JOHNSTOWN, Oct. 17, 1870. Dear Freemon- For three weeks I have been submerged in political seas, but after all I come up again, like a cork that had been held under water, and now I am breathing again. The great battle is over, the smoke partly cleared away, and the mountain tops can be distinctly seen, among which Ebensburg hill stands unscathed by the bombshells and the shrapnell. The successful candidates in this neck of woods are jubilant and her been beard repeating are are jubilant and have been heard repeating one of David's psaims, which says:

I feel, I feel, I feel like a morning star, Shoo fly. etc.,

while the sore heads chant a few stanzas of Paradise Lost. There are at least six sore heads here—three removal leaders have the headache, two defeated councilmen and one defeated justice complain of new ralgie pains. Woodruff's head is too thick to get sore and mine is too light to suffer much from any entastrophe whatever. The Commonwealth cases which grew out of the contest, or rather the qui dam actions, are Hannan vs. M'Laughlin, Barnes, vs. Campbell, M'Cormick vs. Giddings, Horn vs. Ellis, Bismarck vs. Shoo Fiy, Kopelin vs. Swank and Phoy vs. vs. Shoo Fiy. Kopelin vs. Swank, and Rhey vs. Woodruff. Some of these, it is thought, can be amicably settled, if Tierney will agree to enter the noile prosecules.

Various causes have been assigned for the re-Various causes have been assigned for the removal defeat, one of which is that there were too many votes against us, which is most unreasonable, since we have two-thirds of the voters, and it can be proved that sixteen hundred of our fellows were threshing buckwheat on that fatal Tuesday. We have only one consolation left now, and that is, if we cannot remove the Poor House and Jail we can go there and lire! If the mountain won't come to Mohammed, Mohammed can go to the mountain. It does seem strange, however, to me that with all the population in the south, the north can outvote us! What does this mean? That we have the population there is no doubt. Don't we see them perambulating the streets every day? them perambulating the streets every day But there are great revolutions, if not convul-sions, in politics. For instance, Morrell carry-ing Cembria county, and Huntingdon going six hundred the other way! Our chasepols have too short a range for modern politics. That's

One of the immediate results of the election is that "lamps have riz"; another that "spirits are down"; and probably a third is that these things will be Echo-ed far and wide. I have a notion to fight a dual. Give my love to McShane! Adieu!

Mr. James M. Swank, former editor of the Tribune, committed Susanside the day after the election, at Rochester, Beaver county, Pa., by marrying Miss Annie P. Linton, daughter of Maj. John P. Linton, of that place. Success to both bride and bridegroom.

As an evidence of the growth of the 6th ward, Johnstown, we would state that but three elections have been held since it was a ward. In 1868 there were 30 votes, in 1869 there were 85 votes, and in 1870 there were 119 votes, and 21 persons did not vote. Three were alsens. persons did not vote. Three were allens.

As the fights between the Far Downs and Connaught men only cement the Irish nation in closer brotherhood, so may the feuds between the north and south of this county only serve to knit more closely our fraternal relations.—

That's my toast.

SUMMERHILL TWP., Oct. 17, 1870. Friend Mac-The death of Mr. James Rockett has already been announced in the Freeman, but I cannot refrain from recording the additional fact that the deceased, who was an bonest and industrious citizen, was the principal leath has indeed proved a heavy affliction.-The remains were followed to their last resting place by a large concourse of relatives and friends, who manifested by their presence and demeanor the love and esteem they bore for the deceased. Requiescat in pacc. Several cases of fever and other complaints prevail in this neighborhood at present, some of which are said to be serious. Sickness has not been so prevalent in this section for a num-ber of years as it has been during the past few

