SEVEN DOLLARS AND ONE CENT." That such was not the case the following plain statement of facts will clearly

The whole amount of orders issued to the Poor House Treasurer for the year 1809 was. The amount of the orders on hand from the year 1888 was.... The amount of the fines received dur-ing the year 1869 was....

for 1869 there was in-orders Due from late Treasurer.... Paid on indebtedness prior to

Which sum deducted from the whole amount leaves..... $10,411-12 the actual cost of conducting the Poor House for the year 1869. As the above statement is correct in every particular, and cannot be gainsayed, it will at once be seen that instead of seventeen thousand and twenty seven dollars and one cent ($17,027-01), the actual cost of running the Poor House last year was ten thousand and forty dollars and twelve cents ($10,040 12).

The indebtedness of the Poor House for 1869 and previous years is four thousand six hundred and eighty four dollars and forty two cents ($4,684 42). The amount due the Poor House by Cambria county for the year 1869 and previous years is six thousand and fourteen dollars and thirty-one cents (6.014.31)leaving a surplus of one thousand three hundred and twenty-nine dollars, and eighty-nine cents (1,329.69) in favor of the Poor House, after paying all indebtedness. The Poor House is therefore at present entirely out of debt, as any one can see by comparing the assets and liabilities. I will say to the readers of this statement, then, that the above are facts that will prove themselves. I write this through a sincore desire to let the truth of the matter be known to the people, and I hope those who will hereafter write about the Poor House will co nfine themselves to facts, and not make any further erroneous statements about that much

READ AND REFLECT!!

To the Editor of the Cambria Freeman! The apostles of removal are conducting their campaign in the south of the county with that malevolent spirit which a few noisy brawlers always assume to keep up an appearance of strength even when they know in their inmost hearts that the wave of popular opinion will ere long overwhelm and forever bury them from sight. The proscriptive tenets of the party controlling this movement have been developed from the beginning, and while making "the interests of Johnstown" their rallying cry, it is plain to be seen that it was inaugurated simply and solely for the purpose of creating discord in the ranks of the Democracy, in the hope that Mr. Morrell, Republican can didate for Congress, might make dupes of a sufficient number from our organization south to counteract the expected detection of Republican support north.

I understand there are a number of Mr. M.'s under the impression that that gentleman is entirely neutral and apathetic on the removal question, and that he has no wish or intention to exercise his influence either for or against that project. If such be the case, it seems very strange to me that the Cambria Iron Co., of which he is the prominent local representative, should furnish teams and drivers to transport speakers and hired bands of music to every where meetings have been held; and, by a parity of reasoning, it would be natural to infer that he, through his understrappers, is furnishing the funds necessary to the carrying on of a vigorous campaign. Citizens residing north, and who are desirous that the seat of justice should remain where it is, but who at the same time feel inclined to support Mr. Morrell, can reconcile the conduct of that gentleman with their own ideas of right if they can find it in the pins to do so, but if it became so plainly evident to us that he was throwing his influence in the scale against onr interests, we have no doubt as to the course we would pursue in the premises. Let northern men think of this. According to removal doctrine, "the people of Northern Cambria have no rights which the | tisement. people of the South are bound to respect," and although it is a matter of great inconvenience for citizens of this place to get into an elegant car at the depot here and be whirled rapidly along to within two hundred yards of the Court House at Ebensburg, yet citizens north who reside from ten to twenty miles beyond the present county seat, do not experience enough difficulty already in reaching the seat of justice, and perforce will be obliged to extend their journey some thirty miles further, just to accommodate a few property holders contiguous present arrangement and the one which the advocates of removal seek to inaugurate. Two neighbors residing in the northern extreme of Susquehanna township conclude to adjust before a justice of the peace a dispute involving a matter of ten dollars. The defeated party thinks that the case has been decided adverse to law and equity, and he appeals to Court .-The citizens of this section do not labor under these disadvantages, for there is a District Court in Johnstown where disputes involving

