The District Court Abolished.

On yesterday week Gov. Geary vetoed the bill known as the Supplement to the act establishing the District Court of Cambria county. The Veto Message will be found below.

Letter from California.

From a private letter received more than a week ago from a Cambria county friend and a brother type—one of our earliest pupils—we take the liberty of making the following excerpts, believing they will prove not without interest to many readers.

My Dear Henry— I have had a nice little combat with the typhoid fever, which, by the way, came unaccountably near coming out "first best." In fact, I was given up by my physician as "gone in a comma."

THE HEROIC ENGINEER.—David Simmons was the engineer of the Pacific express train. He was a true man. For twenty years he held a place on an engine. Years ago, while dashing past Yukers, Simmons called the attention of fireman to a train that was sweeping down upon them like the wind.

THE DEATH OF GEN. MAGRUDER.—Gen. John B. Magruder died in Houston, Texas, on Sunday forenoon. He was born in Virginia, and on July 1, 1826, was appointed a cadet at West Point from that State.

FORTY DAYS FAST.—The bishops of the various Catholic dioceses have issued pastoral instructions for the penitential observance of the holy season of Lent.

Information Wanted.—A young man named William Thompson, late of Wales, suddenly became insane and left his home in August, 1870.

A REMARKABLE MIRACLE.

We clip the following from a recent number of the Philadelphia Inquirer: A really wonderful incident has lately occurred at Soriano, in Calabria, or to speak more correctly, it occurred some little time ago, and has only just been made public.