The Forty Hours' Devotion commenced, in the Catholic church at Wilmore on Sunday, 8th Inst., and closed on Tuesday evening following. During its progress a Mission was given by Rev. Father Denny, of Pittsburgh, who gave instructions in the morning and a lecture in the evening of each day. He was listoned to by a large audience on each occasion, among whom were many who differ from the Rev. speaker in their religious belief. All listeners were favorably impressed with the piety, zeal and eloquence of Father Denny, who will be gladly welcomed to our midst at any time in the future. Repairs on the Catholic church are about drawing to a close for the present, and although the work is not complete, the improvements are very decided and handsome. Besides the work on the spire, heretofore referred to, the interior of the church has been wainscoted. new confessionals have been put up, a new pul-pit erected, and the sanctuary has been re-carpeted. Twenty new and beautiful lamps have been procured to light up the church at night when occasion requires, and the building itself is now protected from the caprice of the ele-ments by the Munson copper tubular lightning rod, with four points on the roof and one on the spire. In addition to these improvements, the pastoral residence has undergone a series of repairs, all which have been accomplished thro the untiring exertions of the worthy pastor and by the pecuniary means which our Altoona and Johnstown friends so liberally contributed at the recent pic-nic which they so generously patronized, and for which they have the hearty thanks of both pastor and people. The members of the congregation have of course done their best to aid in the good work, and have accomplished much in the past and will be equally liberal and energetic in the future.

The late election, in one particular at least, went back on our hopes rather unexpectedly. went back on our hopes rather unexpectedly. The removal ticket received more support than we had any idea it could command. However, your correspondent cannot be blamed for that, as he voted the anti-removal ticket on principle—a requisite badly needed by quite a number of Democrats in the south of the county. The township officers chosen at the late election are about equally divided on the question of politics, owing to the fact that a sufficient number of Democrats willing to accept office could not be found in the township. I append a list of the officers elected: Supervisors, Geo. Settlemoyer and James McGough; Justice of the Peace, P. Burtnett; Constable, John Smay; Judge of Election, Joseph Emigh; Inspectors, T. M. Oster and T. M'Connell: School Directors, John McGough, 8 yrs., Christian Shaffer, 3 yrs., Geo. Pringle, 2 yrs.; Assessor, Michael Braniff, Jas. Gallagher, Valentine Cramer; Auditor, V. Cramer; Twp. Clerk, Isaac Ream.

CARROLLTOWN, Oct. 16, 1870. Dear Freeman—Presuming that your columns would be crowded last week. I refrained from writing, but will now atone for the omission.

A proper subject to begin with is to give you the names of the gentlemen elected on Tuesday last to fill the several offices in our Borough.—Here they are: Burgess, Francis Bearer, Esq.; Town Council, D. C. Wetzel, John A. Kennedy, Julius Stich, John E. Maucher and Benjamin Wertner: Justice of the Pence, (re-elected.) J.

Julius Stich, John E. Maucher and Benjamin Wertner; Justice of the Pence, (re-elected.) J. A. Kennedy; Constable, (re-elected.) N. Nagle; School Directors, Wm. A. Noel and Julius Stich; Judge of Election, Thos. R. Scanlan; Inspectors, Edward L. Binder and Geo. Waltz: Assessor, Adam J. Stoltz; Ass't Assessors, John Buck and John E. Maucher; Auditor, James Fagan; —all Democrats, of course.

One day last week the Benedictine Sisters, for whose reception a fipe building had been erected and furnished, gladdened the hearts of our people by taking up their permanent residence in our midst. Such angels of mercy deserve a heartfelt welcome wherever they go. When their school will commence I am not now prepared to say.

Your correspondent was presented a few days ago with several apples by Mr. Simon Owens, a farmer of Carroll township, each one of which weighed from 15% to 16% ounces and measured some 15 inches in circumference. I note this not because the apples were of extraordinary size, but because in the entire wagon load from which they were taken there was no perceptible difference in the size from those presented y Mr. O. to the writer hereof. During a recent visit to St. Nicholas I noticed that Mr. Fred. Snyder has erected a large black-smith shop and is now prepared to accommo-date all who may require his services. Fred. is a good workman and deserves success. E.

