JCHASTOWN, Nov. 21, 1876. DEAR FREEMAN-The Borough of Millville, which is a very young place, has always been forward with an energetic Board of School Directors. But a few years ago that borough had only two schools. These were soon increased to three, then to four, then to five, then to six, then to seven, and lately to nine schools. To keep up with this increase of population taxed the energies of the School pirectors to the utmost, and within the time mentioned they have built thirty-six thousand. Of course there must be a new appointment dollars' worth of school houses, and they have now twelve of the best school rooms in the county, if not in the State. The names of the present school board are A. M. Gregg, Evan G. Lewis, Patrick Hogan, Peter McDermott. John Fudge and Christian Brixner. On last Thursday County Superintendent T. J. Chapman held an examination of teachers in Room No. 4 of the Cinder street Union school building. About twenty-five teachers were present. and after a tedious and thorough examination the following selections were made by the di-

The other three rooms, one of which is a large Audience or Exhibition room, are not occupied at present, but will be before another year. The term is six months, commencing next Monday. There are at least six hundred children for the nine rooms. The Directors have done their best in making a judicious selection of teachers. Let the teachers emulate result. their example and make the schools what they

A little "unpleasantness" has arisen here about an anonymous article that appeared in the Presbyterian Banner about some of our most worthy and respectable citizens, which the Tribune thoughtlessly charges upon Ebensburg. The article was evidently written in Johnstown and is so full of the old Know Nothing feeling as a dog is full of fleas. It is old Connecticut blue law perscription. A man dare not own a fine horse—he dare not build or dedicate a church—he dare not take a drink—he dare not send to a select school—he dare not own or go to a theatre,—he must bake his buck wheat cakes on Saturday night, as donly just warm them on Sunday morning. SEMMERHILL TWP., Nov. 21, 1870. FRIEND MAC-The typhoid fever still prevails in this locality, and notwithstanding the approach of winter, the disease is spreading rather than diminishing.

The reaper Death has been unusually busy in this section for the past few months, and among his victims are several aged and respected citizens. Besides those already noticed by me in previous letters, I note the following: Mrs. Rockett, who gied on the 6th instant and whose death I intended to notice at length, had it not been so we'l and truthfally done by "M." in your last issue. Mrs. Feeney, motherin law of Mr. John Schroth, a respected resident of Wilmore, departed this life on last Monday evening, after a painful illness of several week's duration. The deceased was a convert to the Catholic faith and had the great | them-doing business with them weekly-and appiness of dying in full communion with the church of her adoption. Biessed are the dead who die in the Lord. Mr. Austin Thompson. one of the early pieneers of this county, died of typhoid fever at his residence in Wilmore, on Wednesday evening, 17th inst. As the deceased was well known throughout the county, an extended notice would be superfluous. His remains were escorted, on Friday, to Hollidaysburg by a delegation of the L.O. of O. F. where they were interred with the ceremonies peculiar to that organization. Mr. Daniel O'Skelly and Mrs. Itel, Sr., both of Washington township, are on the point of companion, to take it for 1871. T. S. CARRELLTOWN, Nov. 21, 1870. Dear Freeman-Last week Mr. John Lantzy and Mr. Hiram Fritz took their departure hence to the forests of McKean county in pursuit of game. They are both good hunters and good marksmen, and no doubt they will be successful in capturing a sufficiency of large game to warrant their somewhat extended hunting tour (as proposed) of three weeks. A new post office has been established at St. Nicholas, called "Nicktown," but through some mistake our clever post-master, Sheriff Buck, was appointed as P. M. at Nicktown, before the office can go into operation.

[COMMUNICATED.] Laying of the Corner Stone of the new Catholic Church at Hazlewood,

23d Ward, Pittsburgh. DEAR FREEMAN-Sunday, Nov. 13th, was a glad day for Hazlewood, for en that occasion we were called upon to witness the laying of the corner-stone of a new church to be erected to the honor of God under the patronage of St. Stephen. It was a happy day for the Catholics in and around Haziewood, and it was a thrice happy one for the worthy pastor, Father Ward, who inbored zealously for that much desired

The preceding week a special train was engaged to convey from the city persons wishing to attend the ceremonies, as well as those from intermediate points, to the place by 3 o'clock p. m. Shortly after the arrival of the train an innumerable number, composed not only of Cath-olies, but of all classes and of all religious denominations, assembled to witness the ceremony of laying the corner stone. At the time appointed for the ceremonies to commence, a procession was formed by the students and clorgy of St. Michael's Seminary, at a public school house near the site for the new church, and proceeded to a platform which had been erected, and from which the hight Rev. Bishop teresting and satisfactors. The corner stone is a large block of gray granite with eight or nine inches square of the centre chiseled out, ticles, such as coins, documents, etc., copies of the Pittsburgh daily and weekly papers, and also a copy of your welcome journal. After this the hishop took a trowel, and made the sign of the cross on each corner of the stone, and with the assistance of the clergy present, the stone was laid, after which the Bishop gave his benediction to the multitude. The proces-sion being formed again, the hymn "Der Grosser Goit Wit Coben Dich," was sung with beautiful effect by the students, proceeding to the public school house. It is supposed that the church school house. It is supposed that the church will be ready for occupancy in about one year. The members of this firm seem fully to understand their business, and, they sell low, believing in great sales and small profits. Indeed we wonder how they can sell so cheap.—Give them a call that will pay.