Although it is morally certain that the regular nominees of the Democratic party - men who represent the entire county and not a sectional portion of it-will be elected, yet our triends who are opposed to the iniquitous fraud of removal and the enormous expense it would necessarily entail, must not look on apathetically or indifferently, now that duty and interest both demand their best efforts on behalf of right and justice. The freemen of Cambria county-those frosty sons who never falter when duty points the way-must now make one final and determined effort to bury beyond hope of political resurrection a renegade who has "bent the pliant hinges of the knee that thrift may follow fawning." We must teach this immaculate gentleman from Perry county, (who has but recently made the astounding discovery that a horde of thieves are fattening at the public crib,) that Portage railroad robbers are not the class of men to entrust with the administration of our public affairs, and that Mr. Morrell, has gone one step too far when he seeks to fasten upon the peo ple of the whole county an enormous tax in order to benefit a few property holders in this place Such is professedly his object, but he has other and greater objects in view which he hopes to accomplish. However,

"The best laid schemes of mice and men Gang aft aglee," and the political backs and dead beats who are now managers and prime ministers of Mr. M will find that they have reckoned without Personally, we entertain no particular enmiv toward Mr. Woodruff. While we despise him for the manner in which he has sought to betray the principles he has heretofore professed, we can only pity his we kness and ex press our sorrow that he has listened to that syren song which an insatiable ambition has whispered in his too willing ear. He will soon learn that vaulting ambition must overleap itself, and that his new found friends-THINGS who a few short weeks ago were loudmouthed and fierce in their denunciation of his personal and political character-have lured him only to his own destruction. As rats desert a sinking ship, so will the characters with whom he now affiliates desert him, and he cannet, dare not, then ask sympathy from the true friends who have until now steadfastly stood by him.

On the ticket graced with the name of Mr. Woodruff we discover the names of two gentlemen whom we hardly expected to find in such company, and we feel assured they will yet regret that they permitted their names to be published in this connection.

Mr. Cramer, of Chest Springs, is an independent candidate for Sheriff. He has not announced himself as in favor of removal, but the company he keeps when in Johnstown would assure us that he is in full sympathy with the movement. Mr. C. has committed a grave error in permitting himself to be influenced by a class of men prolific of promises, but who cannot furnish the important consideration upon which he relies. He will feel such utter contempt for his advisers, ere another month goes by, and the lesson taught him will be so indelibly impressed upon his mind, that we do not think he will soon again ignore his true friends for the promises of false, though specious, ones. It will be a bitter lesson to Mr. C., but one we hope he will profit by for all time to come.

The principal string upon which the remov-al candidate for Assembly now harps, is that of the extravagance of county officials and their wasteful expenditure of the public funds. Either Mr. Woodruff has but recently discovered that $20,000 of county taxes could be saved annually, or, if he has been cognizant of this alleged fact for any length of time, he has been worse than criminally a party to such extravagance. On the 8th day of August he is blind to such a state of affairs; on the 20th day of the same month he discovers that the tax payers of the county are being swindled. O wise and sapient Woodruff! It is no principle with you that he who conceals a crime is as guilty as the perpetrator thereof, and if with this great leak in our public affairs staring you in the face you could so long remain silent, can we look for any bonesty from you hereaf ter? You surely were not a "subsidized fol-

In all candor, we think that Mr. Woodruff son of his opposing the regular nominees, and knowing, they cannot but condemn his insane folly in attempting to defeat the candidates whom he assisted to place in nomination. The agreeable and instructive, while the good honest, intelligent voters of Cambria county honest, intelligent voters of Cambria county will teach him that when he seeks to imperil the principles of the party with which he has the principles of the party with which he has

THOUGHTS FOR THINKING MEN! beretofore claimed to act, be has set the seal of his own condemnation, and retribution, swift, sure and inevitable will follow as unertingly as night follows day. AMICUS. JOHNSTOWN, Sept. 19, 1870.

