An election for Gavernor, three Congress- can party calls itself the protective tariff party men, and members of the Legislature, was held in New Hampshire on last Tuesday - a Republican from the State of Maine intro eron, 1 The result was an overwhelming democratic duced the bill now before the House to assail victory. The democratic candidate (Wes ton) defeated his radical opponent (Pike) by a handsome majority, which has not heretofore occurred since 1854. All the three democratic candidates for Congress were elected, thus displacing the present three radical members from that State. THERE has been a great deal said in the democratic and republican press in this State, as well as in all the other States, about the removal of Charles Summer, by the radical caucus of the U.S. Senate, from his posi tion as Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations of that body, and the substitution of Simon Cameron in Mr. Summer's place. The heart of every Democrat and of every Conservative citizen of the United States is made glad by the glorious news from the 1855 the Democracy have succeeded in electing their candidate for Governor of New Haurbshire.

But the victory does not stop there. We have swept the State, defeating all three of the Radical candidates for Congress, and clecting in their stead staunch supporters of the great principles of the Domocratic party. Nor is that all. We have secured a mawity in the State Senate and have chosen a large number of the county officers.

the Democratic ticket quietly. This revolution in New Hampshire is full significance. It is calculated to remind affairs in the Democratic party twelve years ago. The corruption of Congress and the stupid folly of the President have disgusted the people of the whole country. When the Old Granite State gives way before the rising tide of public opinion, a political deluge may be expected to follow.

The Democracy have good reason to relice over this great victory. It heralds the coming of a new political era. All that is needed to insure the complete overthrow of Radicalism in 1872 is the exercise of wisdom inexcusable blunder can prevent the election of a Democratic President to succeed the man who has done so much to wreck the party that elected him to a position which