ALTOONA CITY, Oct. 18, 1870. Friend Mac-We have met the Bessemer steel gentleman, and io! and behold! he is ours. The dear people have kindly consented to let him remain at home and attend to the manufacture remain at home and attend to the manufacture of steel, in which he is so much interested, and consequently have assigned his sent in Congress to the able and eloquent Speer, who will do honor to the position and attend diligently to the interests of his constituents. And that noble and sterling Democrat, R. Bruce Petriken, has got out of the Woods handsomely and the State Senate will therefore be honored with his processes and talout for one term at least. These presence and talent for one term at least. These happy results—the election of Speer and Petriken—it affords me no little pleasure to chroni-cle. All honor to the unterrified Democracy and the noble white Republicans who brought Another gratifying fact I have to chronicle is the re-election of R. A. O. Kerr, Esq., to the city council. Mr. Kerr is one of the most energetic and faithful men that ever served the people in any capacity, and his election is doubly gratifying when the fact is taken into consideration that the most desperate and ma-lignant means were used to defeat him. A cer-tain disciple of Esculapius, in language more forcible than chaste, swore that Mr. Kerrabanid forcible than chaste, swore that Mr. Kur abould never be in the city council again and that he had fifty mer from Limerick who would vote at his bidding to keep him out. He also alleged that "Charley," his right bower, had under his centrol "the colored troops" who "fought bravely," and that they would vote solid against Mr. Kerr. Never did men Work more zeslously in a bad cause. According to their reckon-ing they had Kerr defeated by at least fifty ing they had Kerr defeated by at least litty votes, and they were so much intoxicated with their supposed success or something else, that they paraded the streets singing "halleiulahs" over the presumed defeat of Mr. Kerr. But, behold, when the ballots were counted the man they labored so hard to beat had 97 of a majority-the largest ever given to any man in that ward-and his opponents were of course completely dumbfounded. The Democrats should raise a fund to purchase a jewsharp apiece for the gentlemen who labored so carnestly to bring about Mr. Kerr's defeat. They certainly deserve some such recognition of their valuable services, for had they not opposed his election the probabilities are that his majority would not have been so overwhelming.

Too much praise cannot be given to S. M.
Woodkok. Esq., for the admirable and efficient manner in which he conducted the campaign as Chairman of the Democratic County Commit-tee. He worked incessantly from the begin-ning to the close of the canvass, and gave liber-ally of his time and means to aid the good The most able and eloquent champion of the temperance cause in the United States is Edward Carswell, who is announced to lecture on that subject in City Hall on Sunday night next. The churches are all to be closed on the occa-sion, in order to afford the members thereof an opportunity to hear this gifted orator. This lecture will undoubtelly be a rare intellectual treat, as well as a most satisfactory effort in behalf of temperance, and no one who can do so should fail to be present. T. I. M.

I have done my duty, and can now only advise you to deal sparingly with your husband's cash, when you get him, and the way to do that is to buy everything you need, whether it be required to furnish your house, supply your table, or clothe your own parson or that of your husband, at the chean > other establishment I know of. The Influence of Heat .- The post Cowper sets down a cheerful fire as a direct means of grace. Miss Muloch, in her exquisite homenovel, "John Halifax, Gentleman," says John's leading luxury was a "generous and ample fire." In this penchant no doubt all our readers share, but in order to enjoy the luxury of a glowing fire on a cold day it is necessary to have good stoves, and nowhere can a better assortment be found than at the mammoth hardware, stove and tinware emporium of George Huntley, who takes a special pride in furnishing the best articles of all kind in his line at the lower cosh water.

There is no doubt about getting the best flour from Mills, for he deals exclusively in first class brands and warrants all he sells. Buy your flour and feed from Mills

> The Right Man .- The man who can make his own fire, black his own boots, carry his own coal, hoe his own garden, subscribe for his own paper, and pay his own debts, is just the kind of a man that C.T. Roberts would like to have call around at his clock, watch and jewelry store and buy a sewing machine for his wife or some other beautiful and useful article, of which Cham, has an endless variety. To such men the very best of bargains will be given by Cham, on all occasions.

