ROSADALIS

THE GREAT AMERICAN HEALTH RESTORER purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women, and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens.

Read the testimony of physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book, or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says:

I take pleasure in recommending your ROSADALIS as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of Scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of Scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleanser of the blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. M. Fadden, Murfreesboro', Tenn., says: I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benj. Bechtel, of Lima, O., writes: I have suffered for 20 years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body. A short time since I bought a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

Rosadalis is sold by LEMMON & MURRAY, Ebensburg, and Druggists generally. Laboratory, 61 Exchange Place, Baltimore. CLEMENTS & CO., Proprietors

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY

Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS

Hundreds of Thousands

Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE

FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

$100 will be given for an incurable case, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

Not Pleasant for Pleasonton.

Don Piatt gives the following scene in Washington life, which explains itself:

The other day General Pleasanton, a delicate, sensitive little gentleman, was dressing for dinner. He had divested himself of every garment except the one spoken of by Hood in that melancholy song called "The Song of the Shirt." He was sailing about under bare poles, when he heard a knock at the door, and supposing it to be his man, who ought to have been there, and was not—he sang out, "Come in!" To his utter consternation that constitutional female known as Mrs. Woodhull, with a peaked hat and a man's overcoat, terminating in unmistakable crinoline, stalked in. As she did not immediately stalk out, but stood looking at the Commissioner of Internal Revenue in the abstract, the last named gentleman, hiding behind an armchair, stuttered out, "Excuse me, madam!"

"I want to see you on business, General Pleasanton."

"Well, madam, won't you be so good as to come to my office? I am not in a condition to see any one on business just now, and I beg of you to desist and come to the Bureau."

"I don't care anything about your condition, General Pleasanton; but it is a matter of some importance that I wish to see you upon, and this is as good an opportunity as any."

"My God! madam," exclaimed the agonized Commissioner, shifting his leg and his person from one leg to the other, "won't you permit me to dress for dinner?"

"I have no objection to your dressing for dinner, but what I want to know is, what are you going to do about this Vanderbilt case? That Vanderbilt case is a great outrage, sir, and I can see that somebody is to be swindled out of half a million of dollars," and here followed a statement of the Vanderbilt case, that occupied just twenty minutes by the clock, and was very forcible and emphatic. At the end of it, when the strong minded constitutional Woodhull paused for breath, the Commissioner said:

"I don't know anything about the Vanderbilt case, madam. I have not looked at a single paper. I have not heard anything but what you have told me. I have not had time. My God, I don't get time to put on my breeches. I don't want to be rude, but I wish you would go away and let me dress."

At this moment a knock was heard at the door, and Pleasanton yelled louder than ever he gave command to a battalion, "Come in." The door opened, and the substantial figure and handsome face of our Commodore Aiden appeared upon the entrance. So soon as he did this, the Commissioner chassezed from the rear of his arm chair to the back of a sofa, and Aiden thinking that he was intruding upon some tender scene between the General and the female, beat a hasty retreat. But the commissioner was not to be forsaken, and he ran to the door, jerked it open, and with the tail end of his dress flying in the wind, seized Commodore Aiden, and brought him back, when the cool and courageous Woodhull rose in a majestic manner, and wished them a good day. Pleasanton sank exhausted into a chair, and begged Aiden for a little brandy, to try and rally from this tremendous attack of woman's rights made upon him.

"With the brief garment of a weak defence
He stood appalled."

A HEROINE'S INTREPIDITY.—On Tuesday night fire was discovered in the four-story building, 183 Fulton street, Brooklyn, the lower part of which was occupied as a fur store by Mr. Julius Weinberg, and the upper part as a dwelling. Mrs. Weinberg was the only person in the store, and the moment the flames burst forth she rang the bell for the servant, Jane Ann Dunne, who was up stairs with four children and Louis Eckstein, a teacher. The flames leaped to the upper part of the building, the only means of escape from which was by a narrow staircase leading to the store. The maid servant, on discovering the fire, seized the two youngest children, and calling upon the other two to follow her, dashed down the stairs to the store. All the children were saved, but the old teacher was very feeble and unable to reach the store. He reached the second story, and there the flames cutting him off, he shouted for assistance. The brave servant, hearing his cries, ran from the store and unmindful of danger, ascended to the second story, where she found the old man, almost suffocated, groping his way toward the staircase. She ran to him, and endeavored to lead him down, but at the head of the stairs which she had but a moment previously ascended the flames fiercely forbade escape. Even then her presence of mind did not forsake her. The heroine took the old man in her arms, and staggered through the dense smoke to the top floor, where Eckstein fainted. Not a moment was to be lost. The brave girl saw that the only avenue of escape was through the scuttle. She was unable to take the old man up the ladder, and to save her own life she left him to his fate, and escaped through the scuttle to the roof. She then called to the firemen below, who ascended their ladder to the fourth story, but the volume of flame and smoke was so dense that they were unable to enter the apartment wherein the old man was lying. The fire having been extinguished they entered the the room and found poor Eckstein at the foot of the ladder, where he had fallen and been burned to a crisp. The remains were conveyed to the York street police station.—N. Y. Sun.

A HEAVY FAMILY.—The Scientific American office was recently visited by an individual who is thus described: His name is Colonel Ruth Goshen, and he resides at present at Algonquin, Ill. He is a native of Turkey, in Asia, and was born among the hills of Palestine. He is the fifteenth, and last child (the baby) of a family of fifteen—ten sons and five daughters—sired by a patriarch now 90 years old living in the valley of Damascus, and by occupation a planter. This venerable sire weighs at the present time, 520 pounds averdupois, and his wife, aged 67, weighs 560 pounds. The entire family are living, and not one of them weighs less than 500 pounds. The oldest son weighs 630 pounds, and the youngest, our client, outstripping them all, weighs 650 pounds. Not one of the family is less than seven feet in height, and the colonel is a stripling of only seven feet eight inches in his stockings. He is not an unduly fat man, is merely what would be called moderately portly, and is thirty-three years old. His rank of colonel was given him in the Austrian army.

CURE FOR CANCER.—A Spanish woman recommends the following as a sure cure for cancer: Take an egg and break, pour out the white, retaining the yoke in shell, put in salt and mix with the yoke as long as it will receive it; put a portion of this on to piece of sticking plaster and apply it to the cancer about twice a day.

POPE PIUS IX. has appointed St. Joseph, at the suggestion of all Catholic bishops, the patron saint of the Catholic Church, and the festival of this Saint, which falls on the 19th of March, a festival of the first rank.
