A SOIDIRE'S TRIBUTE TO THE SISTERS CF CHARITY -The following article which we copy from the PRESENTERIAN BANNER of this week needs no comment. It is not properly a place we have concluded to publish it in our

ton. There is no difference of opinion about the payment of the claims referred to, the only question being which should pay them, the general or the State governments. Nor should there be any opposition to the appropriation made by Congress for the rebuilding of the Charleston orphan asylum, destroyed by | who bought a quart of cheap whisky at a low the fortunes of war, and there is none except what emanates from bigots and unprincipled demagogues. But here is the article-read it buttics. Taverns cannot prosper with this and see how an Ebensburg soldier expresses the honest sentiments of a grateful heart .

A correspondent at Ebensburg, Pa., who was Union soldier during the late war, and who is a member in good standing of the Presbyterian Church, writes to us protesting in earnest terms against what he regards as an injustice done to the Sisters of Mercy, at Charleston, S.C., by our "Washington Letter," in the BANNER of the 10th lnst. He agrees with our Washington corres-pondent, however, in regard to the justice of treating Protestants and Catholics alike, whenever their claims are of the same character --The whole subject of compensation for losses occasioned by the war is one upon which there may be, as in the "Border Raid Claims" of our own State, an honest difference of opinion.— After recalling the fact that the congressional appropriation of $12,000 was to restore an asy-lum destroyed during the war, by the loss of which many helpless or phans were deprived of a home, our correspondent, with a grateful feeling that does him honor, thus writes:

"I was a soldier in the late war, and without egotism, I can say that I fought and bled in de-fence of my country. I have been where these augels of imercy have ministered to myself and to hundreds of my stricken comrades. I have seen and experienced in many ways their self-sacrificing charity; and although I am a Prosecretains charty; and arthough I am a Pro-testant, and have no sympathy with their reli-gious faith, I would be untrue to myself and deaf to the promptings of my better nature if I permitted a word of reproach to pass current without entering my solemn protest against it. I have been where to know these good women was to honor and reverence them; and it is but a slight recompense indeed for me to speak a by dwelling house of a man named from good word in their behalf whenever the occa-in Newly, Blair county, was burned to sion demands, or the opportunity offers. And in persuing this course I feel sure that I am but echoing the sentiments of every sick or disabled soldier who had the good fortune to receive soldier who had the good fortune to receive to his dinner, and stepped into the trap with their careful nursings and sisterly attentions in the trying hour of our country's need."

LEG BROKEN-A SERIES OF MISFORTUNES .-The truth of the adage that "misfortunes never come singly," has recently been verified in the case of Mr. John Hines, of Susquehanna township, who had one of his legs badly fractured on Wednesday of last week, while engaged with others in raising a barn for Mr. of Ebensburg, Carrolltown and Loretto, as he Jacob Good, of that township. Johnstown is getting rich after the fashion that Grant pays debt. It is able now to borrow money. It derived its power from the Legislature. The council boasted that the treasurer was redeeming bonds at a rapid rate. Now the denouement is that money must be borrowed to fill up the vacuum created by redeeming the old debt. Perhaps the expense of removal added to the old debt.

BELL'S MILIS AND FALLEN TIMBER RAILnead. - The charter for this road was signed by the Governor on Friday last. The road starts at Bell's Mills, seven miles east of Altoona, and crosses the Allegheny by following the valley of Bell's Run through Bell's Gap to Fallen Timber, in Cambria county, near the Clearfield line. It will open up a very extensive lumber region hitherto inaccessible to The line of procession will form at the market, to say nothing of coal, known to be very abundant, and said to be more convenient ous coal in the State. The distance from Bell's Mills to Fallen Timber is about eighteen miles. But it is intended to extend the road to intersect the Central again at Galli zin, making the whole distance about forty miles. Among the projectors of this enterprise perhaps no man is entitled to more credit than Mr. J. M. Christy of Gallitzin, and next to him, Gen. B. F. Bell of Bell's Mills. They have spent much time and money already, and it is to be hoped that the sinews of railroad building will now be promptly furnished by a iberal sub-cription to the stock, and that all interested may be amply rewarded. The road is to be narrow guage, costing much less to build, equip and operate - Altoona Sun.

