Cannon boomed from the hills will gather under it, and the pro-perity. hall, which was elegantly decorated with flags and evergreens, wrought into festoons and appropriate mottoes. The "great medicine man," as may well be conceived, was thrive with them. Soon the e channels will in his glory, and gave vent to his feelings in a speech which we feel sure our readers will not find fault with us for publishing in full. On being introduced by the President of the meeting, Dr. Ayer spoke as follows :

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN-On the western coast of Scotland where it slopes into the Irish sea, a river, rising on the mountains of the inner land, winds down among the hills and empties into the Frith or Clyde. From remote time it has been called Ayr from an old Scotch word "Ayry," meaning an engle's nest-the river of the engle's nest. Near its mouth and a contiguous harbor, long stood a hamlet which became a royal burg or town named from the river, and now about one third as large as Lowell-the city of Ayr. For more than a thousand years it has been noted in the history of Scotland. During the wars of Robert Bruce It was one of his resorts, and was especially favored by him because he was there cured of leprosy. Oliver Cromwell made it one of the depots and headquarters of his army in his attack upon Scotland, and one of his old forts is now the Citadel of Ayr.

But above all its distinctions, Ayr was the birth-place of the poet Burns. And what a poet! What a voice has he given to all the endearments of home ! How has he hallowed the cottage and all it covers-weans and wife, patches and poverty beans, barley, ale, hardship and the poor n an's toil. How he wraps with tenderness whatever he names, even his bleak leagues of pasture, the stubbled field, ice, snow, sleet, and rain, brooks. birds, mice, thistles and heather. His Bonny Doon, John Anderson, my Joe John. Auld Lang Syne, and Highland Mary roll round the world in ever ringing symphony with what is purest and best in human nanature. His songs woo and melt the tears of youth and maidens, bring solace to the sorrowing and courage to the overburdened by their lot. His inspiration has set the affections to music in strains that are immortal. No other one man ever made a language classic, but he has rendered that lowland of his home and his beloved tiver Ayr was lifted on the wings of his pathos, and now the approaching traveler yearns to reach the spot his genius has sanctified.

A BOY'S CORPOSITION ON THE GOAT .--A goat is stronger than a pig, and gives milk. He looks at you-so does the doctor-but a goat has four legs. My goat butted Deacon Tillinghast in a bad place, and a little calf wouldn't do so. A boy without a father is an orphan, and if he haint got no mother he is two orphans .---The goat don't give as much milk as a cow, but more than an ox. I saw an ox at a fair one day with a card tied on his left ear, and he went in on a family ticket. Mother picks geese in the summer, and the goat cats grass and jumps on a box. Some folks don't like goats ; but as for me, give me a mule with a paint brush Not a Secret Quach Medicine -tail. The goat is a useful animal, but don't smell as sweet as nice bear's oil for the bair. If I had too much hair I would wear a wig, as old Capt. Peters does. I will sell my goat for $3, and go to the circus to see the elephant, which is bigger Dr. J. J. LAWRENCE. than five goats. Father is coming home to morrow, and the baby has got the croup bad. Along the borders of the sea in parallelogram and surrounding the town is a county of the same name-Ayrshire.

It would weary your patience to hear the history of my ancestors from one ancient John of Ayr, then John Ayr, down through the centuries to this Ayr now before you ; through their vicissitudes of poverty and plenty-of fortune and misfortune; how they have intermarried with England, Ireland and Scotland, and later with the Americans, who are an excellent mixture of them all.

My Friends-You have chosen the name I inherited for your town with an extraordiuary unanimity, and have thereby conferred an honor upon me, the proper acknowledgment of which I do not feel fully able to express. But I beg you to be assured that it is appreciated and that it will be gratefully remembered with a living interest in your prosperity while life remains to me, and, I trust, beyond that by my children after me.

If this name has become noted among the many that are worthier around you, that is greatly due to its publicity. May I be pormitted to state whence that came ? Until within a few conturies all the civilized nations of the globe were peut up on the Eastern continent. Two or three hundred years ago they leaked over into this; few and fearfully at first, then more and more, but always in their settlements timidly hugging the Atlantic coast. Within the last two or three generations, they have burst out, as it were, and overrun these vast continents of the West. Now they are scattered here and possess these measureless stretches of mountains and valleys, hills, plains, forests and prairies, with the boundless pampas and mountain ranges of South America. Formar generations lived in villages and towns, thickly settled together where physicians were plenty and near at hand. Now, the people are widely scattered, in many sections of these many countries. For great unbers the timely treatment of physicians cannot be had; over large tracts of counmy good or competent physicians cannot be had at all. They cannot visit patients surogh many miles spart to live by their prefession, nor can they carry medicine snough with them on horseback for their requirements. Hence has arisen, in these mestern times, a recessity for remedies reasly at hand, with directions for their use-a present recourse for rollet in the exigencies I shakness, when no other and is near. It s a new necessity consequent upon the Sc. hanged conditions of kussan life-a want 1 lowe spent my years in supplying, and] will tell your something of its extent.