PLEASE EXCUSE !- As our local mercantile friends are deeply interested in the removal obestion, we feel sure they will excuse the occupation of so much of our space this week to the exclusion of their usual special notices. As a recompense we can only hope that our readers will not fail to patronize those who deserve their patronage and who seek it in the right way-through the columns of the FREE-MAN-and among the number we ask special consideration for V. S. Barker, H A Shoemaker & Co., M. L. Oatman and R. R. Davis, dealers in all kinds of merchandise; C. T Roberts, jeweller and dealer in clocks, watch es, fancy goods, etc ; Geo. Huntley, hardware, tinware and stove dealer ; E. J. Mills, dealer in flour, feed, etc .- all of Ebensburg-and also for A. J. Christy, of Loretto, dealer in drugs. dry goods, groceries, and other articles. In political friends in Northern Cambria who are buying from either of those gentlemen we are sure that fair treatment and fair prices will be obtained by all customers.

WE deeply regret to announce the death of Hon, JOHN D. DAWSON, of Favette county on Sunday last. His age was 58. He had long held a leading position amongst the promined Democratic politicians of the State school house and country tavern in this district He represented the Fayette district in Con gress for four terms, and acquired high and well deserved distinction. In personal appearance Mr. Dawson had few equals, being remarkably dignified and prepossessing. In his death, the Democracy of our State has lost one of its brightest ornaments and most elognent advocates.

A Striking Example.-When one man strikes another; also, when Leopold Mayer, dry goods merchant of Johnstown, strikes high prices in the head. Mr. Mayer has now an immense stock of new goods of all kinds-dress goods, hats, bonnets, laces, brilliant ribbons of every hue, etc.—at the Opera House, No. 212, Johnstown. He made a good point in purchas-ing when goods were at their lowest price, but he is deterimned to make a better one by selling Bon't Mind It.—If there is a savage war going on between France and Prussia, don't mind it, but go to Leopoid & Brother and buy some suitable made-up clothing for fall and winter, before Mr. High Price arrives from the sent of war. Leopold & Brother keep at 2:1 Main street, cheap side, Johnstown. Let Eu-rope spend money for powder and lead, but spend your dimes for the adornment of the outward man, and spend it at Leopold & Bro.'s.

Aldermanic.-Let all who want good dry goods, fancy goods, good dress goods, and good groceries, call with our aldermanic friend, N. F. Carroll, No. 215 Main street, Johnstown, where they will be entertained in an obliging manner by a perfect gentleman, who can sell goods as low, and also as many of them, as any man can between Dan and Bersbeeba. Carrol is ready and willing to sell good goods at the lowest figure in the market.

Commotion.-What has caused this great commotion the country through. It is the ball a rolling on for John J. Murphy, with goods so new, at the Mansion House corner, Johnstown.
Murphy's new dry goods have produced a wonderful commotion indeed. Hundreds—nay, thousands—rush to Murphy's, because that is the place for bargains. Then, reader, rush thou thither also and get the full worth of vour money.

Linly.—The late revolutionary news from Italy made it necessary for James J. Murphy to buy in a new stock of ready-made clothing at No. 109 Clinton street, Jounstown, so that he might be enabled to sell at his former low prices, even if the war should go on. He has now a fine assortment of all kinds of clothing for men and boys, which he will sell at a small profit.

Trunks Full.— L. Cohen & Brother have just received twenty-five trunks, at Cohen's Hat Parlor, filled with choice new hats and caps and gent's furnishing goods. The scene presented by the arrival was like that of a Saratoga flitting. This beautiful array of new styles can be seen at No. 227 Main street, Johnstown, the like of which cannot be seen every day. Do call !

New Song.—From this to election day, and from that to a holiday, Frank W. Hay will give stoves away, no matter what people say. Mr. Hay is the largest stove and tinware dealer in the county—does a rushing business—is a progressive man,—and clever withal,—so give him a call and get a new stove for one of the hardest winters you will ever see.

Look Here.—For men and boys! For men and boys! Made-up clothing at M. H. Mayer's renowned Clothing Emporium, Opera House, No, 214 Main street, Johnstown. Ready-made clothing for men, boys, and children. A new stock of ready-made has Mr. Mayer laid in, cheaper than ever, better than ever, and neater than ever before—for men and boys. DIED .- At San Francisco, Cal., Sept 2d, 1870, MAY FRANCISCO, youngest child of Chas. W. and Henrietta E. Wingard.
