from the perusal, like the offspring of the novelist's brain. The following remarkable engagement of marriage with a young man | store, to whom her mother did not wish to see her allied. The mother had long been upon her bod confined with illness, through which Bunn, Dealer in Drugs, Medicines, filial devotion. On learning the fact of the the "Mansion House," Ebensburg, Pa. unshaken resolution of this daughter, the October 17, 1867.-6m. mother sprang from her bed, and, clutching her child by the throat, told her she could not leave the room alive; that she would | VV . mother always kept within her reach a six. require medical aid. barreled revolver, passively resigned herself a victim. She was taken to an upper room and made a close prisoner. One midnight, when, after hours of suffering, she had fallen into a troubled sleep, she was waked by her mother entering the room, and ordered to get up and dress herself. A carriage Nas at the door, and with her father and another man, she was taken out, and soon found herself moving away to the sound of a hotel in New York. It seems that a plan to put her on board a steamer sailing to Europe did not succeed, and her experience was to find herself in the cars on her way back to Philadelphia. Hers again, she was locked up for a day or two. Again, at the midnight hour, she was taken from her bed, conducted to New York, and now put on board a steamer with no explanation what. ever as to what was to be her fate or destination. She imagined she was to be taken to Boston, and it was not until she found out upon the ocean that she could have learned the fact that she was on her way to Europe It is left to conjecture as to what may be the fate of this young lady. A VERMONT MAN'S WONDERFUL CLOCK. -Mr. R. D. Munson, and old resident of Williston, Vt., has just completed a wonderful musical calander clock, which has attracted visitors from far and near. It is, in every detail, his handiwork, the old farmer having spent, his spare hours in working upon it for the past eight years. He has produced. an eight day clock, whose dial marks the the second, minute, hour, day of the week, day of the month, and year; a thermometer rests against its pendulum, giving the state of temperature; the ball of the pendulum contains a miniature time piece, which derives its motive power solely from its vibration, and keeps accurite time. There is also a cylinder musical attachment, which may be set to play and one of seven tunes at the end of each hour. In this last feature it can be so adjusted-and such was the intention of the maker-as to play, "Old Hundred" at the end of each hour on Sunday, and "O'd Folks at Home," "Swiss Waltz," "Star Spangled Banner," "Hail Columbia," "Yankee Doodle," Sweet Home, "respectively on each successive day of the week. The entire mechanism is placed in a black walnut case, which measures ten feet high, twenty inches wide and ten inches deep .-The case is highly polished and its front hears the inscription in raised letters, "Our Union forever, U. S." Mr. Munson who is sixty- two years old and quite feeble feels proud of what he has accomplished .- Boston

A REMARKABLE DREAM VERIFIED.—The Louisville Commercial of the 4th says: Yesterday a gentleman of the highest character, a minister of the gospel, related to us the following remarkable facts, which were furnished him by Rev. I. N. Thompson, a well known Methodist minister of Southern Indiana, and formerly presiding elder of the Mitchell district. One of Mr. Thompson's parishioners had a very singular dream, which ran about as follows, as he related it to his family the next morning : He dreamed that in walking through one of his pasture fields he came upon a certain tree, near the path he was following, and which had Lloyd's new building, one door north of Coloan opening, from rot, on one side. Near the foot of this tree, coiled alongside the path, he saw in his dream a large, yellow rattlesnake, and this snake, his dream told him, had bitten him and killed him. After relating his dream to his family next morning. he concluded to go the pasture, and there, beside the path at the fact of the half-rotted Seizing a small limb from a tree lying near, curefully. WORDS AND THEM USES.

BY A MYSTIFIED QUAKER. NEW YORK, 4th Month, 10th, '71. RESPECTED WIFE :- From these few lines my whereabouts thee'll learn-Moreover, I impart to thee my serious concern! The language of this people is a riddle unto And words with them are figments of a wreckless mockery!

For instance: as I left the cars, an imp with smutty face, Said "Shine?" "Nay, I'll not shine," I said, "except with inward grace." "Is inward grace a liquid or a paste ?" asked the young Turk ; "Hi Daddy! what is 'inward grace'?' How does the old thing work '

"Friend," said I to Johu, whose breath suggested gin, 'Can thee conduct me straightway to a reputable inn ?" His answer's gross irrelevance, I shall not soon forget-

Instead of simply yea or nay, he gruffly said "You bet! "Nay, nay, I shall not bet, " said I, "for that would be a sin--Why don't thee answer plainly : Can thee take me to an inn ? Thy vehicle is doubtless made to carry folks about in--

"Now yer shoutin' !" "Nay, verily. I shouted not," quoth I, "my speech is mild; But thine-I grieve to say it--with falsehood is defiled. Thee ought to be admonished to rid thy heart of guile." "See here! my lively moke," said he, you sling on too much style." "I've had these plain drab garments twenty years or more," said I, "And when thee says I sling on style, thee tells a wilful lie!" At that he danced around as if a bee were in his bonnet. And with hostile demonstrations inquired if I was "on it ?"

"On what? Till thee explains thyself I cannot tell," I said. He swore that something was "too thin," moreover it was "played !" But all this jargon was surpassed in wild absurdity, By threats, profanely emphasized, to "put a