> TERRIBIE ACCIDENT -On Friday afternoon last a terrible accident occurred in the Patterson mine bank, belonging to the Blair Iron and Coal Company, near this place, by which a miner named Michael M Graw was perhaps fatally injured. Fire and Life Insurance.—Everybody is directly interested in Insurance. If you own real or personal property it is certainly to your interest to have it insured. You do not know how soon the same may be destroyed by fire, either by accident or the hand of the incendia-You may feel perfectly safe now, but you do not know how soon you may need the assistance of the assurance company; therefore, it behoves you to look well to your own interests. If you have your property insured in a good, reliable company, you need not go begging among your neighbors for lesses incurred by fire; on the contrary you can rest easy and be independent of any such obligations. On the same principle every man should have his life insured for the benefit of his family. No man knows how soon he may be called from life to eternity and leave his family in destitute cir-cumstances; but through good and reliable insurance companies he has the privilege and can easily provide against all such contingencies. the policy of insurance, and then call upon Kerr & Co., 1316 Tenth Avenue, Altoona, Pa., who are agents for all the most reliable Fire and Life Insurance Companies in the United States. A Superb Stock.—We briefly noticed last week that Lemmon & Murray had received their Spring stock of drugs, medicines, sta-tionery, jewelry, fancy goods, etc., and now we would like to repeat the information in a louder voice if possible. Just what their stock consists of we haven't the space to enumerate in full, but what they don't keep in their line wouldn't do anybody much good to buy.— Their display of jewelry is very attractive, and the styles are all new and of the prettiest designs, while the prices are as moderate as such luxuries can be sold anywhere. No one can fail to be pleased with their handsome assortment. A most magnificent wedding ring was bought there the other day, and there are plenty more of the same sort left. When you have fixed on the wedding day don't forget to call on Murray & Lemmon. They have things needful and desirable for such occasions.

How Hor!-Wherever you go, whoever you meet, be it in dwelling in byway or street, you almost invariably find some one to greet you with the remark that excites no special wonder; for people you know will have their say, especially when uncomfortably hot is the day and the usual remark is "ain't it hot as thunder?" Of course you concur in the remark that they make, and if you're a sensible person at once you betake yourself to V. S. Barker's cheap store, where you'll make no mistake if you seek the best spring goods at prices which

A GIANT HAT .- L. Cohen & Brother have on exhibition at their store, No. 227 Main street. Johnstown, a giant hat of huge dimensions. It casures three inches across the crown, three iches up and down, and three-eighths of an ich at the brim. It wasn't made for T. Thumb, Esq., but if any person needs a good, fashionable summer hat, or a Sunday dress hat, that's the place to get it. He can also purchase a shirt there that has a closed bosom and open shoulders, and that can be adjusted to fit any person or shape. Go in and win.

GLORIOUS.—Glad you are we know that your lot is cast on top of the Alleghenies, when you can enjoy the invigorating breezes and uaff the purest of water from nature's own ountains; and where you can, with the great est case, visit the cheap cash store of A. SINGULAR .- Did you ever think what a striking similarity there is between having plenty of flour in the house and not having any. If you have flour your wife or somebody kneads it-into bread-and if you haven't flour your RANCE COMPANY, of Hartford, Conn., conducts all its business in a most equitable manner, and with a careful regard to the interests of policyholders. Insurance against accidents is comparatively new, but of importance and benefit about good flour as if he kneaded it all himL. & H. MAYER,

NULL-BEARINGER .- Married, at the Catholic church in this place, on Sunday last, by Rev. Father Christy, James Null. Esq., and Miss Lizzie Bearinger, both of Ebensburg. Those little attentions and manifestations of STRIPED AND FIGURED P. K's, love which almost invariably precede "the union of hearts and the union of hands," have not in this case, we are pleased to say, proved null in the general acceptation of that term. On the contrary, Null has annulled all those ties which bound him to the dreary waste of bachelor life, and by entering into a contract which death alone should render null, has annulled the maiden name and made Null the matronly name of her who has insisted to his plicated. name of her who has trusted to his plighted faith and is now happy in the realization of her brightest anticipations of wedded felicity. Well, we can only wish them a long career of unalloyed bliss in this world and the brightest diadems of glory in the next. May their love for each other render mill and void the rude buffetings of this life, and may she in sharing his Joys and bearing her little responsibilities only add to the blessings which we hope will
