said to be exciting the wonderment of Rye township, Perry county. -Rev. A. J. Hartsock, one of Johnstown's most respected citizens, is about taking up his habitation at Wilmore. -Woodruff says, "Beware of last cards." As Assembly is his last card, the Echo suggests that the people will take his advice.

-The Blairsville Presbytery is now in session at the Presbyterian church in this place. A large number of clergymen are in attendance -On the farm of P. F. Custer, at Fairview. this county, can be seen twenty-five good sized pumpkins, all raised from one seed. So says the Tribune.

-Wm. Price, a young Johnstowner, was killed a few days ago by a fall of slate and coal in one of the Cambria Iron Co.'s coal mines at that place.

-The Clearfield Republican pronounces the reported fatal affray between Tyrone and Glen Hope a hoax. Wood is recovering and no arrests have been made.

-The new German Catholic church in Conemaugh borough, one of the largest and handsomest church buildings in the State, will be dedicated some time during the present month.

Medical skill could do nothing to save her life.

-It is expected that the convent school at Johnstown will open in the course of a few weeks. The Foster House building has been fully fitted up for the purpose. The Benedic tine Sisters are to have charge.

-Rev. A. J. Brown, heretofore' President of St. Francis' College, Loretto has been assigned to the pastoral charge of the Catholic congregation at Bedford, recently made vacant by the death of Very Rev. Dr. Hayden.

-Quite a number of Ebensburgers and Northern Cambrians are said to be in attend. ance at the Altoona Fair. We had hoped to enjoy the same pleasure for a day or two, but the quinsy has rendered our absence from home impossible just now.

-That traveling humbug known as Hamil ton & Rawdon's Indian Show, paid our town a visit on Tuesday, but as our town dind't seem to hanker after injins and sich like, the proprietors of the show failed to get an audience and of course failed to exhibit

Mr. Evans is an artist of unquestioned ability, and we cannot too highly recommend him to the patronage of our readers. He never fails to please his customers.

-Our Count; Superintendent, T. J. Chap man, M. A , has accepted the agency for the Central Insurance Company of Altoona, one of the strongest and most reliable associations of the kind that has ever been organized. The Central is fortunate in securing such an agent in this place, and we hope that he will succeed in doing a thriving business.

-An Altoona lad named Robley, surreptitiously obtained a package of powder and a cigar stump, on Monday evening, but while enjoying the latter he saw his mother coming towards him, whereupon he chucked the light ed stump into the pocket containing the powder. An explosion followed, of course, and young Robley is rather the worse of the adventure.

This is the reason why E. J. Mills always supplies the very best flour and Henry O. Stoltz. The total amount realized by the Fair, which continued eleven days, was three thousand and four dollars ($3,004), from which deduct $500 for expenses, and there is left the handsome sum of twenty-five hundred dollars as the proceeds of the Fair. Considering the condition of the money market and circumstances generally communding as we flatter oursely so that we did feed that is made, because it would not pay him to keep any other kind. Those who buy flour from Mills are never disappointed in the quality, while the price is no more than is charged for an inferior article. money market and circumstances generally surrounding us, we flatter ourselves that we did nobly in aid of a noble cause. MARRIED.

The good work goes bravely on. The matri-monial spirit has had an awaking in our midst, monial spirit has had an awaking in our midst, and in recording the above as one of the results, we predict for our friend Harry and his young and handsome bride a long life of unalloyed felicity, and peaceful enjoyment. With a lib-eral generosity which seldom greets the prin-ter, our kind friend and his amiable young bride have remembered us in the dawning hour of their wedded love, and it is befitting that we should wish them well, which we do out of the of their wedded love, and it is befitting that we should wish them well, which we do out of the abundance of a grateful heart. Harry, the fa-vorite of all who knows him, has the earnost good wishes of a host of friends, while to his blooming bride, truly worthy of so good a hus-band and truly rich in the love of so noble a heart, all tender the earnest congratulations and kindly greetings belitting the occasion.--May all the joys had or dreamed of be and abide forever with them. for they are eminently worthy of all the blessings that flow from a union so commendable and so befitting as theirs. "Pain and sorrow shalkyanish before them.

Pain and sorrow shall vanish before them; Youth may wither, but feeling will last, And the shadow that e'er shall fall o'er them Love's light summer cloud sweetly shall cast." LEWIS-DUFF.-In Pittsburg, on Thursday last. by Rev. Samuel Laird. Dr. David W. Lewis, formerly of Ebensburg, and Miss Anna W. Duff, of that city.