That's So.—Vallie Barker has as fine an assortment of goods of all kinds and qualities as can be found anywhere, and has as earnest a desire to sell cheap as any man in the business. So if people will put that and that together, and then go and see if it is not true in every particular, we feel that they will not be disappointed in their purchases or dissatisfied with the price of any article kept for sale by Vallie.

A New Gold Mine.—A new gold mine was lately discovered by a gentleman of this place. He says gold can be found by dealing with Leopold & Brother, Clothiers, Johnstown, No. 241 Main street, where any man can make five dollars as good as gold by purchasing about thirty dollars' worth of their made-up clothing. A wise man said that a penny saved is as good as a penny earned. Then save your money by purchasing clothing where it is cheap, fashionable and durable.

Chinese Labor.-James J. Murphy No. 109 linton street, Johnstown, is opposed to Chi-ese cheap labor, on principle as well as because e has no garments to suit their Eastern fash-ons. But he has made up clothing of all other ossible, probable or established fashions and astes. He has just received thirty trucks full of the best and choicest made-up clothing, which he will seil at a very small profit. Mr. Murphy is an experienced clothier, and is strictly honest in all his dealings. Give him a chance!

Dye Stuffs.—C. T. Frazer has laid in a large supply of dye stuffs suitable for the season and a prepared to sell them cheaper than ever at Frazer's cheap corner, Johnstown. Mr. Frazer keeps on hand all kinds of oils, paints, drugs, medicines, perfumery, and patent medicines of the purest and best quality. Being an old drug-gist, with great judgment and a large experience, he can purchase to advantage and sell as cheap as any other man. Give Mr. Frazer a Fits! Fits!—M. H. Mayer, the great clothing merchant, No. 214 Opera House, Johnstown, Pa., has the nack of fitting everybody that comes to his store, man or boy. He is one of the best men in town to give people the fits, and such fits that do not hurt anywhere only on the back, and they set on there so neat that even that doesn't hurt. So, kind reader, go and get fitted with good, well-sewed, durable clothing, very cheap and fashionable.

Oil! Oil!-The oil regions of Pennsylvania have received for oil, since 1800, one hundred and thirty millions of dollars, and Leopold Meyer, New York dry goods merchant, No. 212 Opera House, Main street, Johnstown, has sold a large quantity of dry goods, dress goods, bon-nets, bats, ribbons, and notions, since 1866.— Many dollars' worth of goods are daily carried from his store, and yet he always has plenty Whistling.—The boy in school said he didn't whistle—it whistled itself. N. F. Carroll, the dry goods merchant and grocer. No. 215 Main street, Johnstown, does not sell goods—they sell themselves. The goods are of such a superior quality that they do not need any recommendation. Mr. Carroll has just received a new lot of the best and most fashionable goods in the market. Also fresh groceries, and lots of tot or the best and most fashionable goods in the market. Also fresh groceries, and lots of

Who Stole the Ham?—John J. Murphy, who keepsa Dry Goods Store in the old Man-sion House, Johnstown, observed a man passng out of his store with a large bundle under his arm, neatly wrapped up in a newspaper.
He was informed by his clerks that a gentleman from Indiana county had bought and paid for forty dollars worth of dry goods, dress goods and fancy goods. That's Murphy for you!

Don't Drink.—Our advice to young men is, don't drink, but take your money to L. Cohen & Brother's Cheap Hat Parlor and spend it for a nice hat, a nice umbrella, a nice neck-tie, a nice cap, or nice furnishing goods. Everybody will like your the better for it. In fact you will like yourself better when you are well dressed. A nice hat will make the very beard grow. Try it! No. 227 Main street.
